SERVING YHWH THE ELOHIM OF ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Messianic ministry, promoting Scripture (the Word/Oracles of Father YHWH) for study and understanding.

We are watchmen (Natsarim, Acts 24:5, Jer. 31:6), and consider all believers to be on the path to redemption through repentance, immersion, and obedience to the re-newed Covenant through the work of Rabbi Yahushua ha Mashiach, the Maker of Heaven and Earth.

We do not judge or separate people into denominations (even if they do), but steadfastly press on toward the perfecting of the saints.

Our goal, and the goal of all Scripture, is love. We teach the 10 Commandments as the Covenant of Love which they are called.

Our mission is to seek out the lost sheep of the House of Israel dispersed among the Gentiles, who are called and chosen to receive a love for the Truth. We hope this is your objective also, and that we can work together often to accomplish it as we are enabled to by the Spirit of Yahushua, our soon-coming King and Redeemer.

Messianic groups come in every shape and size, and vary greatly regarding beliefs. Scripture makes it clear that in Mashiach there is no distinction between Yahudi and Gentile, but those who live and think "in the flesh" make these distinctions all time. When a leader of a group imposes his/her personal understandings on those in the group, as most do, exclusionary behavior is the result. The BODY (or group) is the mouthpiece through which the Voice of Yahushua speaks to us -- where ever 2 or more are gathered, He speaks to those present THROUGH the assembly. 1 Cor. 14:26 indicates that we all have to have a voice at addressing the assembly. In attending any Messianic group, be discerning of the good things you find, leaving the errors. The "lost" sheep of the House of Israel are not properly understood by most Messianic groups yet -- they tend to shun any reference to ideas that there are others who are not of the specific tribe of Yahudah that are called. But, even a former Pagan who has no bloodlines to Abraham can be gathered by the Spirit of Yahushua, and they must be accepted as a natively born among the people of YHWH. We are His "benai shalom", children of peace. If anyone enters into the Covenant (by immersion), they become like Ruth or Rehab and are joined to Israel; their former "self" is no longer living -- they are a NEW creation in Yahushua. When you sense this change within yourself, He is preparing you for the work you are to go and do. I'm only here to serve the Body in the role of a messenger of awakening -- I'm blowing a shofar making people uncomfortable in their slumbering. The Body that is awaken-

WHAT IS THIS BOOK ABOUT?

This book is intended to address the unanswered questions that lurk in the back of many people's minds. It exposes the lies, and reveals the truth. The origins of popular customs have been a life-long study of mine, and revealing them in a way that makes sense to others in a way that makes sense is my main goal with this effort. To most, the information presented here will be new and shocking. Please realize that anything in this study can be easily verified, and I encourage you to do some research on your own — in this way, you will have verified, and I encourage you to do some research

HYPOTHESIS:

Due to compromise, syncretism, ignorance, confusion, and the intentional deceit of humanity by fallen spatial beings, mythological Pagan designs were assimilated into the lives of most every person on Earth. Unwittingly, humanity has embraced ancient Babylonian customs rooted in sun worship. The customs were re-invented so as to have different meanings, yet behind them remain the cunning ruses of an ancient spatial being, who seeks to be worshipped by means of trickery, perpetrated upon everyone alive. There is so much Paganism active in cultures today, there can be no doubt that it was deceitfully placed into our traditions, then through fraud and disguise, obscured with new meanings. This camouflaged Paganism pollutes and rots the spiritual condition of all mankind, yet a little flock has always held on to the true faith delivered to those set apart. Here in the last days, the final message is now going out to the ends of the Earth. This book is written from the perspective that there is a Creator, as well as a spiritual enemy loose on Earth; and that the Scriptures of the Hebrew prophets are all true.

Hopefully, this book will lift some of humanity out of the dense fog of history, and awaken people who are dreaming, as they walk into a new dawn of living — with an eternal perspective. Love, the most powerful force in the universe, will save your life.

WRITTEN FROM A MESSIANIC PERSPECTIVE

A Restoration of Our Israelite Roots

Engraving into Israel

"Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed times. And a turtle dove, and a swallow, and a thrush observe the time of their coming — but My people do not know the ordinance of YHWH."

- Jeremiah (Yerme Yahu) 8:7. (The people had stopped observing the appointed times (moedim), and had begun to observe the festivals of the Gentiles — read chapters 7—10 of Yerme Yahu).

"Seek YHWH, all you humble of the land, you who do what He commands. Seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you will be sheltered on the day of YHWH's anger."

Zephaniah (Zefan Yah) 2:3.

"I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put My Spirit in you, and move you to follow My decrees and be careful to keep My Laws."

- Ezek. 36:26,27.

“He who answers before listening ~ that is his folly and his shame.” Prov. 18:13.

In this book, you will discover the true origins of many cherished customs. They come from Babylonian sun worship, cleverly “inculturated” into Christianity over many centuries of darkness.

THE NIMROD TREE:
Wreaths, branches, boughs, and trees had been used by Pagans as emblems of Nimrod, used to decorate during the winter solstice, thought of as the “re-birth” of the sun. In their mythology, Nimrod had died and become the sun, worshipped as Baal (the LORD), Marduk, Mithras, Ahura Mazda, Gott, Aton, and Dagon.

PAGAN CUSTOMS BECAME DISGUISED LONG AGO, AS MESSIANIC BELIEF DEVELOPED AMONG ANCIENT SUN-WORSHIPPING PEOPLES. THE PAGANS WERE ABSORBED, ALONG WITH THEIR RELIGIOUS MANNERS, A BLEND OF THE TRUTH MIXED WITH ABOMINATIONS OCCURRED. PAGAN CELEBRATIONS WERE ‘ADOPTED’ TO REPLACE THE SCRIPTURAL OBSERVANCES. WITH EYES WIDE SHUT, BILLIONS ENTRUST THEIR ETERNITY TO MEN WHO EXPLOIT THEM, MASQUERADING AS MESSENGERS OF LIGHT.

This book is dedicated to Rabbi O W Y R, ha Mashiach of Nazareth, our High Priest, Sovereign Ruler, and Image of the Invisible Elohim; the Maker of heaven and Earth. Also to the goal of helping as many as possible be enabled to understand the message of the Kingdom, so they will be spared the awesome catastrophe ahead.

“Repent, for the Reign of Heaven draws near!”

IN THIS BOOK, YOU WILL DISCOVER THE TRUE ORIGINS OF MANY Cherished customs. They COme FROM BABYLONIAN SUN WORSHIP, CLEVERLY “INCULTURATED” INTO CHRISTianity OVER Many CENTURIES Of DARKNESS.

THE FIRST THING that will go through your mind when you see the fire consume people around you will be something like, "why didn't I do more to reach them with the Truth, so this may not have happened to them?" (See 2Pet.3:7, Zech. 14, Mt. 3:12).

This is what YHWH Shabbath says: "In those days, ten men from all languages and nations will take firm hold of one Yahudi by the hem* of his robe and say, 'Let us go with you, because we have heard that Elohim is with you.'" Zec. 8:23

"Brothers, children of Abraham, and you Elohim-fearing Gentiles, it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent." Acts 13:26

(The word "GOD" was used by translators in place of the Hebrew word "Elohim", meaning mighty one.) In this book, you will discover what other changes were made.

PROLOGUE

At first glance, the title and what it suggests might enrage the average person. By reading a little, you will begin to understand the Truth — that what we see in the traditions practiced by Christianity were originally pagan designs. We will show how they admit this is so. We will look at the Scriptures to see if this is valid behavior. If you have ever prayed for Truth, or if you are diligently seeking it, you may find this very helpful. We inherited the habits we have from people of long ago, so no one alive is responsible.

"Most people, sometime in their lives, stumble across truth. Most jump up, brush themselves off, and hurry on about their business as if nothing had happened." — Sir Winston Churchill.

To better understand things, this book will restore names and other words to the more accurate "sound" of their originals. Letters, in any language, are symbols for sounds. Over the centuries, translating the Scriptures from Hebrew into Greek, then Latin, German, and English, led to some loss of meaning. This partly explains why people have difficulty understanding what the Scriptures are saying.

The idea of translating is to find the best word in your language that expresses the meaning of the original word. We say "hello", while a Hawaiian uses "aloha" for both "hello" and "good-bye". Similarly, "shalom" is used to say "peace", and is used as a greeting, or to signal departing. Many times an original Hebrew word is transliterated — which means the sounds of the original word are carried over using the letters of the new language. This is commonly done when there is no word in the new language that expresses the same idea. Hebrew is the inspired language.

This is also the way we correctly "sound-off" or pronounce the names of people. Israel's former PM, Benjamin NatanYahu, has a Hebrew name that was properly transliterated in the English language. In his own ears, he can hear his name perfectly pronounced by people of any language! His name also has a meaning, but it would be improper to "translate" his name, or anyone's, just because someone of another language uses it. Your name retains the same sound out of the mouth of people of any language. If you make a friend with someone from Taiwan, they will do their best to pronounce your name as closely as they can to accurately address you as you are accustomed to hearing it. Distortions of people's names have occurred, and we will attempt to restore them to their closest originals in this book. "Noah" was really "Noach", having a "K" sound at the end of it. His son's name, "Shem", means "name". Noach may have named him this as a reminder of the Name of the Creator, which you will discover in this book. The word "Semites" is derived from Shem's descendants, the people who bear the Creator's Name, as referred to at Daniel 9:19. The "SH" sound was lost because Greek has no such sound; so, the more correct word is "Shemites". We inherited little errors here and there. Wouldn't it be great to be able to hear how the Mashiach's Name really sounded? If you can accept it, we will attempt to explain how that can be done.

TRUTH and LIES

Let's imagine you are 1000 feet in the air, standing on the high steel framework of a new skyscraper under construction. You are supported by each of the steel girders below you, and the massive concrete foundation resting on the bedrock of the Earth. Your primary interest at this point is your safety. The girders below must each be riveted well to one another; because if even ONE is just jammed in with no rivets, the whole structure could fall at any moment! Any girder with no rivets is like a lie, because you put your trust in it as if it were the truth. The only way to know if each girder is "true" is to closely examine each one. To appear to be a part of the structure is not enough in itself,

* THIS "HEM" REFERS TO THE TSITSIT, WORN BY YAHUSHUA AND OBSERVANT ISRAELITES - Num. 15, Dt. 22
because you place your trust in every girder below you believing they are “true”. So, this book will shake and inspect some frameworks. If you are on a framework made up of 100% truth, then you are safe. If this book can show you the “girders” that have no rivets, exposing the deceptions as the lies they really are, then you would be wise to re-evaluate remaining where you are.

“For with much wisdom comes much sorrow; the more knowledge, the more grief”
Eccl. 1:18. This effort is to inform you and make you wise, and when you become aware, you will mourn. It would be senseless to defend a building which you knew had girders with no rivets, and it would be extremely hazardous to remain there. In fact, you would warn anyone who even went near it. Why? Because of LOVE. Your concern for others can be even greater than self-preservation. Lies are poison, but Truth is like fire; it tests the purity of metals.

In the writings of Daniel 2, a metal image of a man is used to illustrate the kingdoms of the Earth over time. The purity of the metals and their successive devaluation over time is significant. First, the “head” (beginning) of gold represents the first “kingdom” on Earth, Babylon. It’s man-made, ruled by men. Following is the chest and arms of silver, belly of bronze, legs of iron, and feet composed of a mixture of iron and clay. The “clay” is sometimes thought of as people “ruling” themselves, as we see today in a democracy. Well, that may well be – but also remember that the whole image from head to toe is man’s attempt to rule himself. All of these kingdoms will perish, and man will not rule himself; the whole point is that our Creator is coming to restore the Earth. It is not our task to “fix” man’s kingdom, or fight it, change it, argue about its economics, lack of moral leadership, or any of that. Conquering, overpowering, killing, dividing, controlling – these are not things we do, but they are the things which men ruling themselves do. Lies have become “mixed” into civil government as well as moral government (Church, pulpit), yet trusted in as truth. So, we are “called-out” of the kingdoms of men altogether. If we remain ignorant, we will be found participating in a paradigm (model, process) of traditions that date all the way back to Babylon, the head or beginning. A Rabbi from Nazareth came to deliver the message of the Kingdom: “Repent! For the Reign (Kingdom) of YHWH (Heaven) draws near”. “Repent” means turn back, turn around, or return. The Rabbi was saying “shrub” in His Hebrew tongue, not the Latin word repent. Today, we say “what is your religion?” “Religion” is also Latin; re- means “go back”, start again, return. “Ligare” is the second part, meaning “bind”; related to the word “ligament”, which “binds” our bones together. So, it would appear that even the Latin word “re-ligion” carries the idea that something became unfastened! It was man and his Creator. By tradition, lies have become mixed with truth, and we will uncover, expose, or reveal to you some of the things we inherited from Babylon. They have become “fossilized” in our customs. You may not be able to comprehend everything well because there will be great emotional trauma resulting from what you are about to learn. Just hold on to the knowledge that what we will expose for the lies they are can be completely abandoned – and the Truth will suffer no harm at all. It is important to remain humble, continuing to learn. You can recognize a tree by its fruit. The fruit you should bear (show) is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. This is the character of our Creator, and His children that walk in His teachings – His Commandments of love. They go against no law.

The real reason you have this information is because you have been called-out of the man-made kingdoms. What this book contains is not original, but is based on Scripture and many others’ research work. Truth should be more than just entertaining facts. Ample evidence that the Writings are the Truth has been given by the fact that the Mashiach rose from the dead. He is the first “re-born” from the dead, and will never see death. He is the “first fruits” of a great harvest to come. If He spoke of Adam, Noach, and Mosheh (Moses), Daniel, and the creation of the Universe, then it happened the way the Writings explain it. (“Scripture” comes from the Latin word, scriptum meaning hand-writing).

ETYMOLOGY
Etymology is the study of word origins. The word itself comes from the 2 Greek words, etumo (truth, true) + logos (word). So, it means “true-word”. Being a student of etymology, I am an etymologist. In a way, I seek for the origins of words all the way back to the confusion of tongues at Babel. If the whole world was originally of one language, what was it? Since the Creator had a conversation with Adam and many others before the Flood, all His children spoke His language, rather than Him adapting to theirs. The Creator has been with us all through history, and all the prophets spoke and wrote in His language. Etymology can be used like an archaeological tool. The Hebrew word “emet” means truth, and later became the Greek word “etumo”. Emet is the root of another Hebrew word, “emunah” which means faithfulness, steadfastness, and fidelity. Emunah is most commonly translated to the English word “faith”. “The tsedek (righteous) shall live by his emunah” Hab. 2:4.

THIS BOOK’S PURPOSE is to expose the origins of everyday customs and rituals that have become camouflaged in new meanings. Common activities performed today have passed down through time from archaic Pagan cultures. Pagan rituals which have been dressed-up in “new clothing” will be exposed, so your view of the world will have clarity. All this came about because mythological Pagans, superstition, belief in majik, and ignorance were tolerated over the past 19+ centuries – in order for our political and religious ancestors to maintain control with a minimum of effort. The model for all mankind to live by will be shown to have been abandoned and outlawed. Our modern traditions could have easily been tolerated over the past 19+ centuries – in order for our political and religious ancestors to maintain control with a minimum of effort. The model for all mankind to live by will be shown to have been abandoned and outlawed. Our modern traditions could have easily been based on what is true, but instead pagan syncretisms were used to fuse together error and truth. This overwhelmed our ancestors, so we have inherited profaned patterns. Secret brotherhoods have passed much of this knowledge down through the centuries, never allowing the dead language, meanings of words don’t keep their secrets safe, and because Latin is a dead language, meanings of words don’t change. You will see that the Earth is ruled by Ecclesiastical, Political, and Merchantile. Presently, these are under the control of a fallen spatial being called Satan, and his many masquerading “angels of light”. There is so much pagan design in Christianity that it leaves no doubt that what has been perpetrated on us is of cunning design; but it is still possible to see through it and escape. The book is written in obedience to Ephesians 5:6-11.

“Satan himself masquerades as a messenger of light . . . His servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness…” 2 Cor. 11:14,15

ANTI-LAW TEACHERS vs. dying to sin . . . . . .
The Mashiach could have “fixed their wagon” when He was being beaten to a bloody mess, but He didn’t raise a finger. The political machine is used to “exterminate” whatever threatens the authority of the religious establishment. Reading the Writings by “idly” was banned in 1229 CE, because it would be readily seen that the “system” was off-course. (CE means Christian Era, or Common Era*).

“The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror” – so wrote a prophet called “Isaiah” (really Yesha Yahu) at 28:19. The message: “Repent! For the Reign of YHWH draws near!” While the Torah of the Creator was taught, the vineyard (mankind) was green (growing) and fruitful (peaceful) because the living waters provided life to the soil. The Torah, or Commanded Teachings, produce peace. By removing the living waters, the vineyard becomes “dry”, withers, and the dead branches will be burned up. A “key” of knowledge has been withheld from the people: the Personal Name of the Creator! When the Bridegroom returns, those unaware “virgins” who think they will have a place in the household of YHWH, will be turned away; having had insufficient light to find their way. The “apostles” knew their way, and you can too. It’s narrow, straight, and very easy to follow the path, because it’s written down in the best-selling textbook in the history of the world: Scripture! Men have struggled to corrupt it, ignore it, and trick people out of obeying what it says. The first woman was told by the father of lies, “You shall certainly not die” (for ignoring YHWH’s law). The liar is now leading millions to “just believe”, and disobey the Torah – it’s not even for you! And, it’s working like a dream. WWJD? (What Would J-sus Do) – well, the Rabbi would definitely still obey the Torah; after all, He is the law-giver! (The term “rabbis” means my teacher, and is transliterated 17 times in the Messianic Writings. It was used in fact many more times, because whenever you see the word “teacher” or “master”, the original word was most likely rabbi). If you don’t understand, then you are confused. Learning from drunken men in a stupor who don’t understand merchants (men who fleece the sheep), the message of the Reign of YHWH sounds like “do and do, rule on rule, a little here, a little there”. The message is “sealed” to them, because they have not received a love for the Truth (they have not received a love for the Torah, Wisdom). “For you this whole vision is nothing but words sealed in a scroll” Is. 29:11. “These people come near to Me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. Their worship of me IS MADE UP ONLY OF RULES TAUGHT BY MEN” 29:13. Now, lets find out which parts are “man-made” and not a part of the Eternal Kingdom. “You will not see Me again, until you say, ‘baruch hala bashem”’ Mt. 23:39 / Ps. 118:26. Nazarenes are saying it again.

Doctrines of Demons

THE OBJECTIVE of the enemy of your soul is to keep you from the truth, and waste your time so you’ll die without it. He must distract you, or lead you to think other “smarter” or “educated” men have it all figured, and all you have to do is get dunked, go to a Sun-day assembly, and pay, pay, pay. Arise, shine, for your light has come! The bookstores are filled with books that explain away our confusion. There are even books now that seek to prove that the Author of the Writings is in fact Who they claim it is, using special computer analysis. Names, phrases, etc., are found to be embedded in “harmonics”, where words are built into a secret code, like in cryptography. This proves that the Torah is Supernatural. Soon, you will know more than your preacher about what Scripture teaches.

HOW THEY INVENTED YOUR WORLD:

CAMOUFLAGED PAGANISM “Doctrine” means teaching. It’s a Latin word, related to “document” (written instruction) and “doctor”, meaning “teacher”. We have all been trained or programmed from birth with various traditions, rituals, and customs; all paganism is targeted at children. How we keep track of time is a world-wide type of programming. Here we will look into how we came to be trained to think of and organize time ~ in our days, months, and years.

One of the first things we do when we awake each day is check the time. Originally, the hours of daylight were measured using a sundial, and the shadow of the sun marked off 12 “hours” until it set. The marked hours on the dial pass more quickly in the winter months, and slower in the summer months. The variance in the length of an hour is less important than knowing where you are in time relative to the whole day, so this system worked fine. There was no “daylight-saving-time” trick to gain or lose an hour, as the gaining and losing of an hour is at least as relative to the whole day, so this system worked well. The marked hours on the dial pass more quickly in the winter months, and slower in the summer months.

There was no “daylight-saving-time” trick to gain or lose an hour, as the gaining and losing of an hour is at least as relative to the whole day, so this system worked well. The marked hours on the dial pass more quickly in the winter months, and slower in the summer months.

Each day of the week was originally referred to by a number. The 7th day also had a name: Shabbat, meaning rest. Yes, even Adam and Chuwah, the first man and woman, observed the 7-day week. (There is no one named “Eve” in the Hebrew; this name was embraced to appease pagans because one of the names for their Earth Mother was “Eve”! The name Chuwah is derived from the Hebrew word char, meaning “life” – thus her name means mother of the living. The ending –ah renders it feminine, similar to the ending in Sarah. Sar means prince, or ruler; Sarah means princess). If you check your “calendar”, you will notice the days of the week have been given names. The names were taken from among pagan peoples who honored their deities by calling the days by the names of their idols.

SUN-DAY (day #1)

From Latin, dies Solis, the Day-of-the-Sun. Since Babylon was established, Pagans have worshipped the Sun. Here’s a few of the names they’ve used:

Baal, Shamash, Moloch, Ahura-Mazda, Dagon, Sol, Marduk, Mithras, Krishna, Amon-Ra, Aton, Woden (Oden), Zeus, Deus, and the Druid / Teutonic “God”. You may recall that the Pharaoh and the Caesar (Khazar/Czar) were worshipped as the sun. This began with the first king, Nimrod, discussed later. This pattern of worshipping the sun, moon, planets, and stars permeated the Babylonians, Persians, Chaldeans, Egyptians, Greeks, Romans, Celts, Mayans, Aztecs, and Indians. The governments were the religion. If they were “good” Pagans, at death they would be transported to the skies (Heaven) to live with their deities. This was called Nirvana, Shambala, or Elysian Fields. The Roman Consul/Emperor Constantine I gave us the term Sun-Day, which he also called Sol Invictus Mithras (the day of the unconquerable sun, Mithras). In 321 CE he decreed under the penalty of death that all artisans, merchants, and people of his Empire cease work on the Venerable Day of the Sun, to honor Mithras. This was a Universal Edict, and is still enforced in our western culture with our “blue laws”. (Interestingly, the government phone numbers are printed on blue pages in our US phone books). It was a weekly ritual of sun-worshippers to assemble at dawn on this day to greet the sun at its rising. A great pillar, or sun-ray obelisk was the solar religion’s primitive high place, condemned by Scripture as a “pillar of jealousy” – secretly interpreted as a male fertility symbol. Various tower designs such as steeples, pagodas, turrets, ziggurats, minarets, spires, obelisks, and pyramids have served Pagans well. The Temple did not have a high place, nor do synagogues! These high places would receive the first hallowed rays of dawn. At this point, bells were rung by hand, as in a shaker-grid, and large ones were struck with oak logs swung horizontally. Gongs struck with hammers were especially fun for the Oriental Pagan, but they also used the familiar bell shape too. In the book, The Conquest of Peru, Prescott is an eye-witness to blatant sun-worship:

"The Inca would assemble at dawn eagerly. They watched the coming of the deity, and no sooner did his first yellow rays strike the turrets, than a shout of gratulation broke forth from the assembled multitude, the wild tunes from barbaric instruments swelled louder and louder as his bright orb shone in full splendor on his votaries."

The Romans considered anyone who did not worship the sun to be an atheist and a traitor, since Caesar was the sun enthroned in a man. Religion, politics, and sports were all different facets of the same thing. Sun-Day will be discussed later too.

MON-DAY (day #2)

The Day-of-the-Moon.
To the Romans, luna dies.

The Old English term was monan daeg, as translated from Latin, where mona means moon. Mona Lisa means “moon lily”. We get our word month (moonth) from mona, the 29.5 day orbital cycle, but this 2nd weekday is named what it is because it has been dubbed the moon’s day! The moon was identified with Artemis (Diana), but in some cults the sun and moon were the ‘eyes of heaven’. Artemis is depicted with the crescent moon beneath her feet as if riding in a boat – exactly as you will see Miryam (Mary) in Roman Catholic illustrations. The Astral King, the sun, and his sister the moon, were the dominant figures that shaped the astro-biological mind. The futility of honoring Pagan deities resulted because their foolish hearts were darkened, because they did not honor or give thanks to the Creator, though His invisible attributes are clearly seen.

TUES-DAY (day #3)

Tyr’s Day, “day of Tiu”.
Teutonic Druid-Celtic idol.

Unable to help themselves, the population of the Angles and Saxons were kept under control by various Druid priest cults. Like any other Pagan religion, the population lived in fear and ignorance, while the parasite fed off of them and kept them brain-washed. The Druids still worship the sun at Stonehenge every Summer Solstice.

Tyr, or Tiu, was the Norse deity of war, considered the son of Odin (Woden). The French call this day Mardi (Mar’s Day), after Mars, the Roman’s deity of war! Mardi Gras is the French name meaning “fat Tuesday”, still bearing the name of the Roman deity. This festival falls the day before Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, both to be discussed later.

WEDNES-DAY (day #4)

Well, DUH ~ as expected by now, it’s another Pagan idol’s name! An elder in Iceland couldn’t stand it anymore, and changed the days back to numbers for that island several hundred years ago. By saying it’s “Wednesday” (Woden, Odin), we are declaring it to be Woden’s Day. Considered highly skilled in magic (majik), this Celtic deity was, to the Teutonic Pagan, the husband of Freya, or Frigga. The Romans honored Mercury, a high place, nor do synagogues! These high places would receive the first hallowed rays of dawn. At this point, bells were rung by hand, as in a shaker-grid, and large ones were struck with oak logs swung horizontally. Gongs struck with hammers were especially fun for the Oriental Pagan, but they also used the familiar bell shape too. Well, DUH ~ as expected by now, it’s another Pagan idol’s name! An elder in Iceland couldn’t stand it anymore, and changed the days back to numbers for that island several hundred years ago. By saying it’s “Wednesday” (Woden, Odin), we are declaring it to be Woden’s Day. Considered highly skilled in magic (majik), this Celtic deity was, to the Teutonic Pagan, the husband of Freya, or Frigga. The Romans honored Mercury on this day, calling it Mercuiri dies (Mercury’s Day).

This mid-week evening was highly regarded as a night of majik – the Druids met to hold hands in a circle, chant, enchant, cast spells, and do it while surrounding a burning cross, the symbol of Woden (Odin). Some believe the Celtic crux is a Pagan majik symbol, the Trifolium clover leaf representing Woden, Frigga, and Thor. Other Druid trinities included Esus, Teutates, & Taranus. Anglo-Saxon xenophobia (fear of foreigners) and Druid customs are seen today in the modern Ku Klux Klan. They still call their leaders wizards and use the Celtic term “clan”, a traditional social unit in Scot Land. The word comes from the Greek kuklos, meaning “circle”. A very secretive society, it rose up mainly in the South (US) after the civil war, to reassert “white supremacy” by terroristic methods. The Druids were very nationalistic, so it was difficult for Rome to conquer them. The only way “Christianity” could win them over was to absorb their culture. This is called inculturation. “Syncretisms” — the attempt to reconcile or combine differing beliefs in philosophy or religion by uniting them — mixes of two or more behaviors together, re-inventing the meaning “on the surface”. Is this the real reason some Christians meet together on this night? Catholics have always had a “novena” session on this night. What is this idea we call syncretism?

“Syn” means together, and the Dictionary defines Cretin* (kre't'n) as "a fool; and idiot. [French crétin, idiot, from Swiss French, cretin, CHRISTIAN"]. Sorry, look it up yourself. We will have a look at the word "Christian" as a translation of Mashian (a follower of any generic "messiah"/"mashiach") a bit later. For now, let it be enough to say that the sect which was established by the true Mashiach was called Natsanim. But most hang their hat on one text, or never question a translator's choices. Well, did you know that the word "Christian / Christians" is only used a total of 3 times in all of Scripture, and it is only in the Greek translation? Woden's emblem was the Celtic Crux, a cross with the circle (the sun). No wonder we see so many pictures of crosses with the sun nimbus behind it, and sunsets in Christian art — not to mention the "halos" of yellow around the heads of "Jesus" and the "saints". This will be shown to be a world-wide Pagan influence; Buddha, Krishna, heads of "Jesus" and the "saints". This will be shown to be a world-wide Pagan influence; Buddha, Krishna, Ahura-Mazda, and Jupiter are only a few! (Now called "NAZARENES")

THURS-DAY (day #5)
The Celtic Thor's Day; the deity of thunder and son of Woden and Freya. The same as Taranus, Thor was associated with thunder, the Dutch donder, or Germanic donner (one of Santa's reindeer). The Romans honored Jupiter on this day, which was originally ILUPITAR meaning Jovis-father. "Jove" corresponds to Zeus. The altar of Zeus, used at every Olympic game, is lit by a torch. The altar is shaped like a "T". Thor's emblem was the hammer, secretly interpreted as the letter "T", harkening back to Tammuz (Babylonian Duzu), the son of Nimrod and Semiramis.

FRI-DAY (day #6)
English Frigedaeg, this was Frey Day or Friga Day. Frigga was the wife of Woden. The fertility concept associated with this day is very ancient. The Greeks honored Aphrodite on this day, and the Romans venerated Venus (Astarte). This day was the Egyptian's day of Isis, depicted with the symbol of the fish on her head. The fish symbol pre-dates the Egyptians, coming from the Phoenician/Philistine cult of Dagon (1Kgs. 16:23, 1Sa. 5:2). "Dag" is Hebrew for fish, and the Latin is Pisces. It was chosen by Pagans because a female fish lays hundreds, sometimes thousands, of eggs — a symbol of fertility. The Romans believed Venus (Astarte) came from the sky in a huge egg (not a saucer). We'll go into more detail when we study the Great Mother, Queen of Heaven. Frigga's emblem was also the FISH, hence it is seen today that Roman Catholics inculturated this into avoiding red meat on this day, replacing it with fish: the "fish fry" (even the word "fry" is describing a young fish). The Great Mother (Magna Mater) was universally represented by the fish emblem. The Greek word ichthys (ikhthus) spelled iota (I), chi (X), theta (Θ), upsilon (Υ), sigma (Σ) — spells "ICHTHYS" ("fish"). ΙΧΘΥΣ doesn't mean "Christ", but fish. With considerable craft, the fish has become a Christian symbol, due to a Greek anagram, ΙΧΘΥΣ — spells "CHRISTIAN". Not to worry, it's only a man-made tradition — too bad it just spells "fish". The real "sign" of the Mashiach isn't a crux or a fish, but a "lampstand" (menorah) Rev. 18:2. The Hebrew "menorah" has 7 lamps, and represents His body, the 7 assemblies, through which flows the "living water" (lamp oil, the laws which give light to the world). At Rev. 2:5 he said He would remove their menorah if they didn't repent (stop breaking Commandments). Have you noticed any menorahs in any Christian homes or meeting houses? Soon, you'll learn why — He never threatened to remove any fish.

SATUR-DAY (day #7)
This was the Greco-Roman Day of Saturn. Saturn was the Romans' deity of agriculture, corresponding to the Greeks' deity Cronus. This day was dedicated to Saturnus, as was the big party at the end of the Roman year at the Solstice, Saturnalia. Satur Day was also called Sater Day, and is unmistakably linked to other Greco-Roman mythology. The SATYR, a goat-legged half man with horns and pointed ears, was believed to be a drunken, lecherous demon with an abnormal sexual appetite. The 7th day and the festival of "Saturnalia" was modeled perfectly after the satyr profile; mischievousness, drunkenness, and orgiastic revelry. As you consider the wild week-ends enjoyed today by dating couples and party animals with their "mojo" drives, it's clear nothing has changed.

Here's a big foundational girder with no rivets, installed by Constantine in the Roman year 321 CE. This 7th day, the commemoration of Creation in which we honor the Creator AS the Creator is a...
A WORD ABOUT TIME

Since Creation, just under 6000 years have been completed. Given the distances in light years that we can see into the heavens (outer space), many have fixed the age of the universe at almost 20 billion years. To look at Adam 5 minutes after he was created, they might estimate him to be 20 years old too. The trees with fruit on them were brought into being fully developed, the animals, created the day after the plants, needed the oxygen from the plants, that’s possibly why the animals came second. Relativity has been at work also since the beginning. When YHWH created the quasars and galaxies of stars, He brought their light to shine upon the Earth — that’s what it says. That’s why it’s called super-natural. He created space-time. You just have to keep in mind just how awesome the true Creator is, instead of trying to figure out the whole scheme without factoring Him in.

The real moons and years are based on the signs and seasons, and measured in packages of years called Jubilees (Yob-iel), numbering 50 years each. However, the reprobate Pagan mind interpreted the sun, moon, stars, and changing seasons based on SEX. That’s what is at the root of all Paganism! Plant and animal sex is a created thing, but the fallen state of man caused him to worship it, and established Pagan religion based on its processes, as we will see. All of history was recorded by the "winners" — usually the tyrants. So, it is only natural that their process of measuring time be what we use today. The original pattern of Roman time-keeping established by the authority of Julius Caesar in 46 BCE is still with us (There were only 10 months in a Roman year). Our Roman ‘moonts’ totally disregard the real new moons. The proclaiming of the new month settled into when Caesar announced it, and this act was called Caesar’s calends, Latin for proclaim. Originally, the first Roman month was March. After you have read this a number of times, you may begin to see this Pagan process of keeping time is a kind of MARK on us.

ROMAN TIME: THE MONTHS

MARCH (1st month): Named for the war deity Mars. When the weather began to show signs of warming, the Roman armies would ‘march’ out to war. Marching is what armies have done ever since, to conquer in the power of the deity “Mars”.

APRIL (2nd month): The month of Venus, also called Aprilis, from Etruscan Apru; from Greek Aphro, a short form of Aphrodite, the Greek fertility deity. This was the primary month of the Great Mother Earth, known by many names. The Earth Mother was “fertilized” or impregnated on a Sun-Day after the Vernal (Venus) Equinox (when the length of days and nights are equal). This Sun-Day was called “Easter”. Prior to this, the Pagan priests imposed a “fast” from sexual relations. We get the term LENT from the Germanic word lenten, which refers to the lengthening of the days as winter turns to spring. The first day of this fast, the mark of Tam-muz was placed on the foreheads of the worshipers, the ancient “TAU” (see back cover palaeo-Hebrew). The 40th day prior to “Easter” was always a “Woden’s Day”, giving us the term Ash Wednesday. Nine months after the Earth Mother was impregnated at “Easter” (a gestation period), the SUN was “re-born” at the winter solstice, December 25th, further explained under “December”.

MAY (3rd month): This month was named after the Italic fertility deity MAIA.

JUNE (4th month): This was the month dedicated to JUNO, an important Roman female deity, the wife and sister of Jupiter, identified with the Greeks’ Hera. “Father’s Day” was always in this month, and on a Sun-Day, because the sun was the Pagans’ father. He was in his strength at the summer solstice, so you will notice this is still practiced.

JULY (5th month): This month was dedicated to Julius Caesar, the first emperor. He was honored as a deity, son of the sun.

AUGUST (6th month): This word is Latin meaning venerable, magnificent, awesome. Gaius Octavius took the name “Augustus Caesar” after becoming Emperor, and had his name used for this month. He did this to honor himself, as Julius had done before, but on a grander scale.

SEPTEMBER (7th month): This is the Latin word for the number “9” — “septem”. Now things will begin to make sense a little, but hang on!
With only 10 months in Pontifical College of Priests of Janus: the can, bestowed on Caesar as the Pagan head of the Elysian Fields, the Pagan “Heaven.”

All these months are shifted by two now, as you know. Even though we are saying “December,” the Latin for “10”, we number it the 12th moon. Rather than correcting this, we just keep it up. Not only that, but the whole beginning point is based on the “rebirth” of the sun! According to the Writings (Scripture), we are to begin our counting of the moons from the Latin word “decem,” ten. We get the word “decimal” from the Latin also.

DECEMBER (8th month): This is the Latin word october, “eighth month”, from octo, meaning “eight”.

NOVEMBER (9 month): This month was Novembres, from the Latin word novem, meaning “nine”.

OCTOBER (10th month): Latin Decembris, from the number decem, ten. We get the word “decimal” from the Latin also.

January is named for a dosible what is known as Gregorian Chant. These “chants” stem directly from Pagan monks’ hymns, originally called Orphic Hymns, or the Hymns of Orpheus. He simply “sanctified” the Pagan hymns.

NIMROD YEARS

The Pagan priests were astrologers who closely monitored the positions of the sun, moon, 5 of the planets, and constellations of stars. These were the physical deities they worshipped, and they modeled time over their year based on sex. They knew the path of the sun “crossed” the celestial equator at the Vernal and Autumnal Equinoxes, producing equal days and nights at those events. So, who’s “Nimrod”? He was the first king on the Earth, the grandson of Ham (see Gen. 10). His secular name is suspected to be Sargon I, and he built Babylon and Nineveh. It was possibly Nimrod who built the Tower of Babel, a ziggurat made of bricks; the ruins exist still. Nimrod was a tyrant, and that is what his name means! He was a “mighty hunter before YHWH.” The word “before” means “against” in the Hebrew if you check a concordance. Nimrod turned the people against the truth, and began the worship of the sky luminaries. Children were sacrificed in exchange for prosperity. He wore a headpiece with a "horn" in front as ruler, a symbol of power and authority. In fact, all crowns that are modeled with "horos" are based on this design. The marauding heathens of Genghis Khan and the Vikings of the Norse wore horned hats and helmets in their wars. Nimrod’s idolatry and ruthlessness caused his uncle, Shem, to destroy him, cutting his body into parts and distributing them around the kingdom. It is said Nimrod took his mother, Semiramis as a wife. At his death, his wife/mother consoled the people of Sumer by saying she carried Nimrod’s child, and named him Tammuz. Nimrod, she explained, had gone into the heavens and was now the sun. So, the sun was the "father", and the Earth was now the "mother". Semiramis was, in effect, a deity representing the Earth. "Ish" is Hebrew for "man", and she was worshipped as "Ishtar". Babylonian pillars—obelisks—represented the generative powers of the male, and were simultaneously images of the phallus. Nimrod, and a sun-ray! Fertility rituals such as "May Pole" dances are still seen today. "Ishtar" is the same word we have today in "Easter", which superseded Passover. It’s Nimrod’s mother, also known around the world as Asherah, Ashoreh, Ishtar, Eostre, Astarte, Maia, Gaia, Diana, Ninurta, Nana, Ceres, Ostara, Austron, Isis / Nut (the sky), Aphrodite, Venus, Indrani, Devaki, Tanit, Cybele, Artemis, Athena (pictured), and many others. The Canaanites called their shrines to the Earth Mother "Asherah".

EASTER

This word has been adopted from Pagan as an attempt to "inculturate" by syncretism a behavior that is absolutely an abomination. If you recognize "Halloween" for what it is, then this will be no different after you learn the truth. Easter was already one of the two biggest celebrations observed by Pagans, long before Christianity came along. It’s a lie. I refer to the "Easter Sun-Day" as "Beaster Sun-Day". We don’t have to wait for a "beast", it’s here right now. The patterns and appointments found in the Writings are the ones that are snubbed, excused, and ignored you will notice. Babylon is still with us, but it is going to fall. Easter was celebrated by the Assyrians, the Phoenicians, and the Philistines (Goliath no doubt had an Easter basket). You should look up "Easter" in Webster’s Dictionary, and do further research in other sources! This festival involved the "Rites of Spring" near the Equinox of Venus, when Pagans believed the Earth Mother was impregnated by the sun. They engaged in ritual sex acts, and used symbols of fertility like eggs, rabbits, and "hot cross buns". The Babylonian symbol for the "female" was, and is, a circle with a crux beneath. The round cakes were baked for the "Queen of Heaven" (Regina Coeli), and "Great Mother" (Magna Mater), with the "cross" symbol indicating the female. The cross also indicated the Equinox, when the Earth’s orbit "crossed" the celestial equator. Hold on now, because everything "will" be just fine. This must sound so wild you may think I’m a heretic; but by the end of this you will be very glad to have acquired the truth. This book will only shatter myths, not the "rock" of truth.

To ensure a prosperous growing season, Pagans rolled eggs decorated with bright colors of Spring on their fields, hoping to imbue fertility. These eggs were then hidden from "evil spirits" in rabbits’ nests, another symbol of fertility. "Easter" is the name of the Babylonian "Mother of Harlots", Rev. 17, and her image stands as the goddess "Lady Liberty" in New York Harbor. This Colossus statue even has the "tower" headpiece, as seen worn by Artemis. The 7 horns or sunrays should be a strong indication of her true identity. Her emblem is the flower of the lily, seen illustrated with her on this page. An American society, the Easter Seals Society, uses the fleur-de-lis (French, "flower of the lily") as their logo, and they have no religious affiliations whatsoever. Most "churches" decorate with the lilies on "Easter morning". Instead of inheriting the truth, they inherited Babylon! If we only study history as people, places, and dates without comprehending "why" things occurred as they did, then everything is unorganized. It’s a junkpile. When you assemble it correctly, it all fits together perfectly, clarifying the path we walk on. "Satan" disguises "himself" — "he" is quite often "female". We know "he" was behind Nimrod, as Moloch, Baal, Mithras, and so on; but "he" is also Ishtar. Sun-Day is "his" diversion; it’s a lie. I refer to "Easter Sun-Day" as "Beaster Sun-Day". We don’t have to wait for a "beast", it’s here right now. The patterns and appointments found in the Writings are the ones that are snubbed, excused, and ignored you will notice.
But you say, "The word 'Easter' is in my King James Version". Translations are not "inspired", and errors exist by the tens of thousands in many translations! The word in the Greek that underlies the word "Easter" in the KJV is pascha, and it means Passover, from the Hebrew word "Pesach". All scholars admit that this is an error in translation, and it only appears ONCE, at Acts 12:4. Luke, who wrote almost 40% of the Mashian writings (NT), didn’t put it there as "Easter". The KJV is the only one with this error, since translators corrected it in all others! There was a previous English translation made by the Catholic priest John Wycliffe during the 14th century. He lived from 1320-1384, and his bones were burned in effigy for this unauthorized English work. He never used the word "Church", but the word "congregation" for the word ecclesia. Before the KJV, no one had ever used the word "Church", and soon you'll learn why.

Pagan religions through time paralleled each other, carrying the Sun, Earth Mother, and child model from Babylon to Media Persia, Phoenicia, Egypt, Greece, Rome, and Celts. The Medes cooked the mythology into "Zoroastrianism", producing the magician priests called "Magi": They worshipped Ahura, Haoma, and Orhmazd as their trinity. (We'll survey them all under "Trinities" later). The Greek’s "Zeus" was their sun deity, whose mother was "Lydia", shown here riding a swan. Notice her headpiece; very much like "Lady Liberty". Take another look at "Athena". (emphasis mine).

In contrast, the Creator says:

"Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and burn their Asherah (Easter) poles in the fire; cut down the idols of their gods and WIPE OUT THEIR NAMES from those places. YOU MUST NOT WORSHIP ANY OF YOUR ELOHIM IN THEIR WAY." Dt. 12: OK, that’s pretty clear. But what happened? The hypothesis of this book states on the outset that as the Pagans were absorbed into Christianity, it was the policy to accept everything they were accustomed to celebrating also. Let’s hear it directly from the Catholic organization itself; the Catholic Cardinal John Henry Newman’s book, The Essay on the Development of Christian Doctrine, published in 1878, states in chapter 8: "The rulers of the Church from early times were prepared, should the occasion arise, to adopt, to imitate, or to sanctify the existing rites and customs of the population, as well as the philosophy of the educated class. The use of temples and those dedicated to particular saints, and ornamented on occasion with branches of trees (wreaths), incense, lamps, candles, votive offerings on recovering from illnesses, holy water, holy days and seasons (the entire Church calendar), use of calendars, processions, blessings on the fields, sacerdotal vestments, the ring in marriage, chants, the Kyrie Eleison — are all of Pagan origin, and sanctified by adoption into the Church." There you have it. But, you may ask, "If Easter was a Pagan festival celebrating the impregnation of 'Mother Earth', how did it get mixed up with Christianity?" Christianity’s "Pagan Connection" started with one man more than any other. In 325 CE, the Roman Emperor Constantine I convened what is now called the Nicene Council, gathering 220 elders (bishops) together, in order to unify basic doctrines (teachings), and establish common practices. This "universalizing" produced the Roman Catholic Church (RCC). The Latin word "Catholic" means universal. There was no "Catholic" on planet Earth prior to this Council. The only Council mentioned in the Writings conducted by the first Nazarenes is mentioned at Acts 15, the purpose of which was to determine how to accommodate Gentile converts who were turning to the true Creator. The only topic: circumsicion — and since immersion in the Name and receiving the Spirit into your heart is our "circumcision", it was decided that physical circumcision was not necessary (this is a very important beginning text to be understood by all adult male Gentiles!). Constantine’s Council sought to institute new tolerances for Pagan patterns, and outlaw the patterns that the Savior lived by and taught – he had already proclaimed “Sun-Day” as a day of rest dedicated to the sun (321 CE), and now it came time to “syncretize” more Paganism. By not “repenting” and turning away from elementary foolishness, it was simpler to just “absorb” the behavior. Political and religious CONTROL is a slippery thing; so by keeping the Pagan rituals in place, control was maintained with a minimum of effort! “Truth” was twisted by the “spin doctors” so the opposite of truth became our custom. Rather than make 99% of the people conform to a totally new behavior, it was easier to just exterminate the 1%, and put a Scriptural “spin” on the Pagan customs. This is what overwhelmed all our ancestors, being taught these things as young children.

Paganism has always been highly skilled at wrapping dissimilar things together, making things appear one way on the surface, and making the loosely understood things shrouded in what they call the “mysteries of the faith.”

In order to blend practices into universal (Catholic) behavior, the real Shabbat (Sabbath) was outlawed, along with Passover and other annual “Jewish” observances. This was a prophecy revealed to Daniel. In the prophecy, four “beasts” or kingdoms would arise, which are clearly (1) Babylon, (2) Media-Persia, (3) Greece, and (4) Rome. At Daniel 7:25, the 4th beast is clearly described: “The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on Earth (Rome). It will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour the whole Earth, trampling it down and crushing it. The ten horns are ten kings who will come from this kingdom (Caesars/Khasars/Kaisers/Czars ~ Julius Caesar up to Constantine). After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones (Constantine “fused” the sun worshippers with the Nazarene writings, and was not of the family name “Caesar”), he will subdue three kings. He will speak against the Most High, and oppress His saints (qodeshim, those set-apart, especially the Hebrew people), and try to change the set times and the law”. Scripture is a pattern for our living in peace, guiding us with its “LAW”. The changing of the “set times” (or seasonal appointments decreed at Deut. 16 and Lev. 23) were wiped-out and replaced with Pagan observances, imposed by Constantine. Instead of PEACE, we have inherited WAR.

The coveting (desiring) of power, land, and wealth is ravaging the whole Earth, and this picture illustrates one of the tiny victims of war. The fruit of the Spirit (when the Torah is lived by) produces love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Aggression produces poverty and death. At Constantine’s Nicene Council, he put such fear in some of the visiting elders, that encyclopedias state that many ran for their lives when they heard the things being discussed! The Edict of Milan had already outlawed synagogues, but Constantine’s Council boldly outlawed the Torah, fulfilling the prophecy of Daniel 7:25. Everything that we know went wrong long ago, and it became a powerful institutionalized “beast”, just as the Writings called it. If there were just a few little traces that were Pagan, that would be error; but let’s investigate further, so we can decide whether or not the steel framework on which we stand has any rivets in any of its girders.

There is not ONE encyclopedic article that does not bring Constantine’s (pictured here) so-called “conversion” to “Christianity” into question. Yet, a couple of billion people today are following his edicts. He founded Catholicism, and there is no dispute about that. The 95 issues that Martin Luther (called “Luther”) nailed to the door put the Reformation into full blown splendor, beginning with “indulgences” being sold to shorten one’s stay in “Purgatory”. The seeds of this “Reformation” began with John Wycliffe’s unauthorized translation of the Messianic Writings (NT) into English. This is not intended to make Catholicism into a “whipping boy”, but let’s just stop and think for a moment. Does the Creator’s religion, or the one that everyone believes was founded by our Good Shepherd have any popes? No? How about “monks”? Or nuns? Well, Pagans have all of these things, and always have. The “Dalai Lama” means “highest monk”. Has someone “monked around” with a few things? Nuns were Pagan temple prostitutes; or virgins who kept watch over the KOMAR, OR “DARK-ROBED PRIESTS” ARE DESCRIBED AT 2 KINGS 23:5 — SEE VARIOUS TRANSLATIONS, IT’S HIDDEN FROM YOU IN MOST.
“sacred fires”. In Zoroastrian ritual, men did this. They wore black*, being called “dark ones” because their robes became soiled too easily with the soot and ashes of keeping the “sacred fires” going. These fires were used to sacrifice human lives. Monks also wear red ceremonial robes, symbolic of the fire of the sun. Israel had no one dressed in black or red – the priests wore white linen. Try to picture Rabbi PROV. 18:17 (Good advice).

“Science (si’ens): n. 1. Learning or study concerned with demonstrable truths.”

Science is the “search for truth”, based on the Latin scientia, “to know”. To ignore “the truth” and continue to follow lies would be unthinkable; but even if people never find out the truth, they still participate in “pseudo-science” (false knowledge, untruth) if they stay in error. Pretty much the lower floors supporting Christianity as practiced today have been taken away. But, now we are going to pause, and deal with the REAL Name of the Creator. This is foundational material in a better building. It is not guile, you will not be “beguiled”. Don’t overlook His Name!

The Sinai Autograph:

The truth is right beneath a false façade. Once again, to maintain control, and keep everyone from having to change anything, we have inherited the long-standing custom of only using “generic” terms and devices to refer to the true Creator. Non-specific, general terms were employed to conceal the personal names of Pagan deities, and only the “initiated” would know them. Secret societies still have special hand signs and passwords, and they control their membership with strict hierarchical designs. Examples are the Rosicrucians, Masons, Illuminati, Knights Templars, etc,... The expressions we are “familiar” with, like “GOD”, “LORD”, “Almighty”, “Eternal” or even the “Creator” as I’ve been using up to now in this book have all been used in the past to refer to Pagan deities; NONE of them, except one, was ever a name. Everyone who defends the use of these expressions uses the excuse that we are speaking “English”, and these terms we are familiar with are “translations”. No, these words are not even originally English. The term “GOD” was never used to refer to the true Creator, until Christianity went into the Norse areas in the 6th century CE. The original Hebrew term which underlies the word “GOD” in our English translation is either EL, ELOI, ELOAH, or ELOHIM. This word means “mighty one”, strength, or awesome one. This is describing a Being of tremendous power. The Pagans’ deities never became angry, or pleased, because they simply aren’t there. Even these Hebrew terms are only expressions for “what” the true Creator is, but not used as His personal Name. But He has one, and ONLY ONE. Adjectives attached to His personal Name cause people to think He has more than one, but really there is just one; and you can prove it from a good dictionary or encyclopedia. Look up YAHWEH. It is only an attempt to “sound” the Name using English letters, and originally comes from four palaeo-Hebrew letters; אYHWH

“PALEO” or palaeo means “ancient”. The letters are written from right-to-left in this original script. It is called “Hebrew”, derived from one of Shem’s descendants, whose name was EBER (Gen. 10). A few generations later, ABRAM was born, the son of “YAHUDAH” CONTAINS “YHWH” IN FULL:  יְהֹוָה  SO, “YAHUAH” IS CLOSE!

Terah, one of Eber’s descendants. When Abram’s nephew LOT was carried off by invading armies, the text says “one who had escaped came and informed Abram the Hebrew” (Gen. 14:13). Hebrew is called the Lashon Qodesh, or set-apart tongue.

IS THE NAME OF THE CREATOR LOST?

Encyclopedias state that the proper personal Name of the Most High began to be suppressed by the true worshippers, the children of Israel, because of their dispersion among Pagans. For their failure to honor the Law to let the land rest, and release debts every 7 years, יהוה allowed them to be carried off to Babylon for 70 years, beginning in 586 BCE. Daniel’s lifetime encompassed this “Babylonian Captivity”. The Babylonians knew that the Name was so offensive, the Name blasphemed (treated commonly) on the lips of Pagans was so offensive, the Name was avoided completely. Over time, it became the Name of “YAH”, their Elohim. To ridicule them, these Pagans began to call them "Yahudim", bearing the Name “Babylonian Captivity”. The Babylonians knew 586 BCE. Daniel’s lifetime encompassed this.

The Law to let the land rest, and release debts every 7 years, דּוֹרָתָה suppressed by the true worshippers, the children of Israel, because of their dispersion individually you’ll find on the back cover: YOD, HAY, WAW, HAY. Some of the transliterations for these four letters have been J H o’ V a H, J a H, J a H- V e H, Y a H W e H, I a O U E, Y a H u’ W a H, Y a H o’ W a H, Y a H u’ W a H, Y a H u’ e H, Y a H u’ a H, I A U E, Y a H V e, and others. (hovah means ruin).

First, we must eliminate blatant errors. Even a rather shallow encyclopedia will explain the error of “Jehovah”. The Tetragram YHWH is changed to JHVH, and the vowels of another word, adonai, are stuffed into the spaces. This happened because Christian translators’ ignorance of Hebrew failed to alert them that the “vowel points” placed beneath the Name were to “cue” the reader NOT to pronounce it, but say “Adonai” instead. (The man who gave us the hybrid word “Jehovah” was Petrus Galatinus). You can easily find that the letter “J” didn’t even exist on the planet until about 1520 CE. The letter is less than 500 years old! “J” came from the letter YOD in Hebrew, and was brought into the Greek with the letter ΙΟΤΑ, or our letter “I” since they had no “Y”. Gradually, customs developed that put a tail on the letter I when it began a sentence, or was used as the first letter of a proper name. There is no “J” or “V” in Hebrew. The V has a W sound in European languages. The letter WAW in Hebrew is commonly the sound of “DO” as you hear in halley-yah. It has the same sound in NataNyah. Even our “W” is named double—U (UU), giving us the symbol of the European double V, W. The importance of doing our best to be accurate concerning the Name of YHWH cannot be overstated. You may have already become convinced of one special way of writing it, but remember He only wrote it as יהוה. Later, after the Babylonian Captivity, it became יוהו. The first translation into Greek by the Sanhedrin during the 2nd century BCE is called The Septuagint, and in its original, the Name was always preserved in its original palaeo-Hebrew, יהוה. I prefer to call Him YAHUEH or YAHU’AH (ya-HOO’-ah), but I will write it as יְהֹוָה. Clement of Alexandria wrote that it can be transliterated in the Greek as ΙΑΟΥΕ, and the original is better!

Because the Name was not to be blasphemed by improper use, it became the custom to NEVER use it. They could not destroy it in any way, and that’s why they buried the worn-out scrolls in jars at the Dead Sea. Yet, they DID destroy it by not speaking it, and this also violates the 3rd Commandment.

DOORWAY TO THE NAME: REMOVE “D” FROM YAHUDAH — AND IT’S YAHUAH [ya-HOO-ah]
Who Is “The LORD”?
You may already be familiar with some of the “Hebrew” forms like Y’shua and Yeshua. Footnotes say it means “the LORD is our salvation”. If your translation has a preface, it may explain that the translators “adopted the device” of using the capital letters “LORD” in place of the Name of יהוה because it has become the “tradition”. I’d like you to look up BAAL in a good dictionary; you will discover it means “LORD”. To appease Pagans, and not use the proper Name, the generic term “LORD” was adopted. Pagans often veiled the proper names of their deities. The Romans worshipped “SOL” by the names “Deus” (a variant of Zeus), and “Domini” (Latin for “LORD”). “D” and “Z” were interchanged sounds, often heard as a “DZ” sound. The Pagan prophet Zarathustra (Zoroastrianism) called the sun Ahura Mazda. “Ahura” means “LORD” in Old Persian, and “Mazda” means “wise” — so it means Wise Lord. They were referring to Mithras. In the time of Daniel, the ruler of Babylon, Darius, worshipped Ahura Mazda. “Ormazd” is the contraction. Pictured here wielding the power of the sun as a fire weapon, the bird could be a Nazi logo or even the original model for the US Presidential Seal. The anthropomorphic symbol used was an eagle, but they worshipped FIRE in fire temples. Fire was sacred, associated with the sun. The torch held by the Statue of Liberty, and the Olympic Games torch relate directly to this. Pagans used eagles on gold balls to illustrate the sun being carried across the sky. The priests of Ahura Mazda were Magians (magi, magicians; Greek “magus”). Simon Magus (Acts 8) was a magician, and for attempting to “buy” the abilities he witnessed in the Nazarenes, we now have the word “simony”. In India, the sun is called “LORD KRISHNA”. We have inherited the term “LORD” from these Magians, carried through other religions like Manichaeanism. Augustine, one of the “Church fathers”, was previously a Manichaean; a sun-worshipper.

THE NAME ABOVE ALL NAMES

If you study the Writings of the Brit Chadasha (New Covenant), you will notice that the Mashiach is called RABBI and RABBONI (my teacher) by the people who addressed Him. (There is only ONE Rabbi, and we are not to be called such – Mt. 23:8). His Name was given to Yosef (called “Joseph”) by the messenger Gabriel because He would save His people from their sins. The Hebrew term for “save” is SHUA, while the Greek term is SOTER, and the Latin is SALVARE. So, why do we see the word Jesus written in our English translations? “Jesus” isn’t a Hebrew name, and has no meaning in Hebrew. It isn’t a “translation” either, because it is supposed to mean יהוה is our salvation. He came in His Father’s Name, YAH. You hear the Name of the Father when you say hallelu Yah (praise you Yah). You should be hearing the Father’s Name in Mashiach’s Name also. Encyclopedias agree that the Mashiach has the same name as “Joshua”. At Acts 7 and Hebrews 4, where both the names “Jesus” and “Joshua” are written in Greek, the letters in the Greek are the same for both names : ΙΗΣΟΥΣ (Ιησους). The Hebrew Name “Joshua” is really Yah-shua. Mosheh changed Hoshua’s name to Yahushua. It is seen written in the interlinear as יהושע. This later changed letter shapes during the Babylonian Captivity to the “modern” Hebrew. Our traditions were shaped by people attempting to smooth-over differences. By avoiding the real Name, and using “devices” and generic terms, no one would be offended; but we violate the 3rd Commandment! (You will not find even one instance in the Writings where anyone referred to יהוה as “HaShem”, The Name). The monks couldn’t “monk” with all the Torah Scrolls held by the Yahudim, but they could “monk” with the Greek. For 2 centuries, the Nazarenes held a copy of the memoir of Mattit Yahu (Matthew’s real name), penned in the original Hebrew: יהושע. A copy of it was discovered in the Dead Sea Scrolls. I wonder if that was what the document was that made the pope faint when he saw it several decades back. As a translation of the above palaeo-Hebrew Name, people have used Y’shua, Yeshua, Yasua, Yehoshua, Yahushua, and Yahusha. I prefer ya-HOO-shua, but I will print it as it was originally written, יהושע. For one thing, Mosheh could read it! Daniel could read it too, as well as King David (remember, no “V”). Why am I so “hung-up” on the “old” Hebrew? It’s the inspired script. Remember at Daniel 5, there was a feast for 1000 nobles in Babylon, and King Belshazzar took out the Temple utensils his father had plundered from the Yahudim? Emerging from thin air near the lampstand (the menorah?) where Belshazzar was sitting, a HAND wrote these words in the plaster of the wall: ΒΑΣΙΛΕΩΣ ΖΕΥΓΟΣ ΒΑΣΙΛΕΩΣ ΖΕΥΓΟΣ
It was NOT written in modern Hebrew. During the Babylonian Captivity, the Hebrew letters became altered, and only the older educated Hebrews would recall the original letters shapes.  אֱלֹהָי  chose to write in His own “hand”, uncorrupted by human whims and designs. When no one could be found to even read the letters themselves, Belshazzar’s mother recommended that Daniel (by now an elderly man) be summoned. He could read it. The words transliterated were mene mene tekel uparsin (measure, measure, weighed, divided). That night Belshazzar was killed, and his kingdom was taken over by Cyrus the Mede. The kingdom of the “head of gold” had just passed into the chest and arms of silver! The original script is part of what is being restored in the world today; and with it, the rock of truth in the real Name. Peter quoted the prophet Yah el (Joel) when he said “And everyone who calls on the Name of יהוה will be saved” Acts 2:21. The inspired script is our foundation, and I simply stopped making excuses that it can be ignored. It will change everything. Acts 4:12 states “there is no other name under heaven (the skies) given among men by which we must be saved”. The Name is the hidden treasure! At Yeshua Yahu (Isaiah) 33:6, this is clear: “The fear (respect) of יהוה is the key to this treasure”.

Mashiach’s Name Altered?
So, what does the name “JESUS” mean? The beginning part in Greek, ΙΗΣΟΥΣ (IE), is the sound “Yeh” which is a “halt”. It’s not “Yah”, because it was changed! Now, we’re left with the “SUS” part. It may be significant, so I should tell you that the word we sometimes see in the Latin, YESU’ (yeh’ zoo) has been traced to a Hebrew word meaning “a curse be upon”. A good book to check out is the Dictionary of Christian Lore and Legend by J. C. J. Metford. One source has this to say: “It is known that the Greek name endings of sus, seus, and sou (which are phonetic pronunciations for Zeus) were attached by the Greeks to names and geographical areas as a means to give honor to their supreme deity, Zeus. Examples are Parmasus, a sacred mountain in Greece; the Greek deity of wine and son of Zeus, Dionysus; the Greek hero of the Trojan War was Odysseus; and the Greek deity of healing was Iesus (which is a variant spelling of lesous or the Latin Iesus / Jesus). They also changed the names of the prophets EliYahu (whose name means ‘my mighty one is Yah’) and Eliesha (whose name means ‘my mighty one saves’), to ‘Elias’ and ‘Eliseus’ (which means ‘my mighty one is Zeus’). This was done so often that it later was the basis for their rules of written grammar which followed the common or vernacular spoken language.”

There are plenty of other Greek words that end with ‘sus’, like the city of Tarsus (meaning ‘sweat of Zeus’), and Pegasus. How can we explain the Spanish “Hey-Zeus”? Even the name “Yosef” was corrupted to ‘Joseph’, then Guiseppe; but they didn’t tack the name ‘Zeus’ on it. As a syncretism, the Greeks had to hear ‘Zeus’ in the Mashiach’s name! If you stop 50 people walking out of a “Church service” and ask them what the name of the Creator of the Universe is, you will usually hear them respond with GOD, The LORD, or “JESUS”. The fact is, the word “Jesus” has no meaning in Hebrew, and the closest Hebrew word to the Greek “sus” is soos, meaning HORSE. The adversary (ha satan) has stolen much more as you will learn later on in this book. Let’s look at our English word, “GOD”. It’s not a name, because the Writings say there are “many gods”. Also, you should know that there is no difference if the letters are capitalized or not, because there are no different-sized letters at all in Hebrew. “Small” letters began with the Greek alpha-beta, (yes, we even get our word alpha-beta from the first two Hebrew letters, but use the later Greek letter names!). This is what the Encyclopedia Americana (1945 Edition) says under the topic “GOD”:

“GOD (god) Common Teutonic word for personal object of religious worship, formerly applicable to super-human beings of heathen myth; on conversion of Teutonic races to Christianity, term was applied to Supreme Being.” NO! IT CAN’T BE TRUE! But it is true.

This shocked me the first time I read it. Most of my research was done without anyone telling me these little details, I just looked things up. I could hardly stand it. I felt betrayed and deceived. Further research revealed that these Teutonic ‘Duids’ called the sun God, Gudh, Goth, or ‘GOTT’. In some countries, they still call the sun “GOTT”. Druidic mythology says Woden rides an 8-legged horse, Sleipnir, in Gotland. Look up “Valhalla”.

Another related term is GOTH, used in Visigoths (western goths) and Ostragoths (eastern goths)—see the term ‘Ostra’? It refers to the “east” where the sun rises, and is a variant of Easter or Ishtar / Astarte). Woden is pictured in some books riding his 8-legged steed in Götland. Götland is the equivalent to Mount Olympus, where Zeus lived in their mythology. So, we’ve inherited the custom of calling蚱雅誼“GOTT,” and His Son蚱雅誼“YEH-ZEUS”. The Rabbi’s Name is ravaged, and we call the Father by a Pagan name originally used for the proper name of their sun-deity. And just for fun, they have us calling Him “LORD” which means “BAAL” in Hebrew! What next? Everyone who calls upon the name of GOTT or BAAL will not be saved. You have to prove all things.

The true Name was first being avoided, and they were just being “dreamed-up”. That’s what “spin-doctors” do. This was during the time of Mashiach’s as the “Gospel”; the woman who came to Owyal with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume will also be told, in memory of her! (see Mt. 26:7-13). This must be one of those “real” messages, because I just made mention of her. As I illustrated earlier, Shaul (Paul) was sent out at first by the Sanhedrin to arrest the early Nazarenes for openly using the Name, citing how Stephen was stoned as Shaul held the outer cloaks of the killers (he admitted this at Acts 22:19,20). At Acts 4, Cephas and Yahuchanon had been arrested by the Sanhedrin. The elders of Israel were so steeped in the tradition of not saying the Name aloud, they conferred among themselves saying “But to stop this thing from spreading any further among the people (the Name), we must warn these men to speak no longer to anyone in this Name.” Acts 4:17. The Name Owyal contains the Name of蚱雅誼. Acts 4:7 begins their examination. Brought before the elders, Cephas and Yahuchanon are asked “By what power or by what name did you do this?”. This was to entrap them into saying the Name aloud, as they had Stephen. Cephas said it was by the Name of蚱雅誼 ha Mashichi of Nazareth that a man had been healed of being crippled at beyond the age of 40. When they were released, they returned to the other Nazarenes, addressing蚱雅誼 by Name at verse 24, after which the Earth shook. His Name is power, authority over disease, daemons, and a strong tower of refuge!

A CONSPIRACY TO CONCEAL?
We’ve surveyed only a few examples of how the real Name became veiled or concealed. If it is not known, how can we “call” (Hebrew qara) on it and so be delivered as Yah el and Cephas said we must? 蚱雅誼 says “My people will know My Name”. The prophet Yeime Yahu (Jeremiah - note the ending -iah in many prophets names?) declared at 23:27: “They think the dreams they tell one another (made-up words, substitutions) will make My people forget My Name, just as their fathers forgot My Name through BAAL (LORD)”. Lying teachers of the people were misleading them, and their teachings were just being “dreamed-up”. That’s what “spin-doctors” do. This was during the time the Name was first being avoided, and they were substituting the term “Adonai” (Heb. MY LORD). The Babylonians were worshipping the sun with the name “Baal”, meaning “LORD”, and were concealing the deity’s real name from even their people. It was Dagan, which later was DAGON to the Philistines and Phoenicians. You can read about the half-fish, half-man image that kept falling down when the Philistines put the Ark of Dagon in the temple of Dagon in 1 Sam. Chaps. 4 & 5. The Ark itself was called by the Name of YHVH in 2 Sam. 6:1-2. The English word “LORD” isn’t even a name of any kind. It comes from the Celtic term hleafa-ward, meaning keeper of the loaf. “Monking” with the texts have led to not only doctrinal “slants”, but also mutilations and maskings of original words. Some have even said, “If the King James version was good enough for the Apostles, then it’s good enough for me!” This version contains one of the best opportunities to see what was added, because the words the translators added are printed in italics – but what was changed and omitted they didn’t tell us. It was authorized by the Queen, not King James (1611). Translators are not inspired as the original prophets were who wrote the words of YHVH in Hebrew. Scholars admit that “of the 5000 Greek manuscripts which contain all or part of the New Testament, every one of these handwritten copies differs from every other one.” These scholars confess that “There is not one sentence in the NT in which the manuscript tradition is wholly uniform”; this is due to “variants put in them deliberately”, and “careless handling of the text”, or “many created for theological or dogmatic reasons”. The Greek text itself was being “constantly interpreted and re-interpreted by each succeeding generation”. In contrast, the consistency of the Hebrew “OL Testament” text which was copied with a reverent fear by the scribes remains without discrepancy in its many copies. They would not change even one LETTER! Since the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls, the myth that the “NT” was inspired in the Greek language has been exploding.

DEAD SEA SCROLLS

In 1947, a young bedouin shepherd boy was in the northwestern area of the Dead Sea, chasing after one of his clever animals. The animal scrambled into a cave hole. The boy couldn’t easily get to him, so he threw some rocks in to spook him out. The boy heard a loud crashing sound, like a large jar breaking! He entered the cave, now called “cave 1”, and discovered many jars with lids containing old scrolls. He took one to an antiquities dealer in town, and it turned out to be an ancient scroll written in Hebrew! Of course he sold it, and the dealer wanted to know where he found it. The rest is modern history. What you will usually not hear is WHY the scrolls were there. As scrolls of “Scripture” were used in the Temple or synagogues, they would wear out eventually, and were carefully copied by scribes. They would not discard or destroy the worn out copy profanely, but bury it respectfully. Why? Because these worn scrolls contained the personal Name of YHVH written on them! Every scroll was placed in a jar with a lid, and buried. Now the scrolls are either in the Rockefeller Museum, or the Shrine of the Book, both in Jerusaleh. Every one of them has the Name on them. Since it is used 6,823 times, – more than any other word, you would think the “scholars” would bring it the recognition it deserves! But, you will often find these men are “sectarian”, or even unbelievers that happen to be familiar with ancient languages. Just look up the word “LORD” in any concordance. The scrolls that did not contain the Name are absent, such as the scroll we call “Esther”. (The scroll of “Esther” has the Name in “acrostic” 4 times, but it is concealed from Pagan eyes). The scrolls of Enoch, Baruch, Jubilees (Yob-hel), and all the others we call “Old Testament” are present. The Shrine of the Book building is designed like a huge jar lid, like the kind the scrolls were found in. This is a good place to bring up another oddity. What do the Scrolls call themselves? We use the traditional term “Scriptures”, which is a Latin-rooted word, from scriptum meaning hand-writing. The most common term heard is “Bible”.

BIBLE

The word “Bible” is not found anywhere in the text of the Writings themselves! This is a traditional term given to the inspired words by mankind. The term has been used for so long, people have come to accept it readily. OYWJAL never used the word “Bible”, nor did any Nazarene after Him. No prophet uttered the word. And, it’s not a translation for what the Writings call themselves either. At Luke 24:44 you will be given insight into what our Prophet of prophets called the Writings themselves. The term was (as He said it) Torah (Law), Nebi’im (prophets), and Kethubim (writings, beginning with Psalms). This is shortened to the one-word TaNaKh, an acronym. We use the words “scuba” and “laser” as acronyms (Self Contained Underwater Breathing Apparatus). A “scroll” is the Hebrew word “megillah”. The Bereans examined the “scrolls”, which we now call “books”. In fact, the Greek word “biblia” means the same idea. But, you know that “books” are just that: books. Of course everyone knows what “scrolls” the Bereans were examining. They weren’t consulting the Egyptian Book of the Dead, or an operating guide to some computer hardware. Shaul, imprisoned (2 Tim. 4:13), requests his cloak for warmth, and his scrolls, especially the “parchments”. Hey, that looks like they were using a different term than we do today – but where am I going with this? First, let’s reflect on an important but overlooked item. We attempt to worship the same Awesome, Mighty, Jealous, and Everlasting יְהֹוָה that Mosheh did. Who states “I אַיֵּהָלָה do not change” Mal. 3:6. This is what He says at Ex. 23:13:

“Be careful to do everything I have said to you. Do not invoke the names of other elohim; DO NOT LET THEM BE HEARD ON YOUR LIPS.”

(See also Ps. 16:4). Today, we assume we can ignore a little thing like that, and call the days of the week by Roman and Norse deities, even calling the planets by ancient idols’ names. If we love Him, we will do whatever He pleases. He watches us, to see if there is anyone who understands. He is big enough to hold the universe together, and knows where every hair is on your head. He knows if you care, too. He knows your dreams, and your thoughts. No other created being can know what He knows.

The Origin of the Word “Bible”

This word was originally Phoenician, then passed into Greek, then Latin. It means “books” in Greek, and is only on the cover and commentary text of what we call our “Bibles”. It became the name of a Phoenician port city that exported papyrus; so, scrolls, or what we would call “books” came to be called by the name of this port, a city called BYBLOS. Don’t let the “Y” fool you! There is no “Y” in Greek. This port was about 50 miles north of Sidon, and you’ll see it on your maps in your “Bible”. The reason the city was named “BYBLOS” is because the Phoenicians worshipped a fertility deity named BIBLIA, and her temple was there! ! ! See the etymology now? Calling the words of אֱלֹהִים by the name of BYBLOS / Bible is yet another trick foiled upon us by men long dead. And you can bet it was on purpose. Who would be cunning enough to pull this off? A spatial being bent against us getting at the Truth, ha Shatan. Diablos is blamed again; but those in ignorance are not held accountable, except for what they know. Designs have been made to entrap everyone in a dragnet of false worship, having no basis in The Tanakh or Brit Chadasha. Shaul wept for what he knew would happen, and Yahuchanon wrote the Revelation of אֱלֹהִים which clearly illustrated to him how Babylon would fill the Earth, and collapse on the “Day of אֱלֹהִים”. He searches for any who understand. Without wisdom, His Torah, it cannot be understood.

*“In the past, He let all nations go their own way, yet He did not leave Himself without Testimony . . . “ Acts 14:16,17.

*“In the past, Elohim overlooked such ignorance, but now He commands all people everywhere to repent. For He has set a day when He will judge the world with justice by the man whom He has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising Him from the dead.” Acts 17:30,31.

“And this message of the Kingdom shall be preached in the whole world, as a Testimony to the nations, and then the end will come.” Mt. 24:14.

WHAT IS “WORSHIP”?

The word “worship” is two words, worth-ship. It simply means the outward showing of respect and esteem to a higher authority. The key elements necessary are fear and humility, and ultimately LOVE. Fear is not used in the sense of terror, but rather respect for another’s awesome power and authority. The Hebrew concept basically has always been termed obeisance, or the status of a servant who obeys his master. The word “obey” comes from the Hebrew word OBED, or servant; the prophet Obadiah “meant servant of Yah. The generosity and Fatherhood of אֱלֹהִים demands His creatures to return praise and recognition. He has feelings; wrath, humor, compassion, and desires a relationship with each of us. How would you feel if your pet ignored you, and even bit your hand whenever you came into its “space”? But He considers us His children! Rabbi Owyah even calls us brothers (and sisters). The Writings of the TaNaKh and Brit Chadasha show His love for us by providing the rules for living in peace, and it is the perfect “book” of law. It is a “light” for us to “walk” in, and without it we stumble in “darkness”. He has literally created us to be a part of His family. Worship is something we perform, and is seen as obedience. In the hands of men, this “worship” has become perverted, and we serve another entity, deceived by diversion tactics. Worship is not something we do only one day each week, but everyday; by adopting the pattern of living we see in the 10 Commandments. These are the living waters, and the “food” which Owyah desired Cephas
Legalism or Illegalism?

Obeying specific “Commandments” with the thinking that this somehow “earns” salvation, or a place in the coming Kingdom, has been called “legalism.” This grew out of the Reformation, when the teaching of the Protestant sects based their doctrine of salvation on the work of Owy and His atoning death. We are “saved” by “grace,” and grace alone. Yahuchanan 3:16-21 needs to be studied carefully; one should not stop reading at verse 16.

“For” Owy, so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. For Owy did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him. Who ever believes in Him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the Name of Owy’s one and only Son. This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of Light because their deeds were evil. Everyone who does evil hates the Light, and will not come into the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. But whoever lives by the Truth comes into the Light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done in the Light.” Obedience is evidence of salvation.

What is “Light,” and “Truth”? Proverbs 6:23 defines “Light” as the Torah. The word that underlies “teaching” is Torah. The “Truth” is the “Word” of Owy, Yahuchanan 17:17. Once again, the “Word” is the Torah, made into flesh in Owy, the Commandments, the personality of Owy, became a man and lived a perfect life without transgressing His own teachings. He gave us the “Keys” to the Kingdom: TORAH, which produces LOVE. What is love? “Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking. It is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil, but rejoices with the Truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.” 1 Cor. 13. The fruit of the Spirit, and the fruit of the Torah, produces: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. “Folly is joy to him who lacks sense, but a man of righteousness walks straight.” Pr. 15:21. Something that is “legal” is right. The word is based on “logic”, and involves “reasoning.” The opposite of legalism is illegality, and that is what separates us from our Creator! You will recognize a tree by its fruit. The 10 Commandments produce this fruit. Although the Torah is a gift and model for living, we cannot obey it in our flesh ~ we need something more: the New Covenant! What is that? When people read “covenantals and other texts, they misunderstand what Yahuchanon 3:16-21 needs to be studied carefully; one should not stop reading at verse 16.

The blood of the New Covenant covers us permanently, ending the ceremonial law. It is the law of “sin and death” that were ordinances against us, nailed to the wood. It was not the MORAL law that was “done away”, but the CEREMONIAL law. How then, can we obey the MORAL laws? This is where the New Covenant comes into play! The Old Covenant was the blood of animals ~ the New is the blood of Owy. It is our belief in the Resurrection, and the reality of it, that we have eternal life. We receive the Spirit of Owy when we confess with our mouth and believe in our heart that He was raised from the dead. He comes into us, and WRITES the moral law (Torah) on our hearts and minds, enabling us to LOVE the Commandments! You will not live a life ignoring them, because this “change” inside you causes you to agree with the moral laws. The “Law of Liberty” is our freedom ~ not to sin, but rather our freedom from sin; sinning against the moral laws (and we don’t have to sacrifice animals). Mashiach Owy really does save His people from sin, as His Name says! The deciding factor is: do you love the Commandments? “If you love Me, you will obey what I command.” Yn. 14:15. When you can say “I love the Torah”; He has “circumcised” your heart. Even Daniel, David, Yeshua, Mosheh, Adam, etc., who lived by the moral law could not obtain eternal life by it, but because OYNUOONU restored, these captives were delivered from the ceremonial law that was against them. Stop and read Psalm 1, and Psalm 119.

“Oh, how I love your Torah! I meditate on it all day long. Your Commands make me wiser than my enemies . . .” Ps. 119:97,98.

And, my friend, THAT is what “grace” is! It is the gift of OYNUOONU to receive a LOVE for the Truth. “For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith (emunah), and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of OYNUOONU—not by works (ceremonial offerings), so that no one can boast.

For we are OYNUOONU’s workmanship, created in Mashiach OYNUOONU to do good works, which OYNUOONU prepared in advance for us to do.” Eph. 2:8-10. This has stood in doctrinal opposition to “James” (Ya’akov) 2:17-20, who after explaining that lawbreakers (non-legalists) will be judged, says: “. . . Faith, by itself, if it is not accompanied by works, is dead. But someone will say, ‘You have faith; I have works!’ Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. You believe there is one Elohim; Good! Even the demons believe that — and shudder. You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless?”

What he is saying is, obedience is not the thing that saves us, but when we are seen obeying the Torah, it is evidence of our salvation. There is only forgiveness of sins against Torah if there is repentance, the turning away from sin, and living by the Torah.

Martin Luther was used to spearhead the understanding, but there was more to comprehend. The complete understanding became cut short, no doubt because the adversary saw how close to the Truth people were getting. He began his INQUISITION, murdering over 83 million people over a 600-year period. The junkpile of history should mirror (lies) with cunning seduction. “Many will follow their shameful ways and will bring the Way of Truth (Torah) into disrepute. In their greed, these teachers will exploit you with stories they have made up.” You must read the whole context. He even goes on to say “It would have been better for them not to have known the Way of Righteousness (Torah) than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them. Of them the proverbs are true: ‘A dog returns to its vomit’, and ‘A pig that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud’.”

One of the “stories they have made up” is that we must “tithe” to spread the “Gospel”, and to provide a comfortable setting (a building) in which to study and help others worship and come to salvation. This is programming. “Tithe” is mentioned at Lev. 27:30, Num. 18:26, Deut. 12:17, & 14:22. HEY – isn’t that “OLD Testament”? You bet, but you should read it. Altogether, tithing is referred to 16 times in Scripture, and is the “ma’aser”, or a 10th of the increase used for 3 purposes. It consists of food only, as you will quickly discover. Clearly, Malachi 1:7 and 3:10 show this. Preachers will select their own “parts” of the texts in order to make the listener believe that money is to be collected and “put at the apostles’ feet” to support them in their GOD’s work. OYNUOONU’s message is repent, not pay. The tithe supported (fed) the Lewites, poor, fatherless, foreigners, and widows. Shaul, at 1 Cor. 1:4, & 16:1, is also talking about food, to be taken back to Yerushalayim to those in need. There was a famine, and gold coins cannot be eaten. If a teacher of Torah is travelling and one of us has him stay at our home for a time, he is able to eat from your table. “You must not muzzle the ox” while it is turning the grindstone, but let it eat the fruits of what it is grinding, for sustenance. The ox doesn’t cart off a percentage!

The Lewites were not able to own land, but performed the tedious ceremonial law requirements we just discussed. They had to eat, as well as their families. If a preacher tells you he is entitled to 10% of your income, and everyone else's income (numbering 100's or even 1000's of people), remind him that he is not a Levite. A Levite had to be a descendant of Levi, a strict bloodline of priests. Also, the ceremonial law, and the need to support those Levites who implemented it, is no more. These predators are not the poor, through some physical defect. They are not children without a father to support them. They are not foreigners feasting a famine or war, or widows in their old age with no husband. They must work! I do, and Shaul did, even though he traveled about.

ELDERS MEETING (Acts 20:13-38)

Shaul called a meeting of the elders in Ephesus (a Pagan town, note the name-ending). He was in a rush to get to Yerushalym by the day of Shabuoth (called Pentecost), and knew he would never again see these brothers in his flesh. "Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the Kingdom will ever see me again." He passionately pleaded with them, and then mentioned the coming in of savage "wolves" among them:

"Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Ruach ha Qodesh (set-apart Spirit) has made you overseers (elders, bishops). Be shepherds of the assembly of Qodeshim, which He bought with His own blood. I know, that after I leave, SAVAGE WOLVES will come in among you and will not spare the flock. Even from your own number (that group of men) men will arise and distort the Truth in order to draw away disciples after them. So be on your guard! Remember that for 3 years I never stopped warning and teaching you night and day with tears. Now, I commit you to Qodeshim and to the Word of His lovingkindness (Torah), which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are set-apart (Qodeshim, saints). I have not coveted anyone's silver or gold or clothing. You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions. In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work WE must help the weak, remembering the words the Rabbi OYNAH. Himself said, IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE THAN TO RECEIVE!"

Who was Shaul talking to? Elders! What did he know some of them would eventually begin to do? He knew it would turn into a business, and even mentioned the "wolves" I referenced from 2 Pet. 2. There can be no mistake here, because this is a 2nd witness in the Writings to what we see happening around the world today – he even quoted OYNAH's words about "receiving", and this quote is never taken in context. Instead, it's turned around and used to plunder the flock! The "merchants" are also mentioned in the book called Revelation (Apocalypse, uncovering). These merchants have drunk the maddening wine (teachings) of Babylon, taught heresies like Easter / Ishtar, Sun-day, and other Nimrod nonsense, and grown RICH from having done so. This knowledge, when made known, will rock Babylon to its roots. THIS is the "rebellion" Shaul prophesied to occur at 2 Thess. 2:3! This is the exposing of the Man of Lawlessness. Study this thoroughly, because your eyes are being opened. All that has to happen is for a billion people to stop paying these men, and it all comes down. The message is FREE. Now knowing this, how much money will you have spared yourself, and be enabled to help desperate relatives and friends? I certainly don't want any of your earnings, nor do I need your "last will and testament" to leave money to print these books. They will be supported by those who buy the truth, and sell it not. The printing and mailing costs will be covered by each book. Reading 1 Tim. 5:7-9 shows your first duty to your own relatives, to lessen the burden on the assembly of supporting widows. At 6:5, men of corrupt minds think that religion is a means to financial gain. (Read the context.)

The "merchants" use Acts 4:32-36 to trick the listener into believing that money is to be collected and "put at the apostles' feet" to support THEM in the Creator's work. If you stop right now and read this in its full context, you will see that this "programming" is completely wrong. The support was distributed among the needy among them, and no one was in want. It is just one area where "inoculating" or "vaccinating" the masses of people against the correct behavior is done. It's almost like everyone is under hypnosis. These merchants are businessmen. To steer you away from obeying Commandments, they will say "We now have liberty in Christ", or "We now live in the Age of Grace". But, they sure want a lot of your money! It is interesting that Rabbi OYNAH threw some merchants out of His Father's House – He must not like money being involved in spiritual matters. He also once said, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to Elohim what is Elohim's": The government wants your money, and Elohim wants your obedience. When the veil in the Temple was torn from top to bottom, it signaled the end of the ceremonial law; but the moral law that defines “sin” is still here. To steal, kill, adulterate, or covet was a sin 10 years before He died for sin; and they were still sinful 10 years afterward as well. We have to have love for our neighbor, so the suffering poor, fatherless children, widows, and foreigners fleeing wars are everyone’s concern. Paul (Shaul) wrote that believing Gentiles must support the needy Yahudim: “For if the Gentiles have shared in the Yahudim’s spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Yahudim to share with them their material blessings.” - Rom. 15:27. This is quite a contrast to what Martin Luther wrote three years before he died: ‘For the glory of GOD and His Church, Jews’ synagogues and holy books should be burned and covered over with soil, and Jewish homes should be likewise destroyed”. His writings were used by Nazi war criminals in their defense of legalism. Giving to the poor is the highest form of tithing, yet “spreading the Gospel” is never associated with a tithe in the Scriptures – it’s just programmed into peoples’ heads that way. Luther knew that “indulgences” were just a big fund-raiser, and that their spiritual benefits amounted to nothing. When the poor, fatherless, and widows, and put the money in your hand ~ too much to travel with, He says to sell the food and EAT IT before Him. If it is too far and or He has established His Name (Yerushaliyim) at his house gate ~ something he would not share with them their material blessings.” - 2Th. 2:7-12. Who are these people who would “delight” in lawlessness, and refuse the Truth? Well, the Truth is Torah, what they call the Law, and they teach that it has been “done away”, nailed to the crux. Then, by their definition, there is no criteria to define what a “sin” is, because if there is no law, then there is no way to sin against it (Romans 4:15). Yet, it says at 1 Yn. 3:4: “Everyone who sins breaks the Torah; in fact, sin is Torahlessness”. By stealth, the “seed” (the Word of the Torah) was stolen away by the “birds”, or trampled under the feet of men, as the parable says (Luke 8:5-15). You see, the words in the Writings we read as Light, Truth, Word, Voice, Wisdom, Living Water, Commands, the Way, Seid, Life, etc., are all metaphors for the TORAH, or teachings of the Torah. “These people honor Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me. They worship Me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men; they have let go of the commands of the Torah and are holding on to the traditions of men. You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of the Torah in order to observe your own traditions!” Mark 7:6-9, Yesha Yahu 29:13. Do traditions we see in the practices of religion have any basis in the Writings? Can you find “Sun-day” or a worship service on Sun-day in the Writings? Is there any mention that the Shabbat was changed to the first day of the week? Tithing is certainly the work of the predators; and the poor, fatherless, and widows are just overlooked. Legalism is some sort of heresy in the minds and words of most, yet Owyrul stated: “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law (Torah) or the Prophets (Nebirim); I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill (fill-full) them. I tell you the truth, until heaven (skies) and Earth disappear, not the smallest letter (yod), not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Torah until everything is accomplished. Anyone who breaks one of the least of these Commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of םָיָאַל. For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the Torah, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of םָיָאַל.” Mt 5:17-20. These words sound very much like we should be knowing and acting on the 10 Commandments, as well as all the Moral teachings that the Torah has, which builds us up and protects us. A rich young man, (possibly Mark himself), asked Rabbi םוֹיָאַל: “Tob Rab (Good Teacher), what must I do to inherit eternal life?” (Mark 10:17-27) Rabbi replied, “You know the Commandments: ‘You do not murder, you do not commit adultery, you do not steal, you do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother . . .’ “ As I mentioned, without the Torah to live by, AND the gift of receiving a LOVE for them, you are not under the “New Covenant”, and have not received the Spirit of םוֹיָאַל, so the wrath of םוֹיָאַל abides on your head. Acts 5:32 says, “We are witnesses to these things, and so is the Ruach ha Qodesh (set-apart Spirit, Yahushua), whom םוֹיָאַל has given to those WHO OBEY HIM.” The “man of lawlessness” should be easy for you to identify. His office is the “Vicar” (substitute), also known as “Holy Father”. His powers extend to any human being who is deceived, and seeks to deceive others, with the heresy that the Torah is no longer in force. Moral law has been changed in their thinking. This beast also has a “mark” (Sunday), which you will find fulfills Dan. 7:25, the “change” of the Torah. The “Covenant Sign” of the 7th-day Shabbat, and the annual appointments, were annull ed by this beast. Yet, Mashiach clearly warned us not to think that He had come to abolish or alter the slightest stroke of a pen, until the skies and Earth disappear. That’s my whole world, because if I look up, there’s the sky; if I look down, there’s the Earth. Two witnesses again. He called them as witnesses to the presence of the Torah, as He had when He gave the Torah to the children of Yisrael: (see Deut. 30:19, 31:28) “This day, I call heaven and Earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life, and death; blessings, and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live and that you may love םוֹיָאַל, your Elohim, listen to His voice, and hold fast to Him.” And, these two witnesses are still in existence, so the Torah we live by is still in force. And, it is our life. At Mt. 4, םוֹיָאַל uses “the sword” or Word (Torah) to resist Shatan: “It is written, ‘Man does not live on bread only, but on every word that comes from the mouth of םוֹיָאַל.’” The “Bread of Life”, is what םוֹיָאַל is, the living Word made flesh; the Torah became a living, breathing Person – the image of the invisible Elohim, םוֹיָאַל. The Father is in Him, and spoke to us. His body is a new creation now, never to die; and we will have such a body. Our new body will be our “house” or “tent” that will clothe our spirit, leaving behind the clay vessel we now inhabit that must die. It is appointed for man ONCE to die, and after this, the judgment; He will say “Well DONE, good and faithful servant”, not “well believed”. What will He say to the people who have never responded to His call, or were deceived by the Babylonian Mother of Harlots (and her daughters)? At Mt. 7:15-23, after explaining that false teachers would be inwardly ferocious wolves, Rabbi tells us we can tell a good tree from a bad tree by their fruit. Then He says, “Not everyone who says to me ‘Adonai, Adonai’, will enter the Kingdom of םוֹיָאַל, but only he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven. Many will say to Me on that day, ‘Adonai, Adonai’, did we not prophesy in Your Name, and in Your Name drive out demons and perform many miracles (great works)?’ Then I will tell them plainly, ‘I never knew you. Away from me, you who practice lawlessness’”. You can also look at what He is NOT saying. He never suggests that those who do their very best to obey Torah are to face a charge of “legalism”, Shatan’s messengers steer you away from Torah, but appear as messengers of righteousness. These also are the ones who look oddly at you when you bring up the real Name of the Creator. Let’s face it; the translators carried over the name for the Yerushalyim garbage pit (gehenna) very accurately, but couldn’t do the same for the Name above every name. There is much to learn from footnotes, but you will notice they steer you away from believing you should obey the “laws” that please our Father. Without Torah, the whole world is filled with violence, as in the days of Noach. ROSARIES The prayer beads which monks and nuns wear, and are sold to the “laity” in Catholicism, came into their system around CE 1090, about the same time “indulgences” and celibacy were embraced. Prayer beads originated with Pagans, and are very common among Buddhists and Muslims. The Rudraksha beads of the Buddhists have 108 beads, and are sometimes “seeds”. The Muslims use 99 sacred stones on their rosaries, and Catholics have 59.

During the time that Spain was controlled by the Islamic “Moors”, a city was established called “Fatima”, named after one of Muhammad’s daughters. The story is that three little Catholic girls met an apparition of “Mary” in Fatima, and this “Mary” gave one of them the prayer beads, to pray to her with. Mary worship had started in CE 431, and kept growing more and more over the centuries. “Mary” is in the news quite often still, popping up in people’s houses, or in the clouds. Catholics rally to see her. It is an odd thing, but Muslims also pray to “Mary”, because Muhammad married a Roman Catholic nun named Kadijah, and learned to venerate Mary from her. They only pray to “Allah” and “Mary”, yet they don’t pray to Muhammad. Both Muhammad and Mary are dead and rotting in the ground.

Pagans “repetitive” prayers are condemned by Rabbi OWY!, since He said at Mt. 6:7: “And when you pray, do not keep on babbecause of his violence. He sought to convert his mis-guided people from their Paganism, but had to flee for his life from Mecca to his birthplace in Medina in CE 622, because the Arabs were dedicated to their idols. This “flight”, or hejira, is the beginning point in the Islamic calendar. When he was in his mid 20’s, he organized a large band of followers, and attacked the Pagan hierarchy in Mecca, and destroyed the idols in the Kaaba, replacing them with oil lamps. A large black rock inside is believed to be a gift from an angel to their father Abraham, and the Kaaba is considered to be the “holiest” place on Earth today by Muslims. “Muslim” means one who submits, and is based on the same word as Islam. He married an older woman in her 40’s, Kadijah, who was a Roman Catholic nun. It is believed by many that she had been sent to him by the Vatican, who taught him from the Scrolls of the Tanakh. In these scrolls, there is a different “transposition” of the names Isaac and Ishmael, indicating that “the Covenant” was really with the firstborn son of Abraham, Ishmael. This may have been with the purpose of causing the Ishmaelites to eventually rise up and re-capture the land of Israel from the Persians. After the slaughter, Rome would make her move, causing the Ishmaelites to eventually rise up and re-capture the land of Israel from the Persians. After the slaughter, Rome would make her move, causing the Ishmaelites to eventually rise up and re-capture the land of Israel from the Persians.

The “sign” of the land Covenant is circumcision, which the Pagan Arabs did not practice. The Ishmaelites and Israelites are both Hebrews, and are brothers, yet they fight over the land given to Abraham, and the Kaaba is considered to be a gift from an angel to their father Abraham, and the Kaaba is considered to be the “holiest” place on Earth today by Muslims.

He told her that Ishmael’s hand would be against everyone, and would live in hostility toward all his brothers. There is nothing worse than a religious fanatic. They are taught that if they die in jihad, they will be instantly taken into “paradise” and given dozens of dark-eyed women as wives. They actually can’t wait to die; they strap explosives to themselves, put their children in the line of fire when they instigate skirmishes, and generally seek to kill everyone who will not submit to their “Allah”. The objective of Islam is control of the whole Earth, and the extermination of the “unbelievers”. They control the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, so the focus remains being hostile to their brothers, even though no one is meddling with their “holiest” place in Mecca.

Now, notice the similarity of this image of the beast with the one on page 17. It represents THE SUN, Mithras:

HOLY ROMAN EMPIRE FLAG!

The above flag was modeled after the old Roman Empire flag, and came into use during the 800’s under Charlemagne. Most Pagan nations’ flags utilize a “beast” of one sort or another, and the eagle is as old as Zoroastrianism – being a symbol of Ahura Mazda, or Mithras. The Pagan priests, “Magi”, wore an eagle over their chests. This chapter started out with this old pagan BEAST image. The Egyptians, Romans, Germans, Americans, and KLA cherished this image of the sun, the great Mithras eagle – which is a vulture. Soon, you will see what simple image it later became!

BREAKING THE TRUTH BARRIER

A Christian minister once responded to a letter I sent him, admitting that there are many traditions within Christianity that were originally Pagan, but he said they are only in the “background” now. Yes, they certainly are, buried under new meanings, reinterpreted to obscure them! He also said that since we don’t intend to be worshipping the sun now, that it’s all OK. When a person chooses to believe in something, their heart follows after it. Even if it’s a lie, or a fantasy, it matters not to them. Prov. 19:2 says, “It is not good to have zeal without knowledge, nor be hasty and miss the way. A man’s own folly ruins his life, yet his heart rages against יהוה.” Many believe that “Christmas” is in the Writings, with the stable, manger, star of Bethlehem, shepherds, and Magi visitation. Also, everyone is programmed to celebrate birthdays, so why not celebrate the birth of the most important Person ever born? Please bear with this carefully.

BIRTHDAYS

The popular celebration of one’s annual birth-day is acknowledged to be, by all authorities on ancient customs, a Pagan ritual from Babylon. The Babylonians served the sun, moon, planets, and constellations, a Gentile practice condemned by יהוה. “Do not learn the ways of the Gentiles, and do not be alarmed by the signs of шамайм (heavens, skies, outer space) although the Gentiles are alarmed by them.” Yerme Yahu 10.

Birthdays are mentioned in the Tanakh a total of 3 times: when Yosef was in prison in Egypt ~ Gen. 40:20, lyob (Job) 1:4,5, and Herod’s birthday when Yahuchenon the immerser (John the Baptist) was beheaded, Mt. 14:6. In the situation described in lyob 1, lyob sacrificed an animal because he was aware of his children’s idolatry, for which they all died when the house they celebrated in collapsed on them in a violent wind storm. “His sons used to go and hold a feast in the house of each one on his day . . .” (the NIV eliminated this phrasing, but you can clearly see it in the KJV, NAV, NAS, and others). The baker was hanged on the Pharaoh’s birthday, and the Levite Yahuchanun (our Savior’s cousin) was beheaded on Herod’s birthday.

THE BIRTHDAY RITUAL

The ritual of the cake, candles, wish, and presents serve to give thanks to sky luminaries for allowing the birthday celebrant to reach the annual cycle of their birth. The cake was baked for the Queen of Heaven. It was decorated, and monogrammed with the celebrant’s name. The candles symbolized the sacred fire, carefully numbered for each annual cycle completed. The prayer chant and all the ritual procedures are carefully preserved, and it is a religious occasion. Witches regard the day of one’s birth the most significant event in a person’s life. Astrologers base everything on it. If the celebrant can blow-out all the candles, then a secret wish made to a GENIE (or JUNO if the person is female) will be granted. The birthday itself was a time of great superstition to a Pagan, so they were surrounded by their friends and relatives for protection. In the Greek culture, it was believed that personal abilities and talents were bestowed on an individual by being “inhabited” (possessed) by one or more demons, called MUSES. A person’s “genius” was the gift of the Genie, thought of as the overseer of the Muses. The Muses were 9 female deities believed to endow skills in speech, art, science, memory, scholastics, agility, and music — a word derived from the ‘MUSES’ (9 daughters of Zeus & Mnemosyne). The names of these 9 Muses were Clio, Euterpe, Thalia, Melpomene, Terpsichore, Erato, Polymnia, Urania, and Calliope. You may recognize some of their names as having become part of our language, like “Uranus”. They are the Greek deities of the Arts and Sciences, giving us the word museum, a showplace of Art and Science. The fairy tale Sleeping Beauty directly refers to the gifts and benefits bestowed by the Muses, since the Muses were known as Fairies in the Germanic and Gaelic cultures. The “Three Fates" were a triad of female deities also known as the Three Graces, or Three Charities. In the Greek and Roman mythologies, they ruled the lives of men, and determined the length of a person’s life. “Clotho” spun the “thread of life”, “Lachesis” determined its length, and “Atropos” cut it. This is the type of idolatry that Shaul was correcting the Galatians and Ephesians for observing, since they were falling back into these patterns instead of exposing them and excluding them from their lives. He told them that they had lived as Pagans and been in darkness, but now were called-out from such ignorance. This “programming” in these practices became absorbed, and people are either and others who dabble in the "OCCULT". The esse, tarot card readers, magicians, soothsayers, palmistry experts, fortune tellers, diviners, sorcerers, "horoscope", used since ancient times by witches. The position of the sun, moon, planets, and stars at the time of one’s birth produced a personal "horoscope", used since ancient times by witches, palmistry experts, fortune tellers, diviners, sorcerers, tarot card readers, magicians, soothsayers, and others who dabble in the "OCCULT". The word "occult" means hidden. Such "divination" is idolatry: "Do not practice divination or sorcery and Do not turn to mediums or seek out spirits" (Lev. 19, Dt. 18:14. Ex. 22:18 says we are not to allow a sorceress to live. “Let your astrologers come forward, those stargazers who make predictions moon by moon, let them save you from what is coming upon you ...” Yesha Yahu 47:13. These practices from Babylon are tightly woven into our cultural tapestry. When the people of Israel mixed Gentile religious practices into their lives, He brought the punishments forth that He had promised would come upon them at Dt. 28, and Dt. 30. The severe punishments for idolatry documented in the Ta-Nakh are to serve as examples for us (I Cor. 10:5-7). “This calls for patient endurance on the part of the qodeshim (saints, called-out ones) who obey Yahu’s Commandments and remain faithful to OWYAL”. Rev. 14:12. The Sovereign UWYAL commands us from the skies, to come out of Babylon: “Come out of her, My people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues, for her sins are piled up to shamayim, and YAH has remembered her crimes.” Rev. 18:4,5. The great “dragnet” is the calendar we use based on the solstices. Witches have used it since Babylon. Shatan, by stealth, has this planet worshipping him by diversion. By the process you are about to see explained in the following pages, it will be evident to you that everything is designed (although in the background) according to the plans of Shatan. He is behind the sun worship customs: “How you have fallen from heaven, O morning star, son of the dawn! You have been cast down to the Earth, you who once laid low the nations! You said in your heart, ‘I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of Elohim; I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly, on the utmost heights of the sacred mountain. I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.” Yesha Yahu 14:12-14. Shatan will be exposed as the source of sun worship! If it is in the "background", then it’s still there.

“Christmas” is really 2 words: Christos (Greek), and missa (Latin). Christos means “anointed”, and missa means “depart”. Both of these words were inherited from Pagans. The Mashiach was never called “Christ” in His own tongue (language). The “anointing” in the Pagan mind was performed by a physician, who carried a wooden box with various ointments in jars. The medical symbol “Rx” is derived from 2 Greek letters, rho (ρ) and chi (χ). These are the first two letters in the Greek word Christos spelled χριστος - anointed. The sick were anointed for healing, and the letters rho and chi were used as a “logo” for the physician’s trade – hung up as a sign designed to appear as an EYE (the “eye in the sky”). It was the Egyptian “Eye of Horus”, which the Greeks had adopted. Medical students learn this history of the RX symbol in their study of pharmaceuticals. At this point, let me remark that the Mashiach never authorized or invented a new “religion”, but rather was upset because of changes already made. He said “repent” – turn back. This is what makes all this so bizarre. The word Christos is cognate with the Hindi Krista, the sun deity of Hindus. It means shining. The Latin word Lucifer means light bringer. Kris means shining. The Hebrew “Mashiach” means anointed one, but refers to Him as Sovereign or King, as Samuel anointed Dawid. The “oil” (lamp oil) symbolized the power of LIGHT, or wisdom of Torah, poured on the head (reasoning organ) so that the king would rule wisely in the Commandments. The Torah is “a lamp”, and a “light”. But, you can still see the way the original word was avoided, and Shatan’s “shining” was adopted instead. The word Christmas means “anointed-depart”, and is seen abbreviated in “X—mas”. The “X” stands for Christos. Let me just say this: “If men originated any word or idea, then be suspicious of it.” Is nothing sacred? The word “sacred” is Latin, sakra, and is used in place of the Hebrew word qodesh, meaning set-apart. Sakra itself traces back to an Indo-European language, “Sanskrit”, and turns out to be a Vedic form of an India sun deity, “Indra”. It came into Old Persian, and in one of its 12 forms is “Sakra”. Another form is Milra, or the Persian/Roman "Mithras". OK, then is nothing qodesh? Yes! The Name of qodesh is set-apart, which is in the Name אֵיתָן. The Word, or Torah (Commandments) is qodesh. The Temple Mount - which He calls His set-apart mountain forever, where He has placed His Name is qodesh. And finally, His people, called Yahudim, who bear His Name are qodesh. Pretty much everything else is rock, dirt, metal, water, air, and such. The day we call Shabbat is set-apart in time, as a memorial of creation, and is in the Torah. The teachings of Torah are a solid "Rock" on which to build, because they will never change, nor can any man bend them. They were made "straight" by אֵיתָן.

Missa, Latin for depart, was the last word spoken at a Catholic "Mass", and so the word for the liturgical procedure seems to be from that. It was tacked-on to the word "Christ" because the Mass of the Dead itself. "Confession", Holy Orders, and the Mass of the Dead are "baptized" (sprinkled) in blood, under a bull being hacked to death. This was the time which the Earth's orbit "crossed" the celestial equator. These sun-worshippers interpreted this as "Mithras slaying the bull" - the sun had "crossed" over the celestial equator, overcoming the "bull", which they called the constellation of Taurus (Latin for "bull"). Every "Mass" is truly a Black Mass! The Pagan mind "mixed" this up with Saturnalia (also called Paganalia). It was an ancient belief that the winter sun was slowly dying, because it was seen rising further and further to the south each morning. "Solstice" means sun-stop. By December 25th, the ancient world's solstice, it could be recognized as beginning to return northward, and was said to be "re-born". It marked the time for a celebration that lasted for days. Carved idols were exchanged (dolls), people hung wreaths on their doors, or wore them around their necks (an echo of the symbol of Nimrod, the branch of a tree, twisted into a circle, symbolic of the shape of the sun, and the annual cycle). Hawaiians use a "lai", a circle of brightly colored flowers as a "sacred" religious emblem of protection and friendship. This "re-birth" of the sun came 9 months (a gestation cycle) after “Easter”, when the Earth Mother was impregnated by the sun at the “crossing” of the Vernal (Venusian) equinox, when Mithras [the sun] “slayed the bull” [the constellation of Taurus], and the sun moved into the next constellation — bringing on warmer weather. If all of this sounds complicated and wild, that’s why it was called the “sacred mysteries”. The Writings call it “folly”. Folly is the religion of fools, and if what they were doing was foolishness, falsehood, lies, and of no profit, then the Writings explain why people will say: “To you the nations will come from the ends of the Earth and say, ‘Our fathers have inherited nothing but falsehood, futility, and things of no profit!’” (Yerme Yahu 10:19). “We have made a lie our refuge, and falsehood our hiding place” (Yehsa Yahu 28:15). This is why what you are reading will cause what the prophet says “The understanding of this page will bring sheer terror” (28:19). The “world” which the Writings speak of which we are to be set-apart (qodesh) from is the “broad road” of tradition we see everywhere, based on folly. We are called-out of the ignorance, and repent of observing “Easter”, birthdays, Christmas, Halloween, Sun-day, the Nimrod based year cycle, and so on. But, we don’t show “hated” for people who are still trapped in them, but love. Nimrod, Constantine, Exiguus, and many others rule the world from the grave when practices they established are still observed by people today.

A.D. & B.C.

Under the topic “calendar”, your encyclopedia will no doubt mention Dionysus Exiguus. When he became upset by what he saw being practiced when he visited Rome, Mr. Exiguus believed the beginning of the “year” was January 1st, as most do today, but we’ll explain why that is under Nimrod when his truth barrier gets broken. Mr. Exiguus knew that the Pagan festival of Saturnalia, the re-birth of the sun at the winter solstice, had to go. So, he proposed to simply change the reason for observing the time. All the customs, the date, and symbols remained in place, but he camouflaged the behavior by declaring it to be observed as the BIRTHDAY of O W Y A H... NOT THE SUN. To better “anchor” the idea, he estimated that the actual birth of O W Y A H had been 525 YEARS prior to his visit. He imagined that the end of the Roman/Babylonian year of His birth was “YEAR ZERO”, making that year our Rabbi’s 525th birthday. He further declared it to be the 525th year of our Lord. “Year” is the Latin word anno, and “our Lord” is the Latin word domini. This production has been a continuation to our present numbering of years. Now, we have embraced his estimate world-wide, and have recorded all history since his time with references to what year of our Lord (A.D.) anything happened. There had never been anyone thinking it was the year “524”, because this idea had not yet been established. He referenced everything that happened before the birth as before Christ, giving us the term “B.C.”. Since the time of Exiguus, scholars have refined the accuracy of his estimate. It turns out that he was 5 years off, and should have determined that year as 530 A.D. You will see this when you look at any “timeline” in the study versions of the Writings – the scholars print the birth of O W Y A H as 4 B.C. to 6 B.C. That’s really very funny, because that means we entered the 21st century back in “1996 A.D.”, roughly. But, no one recognizes it; and besides, it’s just a made-up date invented by a man anyway.

The real truth is, our Rabbi was not born on December 25th, but during the fall. It has been carefully calculated that, based on the exact time when Zechariah’s duties in the Temple occurred (Luke 1), and the visitation Miryam made to his wife Elizabeth, that Miryam gave birth to the Prince of Peace during “Tabernacles”, an annual observance given at Lev. 23, and Dt. 16. He literally “tabernacled” among men, didn’t He? The years are all wrong, as well as when they are supposed to start. But, even if the world insists on this system, let’s look at more nonsense. For years, the media has “brain-washed” the public into believing that the year “2000” is the beginning of the 21st century. A broadcaster remarked, “This will be the last World Series Game (US baseball) of the millennium”. He said this in 1999! The “20th” century began on January 1st, 1901, and the Centennial Year 2000 cannot be called the beginning of the 21st century at all. If you can count, consider 2000 pennies. There are 100 pennies in a dollar; and 2000 pennies in 20 dollars. To think that you begin your 21st dollar at your 2000th penny is just bad mathematics. The 19th century included the year 1900. Scholars are not deceived by this, and history will record this blunder. I point this out only to show how easily the masses can be led with blatant errors.

The Satanists and Wiccans know more about the concealed origins of Christian traditions, and often laugh behind their backs. One said: ”The Nazarene Barbarian Church (the one in the hands of the barbarians) stole the tradition of the Folk (Pagan people); what it could not absorb was turned into their own perverse fantasies” (signed Cernunnos)>>Satan). I believe evil is real, and the errors that were absorbed are an outward sign of rebellion against שָטָן. It is also true that a deceiver (liar) is in our midst, and has planted his seeds (teachings). “The great dragon was hurled down — that ancient serpent called the devil, or Shatan, who leads the whole world astray”. (Rev. 12:9). Mr. Exiguus was devout, sincere, and had great zeal, but was deceived and lacked knowledge. Teachers have said that it would not be a good idea to change the calendar to the correct year because “it would just confuse the children”. Who is the real “cook”: the one who ignores the truth and wallows in fantasy, or the one who exposes the illusions for what they really are? Inventing man-made methods of worshipping שָטָן are not new, and He has given several specific commands forbidding His people from worshipping in Pagan designs, or “adding” anything to His observances. During the Exodus from Egypt, the children of Israel imitated the Pagan Egyptians when they fabricated the Apis (golden calf). It had never been their intention to offend Him, but they constructed an altar and were going to sacrifice to Him on the following day. But, “mixed” an Egyptian custom they were accustomed to into worshiping Him. This “calf” had a sun-disc between its horns. It was also the time of year in the spring when a “calf” or BULL image was an important Pagan item. Remember, the sun was in the “constellation of Taurus” (the bull). If something is Pagan, even if put into “the background” with camouflage, then we should be VERY AFRAID of mixing it into our worship of Him. He doesn’t change!

שאול (Paul) wrote to the Ephesians, people who had been previously Pagans, but converted to walk in the Truth (Torah). He warned them in the following texts, and these are the texts which I am responding to in obedience to warn you also:

“For of this you can be sure: no immoral, impure or greedy person—such a man is an idolator—has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Mashiach and of Elohim. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things Elohim’s wrath comes on those who are disobedient. Therefore do not be partakers with them. For you were once darkness, but now you are Light in the (Rabbi). Live as children of Light (For the fruit of the Light consists in all goodness, righteousness and Truth) and FIND OUT what pleases the (Rabbi). Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather, EXPOSE THEM. For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. But everything exposed by the Light becomes visible, for it is Light that makes everything visible. This is why it is said: ‘Wake up, O sleeper, rise from the dead, and Mashiach will shine on you.’ BE CAREFUL HOW YOU LIVE— not as an unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil.” (Eph. 5:5-16).

We must prove all things, to see if they are being done according to the “Word” (Torah). “Light” is Torah, and “darkness” is lawlessness. Ephesians 6 discusses the armor of Elohim. We must buckle on the belt of Truth (Torah). We must be steadfast, or possess the shield of emunah (faithfulness); we must shod our feet (our walk) in Peace (Torah); put on the breast-plate of Righteousness (Torah); take the helmet of salvation (Torah); and wield the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of Elohim (Torah). This enables us to be able to stand on solid ground in the struggle against the lies sown by the rulers, powers, and spiritual forces of this darkened world. Lies, deceptions, and excuses are the storms and winds that blow against the “house” we have built — that sky-scraper with missing rivets, or the one with rivets. The foundation, the Torah, is not shifting sand. As it is written, so we walk in it. The wise man will build on it as his foundation! The flesh must be disciplined by practice in walking in the Light of Torah (Heb. 5:14). This is so that when lawlessness approaches, we will be steadfast. What a rabbi teaches his students is Torah; so also our Rabbi. A rabbi “binds” and “loosens”. If a student goes to ask, “What does Torah teach about this . . .?”, any rabbi will answer according to his knowledge and skills learned from Torah. If Torah prohibits it, then the action is “bound”. If Torah permits it, then it is “loosed”. Without Torah, a minister, pastor, or teacher is “blind”, and when the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit. Our whys gave eyesight to us, so we would not be blind. Paganism defiles us.

Our whys gave us the “Keys” to the Kingdom, the Torah written on our hearts. He left us the authority to “bind” and “loose”. I do not “bind” anything alone, but with the Spirit of our whys, we Nazarenes around the world can bind and loose, and we have bound the items being exposed in this book. We expose them as counterfeit worship. For this, we will suffer, and though we come in peace, some will be killed for it. The merchants have too much to lose. We see that “the Mass” in Christ’s Mass (Christmas) is really a song-and-dance operation that has been used for well over 1000 years to take up collections of wealth. This
The whole objective of Nimrod worship, and the character of Santa Claus, seems to be intended to divert our worship away from Father Why. Even the cycle of Easter and Christmas itself is the adversary’s design, so it’s really “satanism” in disguise. When a person turns away from these things, other cultural pressures are brought into play, and the name “Scrooge” is often applied to them. As you “read” this book, it is “sweet” because you are getting your curiosity for the Truth satisfied; but as you “digest” it, your stomach sour, doesn’t it? Read Revelation 10:7-11. Most of mankind is worshipping Nimrod still, but they don’t know it. Incredible effort is expended by most everyone to conform to the adversary’s hidden agendas, but they don’t see it happening. The whole world is deceived.

There is a war going on against the Truth! The vast majority believe that in the beginning, there was nothing; then, it exploded. Rain weathered rocks, and in solution developed into the building blocks of life, and eventually became biophysicists, who believe they came from a rock. The second largest rock-carving in the world, Mt. Rushmore in the Black Hills of South Dakota, depicts the faces of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt, and Abraham Lincoln (each about 18 meters high). If you ask one of the evolutionists if they think the universe could ever randomly create such a formation by itself, over any period of time, they will logically admit it to be impossible. Yet, they believe the universe could randomly create the actual men depicted on the rock! The adversary wants people to believe there is no Designer, and this helps him because he can go about manipulating us, because most believe he doesn’t exist either.

It is possibility that the memory of the “character” of Santa Claus may lead all the way back to Nimrod, the king of Babylon, Nineveh, and all of Sumer. We sure have received plenty of the other “baggage” from Babylon, and it all seems to be closely related. If the historical time of man could be thought of as an expanding shoreline, the pagan language and the Santa-is-Nimrod idea could be something “washing ashore” together from some ancient single source. The word “Santa” contains all the letters of the word Satan, perhaps as a little personal joke of his. And the letters are only one off from being in perfect order. If he is dangling that, and we don’t believe there’s a connection, then we might not get the other one he’s “dangling” to see if we’ll notice it. SUN-DAY.

THE MAGI

"Magi" was the term used for the Pagan priests of Mithras, and they were “magi-cians”, who used fire and eagles as representations of their deity. These are Shataic designs. Ancient Pagans gave us the worship of Fire, “religious” discs, haloes, or circles, wreaths, (boughs, branches), domes with an “oculus” in the top, bells, towers/steeples; candle-altars in front of statues; holy water, wearing black; indoor altars shaped like a flat autopsy table; the idea of dead people’s bones being a “relic” that contains powers; tea leaves (scapulas); the origin of Easter/Easter and Christmas/ Saturnalia being exactly the same; “Easter” being the authentic name for the Pagan event itself; Sun-day; Lent (lenten); Valentine’s Day; Halloween; Father’s Day, Mother’s Day, the ring in marriage; rolling eggs on the grass, or fields; monks; prayer-beads like the Buddhist monks use (also inherited by a separate path to the Pagan Arabs before they converted to Islam); Princes on flying carpets and flying Santas; gurus, popes, “fathers”, Asherah poles, obelisks, colossal images of dead men; crosses of candles . . . (PUFF . . . PUFF).

It sounds like some wild VooDoo doesn’t it?

Let’s see if we can establish a difference between the relative advantage of having the Santa myth in our lives, or spinning a dead chicken by its neck over our heads. You go first. OK, you imagined that; which of the two gains you the greater advantage? If you’re truthful with yourself, they gain you the very same results – nothing; in the here and now, as well as in the eternal perspective. (Keep your eye on the Torah, and you’ll see it is turning to be a better foundation and house than any other structure around. Names, beliefs, customs, and teachings all dissolve as shifting sand on the beach of history, but the Torah stands like a ROCK.) Let’s pause and look at some of the time-traveling luggage we see “washed up” on the beach. The Magi who visited the young Mashiach in the desert when He was about 2 years old, not the night of His birth. They spoke to Herod first, and he carefully examined them to learn exactly when the star had appeared. The Magi were probably Mandaeans, sun-worshippers, and probably other prophets. The reason the Magi paid close attention was because Daniel was quite a famous and important figure among the Babylonian “wise men”, and his interpretation of Nebuchadnezzaar’s dream had saved the lives of all of their ancestors. They were what we would call wizards, and may have been “keepers of the flame” – the sacred fire. Remember that these men were also the primary reason the “clergy” wears black today – they played with ashes a lot of the time. They were mumblers who interpreted the “mysteries”. No doubt “Nostradamus” had a lot in common with them; he gazed into a fire when writing his quatrains. They engaged in “Magi-c”. This logically led to the medieval attempt to “trans-mutate” metal, like iron into gold. The gifts these Magi brought were gold (a gift for a king), frankencense (a gift for a priest), and myrrh (a burial ointment used to glue the wrappings of the body). But, these costly gifts also professed the flight and stay in Egypt, since Yosef, Miryam, and the Prince of Peace left that very night, being warned by Gabriel of Herod’s design to kill the Child. Speaking of “child” – any child can show you which day is the 7th day of the week on a calendar. How is it that we adults find it so difficult to rest on the proper day? At Luke 18:17, OYHŁ said, “whoever does not receive the Kingdom of YHŁ like a child shall not enter it.” We tend to “read through” the printed text of the Writings, looking for deeper meanings. From Kabbalism, there are 4 “levels” of meaning that certain sects “puffed-up” the Writings with, like leavening expands bread. We are warned to beware of the “leavening” (inflated teachings) of the scribes and Pharisaees. These men and others like Kabbalists, “interpreted” Torah on these 4 levels: PASHAT (the literal meaning of the words), REHMEZ (the simple secondary meaning), DROSH (an exotic derivative going “out on a limb”, straining the meaning severely), and SOOD (let’s hope we aren’t responsible for this interpretation level!). Anyway, if we “strain” to see past what Torah literally says, this might cause us to overlook it. Straining out a gnat, we could swallow a camel as we drink the milk of Torah. Or, we could find that as we correct another on a small detail, we have overlooked a huge “log” in our own ability to see with clarity what Torah says. So, receive the Words of Torah as if you were a child listening to its father. The remark which OYHŁ made must have really been insulting to the puffed-up “interpreters” who heard Him. The Pharisaees’ Kabbalism had “leavened” or puffed-up their self-image, and added much. Yahushua said a child was superior to them.

NIMROD STUFF & THE "SANTA" DISGUISE
We’ve heard all the nice stuff; but what entangle-ments do we have with a man who supposedly flies horned beasts through the air at night? Is it about sorcery? He wears a wizard cap. The red costume is recent, but it’s the ancient color of fire. Its our cultural color for danger. The costume is trimmed in sheepskins. He descends into a fire pit at midnight ~ the hearth is directly linked to the idolatry of the Romans. The fire was sacred to them, and its place was the center of the Pagan worship of their deities. Our mythology of him comes to us through Angle-Land (Eng-land), and that traces to Holland, and Germany, and so on. The 3rd-century story about a “Saint Nicholas” never had any mention of “elves”, chimneys, flying reindeer, or supernatural feats. Even the “Christmas tree” isn’t mentioned in the story. Christianity had made no inroads into the northern areas of Angle Land, Scot Land, Fin Land, and Eire Land, until well into the 5th cen-tury. If anyone named “Nicholas” existed in Hol-land during the 3rd century, he was a Pagan who obeyed his Druid priests. In the 8th century, a man named Boniface encountered these Druid-led people of the north, and sought to convert them. He saw them bringing oak trees into their homes at the winter solstice, decorating them with gold balls (note picture on page 3). The word “Dru-id” means “oak-wise”, because oak trees were sacred to them. This comes from Babylon. At the death of Nimrod, the wife/mother Semiramis taught the young Tammuz to go into the groves (forests) and place a gift on a tree at the winter solstice. This was an offering to his father, Nimrod, who was the sun. The custom of tying a “yellow rib-"ron" around an oak tree represents a prayer to the sun. At this point, branches of trees came to sym-bolize Nimrod also, so decorating Pagan temples and homes with holly, boughs, and wreaths was the custom. The wreaths are branches twisted into circles, so the branches would be associated with the sun. Ezekiel 8:14-18 shows how the women in Yerushaliyim were “weeping for Tammuz”, and the Lewite priests (25 men) were facing the rising sun and putting a “branch” to their nose. These cus-toms were called a detestable thing.

"Do not learn the ways of the Gentiles, and do not be terrified through the signs (zodiac) of the skies, although the Gentiles are terrified by them; for the CUSTOMS of the Gentiles are DELUSION; they cut a tree from the forest, the work of a cutting tool, they DECORATE it with silver and gold, they fasten it with nails and with hammers." Yerme Yahu 10:2-4.

When Boniface saw the people of the Druids bringing oak trees into their homes, he diverted them to consider the evergreen tree instead, and used it to teach them about eternal life. He never taught them that the tree or the wreath was a detestable thing. People of other re-gions use palm trees. Scholars call it “syncretism" when a religious or philosophical behavior is united or combined with another behavior. It is a conscious attempt to DIS-GUISE one of them in the camouflage of the other by re-inventing a new meaning, and believing in it. Nimrod is lurking nearby at Christmas, so maybe he really is Santa Claus too! The Christmas tree ~ whether an oak, evergreen, or palm, is really Nimrod. Shatan is still using the tree to whisper lies to us. When I go out to stores at the end of the Roman year, I walk by many of these displays, and say, "Look, it's Nimrod!" I do the same with the wreaths. If there really was a real person named Nicholas, and it’s not all just a legend, he sure went through some changes. The oldest account of his existence is vague, and of relatively recent origin. His location places him among the Dutch, but as I men-tioned, these people were not yet Christians. The date and location for him makes it an anachronism (the time is “against” it being true). In the 3rd century, the people of the north were barbarians (meaning “bearded Aryans”). They were Druids who burned their enemies and criminals in wicker cages over fires, threw wealth into lakes to water idols (like we still see people do in fountains), burned children as offerings to the sun, and placed jack-o-lanterns outside their homes lit by candles made from the fat of their own children. If they weren’t Pagans, nobody was! So, the legendary Nicho-las couldn’t have been there at that time. An-other major problem is this: they claim Nicholas was a “bishop” (presbyter, elder). Yet, at his death on December 6th, he had only reached the ripe old age of 17. “Bishop" means elder, from the Greek word presbus, “old man”. I’m not leaning heavily in favor of believing the tale with all these conflicting facts. The RCC honors him as a “saint”. How did we get from Nicholas to Santa Claus? In the late Middle Ages, the Dutch who told the story of Nicholas to English listeners spoke in a very pronounced accent. When they said “Saint Nicholas”, it came out sounding like this:

" SAINSTNI - CHOLAS "

The English hearers of this took it down at first as “Santy Claus”, and it took the more Spanish form “Santa” later on. You will sometimes see the form “Santy” in old books from earlier in the 20th century.

NOW PEOPLE ARE PUTTING PLASTIC EGGS ON TREES TO DECORATE FOR THE EASTER CELEBRATION. XMAS ORNAMENTS WERE SYMBOLIC EGGS!
Irish Potato Blight
The Irish (of Eire Land) had grown very dependant upon the potato during the 18th and 19th centuries. The potato was a transplant to Eire Land from Columbia, South America. In 1846, a fungus destroyed the crops, causing widespread famine in Eire Land. Vast numbers of people died, and the decline of the population was catastrophic – so much so, that the only hope of escape from death was emigration. It was precisely at this point that most Irish came to the United States, fleeing the Great Famine. What they brought to the United States for the first time was Catholicism, since many of the earlier colonizers had fled here from the religious persecution of Catholic and Anglican intolerance. These Irish Catholics had the rich cultural background of Druidism, which they had blended together with Roman Catholicism. Their belief in elves, banshees, leprechauns, fairies, luck, and all sorts of Celtic Magic came with them. They brought their pumpkin ritual seen as “Halloween”, which had been a Druid festival honoring Samhain, their deity of the dead. They also brought their “Christmas tree” tradition, along with Christmas, which had been outlawed as Pagan in many colonies. The Catholics in South America have assimilated the cultural background of the Aztecs. Other Catholics from around the world would not recognize many things they do – and so it is with them in many other parts of the world. Whatever the Pagans were doing before became inter-mixed with the Roman Catholic façade, forming a kind of “crust,” masking the Paganism. The Haitian VooDoo of Cajun Catholicism has produced a spicy “mix” of Pagan and Catholic tradition down in Louisiana, where the alligators grow so mean. So, there were no pumpkins on peoples porches, or Christmas trees in America until that fungus drove the Irish people to flee their homeland.

Things – like Paganism – go better with Coke. In the late 1800’s, a pharmacist put some cocaine in a sweetened, bubbling cola beverage, and named it Coca-Cola. By the 1930’s, it was a major business, and had its own advertising department, strategists, and artists. One of the artists, Rosenblum, decided to attempt something new. The Dutch/Irish character called “Santy Claus” was beginning to get a lot of attention, so he set his mind on aligning the Coca-Cola product with him. In Rosenblum’s time, Santy Claus didn’t look like he does now. The original character was an Irish transplant, coming from people who had based their beliefs on Druid magic, and ELVES. The 19th century poem The Night Before Christmas had catapulted our Christmas Elf into the spotlight, because the character was so appealing. Rosenblum used his artistic imagination to change Santy Claus into what we think he looks like today. Before, Santa was no more that 2 feet tall, skinny, and wore green. He had a long white beard, and for all practical purposes he was a leprechaun / elf creature with magical powers to grant wishes, watch you without being seen, and so on. He could also do you harm. The alignment with the hearth is another Pagan syncretism, right down to the stockings hung by the chimney with care. To make this night visitor charming, and more human, Rosenblum made him a full-sized man, jolly and plump, to better assume the distinctive shape of the Coke bottle. He also used the appealing red and white product colors to clothe Santa in. The drooping wizard hat had to be raining, and the crook and cane, and the drooping wizard hat. He was a must. The final art work was combined with a marketing message to encourage customers to leave a bottle of Coke near the hearth when he visits at midnight, Christmas Eve. Now you know why little children say, “But how can Santa fit down our chimney, isn’t he too big?” Yes, he is now, but they tell the children that Santa has magical powers. When he was less than 2 feet tall, he could fit into many such tight squeezes. The moral implications of telling an outright lie to your own children also has an effect on them later in life. It perpetuates the lie for generations down the line, and cripples them for life regarding believing in things they cannot see – such as an unseen Creator. Lying to them about Santa certainly isn’t going to help belief in Jesus. You have to put up a tree, hang stockings by the fireplace, and exchange gifts this coming Roman December, watch for the mistletoe. It’s poisonous, and a Pagan spell surrounds its ritual use too. It is just a parasite to a tree (like any government is to its citizenry), but the custom of hanging it up and collecting kisses comes from Druidism. To sprinkle a little “salt” on this whole scheme, there may be a more realistic connection to “Saint Nicholas” that is rooted in the real world. At Rev. 2:15, there is a reference to “Nicolaitans”. The messenger to the assembly at Pergamum was to carry a warning about the teachings of “Balaam” that they embraced. “Likewise you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. Repent therefore!” It has been said that these were a sect of religious teachers who “lorded over the lady” – which is what “Nicolaitan” means. I smell Nimrod all over this, don’t you? I don’t get the impression that OYMRA likes us to mix up our worship of Him with Pagan designs, or wants us to have any contact with it. Light and darkness cannot be mixed.
JUDGING OTHERS
As an interlude, let me remind you that as I write this information, I am not condemning or criticizing PEOPLE, but rather exposing the facts about why we see them performing the Pagan “format”. They were set up; it had me in it’s grips, and I am just as easily overwhelmed as anyone. The Torah provides us the Light to enable us to see what we’re doing, right or wrong. We must NOT look down on others, call them fools, or feel superior because we have the eyesight to see. They may be “blind”, at the moment, but now you have the responsibility to tell them the truth. It must be done in a gentle, loving way, otherwise they will be repelled. We must help them to see we do not judge them, but rather the customs they have embraced since childhood. The Torah does the judging: “For the Word (Torah) of God is living and active, Sharper than any double-edged sword, it PENETRATES even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; IT JUDGES THE THOUGHTS AND ATTITUDES OF THE HEART. Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of Him, to Whom we must give account.” Heb. 4:12,13. I am sure some of you have read that, and it just went past your comprehension. It sounded profound. But now, you can read ANY of the Writings, and comprehend, because His Name has unlocked the secret. “He who scorns instruction will pay for it, but he who respects a command is rewarded. The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life, turning a man from the snares of death.” Prov. 13:13,14. The Torah is Wisdom (note the feminine-ending as in Sarah). If we “rank” ourselves above others because of their impairments, lack of knowledge, education, race, or poverty, we show contempt for their maker. (Prov. 14:31). God says He HATES certain things: haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are quick to rush into evil, a false witness who pours out lies, and a man who stirs up dissension among brothers. Prov. 6:16-19. He also says at Mal. 2:16, “I HATE DIVORCE”. Let’s not go there, OK? Patch up those differences. When a sack of mud (ourselves) becomes angry and filled with pride, we are not very fun to be around. Identify your real enemy! It’s not your spouse, but the powers of evil in this world. God seeks righteous offspring, and divorce is not the way to accomplish that. The adversary “divides” and conquers. A kingdom, or marriage, divided against itself, cannot stand. Now you know a little more about potatoes than you may have before, and how relatively quickly “Santa Claus” rose up and launched into everyone’s lives because of the lack of those potatoes. The Germanic term, “Kris Kringle” means “Christ Child” - you can see the word “kris” (shining) is right there in the forefront. “Kringle” is a mangling of the word kind, and is the root for “kinder-garten”. The vагueness of who this “shining child” really is should cause you to be suspicious. No doubt it is Nimrod “re-born”. Nicholas, Nicolaitans, and Nimrod all begin with the same letter, so maybe it is a loose thread pointing to the origin. The Pagan’s “shining child” was the re-born sun at the winter solstice. Did you know that “St. Nick” is a popular euphemism for “satan”? One preacher on a radio program once commented that if you removed all the Pagan components from Christianity, there would be absolutely NOTHING LEFT to do. It would vaporize.

THE DRUIDS
The Terror Continues !!!
The word Germani originally was the name for a Celtic tribe of Druids, and now is the name of a country, Germany. The Norsemen, such as Vikings, Picts, and even King Arthur were Pagans. The wizard/sorcerer Druid dude “Merlin” certainly wasn’t trying to convert Camelot to Christianity. The Hollywood versions of history are often anachronistic (going against the timeframe). Life for a Pagan under the Druids was like a nightmare. Parents had to endure risking their children’s lives because the Druids demanded sacrifices. Children were made to stand in a large circle with marker stones, with a tall oak pole at the center. At sunrise, the shadow of the pole would fall upon a single child. This child was tied-up and burned alive on a “bone-fire” (now bonfire), and the charred bones were buried under the stone marker. Given the 2 solstices and 2 Equinoxes, this stone circle with the oak pole shadows produce a familiar symbol: the “peace” sign. This is one of the religious symbols of the Druids, dating back at least 2200 years. The term “Yule Log” means “child log”. The Celts have name prefixes like “Mc” and “Mac”, which both mean son of, which indicated a person was the son of Donald, or son of Kensey. An “O” prefix meant grandson. Another Celtic/Aryan prefix that indicated a person was an illegitimate child was “Fitz”. It was common, and when they called someone “Fitz”, they were calling them “bastard”. The prefix “VON” or VON (as in Von Meter or Van Halen) also means “son of”.

Shabuoth, meaning weeks. The Torah was written on the hearts of the Nazarenes, fulfilling the prophesied “New Covenant” (Yerme Yahu 31, Heb. 8:10).

MYTHOLOGY

A thesaurus will tell you that mythology is the study of fictional traditions, fables, or imaginary stories which sometimes originate from prehistoric times. To keep the Nazarenes from being deceived, our old Pharisee / Nazarene brother Shaul wrote an important letter to his younger pupil Timothy. In the letter, he told Timothy that things were going to be really depraved later on. “I give you this charge (order, command): Preach the Word (Torah). Be prepared IN SEASON, and out of SEASON (“in season” means during the appointed times declared for assemblies at Lev. 23 & Dt. 16, which were “done away” by Constantine, fulfilling Dan. 7:25). Correct, rebuke, and encourage — with great patience and careful instruction. For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine (teaching). Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. They will turn their ears away from the Truth (Torah) and turn aside to MYTHS.” (Read all of 2 Timothy, especially chapters 3 & 4).

The word “heaven” stands in place of the original inspired Hebrew word SHAMAYIM. This means the skies, or even our modern term outer space. It was also used as a customary substitution for the Name of יָהֹウェָה — perhaps to keep from offending Yahudim who considered it “profaning” or “blaspheming” the Name to utter it aloud. All the family of beings created by יָהֹウェָה are named by the Name of יָהֹウェָה. He has set His Name upon those He has “called-out” from Babylonian practices, and given them the Family Name, “Yahudim”. Israel’s wife Leah named her 4th child Yahudah, meaning “worshipper of Yah”. Daniel 9:19 shows also how His people bear His Name. “Yahudah” was corrupted to “Judah”, then “Jude”, and for the last several hundred years the word “JEW” has come into use. I guess you’ll have to answer “yes” if anyone asks you if you are a “JEW”. But, will anyone “go to Heaven” when they die, or in the resurrection? You will only find the idea of the Kingdom of Heaven written in the Writings, and this is really referring to the world-to-come, the “Reign / Kingdom of יָהֹウェָה”. He fills the Universe, but says His Throne will be in the New Yerushaliyim. Yerushaliyim means foundation of peace. “UR” or “IR” means “city”, so it also means city of peace. The site was at first inhabited by Pagans, and was called “Yebus”. They were moon worshippers, but all the Pagans knew about the TRUE creator יָהֹ웨ָה. They simply chose to have fun in their own way. The occupants of “Jericho” knew that the people of יָהֹウェָה were coming, and their deities wouldn’t be able to help them.

The “New Yerushaliyim” will be coming down from the skies, and the meek will inherit the Earth. There is not even a hint in the Writings that anyone will be going anywhere in the skies. We will be “caught up” and gathered to be with יָהֹウェָה — but we will not be living anywhere in the sky. Even the dead will be raised, but if they are already “in heaven” with Him, then why are they only then being gathered to Him? They will “sleep” until He returns. Yerushaliyim will be a city of peace, but it will receive a new Name: יָהֹウェָה Sham-mah” (YHWH is there). The Earth will be restored, and those who obey the living water that flows from the city (Torah) will enter it. The Kingdom of outer space will be established on Earth among men, with the Throne of the Creator here. The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) — a “Jewish” (Yahudi) Rabbi, will be seated on the Throne. So, the dead saints (qodeshim), and the Nazarenes who follow יָהֹウェָה, will be here on Earth clothed in immortality. Most of us ask for advice when we already know the answer, but we want a different one. — Ivern Ball

NOTE THE EAGLE EMBLEM; SAME OLD EMBLEM OF MITHRAS. IT JUST DOESN’T SEEM TO EVER GO AWAY, DOES IT?

“. . . IN ORDER THAT THE LIVING MAY KNOW THAT THE MOST HIGH IS RULER OVER THE REALM OF MANKIND, AND BESTOWS IT ON WHOM HE WISHES, AND SETS OVER IT THE LOWLIEST OF MEN.”

Daniel 4:17
WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU DIE?

Pagans always believed they would go into the skies to live with their deities. Wizards and magicians have struggled to defeat death, but failed. The Egyptians went to great lengths to ensure that the dead were provided for, and did so according to their “Book of the Dead”. Houdini promised to escape and return to the world, but hasn’t. A young boy named Eutychus (Acts 20:9) fell and died, a young girl was raised up from her deathbed (Mark 5), and Lazarus was called out of his tomb after several days (Yn. 11). Where did their spirits go? Nowhere! Their spirits were there, but their flesh was unable to walk again under the sun without supernatural help from their creator. El Yahu (Elijah) was used (1 Kings 17:22) to restore the life to a widow’s son by the power of אֱל. Those people died twice! The new creation that we will be will not be flesh like we have now, but like the spiritual body Rabbi אֱל has ~ He is the foremost, first born of a new thing that אֱל is doing. You shouldn’t, but if your body is turned to ashes and spread over the ocean, the Creator אֱל will still bring you back.

The parable of the 10 virgins explains that as they waited for the Bridegroom, they all fell “asleep”. This means their bodies died. When the “midnight cry” is uttered, “Come out to meet Him”, they raise in imperishable spiritual bodies. When we die, we fall asleep. No matter how much time passes, it will be as if we are re-awakening immediately when we are re-born, clothed with immortality. It will seem like no time passed at all. Your spirit doesn’t occupy any space at all. A neurologist once said that the human brain is such a sensitive and well designed thing, that it could be operated by a “ghost”. It is, in fact, an instrument that we are all equipped with that represents the most sophisticated machine that exists in the universe. Our “life” – the nephesh, or breath of life, keeps our body alive, as any animal. We have a spiritual component, created a little inferior to the malakim (angels, messengers, watchers). It cannot be destroyed, except by אֱל. At Luke 12:5, אֱל told us not to fear those who kill the body, but rather He who can destroy the “real” you in the “lake of fire” (yam esh). You don’t want to get thrown into His garbage can. That’s the point, and this points us to the Torah. You cannot inherit eternal life without it, and you cannot obey without the New Covenant – having אֱל come in and write Torah on your heart. You cannot receive Him, and not receive the love for His Torah. “Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the Earth will awake; some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are WISE will shine like the brightness of the skies, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.” (Dan. 12:1-4).

This means they will endure like the stars, unchanging. If they were already in a place called “heaven”, then they wouldn’t be “asleep”, or coming from heaven, would they? So, if your “pastor” tells you your dead family members are “in heaven with the LORD”, kindly remind him what the Writings say. You really want to stand out, wear white to funerals.

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; Fear אֱל and keep His Commandments for this is the duty of man.” Ecc. 12:13.

The dead know nothing of what goes on in the world after they are gone, but their spirit sleeps. “If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.” 1 Cor. 15:44. Reading 1 Cor. 15:12 forward will help you see that after the natural body dies, it will be raised later as a spiritual body, and that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of אֱל. Some teach that a belief in an “immortal soul” is heresy, and a myth that comes from Paganism. It is more important to note what Pagans taught about the “spirits” of the dead being transported to “heaven”. That is the heresy that has been accepted. If when we die our life goes to oblivion, then we are no different than a dead dog. It is the reality of the resurrection of אֱל that we are alive in our spirit. Our spirit is living because of His life in us, so that He may be all in all. At the time the dirt is being thrown on us, we have His seed in us, and He will “clothe” us in a new spiritual body at the resurrection of the saints. This is not heresy; but ignorance of אֱל is shameful. Everyone who believes and is immersed in His Name will be saved. I'M NOT INfallible! Just for the record, let me say that I'm learning – I haven't nearly arrived at "all truth", and some things I'm saying in this book you must verify. Most are plain facts, which can easily be proven from dictionaries and encyclopedias. Others will require specialized tools like Hebrew lexicons or historical documents. You will only be convinced by personal research, and you should question basic statements, no matter what their source is, including this one. If I have a personal opinion about a topic, I’ll try to be sure to mention it only my opinion – and you are welcome to have a different opinion! But, opinions are best when founded on a great deal of evidence.

Things like evolution are opinions, often “decided” on with very little personal research. It is my opinion that frogs only turn into princes in fairy tales.

The “evolution” of Paganism into Christianity (by men) is on display in this book, but the “evolving” of monkeys into people is not. While we’re discussing it, the theory of evolution really comes apart when the fossil record is examined from the standpoint that much of the paleontology is really only proving that the Great Flood actually occurred. The “layers” of animals show that the larger, more mobile creatures fought to survive the flood better than the smaller, less mobile ones. The smaller critters are naturally on the bottom layers, being the first to get washed away. Often, the so-called “layers” spanning hundreds of thousands of years (ha-ha) will have an upside-down tree, roots-up, penetrating the “layers” for several meters. Also, isn’t it interesting that the ancient world had millions of species of plants and animals, and this total quantity of species has been continuing to decline in number over time? No new species are appearing now, and what is here has always been here from the fossil record after their kinds. If evolution were true, then there should be MORE species as time progresses, not less and less! Every year, thousands of species become extinct, and no new ones are ever seen emerging. At this rate, it won’t be long before no species exist, and this doesn’t follow the “evolutionary” model very well, now does it? An evolutionist will say that it takes many tens of thousands of years to witness an emerging species, but it seems that it doesn’t take very long to witness the demise of thousands of species. They will say these are nature’s “experiments”; but again, the total number of species is dwindling, not getting larger. If something doesn’t make sense, then you should suspect that something is wrong. What makes sense is the original quantity of species were created, and are slowly becoming extinct over time.

How does this relate to “Christ-Mass”? Well, underlying Paganism turned into something else. Ancient Nimrod-oriented customs adapted because they were already socially-accepted, and “Christmas” is only the surface crust on the old winter solstice festival. “Sun-Day” is another adaptation, as is Easter and Halloween. Nimrod turned into Santa (Satan?). How much of the “smoke-screen” we accept is based on how much we want to conform to the “world” around us.

Watch for “eagle-beast” insignia

Y'a'akob. He will teach us His ways, so that we may walk in His paths. THE TORAH WILL GO OUT FROM TSIYON, THE WORD OF HWHY FROM YERUSHALMIYIM.” Micah 4.

These words match perfectly with Revelation 22, describing the “Water of Life”, or living water (Torah, the Covenant). The “Roman Beast” is set against the Covenant, having altered it by changing the day of rest which gives honor to HWHY for creation, as well as the 2nd Commandment which forbids images in our worship. The 7th-day Shabbath is the “sign” of the Eternal Covenant. The idolatry is glaring, and unmistakable. The 4 beasts described in Daniel 7 are all there will be, and the 4th one will endure until the “Time of Wrath is completed”, Dan. 11:36. Daniel 7:23—25 describes this 4th beast, which will attack the saints and alter the “set times and laws”.

“He will speak against the Most High (say his “authority” can change the Covenant) and oppress His saints and try to change the set times (annual appointments) and the Torah.”

This was done by Constantine in 321 CE and ratified by the Roman Council of Laodicea. The 4th Beast enforced the “Sun-day” law under penalty of death, and called the faithful Shabbath-keepers “Judaiizers”, and pursued the “woman” (HWHY’s wife, bride). Shatan’s “wrath” against the marriage Covenant, and the BRIDE who obeys it, has never relented. You see and hear about the struggle on the news constantly. The right to post the 10 Commandments in public view on public property has been a controversy for many years. Which “list” to post is an undiscussed part of the controversy, because Catholics have a different list in their minds than they have in their own translation of the Writings. Also, how can you have a “Sun-day” day of rest when the Commandments say it’s the 7th day? How can you misuse the Name of HWHY, when it is not used? Misusing it is one thing; but to never use His Name at all is also harming Him. Certainly snarling “GOD”, “LORD” or “JESUS” (being Pagan deities) brings no misuse of the Name of the Maker of Heaven and Earth. The Covenant, and the Bride of the Covenant, are the real target in the war between the sons of Light and darkness:

“Then from his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river, to overtake the woman and...

Sweep her away with the torrent. But the Earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that the dragon had spewed out of his mouth.” Rev. 12:15,16—read the context. This means the wife of

If one can “change” the Torah, then it is not a Rock, but shifting sand. This makes a weak foundation on which to build. The Torah is called the “Word”, and the “Word” became flesh, and dwelled with us for a time, showing us perfection. If we build on it, we will not be shaken or carried away by winds of other teachings. What has made straight, no man can bend or change! Persecution “for righteousness’ sake” is written in the pages of history. When said, “Everyone is to stay where he is on the seventh day; no one is to go out”, He meant what He said (Ex. 16:29). This idea of not traveling any considerable distance is supported by Luke at Acts 1:12:

Then they returned to Yerushalyim from the hill called the Mount of Olives, a Shabbath day’s walk from the city.” If there was some change, Luke would have not mentioned it, or said what used to be a Shabbath Day’s walk, would he not? He wrote the record many years after the resurrection and ascension. If you have ever walked 1,000 cubits (a man’s elbow to his fingertips), you know it’s a considerable journey. I’m glad I don’t have to do such a thing on Shabbath. If people in the early times wished to go to a synagogue to hear the Torah, it wasn’t nearly as far as we might think. Settlements, and even cities were only a few acres. Today, we have the increase in knowledge (literacy), as well as printing, so anyone who wants to read the Torah can do so with ease. Yahudut is a family oriented practice, but we should gather when we have the opportunity. We can’t ignore one teaching in order to try to obey another, just because we desire it. Interestingly, if a person rests on the 7th day, other people have no problem guessing their “religion”, because this “sign” of the Covenant reveals Who they worship and obey. My best family day is Shabbath.

The Beast instituted an ordinance that required everyone to attend “Mass” on the 1st day of each week, without one single verse in the Writings to support either the 1st day as set- apart, or a required gathering. My “gathering” or “convocating” is with my wife and children, who I am to teach diligently the Words of the Covenant. If I work six days (a part of the Commandment), then there is only Shabbath left to diligently teach them. And because it is such a wonderful family time, they will always love and cherish it, and strive to make it their “custom” as well. This is not evil, although some find it different from their habits. It was our Rabbi’s custom, as well as Shaul’s, to go to the synagogue—surely not far away! Why? To teach, and because that’s where the Scrolls were.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE DECEPTION

The dragon, who wages war against the Covenant and Bride of Mashiach, controls the “kingdoms” presently. He institutionalized the power of his religion, and centralized the implementation of his plan in the seat of the most powerful empire, Rome.

ROMAN HISTORY

Pagans worshipped the sun, and used fire, the heath, wreaths, circles, pillars, bells, and many other items seen today as relics of their rituals. Some of the early Roman beliefs came from the Etruscans, Greeks, Egyptians, Persians, and of course Babylonians. The central foundation of Roman nationalism began at Roma, the original name of the city and language of the proto-empire. The mythology of the Romans taught that the empire began with two orphaned boys named Romulus and Remus, who were nurtured by a she-wolf. Their importance to the early Romans was observed by a national day of “purification”, associated with the “wolf” (Latin lupis) that preserved their lives. Each year on their February 15, a purification festival was held which was called Lupercalia, or wolf festival. 2 youths (who represented Romulus and Remus) ran around the city in the nude, laughing and whipping around strips of wolf skins, dipped in blood. Unmarried girls exposed their posteriors to be lashed with these bloody wolf hides, supposedly to imbue fertility. As part of the ritual, every eligible girl's name was collected and placed in a large "vat" or jar, and all the young men would "draw" a name from it. This gives us the phrase "luck of the draw". Whatever name a young man would draw out, that girl would be his consort in the festival. This was a very solemn religious process. "Lupercalia" was changed into "Valentine's Day" and moved to the 14th after being "Christianized". Instead of having nothing to do with the idolatry, it was simply altered slightly and adapted to the new "universal" religion. This is where we inherit the custom of "Valentine's Cards", and HEART SHAPED symbols. The shape of the heart is an IVY LEAF, the symbol of Bacchus, the male deity of wine and love (orgiastic). He corresponds to Nimrod and Tam-muz, and also the archer, Saggitarius or "Cupid". Another name for him is Orion, the hunter. The arrow penetrating the "heart" symbol represented mating. Bacchus is seen in art wearing a wreath of ivy leaves on his head during his mating rituals. So, even the familiar "heart" symbol comes from Pagan Rome, and echoes their idolatry, as the symbol of Bacchus.

Rome is established on seven "hills", and each was originally named by the Etruscans. There were settlements on six of these, but the seventh hill was a boggy, swampy place, where the soil was loose. The Etruscans buried their dead there for centuries. Because the graves were shallow, dogs would often go there to dig up and feed on the dead bodies! The Etruscans named this hill VATI-CANUS, meaning habitation of dogs. Later, a Roman ruler named Caligula drained this site, and held enormously popular "carnivals" (Latin for flesh raising). Caligula was a devotee of Bacchus, and held orgies and drunken parties on a regular basis. The obelisk of Caligula stands today in the center of the chariot wheel design in front of St. Peter's Cathedral (previous page). The Vatican stands on the same hill where the Etruscans buried their dead, so it is an enormous graveyard. The tunnels beneath the Vatican have entire walls made of human bones in certain places.

STATUE OF JUPITER

See the pope in the picture above, puckering-up to kiss the toes of the statue? This very image was made by the Romans, and was their Jupiter colossus. It was adopted and renamed "Peter", as they will explain to you if you take a tour of the Cathedral. On certain occasions, it is dressed-up in rich robes and crowned as you see it here, and kissed by throngs of Catholic devotees. The toes are worn smooth from the millions of Catholics and previous Romans who have kissed the statue's foot over the centuries. In the days of El Yahu (Elijah), multitudes are said to have bowed to Baal, and kissed him. Pagan temples often had a colossus idol inside. The "Lincoln Memorial" in Washington is such a colossus, and the inscription on the wall states the place is a "temple". Under the 3-tier miter crown of the image the pope is about to kiss, the statue of Jupiter/Peter has a round "halo", placed there by the sun-worshipping Romans. To associate images with the sun, statues, paintings, and reliefs often had round golden nimbiuses or hoops encircling their heads. "It is not good to have zeal without knowledge, nor to be hasty and miss the way." Pr. 19:2. If a Nazi-Mithraism was the primary religion of the Roman Empire from BCE 222 through the 4th century CE. It was the chief rival of "Christianity", which history shows compromised radically in order to convert pagans into "believers". By the 4th century CE, the sect of Yahudaism called the N'zarim no longer existed openly, and gnostic clones of it had sprung up and began to compete with Mithraism for dominance. One historian said, "The entire European continent and New World would be Mithraic today, if Christianity hadn't come along." Other historians have put it another way: "Christianity didn't conquer Mithraic Pan-ganism. Mithraism blended in, and CHANGED NAMES." The doctrines, feast dates, rituals, accouterments, and organizational structure have scarcely changed at all. The religion of Mithraism itself was the result of a merger of the astrology of the Chaldean priests of Marduk (Baal) with the Indo-Iranian priests of Mithras. The sun-idol, Mithras, is mentioned in the 'sacred writings' of both cults; the Avesta and the Vedas. The sun-idol is called THE LORD in both. The Hindu Krishna is called THE LORD, as you will recall the syncretistic lyrics in the song, My Sweet Lord by George Harrison, where vocalists chant hare Krishna inter-changeably with hallelu Yah. All the while, the song blends the concepts under the impersonal, indefinite, and vague title, "LORD".

MITHRAIC DOCTRINE
1. The center of the Mithraic sun-cult was at Rome.
2. The leader of the ritual service was titled pater, Latin for father – inherited by the priestcraft of Catholicism (against Mt. 23:9), and they wore cruxes as amulets, with costumes of black, having NEHRU collars, originating from the Indo-Iranian roots.
3. There was a Pater-Patratus over the paters; a papa, or pope.
4. The hierarchy initiates below pater were called brothers.
5. The cult was for men only.
6. The cult had the Trinity: Mithras, Rashnu, and Vohu Manah – 3 'persons', but yet 'one'.
7. Sun-day was kept hallowed in honor of Mithras, the sun, called Mithras Solis Invictus. This has produced our popular name for the first day of the week, Sunday. The pattern of resting on Sun-day comes to us directly through what is called the Blue Laws, enforced first throughout the Roman Empire, then... through the western traditions into our “New World”. The edict was initiated by Constantine I, forbidding officials, artisans, or merchants from engaging in any work on the Sun-Day, to give honor to the sun, Mithras.

8. There were 5 levels within the hierarchy.

9. December 25 was observed as Mithras’ Birthday, called “Natalis Invictus”, the rebirth of the winter sun, unconquered.

10. Initiates had to undergo a ritual sprinkling (affusion, which involved being under a bull, or Taurus, which being cut to death allowed the initiate to become saturated. The custom of bloody bullights seen in Spain hearken back to this cult. The custom of performing Christian “baptisms” in the spring at Easter time will take on greater meaning as you learn the following information).

11. Special value was attributed to the moral virtues of religion, truthfulness, purity, and generosity.

13. The cult supported the divine right of kings (including Emperor worship).

14. The pater (father) stood at one end of an oblong room, performing mysterious blood rituals; there was an indoor “altar” at his end, on which a victim (Latin, “host”) was sacrificed. They had a sun-shaped wafer disc like the Egyptians, and the assembly knelt, sat, and stood in unison.

It was during this time of the “clash” when Christianity and Mithraism merged, that Jerome translated the Greek Writings of the “New Testament” into Latin (391-403). His real name was Eusibius Heirymonius Sophronius. He took the Greek word STAUROS (beam, stake, pole) and carried it over to the Latin word CRUX. This was an important shift in the meaning of the original word. The Hebrew term was “NAS”, used for the word POLE that the serpent was lifted up on. To a Mithraist, the CRUX had a significant religious meaning. It could be represented as an X or a vertical line crossed horizontally. In the spring, when the Mithraists sacrificed a Taurus (bull), the sun was “CROSSING” the celestial equator, and was in the zodiac sign of the Taurus. (“Zodiac” actually means animal figures, related to the word “zoo”). These rabid Pagans “allegorized” or interpreted this as the sun (Mithras) overcoming the bull, “crossing” the celestial equator, so the cross was their most cherished religious symbol. The cross symbols of many different Pagan cults from around the world is what scholars call “the symbol of the sun, par excellence”. The words we have inherited from “Jerome’s” Latin translations include cross, crucifixion, and crosier. So, “cross” is a Latinism. In one of its Babylonian forms, it was a tilted crux, with an arrow point at the high end, representing Nimrod standing on the tower shooting his hunter arrow at the skies. It was a bow and arrow. He may have even done this, shooting at the constellation Taurus. This is the link with the “Golden Calf”. We still call the center of an archery target “the bull’s eye”. The sign of the “cross” was a Pagan sign of “overcoming”. The Babylonian constellation “Orion” the Hunter (Archer) represents Nimrod of Babylon. Pagans practiced Astromancy, Pyromancy, Necromancy, and other occult forms of divination, and the cross was intimately linked to their rituals – and still is. A “Black Mass” uses the cross, and was practiced long before Christianity existed. Let’s keep our spiritual priorities intact as we move along, and see if the Mark of the Beast can be linked in any way to Sun-day, the sun itself in Pagan worship, and the Pagan’s symbol of the sun.

Since the Earth Mother was thought to be “fertilized” in the spring (Ishtar, or Easter), the Babylonian symbol for “woman” was also a cross, with the sun circle above it (the sun did the “fertilizing”). If you research Constantine, you will learn he had a vision of the sun with a “cross” beneath it, the same symbol used for “female” today in biology, a type of “ankh”. The circle is also interpreted as the sun, and “circuses” like the ones held by Caligula were occultic religious displays, involving animals of the Zodiac, and three “rings”. The Olympic Games today use 5 rings as a logo, representing the 5 original planetary deities worshipped in Babylon. In fact, it is still the custom to carry a torch lit by the “sacred fire” altar on Mount Olympus to the site of the games. Where the games are held, an altar dedicated to Zeus is set up at the high end, representing Nimrod standing on the tower shooting his hunter arrow at the skies. It was a bow and arrow. and was called such by many in the Brit Chadasha. Yet they also use the "excuse" that the TaNaKh (O.T.) was mainly written to "Jews" and by "Jews" for "Jews", so Commandments like observing Shabbaths or making a distinction between the "clean" and "unclean" are now irrelevant for them. Quoting verses from the TaNaKh will often be met with a response like, "but that's Old Testament". Likewise, unbelieving Yahudim will not acknowledge the Brit Chadasha either. Can you imagine Shaul or Peter standing there quoting a passage from the TaNaKh, and being told "but that's Old Testament"?

CHRISTIANITY'S PAGAN CONNECTION

Constantine is the connection which bonded Paganism to the belief in the Yahudi Mashiach. Excused as "inculturation", Paganism poisoned the message of repentance beyond all recognition. If you study any aspect of the growth of Christendom, you will find that most distracts after another. If you go in search of the worst persecution of Christians by Pagans, you will find that it was a picnic in the park compared to what Christians did over many centuries to non-Christians, and even to one another in various struggles for dominance. Constantine made Christianity the Roman State religion, but its form was far from anything known to the first Nazarenes. Constantine had to MERGE the multitudes of Pagans—who were mostly his own soldiers—with the Nazarene faith, in order to control his vast empire. This reconciliation, or merger of the Nazarene faith with Mithraism, produced what we see today as "Christianity". He made the "cross" the primary symbol of this new merger, thus rallying the Pagans around its emotional meaning. The main issue at his Nicene Council in 325 CE centered on the date of "EASTER", again the most important point in the Pagan mind when the sun "crossed" the Zodiac at Taurus. Constantine confused Mithras and "Christ" together, borrowing from the Pagan background and giving it a calendar, as I called it the great "dragnet". When people are made aware that old Babylonian "rhythms" are being kept in the annual cycles of Sun-day, Christmas, Easter, and Halloween, it sometimes endears these rituals to them even more. The "EasterN" religions have become fascinating to many westerners, and they search for hidden secrets in them — and call it "New Age". One recent movement of a New Age cult has been the embracing of the Statue of Liberty as an idol. They place lilies near a plaque which displays a prayer to her as the Earth Mother. This enormous colossal is an image of the Babylonian goddess of the dawn, the Earth Mother. The "liberty" she offers the people of Earth is liberty from the Creator's pattern for living: "Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the Earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against YAH$H and against his Anointed One. 'Let us break their chains they say, and throw off their fetters.'" This is from Psalm 2, and sums up how people seek to be "free" to choose their own way to happiness. Queen Semiramis remains their image, although she was a witch. The image was a gift to America from the French people, a larger replica of a statue of the sungoddess on a bridge in France. The global "secret societies" linked to the Illuminati know all about this, and they just make sure the common people are manipulated to carry out their agendas. They refer to their armed forces as "cannon fodder", and actually use wars to make more money, and keep populations under their control. The love of money drives the evil. But, remember, we are not called to change any of this; but endure to the end in peace with all men. We love our enemies, they kill them.

Constantine adopted the insignia called the "labarum", a cross with a wreath above it with the Greek letters CHI and RHO inside it. He had it displayed on the shields of his soldiers, as the "Christian" emblem to go forth to conquer. He had it displayed on the shields of his soldiers, as the "Christian" emblem to go forth to conquer. In later, the "Crusades" were launched with the marauding murderers wearing large red crosses emblazoned on their chests. The word "Crusade" refers to this cross. The errors overwhelmed the world because they and it are in great darkness. Rabbi MOY $h came to teach the world, but it has not received His teachings. Therefore, when the time comes, it will be punished, convicted of its crimes against Him, and the obedient children of the Father will inherit it. The saying goes that a wise man pointed at the moon. The idiot only looked at the finger. Considering the processes and Pope declared to be “LORD GOD” (that ought to just about be enough to get some people roasted).

“Ave Maria” adopted.

Stuffed donkey in Verona, Italy, at Church of the Madonna of the Organs, decreed to be the actual animal Rabbi Yahushua/Yahusha ha Mashiach entered Yerushaliyim on. (This is the idiot looking at the finger again. I’m ashamed to say, but when I first heard about it, I couldn’t stop laughing for about 10 minutes.)

Immaculate Conception of Virgin Miryam (against Romans 3:23, & 5:12, Ps. 51:5, Yerme Yahu 17:9).

Papal infallability decreed (against 2 Thess. 2:2-12, Rev. 17:1-9, 13:5-8, 18).

All sciences condemned.

Pope declared to be “Jesus Christ”.

All public schools condemned.

Declaration of the bodily assumption of the Virgin Mary into Heaven.

The dogma of “trans-substantiation” that popped-up in 1215 caused many people to lose their lives. The idiot was looking really closely at the finger, because when our Rabbi said “This is My Body”, and “This is My Blood”, He was picturing what was soon to be. The matzah... is pierced and bruised, and the blood of the grape is red. These emblems are to remind us once every year at Passover, OF HIS DEATH. First of all, the remembrance isn't done every day, or every week. Second, the “metaphor” for “eating” and “drinking” His Body and Blood was mistaken to be literal by several Pagan rulers, so they killed as many of these “believers” as they could find, because they thought there was some sort of cannibalism involved. The believers being killed didn't even understand why they were being killed! But the “believers” were led astray also by their enchanters, thinking the “priests” had some supernatural ability to call out certain Latin words, wave items in the air, and by some superior powers in them LITERALLY CHANGE BREAD AND WINE INTO THE ACTUAL LIVING BODY OF THE MASHIACH. Rabbi meant that He would be IN US like the food we eat, not BE the food we eat.

The New Covenant is receiving the Spirit of US, where He writes His Covenant Torah on our hearts, and we walk in the Commandments obediently. Our mind of the “flesh” no longer controls us, He does. We don’t receive Him by eating bread. The bread we eat at Passover is to remember His death by, at that time of year (Passover). People need to stop looking at the finger. Millions are entranced, and can’t wake up from this bad dream! No one has explained it to them, because no one “gets it” in the circles they find themselves in. The pope himself doesn’t understand. But I pray he will learn, and then teach everyone who is Catholic what they need to comprehend. It’s still a huge “mystery” to most Protestants too – many have an indoor “altar” left over from the Catholic “bloodless sacrifice of the Mass”. But, remember – without the shedding of blood, there is no remission of sins. Throw out the “altar”, tear down the “steeple”, and start over again. This remembrance isn’t done every day or every week.

The beast’s deadly wound: healed

After Constantine’s action of moving the head of the Roman Empire to Constantinople, the Empire faded into what is called the Byzantine Empire. Rome was in ruins, wounded to death. By the 6th century CE, the bishop at Rome was regarded more highly than any other by reputation, simply because the name “Rome” was a profoundly stirring one. During the 7th century, the bishop of Rome took on the Mithraic title, “pope”, or papa. The title “Pontifex Maximus” was also bestowed on him, the Caesar’s title. (“Caesar” is also spelled Czar and Khasar). By the end of the 8th century, the bishop of Rome took on the Mithraic title, “pope”, and in the year 800 this bishop crowned King Charlemagne the “Defender of the Faith”, and announced the beginning of The Holy Roman Empire, or First “Reich”. This remained intact for 1000 years. The pages of history record the evil “fruit” of death and destruction of this empire. The symbol of Caesar’s authority can be seen on the front of a US coin, the dime, or 10-cent piece. It is a bundle of reeds, wrapped in red leather strapping, called a FASCIS, from which we derive the term fascist. Caesar’s throne had this symbol under the armrests on the left and right. It symbolized complete unity, and the power to control and punish all opponents to magistrates and Caesar’s universal authority. (Thomas Jefferson designed US currency).

The men in the picture above include Adolf Hitler, Mussolini, and Hitler’s inner circle of fascist henchmen. Who would Hitler himself salute with the old Roman soldier’s salute? These fascists marched with a swastika crux inside a golden wreath modeled after the old Roman style banners in their military parades. The word “Reich” means “realm”, and the First Reich was the Holy Roman Empire, as your dictionary will explain. This “3rd Reich” was planned to last 1000 years, like the 1st one. Shatan was unleashing his “Final Solution” on the Earth, establishing Catholicism, with Hitler as the “Defender of the Faith”.

CONCORDATS

Individual nations signed a “Concordat” with the Vatican, a written arrangement which officially recognized only Catholicism as the national religion. All other religions were banned, and severely persecuted by the power of the state which signed the Concordat. “Concordat” means the state was in accord, or agreement, with the Vatican. To a citizen in such a Catholic nation, their ultimate authority was the pope, then the leader of their nation, local civil authorities, teachers, and parents. The pope wielded both “temporal” and “spiritual” authority over the citizens, which is the secret behind the “hand-sign” of two fingers you often see in religious art, and lifted in the air by the pope as he “blesses” his votaries. Germany and Italy had a Concordat with the Vatican.

[The US Constitution stands in the way of ever having a Concordat with the Vatican, since it safeguards complete freedom to practice one’s religion; the state cannot restrict religious practice in any way under the US Constitution. The Constitution controls the government, not the free citizens.]

At the end of World War 2, thousands of Nazi fascists fled to Brazil, the world’s densest concentration of Catholics. War criminals are still hiding there in their old age. The pope visited this country in 1999. He was born in Poland, and his real name isn’t “John Paul II”, but Karol Wojtyla. As a young Catholic man, he worked for a large chemical firm which manufactured the deadly gas which the Nazi fascists used to kill 6 million Yahudim men, women, and children. Leaving the chemical firm, he became a Catholic priest, and in a surprisingly short time became a Cardinal. The hidden history of this man is well-documented. He was in attendance at the signing of the Concordat with Germany as a “prelate”, and has been much closer to the “action” than most ever get. If you would like to get more acquainted with just how close Hitler was to the pope, Pius XI, find the new book “Hitler’s Pope” at a bookstore.

CRUSADES

They were called “crusades” because the rampaging murderers wore a large red “crux” on their chest. They were sent off by various popes, to re-capture the “holy land” from “the infidels”. Killing, raping, looting, and burning libraries in their path, these 13 “divine campaigns” defy description. They flung the civilized world into the dark ages, and made no small contribution to the spread of the Black Death. Sure, fleas on rats carried the Plague, but 25% of the continent perished in part because the fleas were being carried by these travelers as well. [Several organized secret societies were spawned within Catholicism during this time period, which you can independently research: Curia, The Society of Jesus, Jesuit General (the “Black Pope”, the real power behind the pope), Alumbrados, Opus Dei, Knights Templar, and Ecole Biblique.]

(The following was received by internet in CE 1986, from an anonymous source):

ILLUMINATI

In recent years, there have been hushed whispers about the secret society called the “Illuminati”, and their conspiracy to control the world. The Order of the Illuminati was founded May 1, 1776 by Dr. Adam Weishaupt. Born a Yahudi, he converted to Roman Catholicism and became a professor of Canon law at the University of Ingolstadt in Bavaria. He became a Jesuit priest, and then formed his own secret organization. The secret order began with 5 members, and each had a secret name. Weishaupt was "Spartacus", and his chief assistant, Herr Von Zwack, took the name "Cato". Weishaupt hoped to attract the German Freemasons, but was unsuccessful. Finally a few prominent citizens joined in Munich, to receive the mysterious title, "Areopagite".

3 CLASSES - In 1779, Weishaupt divided his secret organization into 3 classes: Novice, Minerval, and Illuminated Minerval ("Minerva" is the Pagan name for the "Mother of the Sun", from The Mystic Hymns of Orpheus—the hymns which are the basis of "Gregorian Chant"). Each candidate had to swear an oath to secrecy plus unconditional obedience to Weishaupt. One feature of their society was a most unusual system of "mutual espionage". Every member spied on every other member. When the Novice was promoted to the Minerval stage, a solemn initiation ceremony was performed. In a dimly lit room, the identities of other members of the society were revealed to him, up to and including the Minerval grade, but not the upper grades. By the time he reached the grade of Illuminated Minerval, he learned the ultimate aims of the order:

THE ABOLITION OF: all governments, inheritance, private enterprise, patriotism, religion, the family unit, and the creation of A NEW WORLD ORDER.

(Fascism had much the same objectives, since the leader was the "Father", and there was no room for any other allegiance).

Weishaupt wrote to his chief assistant "Cato": "The most admirable thing of it all is, that great Protestant and reformed theologians who belong to our order really believe they see in it the true and genuine mind of the Christian religion. Oh, man! What can not you be brought to believe?"

Weishaupt knew how to lure the unsuspecting, and at one time wrote: "These people swell our numbers and fill our treasury; get busy and make these people nibble at our bait... But do not tell them our secrets. They must be made to believe that the low degree that they have reached is the highest."

Weishaupt gradually infiltrated the Freemasons. On July 16, 1782 at the Congress of Wilhelmsbad, an alliance between Illuminism and Freemasonry was finally sealed. On that day the leading secret societies were infiltrated, and to some degree, united, numbering more than 3 million members. Eventually, the Bavarian government banned both the Illuminati and Freemasonry on March 2, 1785. Weishaupt was forced to leave the country. The Bavarian government heard 4 leading members of the Illuminati testify before a court of inquiry, exposing the Luciferic nature of its aims. A voluminous array of documents were found in the Illuminati headquarters. The Bavarian government published them, to warn all other countries of Europe. The name of the document was: The Original Writings of the Order and Sect of the Illuminati. (“Lucifer” is a Latin word based on lucia, “light”, and means “light—bringer”. The word Illuminati means “holder of the light”. By the time the document was published, 15 lodges of the Order of the Illuminati had been established in the 13 American colonies. There was a lodge in Virginia that was identified with Thomas Jefferson. In 1797, Professor John Robison published Proofs of a Conspiracy, in which he warned the world of Illuminati infiltration into Masonic Lodges. (Perhaps there is a connection between the American Revolution and the Illuminati?).

Dr. Adam Weishaupt, the Illuminati founder, adopted the familiar All Seeing Eye symbol when he first set up operations in Bavaria. This symbol is found on the back of the $1.00 US bill. The Roman numerals at the base refer to 1776, the date he founded the Illuminati and it conveniently corresponds to the year of the US Declaration of Independence. This “eye” symbolized a “big brother”, and the mutual spying system of the domain. The Latin words above and below the eye on the dollar bill in translation mean “Announcing the Birth of a New World Order”. The All Seeing Eye is seen in the meditation room at the United Nations building in New York City. The “Great Seal” was designed under the authority of Thomas Jefferson and John Adams (both Freemasons), and Benjamin Franklin (a member of another secret society, the Rosicrucians).

This “Mafia” acronym developed in about 1859. The organization was previously called “Camorra” since 1800, and was an Italian criminal society. This information is supplied in the 1945 Encyclopedia Americana. Shortly after Mazzini took control, an obscure intellectual joined a branch organization called “The League of the Just”. His name was Karl Heinrich Marx. Marx denounced the Messianic Judaism of his parents, and embraced atheism, studied at the University of Bonn and Berlin, and wrote the book Das Kapital, laying the foundation of the communist movement (set against private enterprise and property ownership). In 1847 Marx wrote the Communist Manifesto, which was basically a rehash of the writings of Adam Weishaupt. At this time, Mazzini selected Albert Pike to head the Illuminati activities in the US. Pike was an admirer of the Secret Hebrew Cult of Cabala (Qabbalism). Mazzini, in a letter dated January 22, 1870, wrote to Pike:

> “We must create a Super Rite, which will remain unknown to which we will call those Masons of high degree whom we shall select. With regard to our brothers in Masonry, these men must be pledged to the strictest secrecy. Through this supreme rite, we will govern all Freemasonry which will become the one international center, the more powerful because its direction will be unknown.”

This letter was published in the book, Occult Theocracy, by Lady Queensborough, pgs. 208, 209. Supreme councils were formed in Charleston, South Carolina (US), in Rome, and in Berlin. Known secretly as “Palladism”, it is the cult of Satan in the inner shrines of a secret ritual to surpass all other secret rituals. On July 14, 1889, Pike issued this statement to the 23 Supreme Councils of the world:

> “That which we must say to the CROWD is: ‘We worship a god, but it is the god that one adores without superstition.’ To YOU sovereign Grand Inspectors General, we say this, that you may repeat it to the brethren of the 32nd, 31st, and 30th degrees: ‘The Masonic Religion should be, by all of us initiates of the high degrees, maintained in the purity of the Luciferian doctrine. If Lucifer were not god, would Adonay (Yahushua) calumniate him? . . . Yes, Lucifer is GOD . . .’"
In 1871, Giuseppe Mazzini issued a remarkable letter in which he graphically outlined plans for three world wars. Until recently, this letter was on display in the British Museum Library in London. Pike aided in making this plan known in the US. It was a blueprint for three wars. Called The Mazzini-Pike Plan, its ultimate goal was eventual world domination. The letter outlined three relatively simple strategies. It called for communism, fascism, and the struggle for the Mid-East to foment three global wars and at least two major revolutions. WW1 was to destroy the Czarist government of Russia, and replace it with militant atheism. WW2 would begin by manipulating Great Britain and Germany to achieve a global war, which was done almost single-handedly by Adolf Hitler. WW3 of the Mazzini-Pike blueprint called for the firing up of the controversy between the Israeli and Moslem world. They hoped that the "Zionists" and the Moslems would destroy one another, and bring the rest of the world into a final conflict. The "Great Battle" would usher in a complete social, political, and economic chaos. To fill the void created by the "Great Battle" would come a world government, headed by the Illuminati. In Illuminati doctrine, "Lucifer" is "GOD", and Satanism is heresy.

(If you research a man named Ignatius de Loyola, you will find he founded The Alumbrados, which eventually became The Inquisition. I don't wish to turn this book into a critique on politics, but the world is controlled presently by ha Shatan, and you can see that the conflicts around the world are ROOTED in religious differences caused by his "divide-and-conquer" methods, and driven by greed. [Here in the US, Norman Thomas ran for President in 1936 on the Socialist ticket, and stated: "The American people will never knowingly adopt Socialism, but under the name of Liberalism, they will adopt every fragment of the Socialist program, and America will be a Socialist nation without ever knowing how it happened."] The word "NAZI" is short for National Socialist Party. The objective of fascism and National Socialism is government control of business, religion, the family, and the economy. Look up the definitions for "fascism" and "Nazi" in a dictionary, and you will be amazed that they are identical to the aims of the socialism we find ourselves surrounded by. Where is the "Illuminati" today? Let's find out.

THE ILLUMINATI AND THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS (excerpt) by Myron Fagan:

"Now then, this satanic plot was launched back in the 1760's when it first came into existence under the name 'Illuminati'. This Illuminati was organized by one Adam Weishaupt, born a Jew, who was converted to Catholicism and became a Catholic priest, and then, at the behest of the then newly-organized House of Rothschild, defected and organized the Illuminati. Naturally, the Rothschilds financed that operation and every war since then, beginning with the French Revolution, and has been promoted by the Illuminati operating under various names and guises. I say under various names and guises because after the Illuminati was exposed and became notorious, Weishaupt and his co-conspirators began to operate under various other names. In the United States, immediately after World War 1, they set up what they called the "Council on Foreign Relations", commonly referred to as the CFR, and this CFR is actually the Illuminati in the United States and its hierarchy.

So, watch the behavior of the UN and the World Bank. Food control is one of their objectives. This is brought about by undermining foreign governments, using Jesuit priests under "deep cover" to create religious conflicts. The Vietnam war was fought over religion. The president of South Vietnam (Diem) was a Catholic, and was persecuting his Buddhist subjects. North Vietnam was Buddhist, and sought to come to the aid of their Buddhist brothers. You'll recall headlines with images of Buddhist monks in South Vietnam burning themselves in front of their pagodas to attract the world's attention! Religious bickering is causing civil unrest in Northern Ireland, the Balkans, India, Africa, and Indonesia. They "plant" the seeds of unrest, then come in with their "international peace keepers", and on the surface appear to be "the good guys". But, the soldiers who work to restore the peace are what they internally call "cannon fodder". All the while, they develop and test new deadlier weapons at secret facilities like Area 51, and encircle the globe with nuclear submarines. They have weapons in orbit, which can target individual persons, or shoot down planes which carry the people they wish to eliminate. Mysterious crashes for unexplained reasons occur all the time; but if you check the record of those who were on board the planes, you will find people of prominent influence every time. Planes which suddenly explode for no reason, or crash into the sea like John Kennedy Jr's did, might not be the "accidents" they appear to be. I became aware of this possibility several years ago when I heard about a plane going down that had the US Air Force Procurement officer on board. The Illuminati controls political leaders with money and sex, as you see these two issues swarm around them constantly. But, we must live in peace, and trust that all these wars, conspiracies, storms, earthquakes, firestorms, and other record-breaking natural disasters are signs that the end is near for Shatan. Where ever you see eagles or “obelisks”, Shatan cannot be far away.

THE SEAL OF MASONRY

The “fraternal club” of masonry is for men only, but they started a women’s chapter for the wives, called the “Eastern Star”. Masonry is a very old craft, really. It didn’t involve all the convoluted “secrets” it has today, but only had one objective: BUILDING. Yes, the men who designed and built all the ancient and modern temples and government buildings were stone masons. They took on apprentices, or students, who eventually became journeymen, and finally master craftsmen. They had to learn how to lay foundations, measure, and cut stone. The graduates of schools wear a flat square-topped hat, which is really a “mortar board”, attached to the round hat of “Hermes”, an idol of the Greeks, which scholars wore as a badge of learning. (This “beanie” hat was imposed on the Hellenized Yahudim, and now “Jews” wear them when they attend synagogue). The “seal” of modern masonry has a compass open above a square, which are two tools used in the geometry of their craft, with a capital letter “G” in the center. The letter is “interpreted” to stand for “GOD”, and Christians who join see it this way. Some see it as standing for “Great Architect”. It really stands for the Greek word “gnostic”, which means “knowledge” — the knowledge of the craft. But it also stands for “GUILD”. During the Middle Ages, stonemasonry formed into organized groups of men called “guilds”, which were pre-cursors of unions. The building trades were monopolized by the guilds. Their most cherished item was their apron, which they wore when laying stones. Without this apron, they would not work, and it became their “badge” of approval, or “righteousness”. The emblem of each guild was displayed on the apron.

THE GREAT ARCHITECT

Originally, Masonry was a trade, but after Adam Weishaupt, people with no building skills were accepted into the organizations, and advanced in grade, as they acquired knowledge carefully “fed” to them over time. Hideous blood oaths, some involving murder, are sworn to maintain control and secrecy. In the original guilds, mathematical formulas were held as secrets (πr, 4πr, 4πr³, etc.) but Masonry today doesn’t involve architecture anymore. To be a Mason, a man has to believe in a deity who is referred to as “the Great Architect”, who they must invoke for blessings and protection. Salvation is taught by Masonry to have many roads, and all religions are believed to lead to the “Great Architect”. They meet in what are called “Masonic Temples”, and call their leaders “Worshipful Masters”.

Knowledge is power, and the skills of a master stonemason enabled him to rise above a common person. He knew the formulas and ratios necessary to construct great buildings. Naturally, you wouldn’t want everyone to control such “secret” information, if your trade could be more secure by withholding it. Today, with engineering schools teaching the detailed formulas for architecture, chemistry, and electronics, the old “guilds” have no secrets anymore. But, the gullible members of today’s Masonry are led to believe they will achieve some secret knowledge if they remain members.

PENTAGRAMS

Masonry uses the five-pointed star as one of its “secret” symbols, and it is used by the women’s organization, which is called “the Eastern Star”. Christians see it as an evil sign, especially when it is displayed point-down, because they understand Satanists use it to worship “Baal”. It is said to outline the features of a goat head, which represents a Pagan deity called “Baphomet”. Many of these ancient names are two or three deities’ names joined together. Masons call on “Jabulon”, which is supposed to represent “Jehovah”, “Baal”, and “On” (the “On” part is an Egyptian deity).

In reality, the pentagram is an ancient building tool, a geometric figure which contains what is called “the golden section”, or “golden mean”. This is a repeating mean RATIO. It was used like a ruler in the ancient world in building design. It is 61.25% of any given length. It is the division of a length, such that the smaller part is to the greater as the greater is to the whole. Pentagrams’ lines intersect one another at these key places. It is much used as a “key” or proportion in design. The main measurements in many arches, bridges, and buildings have used this “golden mean” since early times.

Artists, architects, sculptors, and engineers frequently use the golden mean in industrial design. This proportion is found in all living things: the rate of curve in the nautilus, the placement of the eyes on the head, the location of the heart in man relative to his height, the knees, the elbows in the arm span, etc. Beauty is determined by how close to the golden mean one’s features approach! It was discovered by the Greek mathematician Euclid II in the mid 5th century BCE, and later used by the Pythagoreans as a sign of salvation and secrecy. The Italian mathematician Luca Pacioli called it divina proportione (divine propor-
...and Johannes Kepler (d. 1630) called it sectio divina (divine section).

Since we know that the proportions found in the pentagram are used by the true Creator, why? Yes, there is no need to fear the symbol. If Pagans adopted it, then they only show their ignorance by not knowing its true origin. Pagans also adopted the “serpent on the pole” as the sign for healing! Originally, the bronze serpent “Nehushtan” (2 Kings 18:4, Num. 21:8, John 3:14) was a sign to be looked upon, and those bitten by a snake were healed. But, the serpent on the “staff” became a Greek sign of a healing deity, Aesculapius, a symbol embraced by the medical sciences, and called a “caduceus”. The “Seal” of those who worship the True Creator is the Name: \( \text{אֱלֹהִים} \). Paul exhorts us: “Examine yourselves TO SEE WHETHER YOU ARE IN THE FAITH; TEST YOURSELVES.” – 2 Cor. 13:5. If you have the Spirit of \( \text{אֱלֹהִים} \), you pass the test. When you are able to closely examine the trappings and observances you are programmed to follow in Christendom, you will discover unsettling truths. This book is written for those who have wished to learn the truth, and want to progress to the next level. The practices like Christmas, Easter, Sunday, steeples, holy water, the wearing of black by “clergy”, wreaths, trees, etc., are all customs “fossilized” from Paganism. The meanings behind them have been put “out of focus”, to keep the masses from discovering how they are camouflaged counterfeits. Look closely at them, their true origins become clear.

Here’s a practical example of how to see the “fine print” that often gets people into trouble for not reading it: (It's a “pin-hole lens”) Take your first finger, and put your thumb below the “crease” of the first knuckle, making a tiny “pin-hole” to look through right up close to your eye. Now, find some really small print that you find difficult to read, like on a cassette or CD. Hold the print in good lighting about 5 to 6 inches away from your eye, and look through the “pin-hole” you make with your first finger and thumb, very close to your eye. You will discover you can read a word very clearly through this pin-hole, and by opening the pin-hole too much, the small print will become blurred.

The pin-hole you make becomes the lens, or primary focal point; your eye lens is taken out of the picture. Now, it is just the fine print focused through the pin-hole, onto your retina in the back of your eye. The reason you can “focus” better on fine print in a bright light is because your iris closes to make a smaller “hole”, but this thumb-and-finger “pin-hole” makes a much more powerful lens than your iris can make.

The physics of this practical example should also apply to the close scrutiny we give to what’s behind our customs. Look closely, and test everything. Just because the origins are “out-of-focus” doesn’t mean you can’t look closely enough to see them clearly. Christendom has “blurred” quite a few things, wouldn’t you say? Remember that we fight NOT AGAINST FLESH AND BLOOD, but against spiritual forces of evil. Rabbi \( \text{אֱלֹהִים} \) was not hateful or mean-spirited when He spoke with Pilate, even when He knew this man would pronounce His death-sentence. Surely we can be patient with those who disagree with us. The Church of Rome, and her daughters, are the “beast” upon which rides Mystery Babylon. This Roman Beast is the 4th and last beast prophesied at Daniel 7, and will be successful “until the time of wrath is completed” Dan. 11:36.

“This calls for wisdom. The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits.” – Rev. 17:9. Rome was founded on 7 hills. It is often referred to as the seven hills of Rome. “Mystery Babylon, the Great Mother of Prostitutes and of the Abominations of the Earth.” This “title” is written on her forehead, so says Rev. 17:5. What is her name, or how can we identify her? Her name is the same as it was in ancient Babylon: ISHTAR

As we have already covered, this name became Astarte, Asherah, Astarte, Ostre, Eastre, and she is now embraced (or blurred) in the festival called Easter. Find Easter, and you find her. She's a bit fossilized, but nonetheless still around. The “beast” is here, and has been here for many centuries. If you are waiting for a “beast”, then you will miss it, because it has been here deceiving – even the very elect – since it’s deadly wound was healed, since the bishop of Rome became Pontifex Maximus. You will know them by their fruits. If you can honestly say that Rome isn’t the beast, in the face of the wars she’s waged, the Inquisition, the Crusades, the Roman Catholic Hitler, Pogroms, and the bloody “convert-or-die” policy from Constantine onward, then many men before me have been wrong. If, on the other hand, Rome is not masquerading but is in fact doing the deeds of the Father, \( \text{אֱלֹהִים} \) would she be capable of such evil fruit? No, she is doing the work of her father ha Shatan. \( \text{אֱלֹהִים} \) would not “change” His Shabbath to the Pagan Sun-day, nor use the Earth Mother’s name for a celebration of His Son’s resurrection, or re-invent by deception the Pagan festival for the rebirth of the sun, and call it His Son’s birthday. He would not promote “Halloween”, called such because it was “all Halloweds’ Eve’n, the night before All Saints’ Day, a re-invented Druid feast of the dead. Shatan would not continue to “sacrifice” His beloved Son over and over in a ghastly “mass” ritual – but ha Shatan would. Shatan would not have us “praying” to anyone but Himself in His Son’s Name, but Shatan guides the Church of Rome to pray to Miryam, and many other so-called dead “saints” for blessings, protection, guidance, and intercession. I can go on and on. But, if there is the chance that these things are being misunderstood, perhaps the pope would like to discuss some of these issues with myself or any other Nazarene, then let it be televised world-wide in the City of Yerushaliyim. We’ll bring Shatan with us.

Below, some Egyptian “priests” are honoring an image of the sun that looks very familiar. The priests in the picture below are also offering to an image that is sun-like. The Roman Catholic “Monstrance” in the picture at the above right looks quite a bit like these other images. There is no such item mentioned in the Scriptures, so they must have borrowed it from the Pagans.

GOD OF MANY NAMES Shatan conceals his identity, and uses many names — while only needs one. Shatan is not omnipresent, and uses a network to gather information. Among his names like Baal, Molech, and Woden, he also uses the “female” forms like Ishtar, Frigga, Venus, or Aphrodite. Masons revere Nimrod, whose eye it is at the top of the pyramid on the back of the US $1 bill. IN GOD WE TRUST” takes on new meaning when one discovers Shatan, the “shining one”, is the “GOD of this world”. He uses the “reins” of old customs to rule us. So, it is really not Nimrod ruling us from the grave!

See the “Monstrance” above? Catholicism has taught that these display the actual “presence” of the literal body of Mashiach. Millions were killed for denying it was. Yet, Rabbi told us: “At that time, if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Mashiach!’ or ‘There He is!’, do not believe it . . . So, if anyone tells you ‘There He is, out in the desert’, do not go out; or, ‘Here He is, in the inner rooms’, do not believe it.” ~ Mt. 24:23 - 26.

RELIGION HAS BEEN THE “DISNEY WORLD” OF MANY CENTURIES, DISPLAYING WONDERFUL SIGNS AND MARVELS, WHILE PILLORING THE IGNORANT.

A funny quote: “Isn’t Disney World a people trap, operated by a mouse?” – Steven Wright

A famous quote: “That which you find hateful to yourself, do that not unto your neighbor.” ~ Hillel, 1st century Pharisee

Many Christians are awaiting a one-world “government” they call the “beast” system. The text doesn’t say there will suddenly be a “beast” government ruling the whole world prior to return, but rather it says, “The whole world was astonished (overwhelmed) and followed the beast . . . All inhabitants of the Earth will worship the beast . . .” Rev. 13. This is not just a government, but a religious system – people are not legislated to worship this beast, they are tricked into it through tradition, the establishment. The intoxicating “wine” is the calendar, as you will
Where does all this information we are gathering place us in the grand scheme? What "religion" or way of living does all of this point to? Since the "broad road" can be exposed as diverse "sects" traced to individual men who came out of one or another sect themselves, let's just look past them all, and only look at the One Who walked out of His tomb. What is His religion? Not only is He a Rabbi, but also the High Priest, and our Bridegroom. One of the reasons He died was to end the marriage vow of the previous Covenant, which ended in His divorcing Yisra'el for harlotry (idolatry). He discusses this, before the New Covenant happened, at Yesha Yahu 50. At Yerme Yahu 3, "faithless Yisra'el" (His wife) was given a "certificate of divorce"—that's what the 70-year Babylonian Captivity beginning in 586 BCE was all about. The Husband pleaded, "Return to Me, and I will return to you." But, remember, before a wife can re-marry, her Husband must die! In latter times, these times, we finally understand. He has taken the SAME Covenant people (His bride), and Gentiles who graft into them, and made a NEW COVENANT with His bride. Hebrews chapters 8 & 9 help explain this. Yes, Elohim died, and remained so for 3 days and 3 nights. The bride is now free to re-marry, because the Husband died. It's not a new bride, nor a new Husband; yet He died, ending the older Covenant. By making the New Covenant in His own blood, our Maker calls-out His bride, and writes the Covenant on their HEARTS, not stone. The blood of bulls and lambs did not change their hearts to repent, but in the power of the resurrection, OWYAH's Spirit comes into us, enabling selected ones to repent, be immersed, and become a new creation as children of OWYAH.

NAZARENES

Some "handle" is commonly used for different groups, so that we will know what "bunch" or "compartment" to put them in. There are thousands of sectarian groups; Roman Catholic, Eastern Orthodox Catholic, Quakers, Shakers, Baptists, Mennonites, Amish, Pentecostals, Church of GOD, Christian Church, Mormons, Jehovah Witnesses, 7th Day Adventists, and so on. Each views all the rest as having serious doctrinal errors. Yet, the Mashiach is nothing even close to any of them. Now, we come to the "Nazarenes". We are not "organized" as a financial corporation. There's only a Spiritual "Head", and we are all members of His Body, with diverse gifts. We are all so different, we would not recognize each other necessarily by anything but how we live.

MESSIANICS

This is another "handle", sometimes commonly understood to be a descendant of Abraham who believes in the Messiahship of Rabbi OWYAH. All Nazarenes are Messianics, but not all Messianics are Nazarenes. Sure, many Gentiles are Nazarenes, and Messianics. Some "Messianics" are really practicing Christianity (Constantine's invention), but using Hebrew terms and symbols. The "elect" can even be deceived, as it was prophesied. Many of them have NO CLUE of the message of the Reign of OWYAH, nor know what the NEW COVENANT is. If you can read this book and still not know what these are, then I've failed miserably. I am a Nazarene, and a Messianic. I am also a "Yahudi", or worshipper of Yah. My son, Adam, has to attend school where he is often made fun of by Christians, because the other children have no idea what a Messianic is. Their "handle" is a Greek term, and they are taught by their parents, teachers, and community at large to celebrate Christmas, Easter, Halloween (some of them), and keep Sun-day as their "day of worship". We worship by obeying, every day. What about "tithing"? Our giving is as the Writings require; and part of this is explained at 1 Tim. 5. At 5:16, the assembly of believers not only helps support the needs of "elders" (those who are aged), but widows (and their children). It even says that the assembly should not be "burdened" with legitimate widows, if she has a family that can help instead (5:16). In fact, it says at 5:8: "If anyone does not provide for his RELATIVES, and especially for his immediate family, he has denied the faith and is WORSE THAN AN UNBELIEVER." Elders, who need to eat also, are worthy of "double honor" if they direct the affairs of the assembly well. But, this is not for them all, such as myself, who have no need for help, since I am gainfully employed, as I should be. I'm still young enough to work for food. It certainly doesn't mean the "elders" receive a "WAGE". Nor is it for "spreading the Gospel". YOU are the letter; YOU spread the message of the Reign of OWYAH. We elders are here to teach... you, so many of you can become elders. The word “elder” in Hebrew is ZAKAN, and is the same word for “beard”, with only a vowel sound changed. It came into the Greek using the word “PRESBUS”, the root of “Presbyterian”. It then took another turn in the word “BISHOP”. We’re just brothers with a responsibility, we’re not any more important! Shaul considered Timothy an elder, and told him not to be hasty in the laying on of hands. Armed with knowledge, anyone can objectively see that most have wandered from the faith. The stubborn and ignorant cannot repent, until they are changed inside, spiritually.

Instead of unity in the Body of Mashiah, what we have is “compartmentalism”; each claiming to be following OMYAH, but actually each “compartment” follows a man who founded their “denomination”. They don’t actually come out and say “I am of Herbert Armstrong”, or “I am of John Smyth”, but that’s still the result of it. An elder named Daniel Botkin who publishes a newsletter (see Resources in the back), very effectively explained this. He quoted C.E. Tozer, who observed the same thing. Mr. Tozer noted that if 100 pianos are tuned to the same tuning fork, then they are tuned together perfectly. If each of us “tunes” himself to Rabbi OMYAH, then we are automatically in unity! That’s one of the reasons I’m using the palaeo-Hebrew when I write the Name; men have “monked” with things, but the original cannot be denied by any honest scholar.

FLESH: A BODY OF DEATH!

As you know, we are approximately 83% water, and 17% dust. We are the sum total of what we eat, plantlife, or animals who ate the plantlife. What are plants made of? Dirt, and water! As we age, our cells divide about once every 7 years. When they do, they lose information each time. In our DNA molecules, there are “telomerases” at each end, which the DNA uses as a building platform to begin assembling another cell when it’s time to. Each time a new DNA strand is assembled, roughly every 7 years, a “telomere” is lost. They act as “counters”, counting down to the point when there are no more, and the cell cannot divide, because there are no more telomerases! We’re all gonna DIE! Inside this body of death, we have our spiritual body, which doesn’t age. Sometimes, more often these days, people develop clusters of rapidly reproducing cells called cancer. As our cells divide, sometimes a molecule is plugged in where it should not be, but still “fits”. This is a mis-reading, and cellular information is lost. So, cancerous cells are more “stupid”, and are not as stable as normal cells. We can eat what we think is good food, but since the farmlands have been depleted of vital nutrients over the many decades of overse, vitamins and minerals that should be there in our food just aren’t there anymore. Eat wheat grass tablets—cows just eat grass, so how can this supplement hurt? The land is supposed to lie “fallow” for one year in every 7. Normally, when a cell goes “foul”, our body issues an order telling it to self-destruct. Because cancer is a mutated, stupid cell, it doesn’t understand this command. Normally, cells have “receptors” on their outer cell walls which convey this message to self-destruct when they are detected by our body to have problems. The outer cell wall of cancer cells lack the ability to “hear” the message to self-destruct, because they are mutants. Medical science uses “cell poison” (Latin: cytotoxin) to attempt to destroy these mutants. But, it also kills normal cells indiscriminately, attacking the immune system, arterial walls, bone marrow, hair follicles, fingernails, and sensitive cells in the eyes. Cancer can be caused by a variety of types of damage to DNA: electromagnetic “ionization”, where strong magnetic fields can snatch-away an electron from one of the DNA molecules; radiation, such as being bombarded by or ingesting radioactive elements, or being subjected to cosmic rays, X-rays, or even solar radiation! Chemical abrasion can easily occur to DNA as well, as with nicotine or alcohol. . . And, simple trauma, or ripping away the DNA in tearing cuts and wounds can cause a cell to mutate.

IF YOU HAVE CANCER

Find a healthfood store, and buy a “tea” called FLOR-ESSENCE. Get it fast, and use it. Waiting too long, or trying it after the point-of-no-return (like after the chemo-therapy has destroyed your ability to recover), makes it useless. Not using it after being told about it doesn’t help either. Every hour counts without it in your body. For some reason, the mutant cells respond to it, and the “message” to self-destruct begins to work. Cancerous tentacles recede, and the “tumors” shrink away. Skin cancers fade away to nothing. If it’s used as directed, as EARLY as possible, you will absolutely not believe what 3 to 6 months will do. Find it on the internet. I sell it mail-order, and have used it for skin cancer (caused by the sun) personally. You cannot even tell the cancer was ever there.

ANTIBIOTICS AND ANTISEPTICS

To better care for this “mudbag” of death we live in, we should strive for proper nutrition, exercise, safety, and proper hygiene. Back in the late 1800’s, a doctor named Joseph Lister revolutionized surgery with his study of antiseptics. Better than 50% of those patients who underwent surgery died of infections, caused by the surgery itself. Joseph Lister succeeded in popularizing the idea of hand-washing before surgery, safety, and proper hygiene. surgery, and in the use of antiseptics, such as alcohol. Cinnamon is an antiseptic too. Today, the mouthwash Listerine bears his name. If you would like to have the use of your teeth for most or all of your life, pre-rinse with a mouthful of Listerine full strength, then brush your teeth with a good anti-plaque toothpaste. Then, rinse well. Always brush your teeth each night before bed, after breakfast, and especially immediately following candies, desserts, and gooey foods. Tooth decay occurs within the first 15 minutes of eating sweets, and progresses rapidly. Soft drinks will cause you to lose every tooth in your head. "Diet" soft drinks with sugar substitutes contain a nerve toxin in their ingredient aspartame, which when it reaches 86 degrees, releases methanol. It is linked to neurological damage, birth defects of every description, and seizures. The phenylalanine in aspartame breaks down the seizure threshold. As its depletion, or toxin causes manic depression, rage, and violence. The mysterious "Gulf War Syndrome" was no doubt caused by the thousands of pallets of diet drinks sitting for weeks in 120-degree Arabian heat. Our own bodies are 98.6 degrees, well above the required 86 degrees that chemically changes the aspartame! Men from the Gulf War came home, and produced children with no arms, brain damage, and they themselves had "shaking", seizure-like symptoms for months. Now you know why you can't "cook" with sugar substitutes - it becomes chemically altered by heat. It only seems sweet until it gets past our tongue - but it's deadly. Over 20 years ago, it was suspected to cause long-term memory damage. If you are on the internet, search for "aspartame disease". You don't have to believe me, the evidence is overwhelming!

MAD COW'S DISEASE

This deadly disease is caused by a molecular "crystal" which replicates itself much like rock candy does in a glass of sugar solution. It goes after the nervous system in animals and humans. Only this crystal is not sugar; it's a non-living crystalline molecule (it's an epidemic of a fatal brain disease called bovine spongiform encephalopathy, or BSE). Animals which are only fed plants don't get it. But, the cattle industry "supplements" the diet of the vegetarian animals (cattle) with food pellets manufactured from the waste products of other animals' bodies. This molecular crystal cannot be "cooked-out" because it is not alive. Eating "kasher" meats makes no difference we've learned, because the diet of the animals doesn't matter to the orthodox rabbis (we checked). Pigs are out of the question; not only are they declared "unclean" to consume, but they will eat anything. (We'll look at Mark 7 and Acts 10, to see if we really can eat pigs). You are what you eat.

> [Something tells me you may not be relaxing during this intermission, but bracing even more!]

CURE FOR VIRUSES

Dr. Madeleine Mumcuoglu, doing research at the Hebrew University - Hadassah Medical center in Jerusalem, has found the answer to the influenza virus, and the common cold. It is a syrup derived from the plant Sambucus nigra, better known as the black elderberry (she calls it Sambucol). The man who discovered interferon, Dr. Jean Lindenman, was the supervisor at the virology lab when Madeleine was looking for a topic for her doctoral research. He suggested elderberries; "They have possibilities", he said, "In any case, I've got 10 kilos of them in my deep-freeze." As viruses cannot replicate themselves outside of living cells, they have to invade cells to survive. "If you can stop them from invading cells, you've defeated the disease", she said. She tested the black elderberry proteins against the Influenza B virus first, and discovered that "they actually prevent the virus from invading the cell". The influenza virus invades cells by puncturing the cell wall with the tiny spikes of hemaglutinin that cover its surface. The active ingredient in the elderberry disarms the spikes, binds to them, thus stopping them from piercing the cell membrane. "This was the first discovery", says Dr. Mumcuoglu. "Next, we found evidence that elderberry proteins fight the influenza virus in another way, too. The viral spikes are covered with the enzyme, neuraminidase, which helps break down the cell wall. The elderberry inhibits the action of the enzyme. My guess is, that we'll find that elderberry acts against viruses in other ways, as well." Clinical trials have proven that this "healthfood product" actually works, and requires no medical approval because it is not a drug! For example, in a study of patients with influenza, half were given four doses daily of Sambucol (the name given to the product), and half were given a placebo. Within 24 hours, the symptoms of 20% of the Sambucol patients had significantly improved (fever, cough, muscle pain). After the second day, 735 declared themselves cured. Among the placebo group, only 16% were improved after two days, and it took most of them six more days to feel well again. Sambucol is no more than a 'health food' officially, but interest is snow-balling all over the world. In Hadassah's virology lab, it has been seen to inhibit the AIDS virus, and encouraging results are being seen now against the herpes and Epstein-Barr viruses. You can probably find this product in any good health food store; we stock it in lozenge form for you.
need it for $12.95 per bottle. I spent almost two years trying to get in touch with the suppliers when it first came out, so that people would have access to it. A friend of mine came down with chicken pox (as an adult, it could have been fatal or severely damaging to him) — and he was covered from head-to-toe with sores. Two days later, after taking Sambucol, he was not only completely well, but had no signs of the sores. Another case involved a mother who had been suffering from a flu for three months. She was getting worse in spite of antibiotics and the best in medical care, and was about to be put in the hospital. She talked to my wife Phyllis, and began taking Sambucol immediately. She was well in two days. How much money and suffering can be saved from not treating "symptoms"? Think of the lives to be saved, especially the fragile elderly — time lost from work, and so on. I've lost two close friends in their 70's over the years before this product was available, who both caught a flu and perished within 2 weeks from it. Once you've tried this product, you'll wonder why it isn't on the cover of every magazine. Why hasn't Madalene won a Nobel Prize? If you think about it, the answer will come to you: it upsets too many money-making endeavors, exactly like this book does.

We've discussed how cancer is caused by abrasions and damage at the cellular level. Nicotine and estrogen-substitutes cause cancer. ("Estro-gen" is named after "Easter", the Babylo-nian Ishtar). Proto-cancer cells are in all of us. From now on, we can only expect the incidences of cancer to increase; currently 2 out of every 5 people will develop cancer sometime during their lifetime. That's 40% of everybody, and only about half of those will survive the traditional therapy. I've watched them die, that's why I'm telling you. Avoid cheese, or at least treat it like you would chocolate, because it clogs your arteries and intestines, making the absorption of nutrients greatly reduced. Also, clots break free and block blood-flow to the heart or brain. Buy a jug of cranberry juice every month, and force yourself to drink it. It cleans your system out.

Now, for a bit of more calming news. During this relaxing intermission, it's nice to be able to go outside and breathe in some fresh air, and gaze up into the peaceful universe above us. While we're doing this, let's consider the 5th planet, called "Jupiter".

JUPITER STAR

Jupiter -- 5th planet, named for Roman idol meaning "Zeus-father" (I-U-PITAR). NOTE: It's a pagan name, folks, forbidden by Ex. 23:13, Ps. 16:4. This giant ball of mostly hydrogen has always been intriguing to scientists, since it would have been the second star in our system if it had only a slightly larger bit of mass. It has the same make up as our sun. With only a LITTLE more mass, the core temperature would be sufficient to cause a fusion effect; the nuclear reactions of the hydrogen cycle -- to ignite the star? For all practical purposes, it is an un-ignited star. This is the premise of the movie 2010 (the sequel to 2001 A Space Odyssey). This movie was based upon a real possibility, however.

In the real world, a controversial book called Behold a Pale Horse by Milton William Cooper has revealed many unsettling government secrets, and has quite an extensive historical perspective of events world-wide. This book is not fiction! He discusses the spacecraft Galileo which orbited the 5th planet, and how its decay-ing orbit was expected to deliver its payload into the dense inner regions of the planet sometime about December 1999. So what? Well, the book goes on to say that the dangerous power plant on board Galileo generates from a nuclear source: 49.7 pounds of weapons-grade PLUTO-NIUM. The pressures it may encounter in the deep, hot regions of the planet could simulate the conditions created by an implosion detonator. There is no worse place in our solar system for such a set of circumstances to exist, since the possibility of igniting the planet into a sun is very real. Just how long it would burn is unknown, because sustaining the nuclear reactions is linked to the stability of the hydrogen cycle in the core. But, it could explode so violently that it actually destroys the planet, causing a chain-reaction that turns the planet into a huge hydrogen bomb. The plutonium is encased in ceramic chips to keep it from going 'critical', and it is undergoing fission to generate the heat necessary for electrical production for on-board systems. But, if the ceramic chips are subjected to intense heat and pressure, they will melt -- and they could take their time to do it. It could sink into the liquid planet, drifting into hotter and hotter regions. It could take years, or even decades to explode, or maybe nothing will ever happen. There is also the asteroid belt to consider (between the 4th & 5th planets); if the star ignites, the explosive action would disrupt millions of chunks from this belt, sending them right at us, and distributing them into the entire inner solar system! That would be 'stars' falling from the sky, burning as they enter our atmosphere, and impacting on our planet! The asteroid belt may have been put there for this very purpose, as the waters of the FLOOD were.
Planets do not emit energy, as a star does. Yet, the 5th planet is radiating twice as much infra-red (heat) as it receives from the sun! Something is already happening inside it -- scientists estimate that only several hundred miles down, the metallic hydrogen is liquid, and is thousands of degrees. The core could be tens of thousands of degrees, or hotter. The Earth is one “AU” (astronomical unit) from its center to the center of our sun. The 5th planet is about 5.2 AU from the sun, making it 4 AU from Earth at its closest position. Double stars are more common than our system’s single sun, and it appears that we could be responsible for igniting the giant gas bag. The additional radiant heat from a second star in our system would completely melt the Northern and Southern polar ice of Earth, flooding the lower elevations and coasts – many islands would be no more (another prophetic occurrence). Then we really would have to “flee to the mountains”, high ground! When you take it all in together, with the added situation of the asteroid belt to pelt us, the final days of distress were created beforehand to fulfill their purpose, like the frogs, flies, locusts etc., that plagued ancient Egypt! Being children of light (Torah), we will understand these things, while many others’ hearts will fail from fear of the things coming upon the Earth.

If and when any of this happens, this Earth will be in distress. “And the fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun, and it was given to it to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with fierce heat; and they blasphemed the name of Elohim who has the power over these plagues, and they did not repent so as to give Him esteem.” - Rev. 16:8,9. There is no indication which ‘sun’ is being referred to! People will “blaspheme” His Name (not use it), thus not giving Him esteem. The saints will be on Earth during the Tribulation, counter to the Christian Rapture Myth, and it will be the ‘weeds’ who will be taken first. The 144,000 are being sealed with the Name in their foreheads right now: the palaeo-Hebrew four letters YHWH (Yod-Hay-Waw-Hay).

According to the book, scientists have already chosen the name for the new star: LUCIFER, which means light-bringer in Latin. Our Nazarene Rabbi, OYWH, told us of a prominent sign or signal that He is coming: “But pray that your flight may not be in winter, or on a Shabbat; for then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever shall. And unless those days had been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect, those days shall be cut short.” -- Matt. 24:20-22. As a prelude to the final days of the ‘times of the Gentiles’, a world-wide message is to go forth, called the ‘Gospel’ or message of the Kingdom:

“Repent! For the Reign of YHWH draws near”.

This report was the same message spoken by Yahushua’s cousin called ‘John the Baptist’. ‘John’ just prepared the way for it, and the One Who will be our Ruler one day soon. The whole Earth will be in distress. And then, the end will come.

(You might have guessed, but “John” wasn’t a “Baptist”, but rather a Torah-observant Levite priest. Being a priest, they didn’t stone him when he said the Name – it was only a problem for non-priests. But, no one else was ever saying it, and many probably didn’t even know he was saying it, not realizing what it was).

NOTICE the above stone carving of Mithras as a lion standing on a “sphere” with a cross on it?

PETER’S VISION, ACTS 10

WHAT COULD IT MEAN?
PETER DIDN’T KNOW AT FIRST, BUT HE EXPLAINED IT AT ACTS 11 SO WE WOULD UNDERSTAND.
Plato wrote that the universe was created in the shape of an X, being the intersection of the celestial equator with the axis of the Zodiac (constellations of "living animals", since "zoo" and "zodiac" are related words). Could this "X" be the image of the beast? To the above right, we have a Pagan altar piece depicting Mithras slaying the bull, or overcoming the constellation of Taurus the bull. This is reverently cared for in the Vatican museum. Mithras, the sun deity, is shown in the act of tauroctony, slaying the bull. This act showed Mithras to be the supreme power in the universe, able to move the spring equinox out of the Age of Taurus (really caused by the precession of the Earth – a wobble). In this photo, the zodiac animals are represented along with the sun and moon (upper corners); the bull is Taurus, the dog is Canis Minor, the snake is Hydra, the raven is Corvus, the scorpion is Scorpio, and the stars around Mithras' head are thought to be planets, but could also be the Pleiades, or seven sisters. The lion motif represents the constellation of Leo, the lion. The universe is illustrated as a sphere with the cross on its surface, depicted above with Mithras standing on it as its supreme ruler with a lion's head. Atlas is seen holding this same sphere with the intersecting axis on its surface. Hopefully, this book has successfully slain some "bull" too.

Leaving all this Pagan Mithraic nonsense behind, what can we turn to? We can't follow after the Roman calendar, because it is like a dragnet trapping the whole Earth in its tentacles. You may wish to pick up a "Jewish calendar" at a synagogue or funeral home, to roughly familiarize yourself with Yisrael's Scriptural time system. Although there are a few technical glitches, they are mostly correct. Some Messianic groups have very good calendars available, and I recommend the one issued by Petah Tikvah, listed in the Resources portion in the back of this book.

Before Chris Koster died, I asked him to summarize the annual appointments for us, so here is what he provided. (My additions will be in italics):

YHWH’s APPOINTMENTS

A GENERAL OVERVIEW

YHWH’S REDEMPTION PLAN FOR HIS BRIDE: THE APPOINTED TIMES

The Hebrew word is mo’edim, and in the traditional versions of the Scriptures, it was mistranslated as "festivals". The Hebrew for festival is "chag". Although many a “mo’ed” is also a "chag", this is by no means always the case. Elohim legislated these Appointed Times to be just that; a time that He has appointed for us to draw near to Him to serve Him, to worship Him. In 3 Mosheh 23 (Lev. 23), we find these Appointed Times listed. The very first and most important one is the weekly Shabbat, of course. The weekly Shabbat, as well as the yearly Shabbat, the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur), are “mo’edim”, but they are not festivals. The other Appointed Times in 3 Mosheh 23 are also called "festivals". If we turn our attention to these “Festivals of YHWH”, we naturally ask two questions: What is their significance, and secondly, why were they done away with by the Church? Before we discuss this, please note that the seven festivals are grouped in three groups:

1. The festivals of the first moon, Abib,
2. The Festival of Weeks (Shabuoth)
3. The festivals of the seventh moon.

THEIR SIGNIFICANCE They were instituted "as a law forever", as we repeatedly read. In the first Scriptural month, Abib, we find
PASSOVER
Pesach, also called Unleavened Bread. (These are 2 separate things. One is an observance at twilight on the 14th, while Unleavened Bread begins the next evening - but some will differ on this). Certainly having been fulfilled in the Messiah, our Passover Lamb slaughtered for us (1Cor. 5:7) - why insist that we still keep it? (While the firstborn died in Egypt on the Passover, the blood on the doorposts pre-figured the Firstborn Son of Yahweh dying to cover our Torah-breaking). The Passover was instituted forever, but as (Rabbi) Yahshua fulfilled it, His Body and His Blood took the place of the Passover lamb and its blood. Therefore we still observe the Passover, but with its Messianic emblems, the unleavened bread and the cup of the vine. Sufficient to say, the apostles kept on observing Unleavened Bread (Matzah) (Acts 12:3 and 16:6), and (Rabbi) Yahshua also promised that He will again drink of the fruit of the vine when the Reign of Elohim is physically set up, here on Earth (Mt. 26:29). (The 1st and 7th days of Matzah are "rest days" from work. The 7th day is traditionally believed to be the day that Yisrael crossed the yam suph, or Sea of Reeds. The mightiest army on Earth perish ed that day, and Egypt has not recovered from it and the 10 plagues even to this day).

Traditionally this is thought to commemorate the giving of the Torah on Mt. Sinai. (This is the event recorded at Acts 2, and saw the fulfillment of the promise of the New Covenant given at Yerme Yahu 31, where the Torah given at Sinai was written on the hearts of the 120 Nazarenes assembled in the upper room at the Temple. If they had not been observing this, they would not have received the Ruach ha Qodesh. Constantine re-designed its determination at the first Council of Catholicism, at Nicaea in 325 CE, and involved the Vernal Equinox in setting it. He also set up the policy that if ever "Easter" and Passover occurred on the same day, "Easter" would be observed the following "Sun-day", so as not to have anything "in common with the hostile rabble of the Yahudim.") When the 'taught-ones were assembled on Shabboth, as we read in Acts 2, the Set-apart Spirit was poured out on them. Nevertheless, they simply kept on keeping Shabboth year by year, e.g. Acts 20:16 and 1Cor. 16:8.

The third group, those of the seventh Scriptural month, are most interesting, because they have never been fulfilled. The Appointed Times of the seventh month consist of Trumpets (or shofar/ram’s horn blowing, called Yom Teruah), Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur), Festival of Booths (Sukkot, or Tabernacles), and the Last Great Day. Interestingly, the Festival of Booths also has the name "Festival of Ingathering".

In Col. 2:16,17, we read that these festivals, new moons, and Shabbaths "are a shadow of what is to come". Notice, it is not past tense "were". No, it is present tense, "are". Some years ago, the editor of Midnight Cry, a well-known prophetic magazine, said; "The Church has been robbed of its festivals." He then went on and elaborated on the great prophetic significance of the festivals of the seventh moon in particular. What do these Appointed Times of the seventh moon foreshadow? By the way, we all know that the weekly Shabbath is a shadow of the seventh millennium, yet to come. Nevertheless, we still keep the Shabbat for it is the sign of the Eternal Covenant (Exodus 31:13-17 and Ezekiel 20:12-20).

TRUMPETS - Yom Teruah
This is generally interpreted as being a shadow of the Last Trumpet—1Cor. 15:52, Mt. 24:31, 1Thess. 4:16, Rev. 11:15—heralding the Second Coming of Messiah and the establishment of the Reign of Elohim here on Earth! (This is also called Rosh Hashanah, and is the 1st day of the seventh moon).

DAY OF ATONEMENT - Yom Kippur
Yahshua has certainly atoned for us as individuals when He died in our stead. However, as a nation, Yisrael is still awaiting its national atonement. Yisrael is still to be reconciled to Elohim through Yahshua, the Sovereign of the Yahudim, the Shepherd of Yisrael. (This is the 10th day of the 7th moon, called "the Fast" at Acts 27:9).

FESTIVAL OF BOO THS - Sukkot
This is a shadow of Elohim setting up His Booth as the New Yerushaliyim comes from heaven. (Outer Space, Shamayim, or skies. Dwelling in tents ourselves for 7 days, we are reminded of the wilderness experience of Yisrael, but more importantly the spiritual teaching that we are sojourners in these bodies of flesh, and we will move into a "permanent" or immortal "house" when we put on incorruption). Let us read Rev. 21:3, "See, the Booth of Elohim is with men, and He shall dwell with them and be their Elohim." But, in spite of Him dwelling among His people, the Festival of Booths continues to be observed — read all of ZekarYah 14! Even those who are left from the Gentiles (goyim, v. 16), after YHWH had fought against all the Gentiles who came up to fight against Yerushaliyim (vv. 2-3), shall be compelled to worship YHWH and to observe the Festival of Booths (vv. 16-18).
THE LAST GREAT DAY

This is a shadow of what Yahushua will do in the Last Day, as we read of its fulfillment in Rev. 7:17, 21:6, and 22:12. As Messiah was observing the Festival of Booths in Yoch. 7, we read in Yoch. 7:37-39 how He will give us to drink from the fountain of the river of life, sometimes called the fountain of living waters. Already this has had a partial fulfillment in the lives of the True Believers, but the final consummation of the prophetic promise is still future! (Get ready for Y6K).

The seventh Scriptural month is the time when the ingathering from the threshing-floor and the winepress has been completed (read Deut. 16:13). This ingathering includes those truly converted Gentiles who joined themselves to YHWH (Yesha Yahu 14:1, 56:6-8, ZekarYah 2:11), “even all the Gentiles on whom My Name has been called” (Acts 15:17).

Why did the Church do away with these festivals? The answer is given to us at Daniel 7:25 - the little horn (generally interpreted as Rome) “intends to change Appointed Times and Law.” This is exactly what took place when the Roman Church was set up to lay waste the True Worship, to trample underfoot that which is set-apart. The Festivals of YHWH were done away with and they continued with their old Gentile customs and festivals - Christmas, Easter, Sunday, etc... (Let’s not forget the Pagan underpinnings of Halloween, Valentine’s Day, Lent, and the "feasts" dedicated to particular "saints" that were all re-interpreted Pagan days).

THE WORD “GOSPEL” AN ANALYSIS

The word “Gospel" is a 2-word English. It's really not of this fold (Gentiles) will also take the Name of the Groom. We'll discuss this in greater detail here. The word “Gospel" is one of many words we have inherited from dead translators that has taken on a kind of life of its own. Even encyclopedias admit that it is a bit “fuzzy”. Scholars accept the term, but both what it is, and how the term came into use, are not clearly understood. The word’s meaning and use is the result of our imitating each other for centuries, or our attempting to say the same thing everyone around us is saying. People who want to defend the altered names and other words they are conditioned to use by imitation sometimes will say, “Well, I speak English, and not some foreign language." English is like a wide river with many other languages flowing into it. “Gospel" is Celtic. “Evangelical" is Greek (from euangelion, meaning message, or report). It became the Latin word evangelium. You can see the word angel in both, which simply means messenger. “Epistle" is Greek for letter. Many words we think of as English are really Celtic, Latin, Greek, French, Hebrew, or aboriginal tongues spoken by the natives of an area prior to English settlers. Rivers, states, and countries are often named by “foreign" terms. They’re not “English", but our familiarity with them causes us to believe they are.

When Rabbi Oywyal was in the synagogue (Mt. 11) and read from the TaNaKh, He read aloud in Hebrew the words of Yesha Yahu 61. He told them that this prophecy had been fulfilled in their ears! He announced the fulfillment of the prophecy of the awaited Mashiach, as His listeners comprehended. He proclaimed the “acceptable year of Oywyal”, known as the year of Jubilee (every 50th year, native-born Yahudim are to be freed, and land is to be returned to the heirs according to their tribes). He was also proclaiming the “Gospel”, the announcement that the “Reign of Oywyal” had come into their midst. If you read all of Yesha Yahu 61 & 62 (as He probably did), you’ll discover that it promises the day when the “Bridegroom” will rejoice over His BRIDE. At Mt. 11:5 where this passage of Yesha Yahu is being quoted, the word “Gospel" appears in our translation from the original Hebrew word BASAR (Bahsar or Basar), meaning tidings, message, report, or news. You must know what the message is, to carry it to others.

YAHUSHUA DIDN'T COME TO SAVE US FROM THE TORAH. HE CAME TO SAVE US FROM OUR SINS.
THE REIGN OF MASHIACH
(Otherwise known as the "Kingdom of GOD")

How do we know it's a secret? At Mark 4:11,12: "And when He was alone, those about Him, with the 12, asked Him about the parable. And He said to them, 'To you it has been given to know the SECRET of the REIGN OF MASHIACH, but to those who are outside, all are done in parables, so that seeing they see but do not perceive, and hearing they hear but do not understand, lest they should turn (repent) and their sins be forgiven them'". (He was quoting Yehshu a 6:9). The "secret" or "mystery" is really the 'Gospel' itself. At Romans 16:25: "Now to Him who is able to establish you according to my GOSPEL and the preaching of MASHIACH, according to the revelation of the MYSTERY which has been kept SECRET for long ages past . . ." So, the "GOSPEL" isn't something new, but was first spoken to Abraham (see Gal. 3:8, Gen. 12:3). Abraham was called out from among Pagans and Gentile practices, and was ultimately to become a blessing to the Gentiles because of his "fidelity" (faithfulness, emunah). Paul had to sternly warn the Gentiles who had converted at Galata, and to those at Ephesus (4:17,18) he said: "This I say therefore, and affirm together with MASHIACH, that YOU NO LONGER WALK AS THE GENTILES WALK, in the futility of their thinking, being darkened in their understanding, excluded from the Life of MASHIACH BECAUSE OF THE IGNORANCE THAT IS IN THEM, because of the hardness of their heart."

They were just overwhelmed by the Pagan patterns of everyday living. When Paul stood before the Greek idolators in Athens, he stood as Yonah had in Nineveh:

"Therefore having overlooked the times of ignorance, MASHIACH is now declaring to men that all everywhere should REPENT, because He has fixed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness through a Man whom He has appointed, having furnished PROOF to all men by raising Him from the dead." Acts 17. The Reign of MASHIACH will be to most like a trap springing shut, and catch the majority by complete surprise. They are in a Roman system, ignorant of the annual observances they are taught are "Jewish". Weekly Shabbat, Passover, Shabuoth (Pente-cost), Yom Teruah, Yom Kippur, and Sukkot (Tabernacles) all picture the redemption of MASHIACH's Bride, but they are kept from the knowledge of the plan, and what to watch for. (For those unaware, Paul used to be "Shaul").

Paul explains it is a mystery to the Ephesians at 6:19: "and pray on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to make known with boldness the MYSTERY of the GOSPEL . . ." (see also Eph. 3:3-9). In Col. 1, Paul states his goal is "That I might fully carry out the preaching of the Word of MASHIACH, the MYSTERY of which has been hidden from the past ages and generations, but has now been manifested in His qodeshim (set-apart ones, saints) TO WHOM MASHIACH was willed to make known what is the riches of the esteem of this SECRET among the Gentiles (the Torah written on your hearts) which is: MASHIACH IN YOU, the expectancy of esteem, Whom we announce, WARNING every man and TEACHING every man in all WISDOM (Torah, Commandments), in order to present every man perfect in MASHIACH . . .".

Shaul's reference to mitzvot in you indicates that the believer is ENABLED to LOVE the Torah, and thus obey it (MASHIACH's Word), because His "seed" (the Commandments) came into the Nazarenes literally, fulfilling Yerme Yahu 31, implementing the New Covenant: "But this is the Covenant which I will make with the house of Yisrael after those days; declares MASHIACH, I will put my Torah within them, and on their HEART I will write it . . ." This prophecy is quoted at Heb. 10:16, and 2Cor. 3:3, and it first occurred at "Pente-cost" (the commanded convocation called "Shabuoth", which commemorates the giving of Torah at Sinai). Paul is quoted very often by today's preachers when they need to justify their "freedom" from the Commandments, making "sin" more of a state of the heart than a tangible, definable thing. Sin is definable, because 1 Yahuchanon 3:4 says: "Everyone who sins breaks the Torah; in fact SIN IS TORAHLESSNESS." (anti-nomia, lawlessness). MASHIACH came to destroy the devil's work in us, and Yahuchanon goes on at 3:9 saying: "No one who is born of MASHIACH will continue to sin, because MASHIACH's seed remains in him; he cannot go on sinning, because he has been born of MASHIACH. This is how we know who the children of MASHIACH are and who the children of the devil are: Anyone who does not do what is right is not a child of MASHIACH; nor is anyone who does not love his brother." 2Pet. 3:15,16 discusses how this lawlessness was being propagated by DISTORTIONS OF PAUL'S WRITINGS.

"Our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, as also in all his letters, speaking in them concerning these matters, IN WHICH SOME ARE HARD TO UNDERSTAND, WHICH THOSE WHO AREuntaught and unstable twist, as they do also the other Writings, to their own destruction. Therefore, dear friends, since you already know this, BE ON YOUR GUARD so that you may not be carried away by THE ERROR OF LAWLESS MEN and fall from your secure position.

The “merchants” draw away your attention to the fact that Peter is calling Shaul’s words “Scripture”, but they cause you to overlook the serious warning of Peter talking about the very men you are listening to! Paul is always the one they quote to “prove” the Torah is no longer in force, yet here is Peter warning us of “falling” for that lie. (Paul is speaking of the “ceremonial” law coming to an end). The “Message”, called the “Gospel”, is very simple. The Writings are very clear about what it is, but listening with “lawless” ears, it is veiled to those who are perishing:

“USher time has come, He said. ‘The Kingdom of HEW is near. Repent and believe the good news’”. Mark 1:15.

“The Torah and Nabi’im (Law, or Teachings, and prophetic Scriptures) are fulfilled through Yahuhanon. Since that time, the good news of the Reign of HEW is being preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. It is easier for heaven and Earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Torah.” (Luke 16:16,17). What “Gospel/good news” have you been taught all your life? Commonly, it involves not being condemned for disobedience to the Torah. This is partly true, but it overlooks what the resurrection means to us, and what receiving OHEW accomplishes, by His writing His Torah on our hearts! Shaul said to the Galatians, who were falling back into their old Pagan customs:

“But even though we, or a messenger from the skies brings a message (“Gospel”) to you besides what we announced to you, LET HIM BE ACCURSED.” - Gal. 1:8.

THE REAL MEANING

The real “Gospel” (message) is not the popular one. It is “Repent, for the Reign of HEW draws near.” Mt. 3:2, 4:17, Luke 16:16, Mark 1:15. Acts 8:12, etc... In fact, ALL THE PARABLES describe it in great detail. The message of the Reign of HEW is the subject matter of the parables, which veil its meaning from those not called. (Many are called, few chosen).

“I will open My mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.” Ps. 78. You can praise the Living HEW till you drop; but if you will not obey Him, your prayers and praise are an abomination, Pr. 15:8,9, 28:9, Yeshu Yahu 1:15.

At 2Cor.4:3, Shaul states that he does not distort the “Word of HEW”, and says: “Even if our (Gospel) is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing: “Unlike so many, WE DO NOT PEDDALE THE WORD OF HEW FOR PROFIT.” The “WE” would be the ones called the Nazarenes, who follow the Lamb where He leads us, into Truth.

The “Gospel”, or glad tidings, announcing that all men everywhere should REPENT (turn from sin, and obey Torah), is our commission: “And these good tidings of the Kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations; and then shall the end come.” Mt. 24:14.

(Those who are perishing do not understand the message, and they are being plundered by false teachers who are profiting from the faith). The first thing a person must do is be convicted of their sin against the Torah. Hearing first that their “sins are covered” doesn’t emphasize repentance from sin, it sounds like they can live in their mind of the flesh, “believing.” Where is it written, that we will be punished for attempting to obey the Torah? Your enemy wants you to ignore the Torah, just as he tricked the first woman. If we think she goofed over such a simple thing, then we should look at how we find ourselves in the very same situation. Shatan is a liar, and has many people following his masquerading messengers of lawlessness. “Legalism” and the accompanying criticisms cannot be found in the Writings anywhere. The merchant messengers will tell you “rest any day you like, just try to do it about every 7 days”. They still “program” you to come to a Sun-day morning assembly, so you will be able to feel good about contributing to their wonderful “work”. They are the “priests of Baal” (the LORD), wearing black. “The LORD’s Day”, Baal’s Day, is Sun-day. Start obeying the 7th day Shabbat, and watch what they say to you. It’s the sign of the Eternal Covenant, which we will see details of later. I picked the 7th day Shabbat to rest, and do it without fail. I’m “marked” now, with a mark called the Sign of the Eternal Covenant Ex. 20:12, Yeshu Yahu 56:4-8, Ex. 31:12-17, Gen. 2:2, Heb. 4.
THE EVERLASTING COVENANT

The Everlasting Covenant establishes a new relationship between YHVH and mankind. It's the relationship of a Husband and His wife. It's metaphoric, or a figure of speech that draws an analogy. Like a marriage, there are two processes involved: betrothal and consummation. 50 days after leaving Egypt, representing the bondage of sin, the children of Yisrael (the chosen wife of the promise) were at Mount Sinai. This was the first “Shabuoth”, now called “Pentecost”. The elements found in the Everlasting Covenant correspond to Yahudim wedding traditions. אתא refers to Yisrael as His “wife”, because He has engaged in a formal betrothal. Sinai was this betrothal, and two written copies of the Torah (teachings, written in stone on front & back) were the marriage “ketuba”. One for the Husband, and one for the wife. These were placed into a special container, called The Ark of the Covenant. The Husband chose His wife, Yisrael, to care for, provide for, and protect. The wife agreed to obey, forsaking all others. Two witnesses were called forth to hear the Covenant: shamayim (heavens, skies), and Eretz (Earth). They are the witnesses to the wife making her vows: “All the words which אתא has spoken we will do.” Ex. 24:3. At this point, the 70 elders of Yisrael (the Sanhedrin of the time) ate and drank with the Husband, Bridegroom, Creator, and Sovereign. The “wife” provided her contribution to the marriage covenant, a type of property brought by a bride to her husband at a marriage: the gold, silver, bronze, fabrics, oils, and precious stones for the construction of the ark and dwelling of the Husband among them. The terms of this formal covenant (the written wedding agreement, or ketuba), were burned into stone with the finger of אתא. The NAME of the Husband was taken by His wife; and so they (we) are called: YAHUDIM. This was corrupted to Judah, by translators, then Jude, and for the last several hundred years, it has been Jew. אתא speaks of His Covenant without ceasing, reminding His wife of the marriage. “For your Maker is your Husband ~ אתא Shaddai is His Name” (Read all of Yesha Yahu 54, 55 & 56).

GENTILES ALSO CALLED “Blessed is the man who does this, the man who holds it fast; who PERMANENTLY keeps the Shabbaths, who choose what pleases Me and hold fast to my covenant ~ to them I will give within My Temple and its walls a memorial and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that will not be cut off. And ALL FOREIGNERS who bind themselves to אתא to serve Him, to love the Name of אתא and to worship Him, ALL WHO KEEP THE SHABBATH without defiling it (and who hold fast to My covenant, these I will bring to My qodesh mountain and give them joy in My house of prayer . . . . For My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.” Yesha Yahu 55:2-7.

All of the “converts” underwent an immersion, called now a “baptism”, which is a logical progression for us to turn to now. Any body of water can be used; the Hebrew term is MIKVA. Traditionally, a mikva is a place to wash away “uncleanness”, as a woman would bath after her monthly cycle before having contact with her husband. Likewise, our “Husband” doesn’t wish contact with us until we have washed away our past sins (ignoring Torah). Our immersion is an outward sign of our commitment to obey from that point on, and the New Covenant promises the Spirit (our “helper”) which writes the Torah (Covenant, marriage vows to obey) on our hearts. This pledge identifies us with His Name, His burial, and His resurrection from the dead. At 1Peter 3:18-22, Cephas (Peter) states that the 8 persons on the ark were also saved through water, and that water symbolizes our immersion that now saves us. Those who came through the water fleeing Pharaoh came through the sea, along with “foreigners”. All were saved through water. Immersion is our outward sign of a good conscience toward ואתא, and now represents our “circumcision”, Col. 2:11,12. “In Him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature, not with a circumcision done by the hands of men, but with the circumcision done by Messiah, having been buried with Him in (baptism) and raised with Him through your faith in the power of אתא. Who raised Him from the dead.” Obviously, not comprehending this at the time of one’s immersion means it was not anything but a “fake”, and probably wasn’t in the correct Name! An infant cannot possibly be considered capable of knowing what is happening. Immersion is an act of your own personal will, “You covenant with אתא”. LAYING ON OF THE HANDS

You can immerse yourself, but it is my advice to find an elder if possible to attend. After immersion, you should seek to have an elder’s immersion, called now a “baptism”, which is a logical progression for us to turn to now. Any body of water can be used; the Hebrew term is MIKVA. Traditionally, a mikva is a place to wash away “uncleanness”, as a woman would bath after her monthly cycle before having contact with her husband. Likewise, our “Husband” doesn’t wish contact with us until we have washed away our past sins (ignoring Torah). Our immersion is an outward sign of our commitment to obey from that point on, and the New Covenant promises the Spirit (our “helper”) which writes the Torah (Covenant, marriage vows to obey) on our hearts. An infant cannot possibly be considered capable of knowing what is happening. Immersion is an act of your own personal will, “You covenant with אתא”. LAYING ON OF THE HANDS

hands laid upon your head, recting the priestly blessing which places the Name of יהוה on you (Num. 6:22-27). At this point, you may bring others to the water, and lay hands on them. The students (disciples) of Rabbi יְהֹוָה did this, but He immersed no one – it is our duty to make converts and immerse them into His Name. At the time of the laying on of hands, you will receive a greater “measure” of יְהֹוָה’s Spirit, or gifts; not that the man touching your head has any “power” of his own, but rather by your obedience, our Beloved יְהֹוָה witnesses your actions; and brings you an increase in His power. Do you feel driven to the water now? This knowledge is free, and the “Kingdom” of יְהֹוָה is not a thing to “go” to, because it is in our hearts, unseen. We are the set-apart (qodesh) “Temple”, not a building dedicated to the financial plundering of the lost. I was immersed in a creek here in Louisville, with only my 8-year-old son present, when I was 39 years old. I had been immersed as a baby, and by a Christian minister a couple of years before, but I called on יְהֹוָה when he said “Jesus”. He looked pretty shocked when I said it. But, I did it again myself in the creek, because I felt disturbed over the other situation. The Blood of the Lamb covers our sins, but we inherit eternal life by the resurrection of יְהֹוָה – which is what our immersion pictures. Although my son and I were the only people present at the creek, I felt the presence of יְהֹוָה, and other beings in His presence who witnessed my immersion. You will also, when you obey, and undertake this “circumcision”. Romans chaps. 7 & 8 are a must-read! Read the whole context without a “lawless circumcision”. Romans chapters 7 & 8. Please read Romans chapters 7 & 8. You will be confronted by many people in the future who struggle to understand what Shaul really means. Men attend Bible colleges, seminars, and spend their entire lives without being able to “crack” the secret, nor can it be done – unless your mind gives up, and you ask יְהֹוָה for the TRUTH. As I said on page 4 of this book, you must have asked Him for the TRUTH, because now you have it. I asked, and I received. “The Truth Is Out There” – but now it can be in you. You have just found the treasure of eternal life, if you will only pick it up and put it on! That is what the (“Gospel”) message of the Reign of יְהֹוָה is, and the 1st part of the secret:

REPENT. FOR THE REIGN OF יְהֹוָה DRAWS NEAR. This means He reigns in our hearts and minds, and we obey Him because we love the Covenant (the marriage vows, the 10 Commandments). We show our love for Him by our faithfulness. We change, they don’t. The “change” in the “law” between the Old Covenant and the New concerned the ceremonial animal sacrifices, which were imperfect, and could not justify us permanently.

The New Covenant: This is the 2nd part of the secret. It was “cut” in the Blood of the Lamb of יְהֹוָה, when ONE sacrifice put an end to atoning for lawbreaking. Having become convicted of our sinfulness, we “turn” or repent to the Torah. Our belief in Him as our substitution, convinces us of our sinfulness and need for a debt payer. However, we cannot be perfect, because of our mind of the flesh. This is where the New Covenant brings us eternal life. Showing our repentance to the marriage vows by obedience, we go to the water in full submission to our Husband, and wash clean spiritually. We actually “die” to sin. We are then “raised” with Him, and He comes into us – you will feel Him, it is like a “wind” grabbing you from the inside, filling you. You will feel something change in your will, and have a new clarity of mind. Your flesh will no longer rule your mind, but your spirit will rule your flesh. By His resurrection, we have eternal life also. We are atoned for by His death; but we are SAVED by His LIFE, the resurrection from the dead. This is the complete Truth, and it is absolutely free. You don’t have to pay for it, by going to a steeple for decades giving a man 10% of your money, because he doesn’t even know it. As you continue to learn, you will see that Christianity is a man-made religion, and absolutely nothing like the faith (religion) that was delivered to the saints. The Nazarenes existed for centuries before a “Christianity” did.
THE 10 COMMANDMENTS

Called the “Decalogue”, Deca (Ten), Logue (Words), Ex. 20:1-17

1. I AM אֱלֹהִים YOUR ELOHIM. HAVE NO OTHER BEFORE MY FACE.

   [No foreign names, rituals, customs of pagans]

2. YOU DO NOT BOW TO IMAGES.

3. YOU DO NOT BRING THE NAME OF אֱלֹהִים YOUR ELOHIM TO NAUGHT.

   [No misuse or nonuse, bringing Him shame]

4. REMEMBER SHABBATH, TO KEEP IT QODESH.

   [Sign of everlasting covenant of love, Ex. 31:13, Ez. 20:16-20. Changed (Daw. 7:25) by Constantine to his “Day of the Sun” in 321 CE for Christians. Changed by Muhammad to 6th Day, circa 622 CE. Shabbath acknowledges אֱלֹהִים as creator. Heb. 4. In the world before sin came, and remains for all eternity, Is. 66:23, Ps. 119:152, Ex. 31:13]

5. YOU RESPECT YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER.

6. YOU DO NOT MURDER.

7. YOU DO NOT ADULTERATE.

8. YOU DO NOT STEAL.

9. YOU DO NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS AGAINST YOUR NEIGHBOR.

10. YOU DO NOT COVET YOUR NEIGHBOR’S HOUSE, WIFE, SERVANTS, OX, ASS, OR ANYTHING THAT BELONGS TO YOUR NEIGHBOR.

   These are to be diligently taught to your children, and posted on the doorposts of your home. (Dt. 6).

   Note: Roman Catholicism eliminated the 2nd (so as to continue the Pagan behavior of bowing and kneeling before images) and split the 10th Commandment into two, so as to maintain 10.

   They briefly outlawed images during the 8th century, but after 34 years without them, reverted back by wiping out the cross, relics (dead bones), and images were re-authorized. Source: The Catholic Encyclopedia.

   When Rabbi יוסף פוטים warned us that “a little leaven (yeast) leavens the whole lump (bread dough),” He meant that a “little” error will spread and corrupt the entire group, if it is ignored. "A rotten apple spoils the whole barrel". Constantine “spoiled” the true day of rest, and turned it into his “Baal’s Day”. Sun-day. He brought in the Pagan festival of “Easter” to obliterate Passover. If you were Shatan, wouldn’t you “possess” the man with the most power, and divert things? Where do you think Shatan is today? It’s easy to figure out.

The Covenant is the 10 Commandments. Dt. 4:13. If you read Galatians chapters 4 & 5, you will see that “Sin” represents the slave woman. The slave woman is fleshly, carnal, and non-spiritual. But the “free” (spiritual) woman represents those born of the Spirit, having the Covenant written on their hearts, not stone. The “law” that could not justify us was the ceremonial law of animal sacrifices (Heb. 10:1-4), but the New Covenant is able to justify us, being in the Blood of the Lamb of אֱלֹהִים (one sacrifice for sins, Heb. 10:12). The 10 Commandments are called the “Covenant of Love” (1Kings 8:23, 2Chr. 6:14, Ne. 1:5). Look over the list of them at the left; is there ONE that is not good? If your inner being agrees with them, then you are being called! When you can say “I LOVE these teachings” – you have crossed-over into a Spirit-led realm, controlled by the Spirit of יָהּ – and you will not sin against them, because they are now your personality, as they are His. “If we deliberately keep on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left, but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of Elohim.” (Heb. 10:26, 27). These Commandments are your marriage vows. You change; they don’t!

How do Gentiles begin?

The answer is at Acts 15. At the Yerushalaim Council, the issue of fleshly circumcision (the sign of the land covenant) was debated, and called “a yoke that neither we nor our fathers have been able to bear”. Peter told them of how he learned that no man is “unclean” (the 3 sheets, Acts 10). He saw that “unclean animals” alluded to מַּטָּחָה, food, as explained at Acts 11. When Gentiles heard the message, Peter said their hearts were purified by belief, and they received the gift of the Spirit, and were immersed (spiritual circumcision). Then “James” (Ya’akov) decided the beginning steps for Gentiles:

“It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to Elohim (no fleshly circumcision). Instead we should write to them, telling them to:

1) abstain from food polluted by idols, from (2) sexual immorality, and from (3) the meat of strangled animals and from (4) blood. For Mosheh (Moses, the Torah) has been preached in every city from the earliest times and is read in the synagogues on every Shabbath.” (Acts 15:19-21). Because few could read and write (being illiterate), and because scrolls were not widely available, the converts needed to attend the readings of the Torah, Prophets, and Writings at synagogues (houses of study) in order to learn more. The Nazarenes remained a part of the wider group of Yahudim, and even many “synagogue rulers” were Nazarenes. The main disruption of this “oneness” was caused by the Romans (a “war” conducted by Shatan), when they destroyed the Temple in 70 CE, and again crushed the Yahudim 60 years later. Shatan managed to kill millions of us, and dispersed us into the surrounding regions. Because our Rabbi had warned us beforehand that when we saw armies surrounding the city to “flee to the mountains”, the Nazarenes were “shunned” because they did not stay and fight. Without the Temple and the ceremonial sacrificial system, “rabbinical” Yahudaism developed among the dispersed Yahudim. Shatan pursued “the woman” (Yahusha’s bride, wife): “Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring — THOSE WHO OBEY THE COMMANDMENTS AND HOLD TO THE TESTIMONY OF OHYAHU. Who has written His Torah on our hearts and minds? Now, having the ability to LOVE the Commandments, we do not sin against them. We are led by the Spirit (the spiritual seed), not the flesh (Hagar, the mind of the ‘flesh’). The Commandments are spiritual, but the mind of the flesh wars against them. How do we show our love for OHYAHU? We obey His Torah, teachings, Covenant of Love! We are the “wise virgins” who await our Bridegroom, having the “oil” (Torah) that lights our way. If you have been raised in, or converted to Christianity, you should by now be starting to see the “rotten” decay that Paganism brought into the barrel of apples long ago. The Torah (teachings) is the “Rock” that the wise man will build his house on. You need no other “rabbi”, or the approval of any man, to convert to the religion of OBEDIENT love. We do not beg for money, but work ourselves. The love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. The wisdom of Torah is more precious than gold or rubies! It must not be “sold”. The New Covenant makes you an heir of the promises, and you will be included at the Wedding Supper of the Bridegroom, not locked outside. It doesn’t matter how much you pay your pastor to spread the message of the Reign; you must do it yourself! His Name and the Covenant is the “buried treasure”, so apply your whole heart and mind to remain steadfast. You can trust your Husband to be faithful, and He will say, “well done, good and faithful servant”. If He gives you 5 pieces of “silver” (wisdom, knowledge, understanding), and you return to him 5 additional pieces at His return (you have invested and helped others convert), you will be greatly rewarded. Your money cannot help. People who misunderstand the parables, or are tricked by their pastors, not only are blocked from the Covenant, but they are also plundered. The reason so many men can peddle the Word of OHYAHU for profit is because the message is veiled. The harvest is great, because there are billions alive now who need to hear the true message of the Reign of OHYAHU. The harvest of the Earth is coming very soon, probably within the generation (70 years) of the re-gathering to Yisrael (1948 CE). But no man knows the day or hour of His coming; we will know the “season” however. First, you must be immersed, calling upon the Name of OHYAHU for the forgiveness of your past uncleanness (sins), then walk in the Truth (Torah, the Covenant). You will know you are YAHU’s Bride. You need no other “rabbi”, or the approval of any man, to convert to the religion of OBEDIENT love. We do not beg for money, but work ourselves. The love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. It's very important that we consider the impact that Constantine had on our accepted customs, because he acted as a "lens" which filtered-out the (Jewish) roots of the faith. The habits of the western Pagan Gentiles like Sun-day, Easter, Saturnalia, Samhain, towers, and many familiar symbols were carried along and blended into the Nazarene faith as a matter of state policy. Owyael's death and resurrection occurred at the time of Pass-over. Since the Gentiles of the western localities were in the habit of their Earth Mother fertilization festival, Easter, they continued to keep it in a new perspective when they converted to Christianity. The eggs and rabbits, rolling eggs on the fields, egg "hunts", etc., should be more than enough evidence to show this. The early Nazarenes who were less inclined to "inculturate" the Paganism were disturbed as they witnessed the Gentiles' changes. Since they continued to observe the Passover, it meant even more to them than ever before. Owyael had revealed the mystery that Passover had foreshadowed. We know there was a controversy concerning the alterations made by Constantine when he set up "Sun-day", and "Easter", replacing the Covenant Commandments. In Eusebius' Ecclesiastical History, there is the record of the following letter written by an elder, Polycrates, to Victor of the Church of Rome:

"We, therefore, observe the genuine day; neither adding thereto nor taking therefrom. For in Asia great lights have fallen asleep, which shall rise again in the day of the (Rabbi's) appearing, in which He will come with esteem from Shamayim, and will raise up all the saints; Philip, one of the twelve apostles, who sleeps in Hierapolis, and his two aged virgin daughters. His other daughter, also, who having lived under the influence of the Ruach ha Qodesh, now likewise rests in Ephesus. Moreover, Yahuchanan, who rested on the bosom of our (Rabbi); who also was a priest, and bore the sacerdotal plate, both a martyr and a teacher. He is buried in Ephesus; also Polycarp of Smyrna, both elder and of tary of Eumenia; who is buried at Smyrna. Why should I mention Sagaris, elder and martyr, who rests at Sardis? Moreover, the blessed Papirius; and Melito, the eunuch, whose walk and conversation was altogether under the influence of the Ruach ha Qodesh, who now rests at Sardis, awaiting the episcopate from Shamayim, when he shall rise from the dead. ALL THESE OBSERVED THE 14TH DAY OF THE PASSOVER ACCORDING TO THE WORD, DEVIATING IN NO RESPECT, BUT FOLLOWING THE RULE OF FAITH. Moreover, I, Polycrates, who am the least of all of you, according to the tradition of my relatives, some of whom I have followed. For there were seven, my relatives elders, and I am the eighth; and my relatives always observed the day when the people threw away the leaven."

There it is, friends. An elder who saw the changes, and wrote to another elder who was being carried away by "winds" of doctrine. He mentioned the throwing away of the leaven for the 7 days of the Feast of Unleavened bread (Matsah), as Shaul also mentioned at 1 Cor. 5:7-10. Shaul even said "Let us therefore celebrate the Feast", speaking of Matsah. Remember how Shaul said he wept and pleaded with the elders for years (Acts 20), knowing that these things would come after he was gone. The assemblies were turning aside to "myths". The heretics have distorted the true walk to suit themselves, and created a powerful hierarchy which has killed tens of millions, and is still in place causing human catastrophes. The current "times of the Gentiles" will not be set right by human means, but will be obliterated by our returning Mashiach, as a roaring lion from space, as lightning from one end of the sky to the other. You have to be a "saint" while you are alive, if you expect to enter the New Yerushaliyim in the resurrection. There is no religion in the Writings that requires us to meet together on Sun-day morning, or observe "Easter", or "Christmas". To follow "leaders" who are blind, you will fall into a pit. Many trust their own hearts, saying "I believe in my own way", or "I worship the Creator in my own personal way". They do what seems right in their own eyes. "You are NOT to do as we do here today, everyone as he sees fit..." Dt. 12:8.

Following your own heart, you will be deceived also: "The heart is crooked above all, and desperately sick – who shall know it?" Yerem Yahu 17:9.

At 18:12, the prophet wrote that the people said to themselves, "It's no use. We will continue with our own plans; each of us will follow the stubbornness of his evil heart." People find comfort in cliches like "When in Rome, do as the Romans do." Is this what our Rabbi taught us to do? "And the fire shall prove the work of each one, what sort it is. If anyone's work remains, which he has built on, he shall receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned, he shall suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved, but as though through fire." 1 Cor. 3:13-15. The prophesied "apostasy", or falling away from the Torah, has happened. Be warned.

"Blessed are those doing His Commands, so that the authority shall be theirs unto the tree of life and to enter through the gates into the city. Outside are the dogs, those who practice magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and EVERYONE WHO LOVES AND PRACTICES FALSEHOOD." Rev. 22:14,15. "It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the qodesh command that was passed on to them. Of them the proverbs are true: 'A dog returns to its vomit', and 'A sow that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud.'" 2Pet. 2:21,22. "Dogs" is the term used for Gentiles without any known the way of righteousness, than to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the qodesh command that was passed on to them. "If you see a face or 3 little raccoons? I drew this from a photo I saw on a book of animals, and added the rest to make it appear as a face. The line is an adaptation from a Simon & Garfunkle song.

The struggle we deal with is from John 18:28, where our Rabbi is being brought to Pilate from Caiaphas: "By now it was early morning, and to AVOID CEREMONIAL UNCLEANNESS, the Jews (Saducees) did not enter the palace; THEY WANTED TO BE ABLE TO EAT THE PASSOVER." I could be wrong, and the Last Supper may have been just a meal, and Rabbi didn't eat the Passover, but He said He looked forward to eating this Passover before He suffered. I will offend people no matter which side of this I come down on, but I observe Passover at the beginning of the 14th of Abib at twilight, the same day our Rabbi was executed. The Yahudim combined the observance of Passover with the beginning of the 15th of Abib, although Passover is not a "day", or a Shabbat in itself. Lev. 23:5,6 says: "When the Passover begins AT TWILIGHT on the fourteenth day of the first month. On the fifteenth day of that month the Feast of Unleavened Bread begins; for seven days you must eat bread made without yeast." These are two separate things, on 2 different days. "Twilight" is just after sunset, between sunset and darkness. At the time these events occurred, the Sanhedrin and the Temple observances were controlled by the Sadducees, the priests. The Pharisees, who were more attentive to what Scripture required, had a different opinion about certain "times" things were done. This may account for the seeming contradiction, since our Rabbi fraternized with the more popular "Pharisees" rather than the Sadducees. It was the Sadducees who were in control of the Sanhedrin, and the ones who were leading the campaign to execute Yahushua because of His threat to their authority. (The Pharisees had no power, but were popular with the common people.)

Reinforces John 19:31, which states it was the Day of Preparation (as I understand the Passover is observed at the beginning of this Preparation Day), since the next day was a special (annual) Shabbat, beginning at sunset. There is no "lamb" mentioned, but our Rabbi is the Lamb. "It was the Day of Preparation of Passover Week, about the sixth hour" (John 19:14), being what we would call "noon" when Pilate sentenced Yahushua. Luke records that it was about the sixth hour that darkness came over the whole land until the 9th hour (3 p.m., Luke 23:44). This agrees with Mark 15:33, but Mark 15:25 says it was the 3rd hour when they hung Yahushua up on the tree. These errors could have been made by copyists, since no two sentences in the Greek manuscripts are uniform among the many copies; or Yahuchanun actually wrote the wrong time, recalling the events as an elderly man from his boyhood memory of it. But, if the translators added whole phrases to suit themselves, and add phrases as they have done to many texts, and leave out the Name of the Creator, and change the Names of everyone recorded (except Shatan), then who are we going to blame for the discrepancy we see between Mark and Yahuchanun's record of what time of day it was our Rabbi was hung up?

Although there is a chance of 14% that an annual Shabbat can coincide with a weekly Shabbat, both kinds have a "Preparation Day". Mark also records "It was Preparation Day" (15:42). To me, this was the day before the 1st Day of Matsah, the 7 days of Unleavened Bread. The struggle we deal with is from John 18:28, where our Rabbi is being brought to Pilate from Caiaphas: "By now it was early morning, and to AVOID CEREMONIAL UNCLEANNESS, the Jews (Saducees) did not enter the palace; THEY WANTED TO BE ABLE TO EAT THE PASSOVER." THE LAST SUPPER
Most people have come to understand the final meal of the talmudim (disciples, students) and our Rabbi Our Father the night before He died was something new. Catholicism has taught it to be the model for what they call the “consecration” and “offertory” of the “mass”. They instituted this annual observance of “Passover” into a weekly “morning” observance. The Mithraists were already holding a Sun-day morning service to worship the sun deity, and used a flat disc of bread. The moment the Pagan priest would lift it into the air to receive the sun’s rays, it became “transformed” with the words “hocus-pocus”, and “abracadabra”. Although these words are now used to ridicule superstitious nonsense, the sun worshippers would have died for them. They believed the bread had “transubstantiated” into the actual presence of the sun, and by eating it, they would possess the powers of the deity. The Egyptians laid the round wafers out in the sunlight at their “consecration”. To a Nazarene, these rituals are an abomination, and the wafer is a “death cookie”.

PASSOVER SEDER
Many of you will differ with me, and that’s fine, but it is my opinion that the “Last Supper” was what our Rabbi said it was: “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.” Luke 22:15. There is confusion on this. It is possible that this was what was called a teaching seder, as rabbis would commonly hold a seder the evening before the actual Passover, so the students could be with their families as required for the real Passover. We just don’t really know. But, how Christendom has NO Passover is what is amazing, but now some are beginning to.

The “Last Supper” was not a “Mass”, but a very familiar observance. The students of Rabbi Our Father were talking about it for days before it came. The word “seder” means order. The primary objective is to remove all “chametz” or leavened bread from our homes (no doubt an inherited activity we now call “spring cleaning”). It has been said that it took Leonardo De Vinci almost 20 years to paint this famous picture, known as THE LAST SUPPER.

The actual word for “Passover” is PESACH. If something is “Kosher” (appropriate, approved) for Pesach, then it doesn’t contain yeast or anything that makes it “rise”. This is to remind us of the hasty departure from the bondage of Egypt (Mitzraim) by the mighty hand of Our Father. It is always observed in the evening (darkening) at the 14th of the 1st month of the year, determined by the appearance of the “green ears” of the barley crop in Israel. This pictures the beginning of the redemption plan for Our Father’s bride, since He is the “first fruits” of the Reign of Our Father, our “wave offering”. Other neglected observances will be discussed in sequence. This “wave offering” occurred after the most significant event in the history of mankind: The resurrection from the dead of Rabbi Our Father. The “first-born” from the dead, of what will be a great harvest of mankind, was like grain, cut-down; then, upon resurrecting, was “waving”. He is literally the first to be “born” of the spirit, because He doesn’t have a body like we do any more; He’s something completely NEW. We receive a small “seed” of this rebirth upon being immersed, but while we are still in our flesh, we are not yet “born of the spirit” in the complete way we will be. We are, however, re-born in a spiritual way, even while we are in our flesh. We must be born of water, at our immersion, and later, raised as spatial beings like Our Father is. “Dear friends, now we are children of Our Father, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when He appears, WE WILL BE LIKE HIM, for we shall see Him as He is.” - 1 Yn. 3:2.

This painting of the Last Supper is widely recognized, and most think it is linked in some way to what they do on “Sun-day” morning. Not true. “Supper” and “morning” are oxymoronic. When Rabbi said, “Do this in remembrance of Me” (Luke 22:19), He was referring to the observance of Pesach. Once every year, we are to remember Him and His death, as our Passover Lamb. The unleavened bread, known as “MATSAH”, reminds any observant Yahudi of our Lamb. If you look at one of these flat, square pieces of cracker-like bread, it is PIERCED and BRUISED. During the annual cycle of reading the TaNaKh in synagogues, Yeshia Yahu 53 is skipped. This is no accident! “But He was Pierced for our transgressions, He was Bruised for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon Him, and by His wounds, we are healed.” v. 5.

With no “Passover”, how is it that Catholicism and her daughters have a “Passover Lamb”? Sounds like some serious mental acrobatics, or folly is afoot. Whose transgressions did He die for? His bride’s! The bride’s name is “Daughter of Tsiyon” but her new name will be HEPHZIBAH (My delight is in her, 62:4.)

A little entertaining background concerning Leonardo’s portrait of The Last Supper gives perspective to what a life without Torah is like. It is said that as Leonardo began his painting, he studied the text of the Writings for who was present, and he imagined their appearance. Naturally he had to search for subjects to pose for each person in the portrait. He began by looking for the most “angelic” and pure features he could find for the face of our Rabbi. After a thorough search, he finally found a young boy with the face of absolute innocence. Leonardo kindly asked the boy if he would pose for him, and compensated him for his time. Over the years, Leonardo carefully selected models to pose for each of the men. This took almost 20 years. Finally, he was down to the last man in the painting, known as “Judas” (really Yahudah). He spent months searching for the perfect model, but there just didn’t seem to be anyone who looked evil enough for this modeling job. At last, he discovered a man who had sunk as low as any man had ever gone. He was in a tavern, drunk, and had lines of pain and sin in his face that reflected the kind of life he had lived. Leonardo knew at once he had to get him to pose. Offering the man compensation, Leonardo had him pose for the most famous betrayer in the world. As Leonardo busily arranged his model, and was mixing his paints, the man spoke to him saying, “You know me.” Leonardo was sure he had never been around anyone who was like this man, and replied, “Oh no, I’m sure you’re mistaken, I’ve never laid eyes on you.” The man, sure of himself, replied saying “Oh yes, sir, it was me, when I was very young, who posed for this portrait. I was the first, you said.” Hearing this, Leonardo put his hands to his face, and wept over the young boy he had crossed paths with so long ago.

Each of us have people we cross paths with, who need something from us. We either help them, ignore them, or push them down lower. I work in a store that for over the past 20 years has had a wide mixture of people coming into it. Most everyone who comes in is “searching” for something to embrace; or fulfill a need or emptiness within them. With your daily contacts, neighbors, co-workers, clients, etc., there are many who are looking for guidance which you can inspire them with. One of my missions in life is to dispel error, and replace it with Truth.

Concerning this Passover Seder known as “The Last Supper”, there was a Medieval superstition that arose, based on error. Most have become convinced (hypnotized) into the thinking that OWYRA was executed on a ‘Fri-Day’, the Day of Preparation for the weekly Shabbath, and resurrected at SUNRISE on ‘Sun-Day’. This is not anything like what the memoirs reveal to us. This is just a traditional misinterpretation, propagated by Rome. In fact, there is no phrase “last supper” in the Writings, but only this “Passover” which our Rabbi said He had looked forward to observing before He suffered, and He had observed it every year of His life. He also said he would observe it again, drinking again the fruit of the vine, in His Father’s Kingdom/Reign. Shatan de-railed the train, folks. The only “sign” (like “tongues”, a sign for unbelievers, 1 Cor. 14:22) to prove that OWYRA is the Mashiah was the “sign of Yonah”. As Yonah was 3 days and 3 nights in the belly of the fish, so OWYRA was 3 days and 3 nights in the tomb. The year OWYRA was executed, he observed Passover on what Pagans today would call a “Tues-Day” evening at twilight. Later that night He was arrested, and by the 3rd hour of the next day (our 9 a.m.), Rabbi OWYRA was being pierced. At the 6th hour (our “noon”), darkness fell on the land until the 9th hour. With a loud cry, OWYRA breathed His last, and the 60-foot-high curtain in the Temple was ripped from top-to-bottom, as a man tears his robes in grief. Because the meal we call the “Last Supper” was, according to some, a Passover observance, then it is observed at the beginning of the 14th day of the moon, at the “darkening” between sunset and night (twilight). There is some controversy about this, and you should study all sides thoroughly. However, the “superstition” I mentioned that developed, from the Christian ignorance of what “Preparation Day” we are dealing with, gave rise to what is called “FRI-DAY THE 13TH”. “Preparation Day” indeed includes every sixth day of the week. Six of the seven "annual appointments" are movable, one of which is the 1st Day of Matsah, or Unleavened Bread, and also have preparation days. Obviously there are not 3 DAYS AND 3 NIGHTS between "Fri-Day" night at sunset and "Sun-Day" morning. Shatan's "spin-doctors" twisted it for us, to "bend" things toward a "Sun-day" morning "supper". That's not just quaint, it's goofy. Because the entire Christian world has been "programmed" to believe that the annual observance of the day of our Rabbi's death is somehow linked to the days of the week, and not Passover (a movable appointment), "Fri-DAY" just before "EASTER" is celebrated as "Good Fri-day". OUCH! Good? In a selfish way, yes, for us; but it is the day on which Shatan pierced our beloved OYNYAW. (Only it wasn't a "Fri-Day"). In fact, if you asked Shatan what was the most significant thing he's ever accomplished, nothing else could compare to it. It fulfilled the prophecy at Gen. 3:15. The "myth" that it was a "Fri-Day", and not the preparation day for the High Shabbath of "Matsah" (Yn. 19:31) is part of the superstition of "Fri-Day the 13th". The "13" represents the fact that there were 13 MEN present at the meal the previous evening. The 13th day of each Roman month has no connection with the real moon, nor the number of men present at the meal. Not only that, but what day the resurrection occurred has nothing to do with what DAY is the Shabbath, our day of rest. It's hard to understand how such obvious "smoke and mirrors" masked so much of the truth, and could be propagated by so many scholars over so many centuries. Shatan successfully blinded the eyes of populations with his "teachers"; and desolated the correct pattern of observances. The "head" (Shatan) of this fiendish scheme controlled Constantine I, and the office of the papacy, BECAUSE HE RULES THIS WORLD.

CHRISTIANITY'S PAGAN CONNECTION

THE TRICK: APOSTASY

It's the same old trick, the LIE that "we don't really have to OBEY". The FALSE "Gospel" is what most understand, woven into their minds by the "merchants" who masquerade as messengers of righteousness. It's partly true, but it leaves out the core of the New Covenant, "Mashiach IN you". Here's how they usually teach it: "You don't have to obey, your sinning is atoned for. Besides, NO ONE can possibly obey the Commandments perfectly. J-sus obeyed them FOR us, and died to atone for all our sins, past, present, and future. You cannot out-sin the grace of G-d. When the Father looks at us, He only sees the righteousness of His Son". So, just believing on this "Gospel" message makes a person extremely grateful to their J-sus, and they think they will show him how grateful they are by going to "Church" every Sun-day. This is a false, COUNTERFEIT, and incomplete message, and they don't know the True Mashiach. The soul that sins will die (Ezek. 18). The New Covenant is having Mashiach IN us, allowing us to love and agree with the Torah; we no longer live in the "mind of the flesh". Catholicism taught for centuries that this "Mashiach in you" was achieved by receiving "communion", a man-made "sacrament" they associated with the symbols of bread and wine at the Passover seeder the night before He was put to death. It's true that the emblems represented what the New Covenant pictures, but it's only a model for what was to literally take place when He came into them with power, as He does when we accept the TRUE message of salvation. The Protestant sects carried this out of the Mother, leaving behind the belief in the bread and wine trans-substantiating (changing into His literal Body by the mystical "powers" endowed in the "priest"). Never learning that they are empowered to obey by having the Ruach ha Qodesh (the set-apart Spirit of OYNYAW) in them, they keep coming back week after week. They want to learn more, but never do. The tragic thing is, Shatan has turned this into a world-wide business, and his messengers go to the bank thinking "The Lord" is blessing them. Remember, a liar tells part truth, but withholds important information.

Do we go on sinning, that "grace" may abound? "Shall we sin so that grace may increase? By no means! We died to sin (at our immersion); how can we live in it any longer?" Romans 6:1,2. "Shall we sin (break and ignore Commandments) because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Don't you know, that when you offer yourselves to someone to obey him as slaves, you are slaves to the one whom you OBEY - whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to OBEDIENCE, which leads to righteousness?" v. 15,16.

If you carefully read Romans 6, 7, and 8, you will eventually see that Shaul is looking at the Torah from 2 perspectives: the mind of the flesh, and the mind controlled by the Spirit. Since the "law" is spiritual, our inner being must be controlled by the Spirit of OYNYAW, in order to live by it. Shaul says "For if you live according to the sinful nature, YOU WILL DIE." Rom. 8:13.
PILLARS OF JEALOUSY

Ezekiel saw Paganism mixing into the worship of ),$.:,. “Then He said to me, ‘son of man, look toward the north’. So I looked, and in the entrance north of the gate of the altar I saw this pillar of jealousy.” Ezek. 8:5.

“HIGH PLACES” which harken back to the tower of Babel, are ziggurats, obelisks, pyramids, poles, pagodas, spires, stupas, and a whole array of sky-pointing structures. Try to find any such thing as a steeple in the Writings. All Pagan temples utilized a tower, and bells or gongs to summon the sun-worshippers. Hand-held bells were also used in their worship, sometimes made in rows which they would shake like rattles. In the worship of Circe, altar bells were rung periodically during the “services”, inherited by Roman Catholicism and their “Mass”.

One of the oldest relics of Pagan worship is the pillar of jealousy called an OBELISK. Any ancient Pagan would recognize one. They were interpreted to be a ray of the sun, but also the image of male generative power, the phallus. Pagans also interpreted to be a ray of the sun, but also the image of male generative power, the phallus. Pagans also stood stones up in circles, and prayed within the area they defined. Most of the time the stones were only a few inches tall, but Stonehenge was one exception. In the time of Daniel, in Babylon, Nebuchadnezzar constructed an image ninety feet high, and nine feet wide, and this obelisk was to be bowed to when the “national anthem” sounded (Dan. 3). If you were able to ask Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego if they would accompany (Dan. 3). If you were able to ask Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego if they would accompany them to most Christian places of worship, what do you think they would have to say about the big “steeple” near the entrance? I’d wager they wouldn’t go near the place. You can even see obelisk shapes in the building designs, signs, and window shapes of many of these buildings. They are also very partial to “circles”, which related to the sun in Pagan temple design. Some Christian congregations have torn down the steeples of their meeting places, after learning of the origin of these “high places”.

CHURCH

Circe, a Greek deity who turned men into pigs, is the origin from which springs our English word Kirche, producing the word “Church”. In the very first English translation of the Brit Chadasha (New Covenant Writings), a Catholic priest named John Wycliffe used the word “congregation” for the Greek word ecclesia (ek-la-SEE-a), not “Church”. It really means called-out ones. These are those who have submitted to immersion in His Name, and repented of sin. The Hebrew word is qahal, the congregation of Yisrael. We get our English word “call” from qahal. There is no covenant with “Christians”, only Yisrael, and foreigners must engraft into Yisrael to partake of the Covenant:

“Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called ‘uncircumcised’ . . . At that time you were separate from Mashiah, excluded from citizenship in Yisrael and foreigners to the covenants of promise, without hope and without Mashiah in the world. But now, in Mashiah you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Mashiah. For He Himself is our peace, Who has made the two ONE, and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, by abolishing in His flesh the law of commandments and regulations.” Eph. 2:11-15.

“Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but FELLOW CITIZENS with Yisrael’s people, and members of Yisrael’s household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Mashiah Himself as the chief cornerstone.” - 2:19,20.

The “commandments and regulations” referred to here are what the ceremonial law required for atonement and cleansing, they don’t refer to what defines sin. Not eating blood (Acts 15), or disregarding Shabbath (Heb. 4), or murder (Ex. 20) etc., are still “Commandments” in force. “Foreigners” can now call themselves Yisrael, if they are immersed in His Name and live in the Covenant. If they don’t “engraft”, they are outside the Covenant promises, and Shatan knows it!

“The way of peace they do not know . . .” Yesha Yahu 59:8. “Truth has stumbled in the streets, honesty cannot enter. Truth is nowhere to be found, and whoever shuns evil becomes a prey,” 59:14,15. The “Truth” and “way of peace” is the Torah, the Word. The invitation to the “feast” shown in the parables represents the Shabbats of Yisrael. At Yesha Yahu 59:11-13, once again we see the Torah is what is called the “ancient ruins”, and those who obey are like a well-watered garden (see also Ps. 1). “You will be called Repairer of broken walls, Restorer of Streets with Dwellings - if you keep your feet from breaking the Sabbath, and from doing as you please on My Qodesh Day; if you call the Sabbath a delight, and Yisrael’s Qodesh Day honorable.”

I GAVE THEM MY SABBATHS

“Also, I gave them My Sabbaths as a sign between us, so they would know that I made them qodesh.” You may want to read all of Ezekiel chapter 20. We’ve learned that a mere man was responsible for instituting the change from the 7th day to the 1st day of each week, and the “Sun-day Sabbath” has been the “Christian Sabbath” ever since. Let’s just take a brief overview of the Sabbath, and determine if there is one, and if so what “choice” we should make in observing it.

MASTER OF THE SABBATH

Please take this only as from a lover of the Commandment, not as any condemnation or personal criticism, bearing in mind, “He who answers before listening – it is to his folly and shame” (Pr. 18:13). I was once in denial and rebellion against Gentiles needing to follow the 4th Commandment, but I listened to all of what Scripture says, not men, or Constantine’s establishment of “Sun-day” as the new Christian day of rest. Hebrews 4 has been “allegorized” to mean our “rest” in Messiah, but really the whole section deals with the disobedient, and mentions the “Gospel”. The message of repentance is of no value to the lost, and it says “He has spoken about the seventh day in these words: ‘And on the seventh day Elohim rested from all His work’.” At v.9: “There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of Elohim; for anyone who enters Elohim’s rest also rests from his own work, JUST AS ELOHIM DID FROM HIS. Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter His rest, HE WHO ENTERS ELohim’S REST ALSO RESTS FROM HIS OWN WORK.”

BINDING OURSELVES TO YHWH

At Is. 66, in the Millennial Reign: “FROM ONE SABBATH TO ANOTHER, ALL MANKIND will come and bow down before Me, says YHWH. And they will go out and look upon the DEAD BODIES of those who rebelled against Me”. (Is 56): “Blessed is the man who does this, the man who holds it fast: who keeps the Sabbath without desecrating it . . . . “Let no foreigner who has bound himself to YHWH say, ‘YHWH will surely exclude me from His people’ . . . . To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, who choose what pleases me and hold fast to My Covenant – to them I will give within My Temple and its walls a memorial and a name BETTER THAN SONS AND Daughters . . . . AND FOREIGNERS WHO BIND THEMSELVES TO YHWH, to serve Him, to LOVE THE NAME OF YHWH and to wor- ship Him, ALL WHO KEEP THE SABBATH WITHOUT DESECRATING IT, and HOLD FAST TO MY COVENANT, these I will bring to My holy mountain and give them joy in My house of prayer . . . . for My house of prayer will be called a house of prayer for ALL NATIONS.”

JERUSALEM COUNCIL CONCERNING GENTILES

After deciding that fleshly circumcision is not a requirement, the Gentiles who BEAR THE NAME are told to begin by abstaining from idolatry, sexual immorality, FOOD STRANGLED, and BLOOD. “For Mosheh (the Torah) has been preached in every city from the earliest times, AND IS READ IN THE SYNAGOGUES EVERY SABBATH.” The Nazarenes studied next to the other sects in the places where the Scrolls were read, until after the destruction of Yerushaliyim, then were shunned for having fled the city instead of defending it, as they were obeying what Rabbi Yahushua had warned them of. Many of the synagogue rulers were believers in the Mashiach! At Acts 1, Luke records: “Then they returned to Yerushaliyim from the hill called the Mount of Olives, A SABBATH DAY’S WALK from the city.” Even the “day of Pentecost”, called Shabuoth (weeks), is an annual Sabbath – one of seven, and is the memori- al of the receiving of Torah at Sinai (the Nazarenes received it in their hearts, circum- cised by Mashiach on that day, fulfilling the prophecy at Yerme Yahu 31). Paul even states that we should “keep the feast”, speaking of the 7 days of unleavened bread, at 1 Cor. 5:8. “The Fast”, or Yom Kippur, is referred to at Acts 27:9, because the weather was turning bad because of the lateness in the year. I completely understand the turmoil this causes in your mind; I remember it well. I endured it when I had to weigh all the evidence, but I received Him; and... the Sabbath, and all His Commandments fill me with extreme joy. Will YHWH punish you for resting on Sabbath, or is it really the “bad seed” (teachings) of ha Shatan that inoculates most people from repenting? It is only Israel, YHWH’s obedient Bride, who will enter the gates into the city. There is no gate named “the Church”, or “Christianity” — only gates bearing the names of the 12 tribes of Israel. When Scripture says “Israel”, it is not just speaking of the Yahudim — they are one of the tribes — Israel is all 12 tribes.

THE DRAGON RECOGNIZES SABBATH-KEEPERS BY THEIR OBEDIENCE

“Then the dragon was enraged at the woman (the Bride) and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring — those WHO OBEY ELOHIM’S COMMANDMENTS, and hold to the TESTIMONY OF YAHUSHUA (which is: ‘repent - for the Reign of YHWH draws near.’)” The 4th Commandment tells us all to remember the Sabbath, and it’s the 7th day of every week. As a regular observer of Sabbath, I stay home and rest, and study with my wife and children. Obedience is worship. Can we “obey Elohim’s Commandments”, and not have His Sign of the Covenant, His Sabbath? If Rabbi Yahushua is “Master of the Sabbath”, and it was made for man, will ignoring it bring us closer to Him in our walk? If the 4th Commandment is only for “Jews” to obey, then the Creator has 2 different sets of rules — or, an enemy has sown weeds among the wheat! The Creator has 2 different sets of rules ~ or, an Enemy has sown weeds among the wheat! The Sabbath is meant for the Reign of YHWH draws near’.

TESTIMONY OF YAHUSHUA

ELOHIM’S COMMANDMENTS, and hold to the TESTIMONY OF YAHUSHUA (which is: ‘repent - for the Reign of YHWH draws near.’)” The 4th Commandment tells us all to remember the Sabbath, and it’s the 7th day of every week. As a regular observer of Sabbath, I stay home and rest, and study with my wife and children. Obedience is worship. Can we “obey Elohim’s Commandments”, and not have His Sign of the Covenant, His Sabbath? If Rabbi Yahushua is “Master of the Sabbath”, and it was made for man, will ignoring it bring us closer to Him in our walk? If the 4th Commandment is only for “Jews” to obey, then the Creator has 2 different sets of rules — or, an enemy has sown weeds among the wheat! The Creator has 2 different sets of rules ~ or, an Enemy has sown weeds among the wheat! The Sabbath is meant for the Reign of YHWH draws near’.

As you can readily see, there is no “break” between what is meant by the “Sabbath” in the TaNaKh and Brit Chadasha, as many would lead you to believe. If you’d really like to learn how this rift occurred, you can look up a man named Mar-cion in a good encyclopedia, or go to a library. He was a heretic, who taught that we need to completely disregard the “Old Testament”. However all scholars realize that the New Covenant authors consistently used the “Old” as their foundation, and never taught the changes we see today.

HOW TO BEGIN

If you are a Gentile, you may have a little knowledge already, but you should re-ground yourself by starting with Acts 15. Then do as it says, and study the writings of Mosheh, the Torah (Ten Commandments). Read all of Exodus 20, Lev. 19, Lev. 23, then Deut. 16, understanding that you are about to enter into a Covenant with your Creator, OYELE. When you know and understand how you are to live, you must be immersed in water as your ‘circumcision’. Your ‘Husband’ doesn’t wish to dwell in the vessel of your body before you have washed, and this immersion signifies the death of your mind of the flesh, the washing away of your sins by your trust in Rabbi OYELE’s death which covers your sins against Torah, and the resurrection in kind with OYELE, so you will obey the Torah. This is only the beginning.

1. Pronounce your belief, “I believe Rabbi OYELE (Yahushua, Yahusha) of Nazareth is the Mashiach, and that He raised from the dead 3 days and 3 nights after His execution for my past sins.”
2. “OYELE, please save me.”
3. Going under the water, think of your mind of the flesh “dying”, no longer controlling your actions against Torah. Your sins are left behind you, lifted from you, and you are now a “new creature”. The “old person” is now dead.
4. Coming up, you have committed to the Covenant: to obey OYELE, hold to His Testimony, and you will show Him you love Him by observing the Torah. Having obeyed Him, you will now receive the promise of the New Covenant: His Spirit, which will write His Commandments on your heart and mind, enabling you to love them and obey them. This is the way you give yourself to the Bridegroom. As a woman will bath after her period of uncleanness before contact with her husband, so we wash away our uncleanness (past sins), and COVENANT to obey our Husband. We are His virgin bride! The unrepentant and the very young cannot be immersed, because they have not been convicted of their sinfulness. Next, you need your “gift”; that which you are to use to serve the Body with. This is received by an elder laying hands upon you and reciting the priestly blessing (Num. 6:22-27). This must be performed by an elder who knows what the Covenant is! At Acts 9:17, Shaul had the hands of Ananias placed upon him before immersion. You can receive your “anointing” without an elder, but eventually you should submit to the laying on of the hands when you...
The “power” comes from Qodesh, not the brother; the Ruach ha Mashiach is given to those who obey Him (Acts 5:32). As I said, the MYSTERY of the Kingdom that we all hope to be partakers of is revealed in all the parables. One of the most misunderstood parables speaks about how Qodesh will “go away on a journey”, and entrusts His property to His servants. At Mattit Yahu 25:14-46, the parable of the “talents”, our Rabbi illustrates Himself as a man who went away for a long time, and returned to see what his servants had done with the various “talents” He had left them in charge of. According to their abilities, each servant was given 5, 2, or 1 talent each. The “talents” represent the number of Torah-observant people, and the objective was to produce more by the time the Master returned to “settle accounts”.

(“It’s not about “money”, but PEOPLE). If we go through life without telling others the Word of Life, but rather “bury” the “talent”, we produce no growth in those around us, and we are as a dead branch ourselves.

TEN MINAS The “talents” are one illustration, and at Luke 19:11-27, a similar parable is given. Again, “A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king, and then to return.” Before leaving, this man gave ten (the 10 virgins?) of his servants a mina each, and told them to put the “money” to work, until he returned. While he was away, the servants “invested” such that one gained 10 more, another 5, but one of them just wrapped up his mina and hid it. In other words, one gained 10 converts, another 5, and the other NONE. While he was away, the man heard that the “subjects” he had left (all the people of the Earth) proclaimed, “We don’t want this man to be OUR king.” Upon his return, the new King of the Universe proclaimed, “But those enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them – bring them here and kill them in front of me.” That’s exactly what will happen to the “weeds” when He returns as a roaring Lion. You had better get busy, my friend, because the servant who hid his “mina” lost his “mina”, and was not found to be worthy of his Ruler any longer.

If we are not spreading the “seed” (Torah and the message of the Kingdom), then we have not understood that it is US, not the preachers, who must be actively engaged in reaching those around us. “Unless you repent, you too will all likewise perish.” Luke 13:3. Why people will perish is clearly explained at 2Thess. 2. The return of our Sovereign HaMashiach will not come until the rebellion occurs, and the man of lawlessness is revealed. The rebellion is the Nazarene sect, exposing the lie; the whole world is in the power of lawlessness, and religious merchants have taught lawlessness for centuries. We rebel against the lie, and the work of Shatan “displayed in all kinds of counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders, and in every sort of evil that deceives those who are perish-ing. They perish because they refused to love the Truth, and so be saved. For this reason, the Ruach sends them a powerful delusion, so that they will believe the LIE, and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the Truth, but have delighted in lawlessness.” The “lie” is clearly lawlessness, and it is everywhere taught that “legalism” is evil. How amazing, because this is the strong delusion. The “delusion” is taught by twisting Paul’s writings, EVERYTIME! Peter warned us of those who use Paul’s writings to support their error: “Just as our dear brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom that was given him; he writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people DISTORT, as they do the other Writings, to their own destruction.” Therefore, dear friends, since you already know this, BE ON YOUR GUARD, so that you may not be carried away by the error of lawless men, and fall from your secure position.” – 2Pet. 3:15-17.

At Luke 8:11,12, the parable of the Sower, the Torah is sown by the Master of the harvest: "The seed is the Word of ha Mashiach." The adversary, Shatan, steals the Word from people’s hearts, so they will not believe and obey, and so be saved. Shatan’s messengers are disguised, masquerading as messengers of righteousness. Be careful how you listen! We must produce a crop, by spreading the true seed, not the seed of weeds. Psalm 119:152 says, “Long ago, I learned from your statutes that you established them to last FOR-EVER.” 119:160 says “All your words are TRUE; ALL your righteous LAWS ARE ETERNAL.” With David, we who love the Torah say, “Streams of tears flow from my eyes, for your LAW is NOT obeyed.” 119:136. He’s not talking about the CEREMONIAL LAW, but the MORAL LAW. That’s why Paul is not properly understood.

History was “revised” over and over, making it appear that “Christianity” was “founded” by Qodesh. But, in truth, He founded the sect of the Nazarenes, and these remain in the true faith. Pursued by the “dragon”, this “woman” had to endure many severe trials.
The Book of Acts (the book of “Action”) records how the early students of Yahweh “turned the world upside down”. Put yourself in that life-setting. The Name of the Creator had been concealed from the common people for centuries, since the Babylonian Captivity. Learning this truth, everyone was astounded, and a natural curiosity swirled among everyone. When Peter stood up and addressed the crowds at Acts 2, he quoted Yah El 2 (Joel) and told them to be immersed into the Name. Today, just before the end of the “times of the Gentiles”, the world is being turned upside down once again by the profound knowledge of the Name, which has been concealed for many centuries by the religious merchants. Like today, it was the Name of the Creator that caused the religious establishment to be turned on its head.

NAME OR NO-NAME? People are quick to label others with “handles”. Christians in general are called by a Greek term, having no idea that the term was used by Pagans first, as worshippers of Serapis, or that it is cognate with “cretin” (see your dictionary). They hang their hat on one translated verse from the Scriptures (Acts 11:26), while scholars know they were called Nazarenes, as a sect within Judaism.

Many today are apprehensive of groups that use the Hebrew personal Name of the Creator, calling them “sacred name” groups. These who would criticize those who use the Hebrew Name should remember our Rabbi’s prayer at John 17, where He said He had revealed the Name! Why did they constantly want to stone Yahshua? He kept saying His Name! Why did they constantly want to stone Yahshua? He kept saying the Name. At Luke 19:38, the crowds were crying out a verse from Psalm 118:26 which contained the Name, and the Pharisees told Yahshua to rebuke them ~ because they were using the Name. Why were the disciples called to stand before the Sanhedrin? The Name! Why was Stephen stoned (Acts 7)? When he said the Name, they screamed and put their hands over their ears, and killed him. Yahshua Himself was condemned because He spoke the Name before the Sanhedrin, which caused the High Priest to tear his clothes, saying, “He has spoken blasphemy!” Blasphemy only involves one thing: the Name. Why was Paul on his way to Damascus to arrest Nazarenes? To carry them back to the Sanhedrin to see if they would say the Name and be similarly condemned to death. Why were the Dead Sea Scrolls buried in the first place? Because worn-out scrolls were treated with respect and buried in jars instead of being profanely burned or discarded, because they had the Name written on them. The book of “Esther” isn’t among them, because the Name is not written anywhere in the text. Even at Acts 2, Peter quoted Joel 2:32, emphasizing the importance of calling on the Name ~ and then to be immersed calling on it. No-namers insist it is of no importance, and don’t use it in their immersions. Falsehood and futility is what the prophet Jeremiah says the Gentiles have inherited: “YHWH . . . To you the nations will come from the ends of the Earth and say, ‘our fathers have inherited nothing but falsehood, futility, and things of no profit’ . . . This time I will make them know My power and My might; and they shall know that My Name is YHWH.” -16:19-21.

If you are afraid of being lonely, don’t try to be right. -Jules Renard, writer (1864-1910)
At Romans 10:14, after quoting Joel 2:32, Paul asks, "How then shall they call upon Him in Whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him Whom they have not HEARD?" They don't know, or call, on His Name. "Hallelu-YAH" means "praise Yah". It's easily seen that monks and translators sterilized the Scriptures by removing the Name from the texts, especially when you look at Acts 7 and the stoning of Stephen, or even read your preface. Taken as a whole, the main controversy in the New Testament seems to be the Name issue, and the annoucing of the Kingdom of YHWH. Yahushua's own Name contains the Name. Revelation 7 and 14 connect together, because the "seal" in the foreheads (minds) of the 144,000 is this Name of the Father. Taking His Name "in vain" means to bring it to nothing, missing it, or wiping it out. The "Sinai Autograph" of the original Name YHWH written by His own hand was in what is called palaeo-Hebrew. All the prophets wrote it in this script. The oral traditions forbade its utterance. SHAUL HAD NAZARENES KILLED, FOR PRONOUNCING THE NAME!  The Yahudim were hoping for the Mashiach to come, and Rabbi OWYNH was not going around teaching that anyone He was - but rather kept that an inside secret. The only thing He did that caused the law teachers and priests to pick up stones to kill Him was what they called "blasphemy". It was against their law to say the Name of OWYNH - and the penalty was death. This is not usually mentioned by the merchant preachers, because people would naturally start to search it out, and the "Key of knowledge" would be widespread. The Name of OWYNH contains the Name of the Father, so even His Name was part of the problem for them. The name "Yeshua" means salvation, and was a rather common name at the time; however "Yahushua" means Yah is our salvation, and had the Name being clearly heard by all. (See TALMUD below). Paul explains how he fought against those who were found in the synagogues that proclaimed OWYNH. At Acts 26:9-11, Paul explains: "I truly thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the Name of the Mashiach of Nazareth. And this I also did in Yerushaliyim: and I shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and WHEN THEY WERE PUT TO DEATH I GAVE MY VOTE AGAINST THEM. And punishing them constantly in the synagogues, I STROVE TO MAKE THEM BLASPHEME; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities." They weren't being killed for any other reason than that they were going against the "law" of pronouncing the Name. After "Shaull" was knocked-down on his way to Damascus, and encountered the risen OWYNH, he began to pronounce the Name, and did what he had watched others die for! This is no small sideline issue, but is really central to what the entire Brit Chadasha reveals to us. After Shaull was immersed by Ananias, (who was himself very afraid at first when he learned he was to be visited by the infamous Shaull), he took the name of "Paulos". The name "Shaull" and his reputation was terrifying to the Nazarenes, and you can well understand why. For some time, Nazarenes were still afraid and distrustful of Paul: "... Is not this he that in Yerushaliyim made havoc of them that called on this Name? And has he come here for the intention that he might bring them bound before the chief priests?" (Acts 9:15,16). Yes, pronouncing the Name was a REALLY big deal. Paul was nabbed by the Yahudim of Achaia, and they wanted him dead so much that they rushed him to the Roman proconsul Gallio. Gallio, no doubt a Pagan, must have thought they were crazy when he heard the reason they were so murderously enraged, and he said: "If indeed it was an act of injustice or reckless evil, O Yahudim, according to REASON I would bear with you; BUT if it be a question concerning a WORD, or NAMES, and that law which is among YOU, see you to it, for I will be no judge of THESE things." (Acts 18:14,15). Paul had to be locked up to protect him. He claims he was stoned on several occasions over pronouncing the Name. Men had sworn oaths to see Paul dead before they would eat again. Paul had to hide, and sneak out of the city in a basket. How many Christians really know why Paul was imprisoned? Now, you know. Believe it or not, there is quite a bit of "shunning" against those of us who use the Name, even among Messianics who observe the appointed times. Paul's life, and many other Nazarenes' lives were taken for simply pronouncing the Name, and yet believers today shun and demonize those of us who seem to be making a "big deal" out of it. We can't help ourselves, the Name burns inside us. "If we die for it too, if we are misguided, then those who have died over the Name have done so needlessly, including Paul and all the early Nazarene followers. OWYNH revealed the Name to them, and He has done so to us as well. There are always 2 sides to most issues, but since the Name is the strong tower, that's the safer bet to go with. The Name turned the world upside down once, and here in the days of the final message, it is doing it again. The TALMUD is the source of the prohibition of the NAME. It's the YEAST of the Pharisees (it ADDS)
The Early Church Fathers
(Excerpts from: A History of Anti-Semitism)

["For almost a century, the early believers in Yeshua the Messiah were culturally and ethnically the same as, and worshipped alongside, mainstream Judaism. The first believers in Messiah Yeshua were Jews. The Torah was of great importance to them and they kept its laws, keeping the Sabbath and performing circumcision. They did not follow ‘another religion’, but remained within the framework of Judaism. This Messianic movement spread largely among Jews to begin with, and for some time it remained as a sect within Judaism, mostly known as the sect of the Nazare-nes (Acts 24:5). Thousands of Gentile ‘converts’ and ‘God Fearers’ joined themselves to the Nazarene sect. It is important to say something about the Nazarenes, as documentation of their existence and beliefs gives us much insight on how the early believers in Messiah thought and lived.
The fourth century ‘Church Father’, Jerome, described the Nazarenes as “those who accept Messiah in such a way that they do not cease to observe the Old Law” (Jerome; On. Is. 8:14). Yet another fourth century Church Father, Epiphanius, gave a more detailed description of them:
“We shall now especially consider heretics who...
call themselves Nazarenes; they are mainly Jews and nothing else. They make use not only of the New Testament, but they also use in a way the Old Testament of the Jews; for they do not forbid the books of the Law, the Prophets, and the Writings... so that they are approved of by the Jews, from whom the Nazarenes do not differ in anything, and they profess all the dogmas pertaining to the prescriptions of the Law and to the customs of the Jews, except they believe in Messiah...
They preach that there is but one God, and His Son Yeshua the Messiah. But they are very learned in the Hebrew language; for they, like the Jews, read the whole Law, then the Prophets...
They differ from the Jews because they believe in Messiah, and from the Christians in that they are to this day bound to the Jewish rites, such as circumcision, the Sabbath, and other ceremonies.
They have the Good news according to Matthew in its entirety in Hebrew. For it is clear that they still preserve this, in the Hebrew alphabet, as it was originally written”. (Epiphanius; Panarion 29; translated from the Greek). There is evidence that the Nazarene Sect continued to exist until at least the 13th century. The Catholic writings of Bonacursus entitled ‘Against the Heretics’, refers to the Nazarenes, who were also called ‘Pasagin’.
Bonacursus says: “Let those who are not yet acquainted with them, please note how perverse their belief and doctrine are. First, they teach that we should obey the Law of Moses according to the letter - the Sabbath, and circumcision, and the legal precepts still being in force. Furthermore, to increase their error, they condemn and reject all the Church Fathers, and the whole Roman Church.”

(Most spell the Name “Yeshua”, which is Hebrew for “help”, however “Yahshua” means “Yah is our salvation”).

You will notice this quote states that the Nazarenes practiced “circumcision”. Some may have; not understanding Acts 15, and other writings stating circumcision of the flesh is nothing. But, the Nazarenes rejected Rome’s change of the 7th day Shabbat to Sun-Day.
The 4th Commandment actually states that the reason we are to keep the 7th day set-apart is because הָיָה created the skies and Earth in 6 days, and הָיָה rested on the 7th. Thus, we honor Him as Creator by resting as He did (Heb. 4). There is no peace for the wicked.

“But the wicked are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest” Yesha Yahu 57:20.
Epiphanius also claims that the writings of “Matthew” were originally written in Hebrew.

Epiphanius, Bonacursus, Jerome, and later records up to the 13th century speak of these “Nazarenes”, who were constantly castigated and repelled by the “new” revisionary doctrines, replacement theology, and supersessionism of the Universal Roman State religion. The gates of the grave have not prevailed. Benjamin Franklin wrote, “History is the record of the winners.” History is the written record of events; the struggles people recorded through their eyes. Rarely do we read about history from the point of view of the losers, or the conquered.
The “father of history”, Herodotus, was objective in his report, but his “bias” still comes through.
The Nazarenes almost vanished from recorded history, since they had to flee to the mountains to survive. Their outposts were discovered at times, forcing them to stay on the move. Some of them influenced the peoples around them, giving rise to little groups like the Anabaptists and Waldenses, who were persecuted by the Roman religion. Anyone who was not “Catholic” yet trusted in רבי hậu was termed a “heretic”, and exterminated, being a threat to the teachings of Catholicism. So, naturally Jerome, Bonacursus, and Epiphanius would call them “heretics”. Now, we Nazarene Yisraelites are on the internet! The first settlers to America came to flee religious persecution. In early America, there were civil laws enacted which prohibited the celebration of “Christmas”, be-because they knew it to be a Pagan festival counterfeited as a “holy” day (holiday). George Washington crossed the Delaware to attack the British on Christmas Day. George knew that because the British celebrated on Christmas, they would be drunken and unprepared to defend themselves. But, as history will show, George was not a nice guy. When George was 25, he caused the French and Indian war by killing the French Ambassador. Then, George started another war with his own King over taxes on tea; taxes intended to help pay for the previous war! Our "history" is only written from the point of view of the winner. George was a Mason, and had his "apron" of righteousness to cling to. I'm not "judging" George, but these facts are easily researched for all to see. What will judge George? It will be the Living Word.

THE LIVING WORD

At Hebrews chapter 4, it is made very clear that those whom the Living Word is angry with will never enter His rest. The WORD of the Living Word is His Torah; the instructions for how His wife/bride is to live. Those who hear THE WORD, yet do not profit from hearing it, are the ones who are not steadfast, but disobedient. The Yisraelites disobeyed in the wilderness, and wandered for 40 years until their bodies fell dead. "For who provoked Him with their disobedience, and slew the scribes among them? 5 And to whom did He swear that they should not enter His rest, but to those who were disobedient? 6 So the sons of Yisrael, in contrast, not only did not enter His rest; but those who were disobedient were destroyed. 7 And we who have come out of Egypt with Mosheh; 8 And with whom was He angry for 40 years? 9 Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? 10 And to whom did He swear that they should not enter His rest, but to those who were disobedient?" Heb. 3:16-18.

These "disobedient" did not believe, therefore they did not obey. Billions today "believe", but they believe the wrong thing; THE LIE. The enemy has sown "weeds" among the wheat, which are false teachings. He did it long ago. He said Shabbat was now "Sun-Day", and we can ignore the appointed times, because they are just "Old Testament Jewish Stuff". Shatan also taught the world that the Creator was so angry with Yisrael, that His New Covenant was with a new wife; THE GENTILES. This is called "Replacement Theology", and it is a lie.

The "sign" of the Everlasting Covenant is His "rest": (Go read all of Exodus 31:12-18) . So the sons of Yisrael shall observe the Sabbath, to celebrate the Sabbath throughout their generations, as a perpetual covenant. It is a SIGN between Me and the sons of Israel FOREVER; for in six days the made Shamayim and Eretz, but on the seventh day He ceased from labor, and was refreshed."

"And also I gave them My Sabbaths to be a SIGN between Me and them, that they might know that I am who sanctifies them." Ezek. 20:12.

"There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of . For the one who has entered His rest has himself also rested from his works, as did from His. 2 Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall through following the same example of disobedience. 3 For THE WORD of is LIVING and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart." Heb. 4:9-12.

This "WORD" that is "living and active" is the Torah; it "judges" the thoughts and intentions of our hearts, and there is no way to hide how we feel about it from the Torah. The Torah is ALIVE, because it came to life and walked this Earth as a man. It is now His Spirit living in His bride, and He has circumcised our hearts with this "LIVING WORD", enabling us to LOVE His Covenant Law. If we sin, it is not our spirits in agreement, but our flesh at war with our spirits.

PROTESTANT CONFESSIONS

This is from a tract published by the Bible Sabbath Assoc., 3316 Alberta Dr., Gillette,WY 82718, which is called ROMAN CATHOLIC AND PROTESTANT CONFESSIONS ABOUT SUNDAY, part 2, which I ran across re-printed by the PETAH TIKVAH (address in Resources section in the back of this book). Protestant theologians and preachers from a wide spectrum of denominations have been quite candid in ADMITTING that there is no Biblical authority for observing Sunday as a Sabbath:

ANGELICAN / EPISCOPAL

Isaac Williams, Plain Sermons on the Catechism, vol. 1, pp. 334, 336:

"And where are we told in the Scriptures that we are to keep the first day at all? We are commanded to keep the seventh; but we are nowhere commanded to keep the first day... The reason we keep the first day of the week holy instead of the seventh is for the same reason that we observe many other things, not because the Bible, but because the church has enjoyed it."

T. Enright, C.S.S.R., in a lecture at Hartford, Kansas, Feb. 18, 1894:

"I have repeatedly offered $1000 to anyone who can prove to me from the Bible alone that I am bound to keep Sunday holy. There is no such law in the Bible. It is a law of the Holy Catholic Church alone. The Bible says, 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy'."

The Catholic Church says: 'NO. By my divine power I abolish the Sabbath day, and command you to keep holy the first day of the week'. And lo! The entire civilized world bows down in a reverent obedience to the command of the holy Catholic Church."

Canon Eyton, The Ten Commandments, pp. 52, 63, 65:

"There is no word, no hint, in the New Testament about abstaining from work on Sunday... The observance of Ash Wednesday or Lent stands exactly on the same footing as the observance of Sunday.*

Bishop Seymour, *Why We Keep Sunday:

"We have made the change from the seventh day to the first day, from Saturday to Sunday, on the authority of the one holy Catholic Church."

Dr. Edward T. Hiscox, a paper read before the New York ministers' conference, Nov. 13, 1893, reported in New York Examiner, Nov. 16, 1893:

"There was and is a commandment to keep holy the Sabbath day, but that Sabbath day was not Sunday. It will be said, however, and with some show of triumph, that the Sabbath was transferred from the seventh to the first day of the week. Where can the record of such a transaction be found? Not in the New Testament—absolutely not. To me it seems unaccountable that Jesus, during three years' intercourse with His disciples, often conversing with them upon the Sabbath question, ever alluded to any transference of the day; also, that during forty days of His resurrection life, no such thing was intimated. Of course, I quite know that Sunday did come into use in early Christian history. . . . But what a pity it comes branded with the mark of Paganism, and christened with the name of the sun god, adopted and sanctified by the papal apostacy, and bequeathed as a sacred legacy to Protestantism!"

William Owen Carver, *The Lord's Day In Our Day:

"There was never any formal or authoritative change from the Jewish seventh-day Sabbath to the Christian first-day observance."

"It is quite clear that however rigidly or devotedly we may spend Sunday, we are not keeping the Sabbath . . . The Sabbath was founded on a specific Divine command. We can plead no such command for the obligation to observe Sunday . . . There is not a single sentence in the New Testament to suggest that we incur any penalty by violating the supposed sanctity of Sunday."

Timothy Dwight, Theology, Explained and Defended (1823), Ser. 107, vol. 3, p. 258:

The Christian Sabbath (Sunday) is not in the Scriptures, and was not by the primitive Church called the Sabbath."

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

"But, say some, 'It was changed from the seventh to the first day'. Where? When? By whom? No man can tell. NO; it never was changed, nor could it be, unless creation was to be gone through again; for the reason assigned must be changed before the observance, or respect to the reason, can be changed! A law which never can be broken . . . Every part of this law must remain in force upon all mankind, and in all ages; as not depending either on time or place, or any other circumstances liable to change, but on the nature of God and the nature of man, and their unchangeable relation to each other."

Dwight L. Moody, Weighed and Wanting, pp. 7, 48:

"The Sabbath was binding in Eden, and it has been in force ever since. This fourth commandment begins with the word 'remember', showing that the Sabbath already existed when God wrote the law on the tablets of stone at Sinai. How can men claim that this one commandment has been done away with when they will admit that the other nine are still binding?"

Presbyterian

T.C. Blake, D.D., Theology Condensed, pp. 474:

"The Sabbath is a part of the Decalogue-the Ten Commandments. This alone forever settles the question as to the perpetuity of the institution. Until, therefore, it can be shown that the whole Moral Law has been repealed, the Sabbath will stand . . . The teaching of Christ confirms the perpetuity of the Sabbath."

What happened? By denying the 'roots' of the faith, the engrafted Gentile assembly gradually became so anti-Torah, that there was no connection with Torah, and they became an

*We have seen how gradually the impression of the Jewish Sabbath faded from the mind of the Christian Church, and how completely the newer thought underlying the observance of the first day took possession of the church. We have seen that the Christians of the first three centuries never confused one with the other, but for a time celebrated both."

Augsburg Confession of Faith, art. 28; written by Melanchthon, approved by Martin Luther, 1530; as published in The Book of Concord of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Henry Jacobs, ed. (1911), p. 63:

"They [Roman Catholics] refer to the Sabbath Day, as having been changed into the Lord's Day, contrary to the Decalogue, as it seems. Neither is there any example wherein they make more than concerning the changing of the Sabbath Day. Great, say they, is the power of the Church, since it has dispensed with one of the Ten Commandments!"

Dr. Augustus Neander, The History of the Christian Religion and Church, Henry John Rose, tr. (1843), p. 159:

"The festival of Sunday, like all other festivals, was always only a human ordinance, and it was far from the intentions of the apostles to establish a Divine Command in this respect, far from them, and from the early apostolic church, to transfer the laws of the Sabbath to Sunday."

John Theodore Mueller, Sabbath or Sunday:

"But they err in teaching that Sunday has taken the place of the Old Testament Sabbath and therefore must be kept as the seventh day had to be kept by the children of Israel. . . . These churches err in their teaching, for Scripture has in no way ordained the first day of the week in place of the Sabbath. There is simply no law in the New Testament to that effect."

METHODIST

"But, the Moral Law contained in the Ten Commandments, and enforced by the prophets, he [Christ] did not take away. It was not the design of His coming to revoke any part of this. This is a law which never can be broken . . . Every part of this law must remain in force upon all mankind, and in all ages; as not depending either on time or place, or any other circumstances liable to change, but on the nature of God and the nature of man, and their unchangeable relation to each other."

Dwight L. Moody, Weighed and Wanting, pp. 7, 48:

This fourth commandment begins with the word 'remember', showing that the Sabbath already existed when God wrote the law on the tablets of stone at Sinai. How can men claim that this one commandment has been done away with when they will admit that the other nine are still binding?"

T.C. Blake, D.D., Theology Condensed, pp. 474:

Until, therefore, it can be shown that the whole Moral Law has been repealed, the Sabbath will stand. . . . The teaching of Christ confirms the perpetuity of the Sabbath."

What happened? By denying the 'roots' of the faith, the engrafted Gentile assembly gradually became so anti-Torah, that there was no connection with Torah, and they became an instrument of death. When a few "reformers" began to crawl away from it, they were pursued to their death. The Christian assembly turned to fables and mythology.

"Preach the Word; be ready in season and out of season. Reprove, rebuke, and exhort with great patience and instruction. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers to tickle their ears, and they shall turn away their ears from the Truth, and shall be turned aside to myths." 2 Tim. 4:2,3. The "Word" is the Torah, and the "in season" - "out of season" refers to the annual appointed times like Passover, Shabuoth, and Sukkot (Tabernacles). False security is fostered in order to fleece the flock, and MANY will utter these words from Matt. 7:22,23:

"Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in your Name, and in Your Name done many wonderful works?' And then I will profess to them, 'I never knew you. Depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness.'"

What are we to do? "Come out of her, My people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues; for her sins are piled up to Shamayim, and why has remembered her crimes. Rev. 18:4. The "merchants" will mourn because no one will "buy" their lies anymore. Babylon, soon your doom will come. Armed with this knowledge, you can study on your own, and put the showmen preachers out of business by telling others who will listen. Support the orphans and widows, and especially your own family members in need (such as elderly parents). "The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the Earth." Rev. 17:18. The calendar and customs of the whole Earth are following the beast, seated in the ancient city of Rome. When your eyes are opened to this fact, you will be absolutely astonished. If you wonder what the "image" of the beast is, all you have to do is objectively open your eyes, to watch what it is that billions of people alive today bow down to. This is covered under "QUESTIONS & ANSWERS", in the next section. (Truth can be a paradox.)

"When יהוה said, 'I AM HE', they drew back and FELL TO THE GROUND." Many believe He spoke the Name of the Creator, and the power of the Name repelled them with a physical force. At 17:11,12, He prayed: "Qodesh Abba, protect them by the power of Your Name – the Name You gave Me – so that they may be one as We are one. While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that Name you gave Me." He told us: "I tell you, you will not see Me again until you say, 'blessed is He who comes in the Name of יהוה' – Luke 13:35. At Mattit Yahu 24:20, He said "Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on the Sabbath." Very few, if any, Christians are praying for this, but Nazarenes are. When all the changes that have been made are corrected, Scripture begins to make much more sense. It takes a great deal of dedication to the Truth for a person to step out from their family and preacher even after learning about the false deceptions. Most everyone who does will have no one around them at first who shares a love for the Name and the Torah. In fact, they will be bombarded with twisted quotes from Paul’s writings that seem to annul the Sabbath or other appointed times. This situation is described in the Parable of the Sower at Luke 8, where the "seed" is stolen away, choked by weeds, or has no root. But, they must bear in mind the words of 2 Pet. 3:15-18, where it states that Paul’s writings are twisted by unstable and ignorant men, leading to their destruction. We are each placed where we are as "salt"; so we are not intended to be "bunched up", but rather must reach the few around us who will listen to the Truth.
QUESTION from E-MAIL: You say in your book that we should not give our tithe to help support our leaders (Rabbi). Well if that is their full-time job (teaching Yeshiva, leading Shabbat services, traveling), then how should they be supported? Furthermore we meet in a building that we are renting and somebody has to pay for the electric bill! Yes, we could meet in a house, but there are more than 500 of us. What's your view on this? We put our tithe in the box every week. I'm not sure how every penny is spent. Our leader says it's also from the Torah (I don't remember where) to publicize who pays their tithe and when each year. They print out a list with everyone's name on it declaring who gave their tithe and how often. What do you think about that? - [from e-mail]

ANSWER: - What your e-mail described was not a "tithe", but a social decision, which is fine, but it's not the purpose of the commanded tithe. The electric bill, and rent to house 500 people, are costs to run a school or club, and the payment being made is more like tuition, or club dues. The elders who teach are worthy of part of the tithe, in fact, a "double portion" (1 Tim. 5:17) of the meal fed to support the poor, widows, and fatherless children. Actually, no where in Scripture did any apostle take the whole tithe (10th part, ma'aser) for himself, to support him and his family! Paul said he supported not only himself with his own hands, but those who traveled with him. Sure, an elder is able to eat from his labors, but eat only, not pay mortgages, and personal support above and beyond staying with those he is teaching. The record at Acts 20:17-35 describes how Paul pleaded with the elders at Ephesus, which you should read very carefully, because it describes the situation we see today, which Paul wept over. Note carefully verses 20:32-35. He was speaking to the elders. Generosity to the poor gets YHWH's attention (Acts 10:4). But, one should first see to the support of their own family in need, such as parents, or close relatives, rather than have them be a burden on the assembly of saints (1 Tim. 5:3-11). Here, there was a "list" mentioned (5:11) that one had to be on to receive support. I would emphasize 1 Tim 5:16, which says: "If any woman who is a believer has widows in her family, she should help them, AND NOT LET THE ASSEMBLY BE BURDENED WITH THEM, SO THAT THEY MIGHT HELP THOSE WIDOWS WHO ARE REALLY IN NEED." We are all to progress in knowledge, and although we never become greater than the one who teaches us, we should become like them. I teach and work a job, like bro. Paul. We are to feed the sheep of YahuShua, not fleece them. If one man has a group of 100 people who regularly "tithe" 10% of their income to him, that one man gains an income that is TEN TIMES greater than that of any one of those who "tithe" to him. You see, this is the "business" of the merchants. They often attend seminars, which train them to be extremely successful at this, and they pay a percentage to their denomination. It mushroomed the same, like an MLM, or pyramid organization. As long as one knows they are not paying a "tithe", but supports the costs of the group meeting, there's no problem. If there's 500 people, and each one gives 75 cents per week, that's $375 for a meeting place once a week. But, if 250 of them pay $20 each week, then that's $5000 a week. That's a big business, not the rental and electric bill. An elder is not to receive the whole tithe, but SHARE in eating with the poor among the assembly, if he doesn't work for a living like everyone else. I'm sure any man who is able to have the size income from an assembly as large as yours is, or even larger, would be very much against everything I teach on this subject. I could easily have 2000 or more attend a weekly meeting here in Louisville, and bilk them out of many thousands, but I have to teach the truth, and face my Rabbi one day. "In their greed, these teachers will exploit you with stories they have made up." - 2 Peter 2:3. In truth, we already pay quite a bit more than 10% to support the needy, just through Social Security, Medicaid, and various other public support mechanisms in place. There is no "tithe" to "spread the Gospel" in Scripture. Also, when we give, we are not to let our left hand know what our right hand is doing, so our Father who sees in secret will reward us. Our giving is to be "anonymous". Reading all of Acts 4:32-35 shows that those in need received the proceeds; and there were no needy among the Nazarenes. "James" 1:27 says "Religion that is pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world." 2Cor. 2:17 says "Unlike so many, we do not peddle the Word of Yah for profit!" Christians always taught salvation is a free gift through faith, not works. Wasn't the "Law" done away with in the Mes-siah’s atoning sacrifice, so we can now eat pigs, lobsters, blood, and ignore Sabbaths?

ANSWER: What OYWAL’s death accomplished was bringing an end to the ceremonial law, which required the shedding of blood for the forgiveness of sin. Our faith is in His atoning blood—we’re covered! Animal sacrifices were not a permanent atonement, as the precious blood of OYWAL is. Nor could animal blood change the inner man. Our “faith” is in OYWAL’s shed blood covering our past sins, which is what all the animal sacrifices pointed to. Our life is in His resurrection, and His Spirit comes into us to dwell, circumcising our hearts with His MORAL Law. Allowing Him to write His Covenant Moral Law on our hearts is the New Covenant, promised at Yerme Yahu 31:31-34, and Heb. 8:10. This is commemorated each year at Shabuoth, called “Yerme Yahu”.

QUESTION: For not teaches that we must obey. ANSWER: Anyone for obedience, but rather all Scripture involves “repenting”, or turning from sin. We called “testimony” is not popular, because it involves “repenting”, or turning from sin. We must obey the Covenant, or Commands and teachings (Torah), but we cannot while in the “mind of the flesh”. The carnal person “dies” at their immersion, calling on the Name of Yahushua, Who cleanses or washes the past.
Torah-breaking from them, and He comes into them, enabling them to "walk in the Spirit", because He changes their attitude about the Commands – they love the "Word" from that point. The writing of the Torah on our hearts is the New Covenant. That would be your next question.

QUESTION: Why are we here, and what is the meaning of life?

ANSWER: We were created to be companions to the Word, and rule the universe He created with Him. This really sounds like Mormonism, but it's not that at all. We will "inherit" the Earth, and the Word will rule the universe from here. In the here-and-now, our purpose is to make "righteous offspring". That's not easy, believe me. Everything you see is passing away, and everything you can't see is eternal. We will become spatial beings, able to interact with the physical world as well as the unseen "space" or spirit energy, when the "Children of the Son" are finally revealed. "Going to Heaven" is a Pagan myth; it's not an idea found in Scripture. (By the way, when you read the phrase "Kingdom of Heaven", the word "heaven" was used to avoid saying the Name. It was probably changed by copyists.)

QUESTION: Where is sin?

ANSWER: Sin exists in the heart. Yerme Yahu 17:9 states: "The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure. Who can understand it?" The good news is at Ezek. 36:26, 27: "I will give you a new heart, and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone, and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put My Spirit in you and move you to follow My decrees and be careful to keep My Laws." When a person builds a thermonuclear bomb or landmine, a sin was committed. The idea itself was a sin if even the intention was there. AVaR does not make such things. Why? Because these things kill without selection! A gun or sword is not a sin to build, but their use can be. Automobiles and dynamite have killed, but they are not "sin". Who could not use us, it's in our hearts. OYVaL told His students to arm themselves with a sword the night He was arrested, so a sword or gun is not the sin, but the use it is put to. The same logic applies to "images". If you bow down to a statue, picture, or object (like a national icon) for any reason, it is an abominable act, and the object also becomes an abomination, and must be destroyed. This happened to the serpent on the pole, Nehushan, so it had to be destroyed (Num. 21:8,9, 2Kings 18:4). Also, food, money, gold, silver, or other valuables become defiled (in men's hearts) if they were offered to foreign elohim. But, the person must know this, or there is no problem. Paul explains this at 1Cor. 8. We know that foreign elohim are as nothing at all, but all people do not know this. The LOVE of money is the root of all kinds of evil, not the money itself.

QUESTION: Who is OYVaL?

ANSWER: He is the Word of Life", and anyone who acknowledges the Son of OYVaL has the Father. "And this is the testimony: OYVaL has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of OYVaL does not have life." (1John 5:11,12). The reason He appeared was to destroy the devil's work. "We know we have come to know Him if we obey His Commands." (1John 2:3). His indwelling enables us to do no sin. OYVaL is the Messiah, Who came in the flesh, "Who, being in very nature OYVaL, did not consider equality with OYVaL, but made Himself something to be grasped, but made Himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness." (Philippians 2:6,7). OYVaL is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by Him all things were created: things in Shamayim and on Earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or authorities; all things were created by Him and for Him. . . . He is the beginning and firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything He might have the supremacy. For OYVaL was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him, and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things on Earth or things in Shamayim, by making peace through His Blood, shed on the stake." (Col. 1:15-20). He is the Spokesman Who made all the Covenants with Yisrael. He is the Ruach ha Qodesh, or "set-apart Spirit", the resurrection and the life. "When he looks at Me, he sees the One Who sent Me." (John 12:45). Philip said, "Rabbi, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." OYVaL answered, 'Don't you know Me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen Me has seen the Father." (John 14:9). He is the living Word (Torah) – the personality of OYVaL made flesh. The physical body of OYVaL being the "Son", and the mind being OYVaL is a better "grasp" for our limited abilities to comprehend. I guess that makes me a monotheistic modalist. But, so were all the prophets.

QUESTION: Is OYVaL a "Trinity"?

ANSWER: The Shema (meaning "hear"): "Hear, O Yisrael: OYVaL our Elohim, OYVaL is one! Love OYVaL your Elohim with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These Commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.” (Dt. 6:4-9). The words “EhYah asher EhYah” mean “I will be, I will be,” YHWH, Yahueh, Yahuah, Yahushua, Yahuah,耶和華, Yahweh, IAUE, JAOUE, etc., are transliterations from the Hebrew letters אלifers / אֵלֶּה. This Name means all three of the following: I was, I am, and I will be. “I am the alef and the tau’, says the Sovereign אֵלifers, Who is, and Who was, and Who is to come, the Almighty (Heb. Shaddaal)”. (Rev. 1:8). The speaker was One, pointing to “John” (Yahuachanon) on the island of Patmos. Men who “interpret” the Writings with their own preconceived ideas can put a “spin” on them, making them seem to say things they don't say. They will admit that Mosheh and Daniel didn't think there was a “Trinity”, but claim there was “progressive revelation” later on. If there were a “Trinity”, then surely there would have been a great deal of explanation given in the Writings, because it goes against everything the Scriptures ever taught. You can’t have monotheism, and trinitarianism! Scripture has stemmed from one of Abraham’s descendants from the Hebrew letters YHWH, Yahueh, Yahuah, Whom I will be”.

In Japan, the Shinto religion has the phrase, “San Pao Fuh”, which means “one deity, three forms”. The Irish use one of their ancient Druid symbols, the trifolium clover leaf, as a symbol of their Celtic pride, but also as a secret symbol of their Trinity. The male and female symbols used in Biology are the secret Babylonian signs of Nimrod (Orion, Sagittarius ~ the mighty archer/hunter), and his wife/mother Semiramis (Great Mother, Magna Mater). All of these things and many more, were the “interpreted” mysteries of the Pagan religions, overseen by Wizards, sorcerers, warlocks, shamans, and priest-magicians who exploited the masses. (The “Magi” from Babylon were priests of Ahura-Mazda (Mithras), the sun deity. They arrived when the Mashiach was about two years old, and the gifts they bestowed enabled the family of Yosef, Miryam, and little Yahushua to live in Egypt until Herod died.)

Trinitarianism and Replacement Theology

Replacement theology, or supersessionism, resulted from un-converted Pagans becoming part of the early assembly of believers. The educated men were influential and wealthy, and they swayed doctrines to conform to the mold of the Pagan mind, simply because it was the easiest thing to do. It also preserved their control over the masses. The Pagan mind was already skilled at “spiritualizing” everything through interpretation, and the early Church Fathers had all come from this mold. Augustine had been a Manichaean, which is a sun worshiper. Anti-Semitism (from the word Shem, a son of Noach) developed from the writing of the Church Fathers. By the 4th century, it had become conspicuous; the record bears witness to it in this letter of Faustus, who wrote to Augustine:

“You have substituted your love feasts for the sacrifices of the Pagans; for their idols, your martyrs, whom you serve with the very same honors. You appease the shades of the dead with wine and feasts; you celebrate the solemn festivals of the Gentiles, their calendars, and their solstices; and as to their manners, those you have retained without any alteration. Nothing distinguishes you from the Pagans, except that you hold your assemblies apart from them.” The change-over to Paganism is right here on the record, witnessed by Faustus as it happened. Again during the 4th century, the learned M. Turretin wrote this into the record as he saw the changes occur:

“It was not so much the (Roman) Empire that was brought over to the faith, as the faith that was brought over to the Empire; not the Pagans who were converted to Christianity, but Christianity that was converted to Paganism."

In the year CE 439, the historian Socrates wrote:

“Although almost all assemblies throughout the world celebrate the sacred mysteries on the Sabbath of every week, yet the Christians of Alexandria and at Rome, on account of some ancient tradition, have ceased to do this.”

In the year CE 440, the historian Sozomen wrote:

“The people of Constantinople and almost everywhere, assemble together on the Sabbath, as well as on the first day of the week.”

The “love feasts” referred to by Faustus were the original commanded appointed times from Scripture, called Pesach, Shabuoth, and Sukkot (Passover, Pentecost, and Tabernacles, Lev. 23, Dt. 16). Today, those of us who observe these and the correct weekly Shabbaths are thought of as some kind of “cultists”, or heretics. In reality, who are the real cultists and heretics?

The APOSTASY is here, folks, and has been for a long, long time. They missed the big picture, and became overwhelmed by all the small Pagan details. They didn’t want to be accused of substituting Pagan customs, so they “re-invented” them by revisionism over time. Coming out of this Pagan background, it is no wonder Protestants carried out so many things from their “Mother”, like Sun-day, altars, steeples, Easter, Christ-mass, trees and wreaths, the Trinity, and the fake name they use for the true Creator. It’s also no wonder the “Jews” are so appalled by the Christian religion! Abandoning the Torah, and calling the Mashiach by a Greco-Roman Name might not be the best way to begin introducing the Savior to a Yahudi.

QUESTION: What about Paul’s letters? Doesn’t he clearly say that all days are special, and observing Sabbaths were “shadows”?

ANSWER: Paul’s letters, especially Galatians, Romans, and Colossians have been used to “prove” certain things he was not saying at all. When Paul discusses the “Law”, he is often speaking of the Ceremonial Law which dealt with atonement. When atonement for sin was made one time for all in Mashiach’s death, the Ceremonial Law came to an end. The Moral Law, which defines sin, will be in force for all eternity. Consider what Rabbi Ovadya said at Mt. 5:17,18:

“Do not think that I came to destroy the Torah (Law) or the Nebi’im (Prophets). I did not come to destroy but to fulfill (fill full). For truly I say to you, till Shamayim and Eretz pass away, not one yod or tittle shall by any means pass from the Torah till all be done.”

The skies and Earth are still here, so the Moral Law is in force—every letter of it. Also, if you read Acts 6:13, and 7:53, the stoning of Stephen, there is concrete evidence that the “Law” is in force, AFTER the “crux”, and the resurrection of Mashiach. Acts 1:12 states “then they returned to Yerushalaim, from the hill called the Mount of Olives, a Sabbath day’s walk from the city.” This not only mentions a “Sabbath”, but also mentions a maximum distance (1000 cubits) one can walk on a Shabbat. Even the day called “Pentecost” (Acts 2) is Shabuoth, the 50th day after the weekly Shabbat, following the weekly Shabbat after Passover, every year. See Lev. 23:15,16 to see that it is the day AFTER the seventh Shabbat. (To me, Shabuot/Pentecost/Feast of Weeks is always on the 1st day of the week, and there are some who disagree on this.) The “Fast” (Yom Kippur) is mentioned at Acts 27:9—the “Fast” being the 10th day of the 7th moon, in the autumn, when the storms at sea make traveling hazardous).

When Paul writes at Romans 14 about ‘fasting’ and special days, he is addressing traditions of the Yahudim that arose, not Commandments. When the Temple was destroyed in 586 BCE, it became a custom to fast each year on the “9th of Av.” The Temple was destroyed both times on this day! Ferdinand and Isabella’s expulsion of the Yahudim from Spain occurred on this same day. At Col. 2:8, Paul says, “See to it that no one makes you prey through philosophy (commentary) and empty deceit, according to the traditions of men . . .” At Col. 2:21.22, Paul condemns asceticism (obsessive self-denial, austere living) because these are the commands and teachings of men. Another place Paul’s writings are used to negate Commandments is Col. 2:11-23. If you read the various translations, you will see huge differences in the texts, and even sentences that say the opposite of other translations. The text says, “Let no one judge you . . . BUT the body of Mashiach.” The KJV shows the added word, “IS”, to the phrase, “but the body (is) of Christ.” At 2:16, it is being stressed that only the body of Mashiach should “judge” what you eat or drink, or regarding a religious festival, New Moon celebration, or a Shabbat Day. Then at 2:17, he says these things are shadows of things to come. The NIV butchered the text, and men over the years have read into the text what they wanted to see.

QUESTION: Should we use crucifixes with, or without, the body of the Savior on them?

ANSWER: Many things thought, done, and said within the various denominations of Christendom can be traced to Constantine I. He set the pattern for Sun-day and Easter, and gave us the labarum emblem, a circle with a crux beneath it. This symbol, complete with the chi-rho letters in the circle, are on coins that date back to the 2nd century BCE. Tradition says that his aging mother, Helena, traveled to Yerushaliyim to find the actual wooden “cross” which the Savior hung on. It is claimed that she dug it up! Today, supposedly the pieces of this “discovery” are scattered all over the Earth. If brought together, there would be enough splinters to fill several railroad cars.

The ancient symbol of life to the Egyptians was the crux ansata, or ansate cross (ankh or anchor), and began to be embraced by Coptic Christians from their Pagan surroundings. The 1945 Encyclopedia Americana states, “The symbol of the cross was used throughout the world since the later Stone Age; Greek pre-Christian crosses were the tau and swastika; the cross first became a symbol of Christianity during the reign of Constantine.”

The swastika is four Greek gamma letters, and it is also seen prominently displayed on the entrances of Hindu and Buddhist temples, as an emblem of the “wheel of Samsara”. The 3rd Reich used it to identify itself with Christianity in Nordic caricature (runes), as all scholars agree. The use of halos, steeples, statues, candles, holy water, magic relics, spells, bells, amulets, necklaces, magic rings, scapulas, talismans, rosaries, and crosses enabled the designers of Christianity to appeal to masses of Pagans. The specimens on the previous page illustrate pre-Christian religious uses of the cross.

The 1945 Encyclopedia Americana continues: “Prescott says that when the first Europeans arrived in Mexico, to their surprise, they found ‘the cross, the sacred emblem of their own faith, raising as an object of worship in the temples of Anahuac’. The cross as a symbol dates back to an unknown antiquity. It was recognized in all countries throughout the world at all times. Before the present era the Buddhists, Brahmans and Druids utilized the device. In Eire Land, great monoliths beautifully carved into elaborate crosses are found everywhere. They date from the early Celtic period and they are freely decorated with Runic inscriptions. Constantine adopted the ‘labarum’ as his standard. In CE 680 at the Council of Constantinople, the bleeding Lamb on the symbolic crucifix was forbidden, and the dying Saviour’s image on the cross was ordered to take its place, thus originating the present form of crucifix to be displayed to the public.”

We find the word “TREE” used at 1Pet. 2:24:

“He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness; for by His wounds you were healed.”

Here we see it was His body lifted up and wounded, not the object He hung on, that is the central point. Many teach that the palaeo-Hebrew letter “TAU” (see back of book—“X”) was the central point. Many teach that the Roman Catholics place an “ash crux” on their congregations’ foreheads every “Ash Wednesday”. If you reflect on the fact that the mark placed in the foreheads of the elect that protects them from harm at Rev. 7:3 is also called a “seal”, the smoke and mirrors begin to clear up. There are 144,000 sealed. A seal is usually a mark, as seals in wax served as security checks. Again, at Rev. 14, this “seal” is identified as the Name of the Father in their foreheads: אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and the 144,000 are mentioned again. How likely is it that YHWH would use a TAU (X) in one instance, and His Name in another?

Since the emblem of the crux has always been, and continues to be, a symbol to which the people of Earth bow down to, it is more likely that it, in what ever form it comes in, is the “image of the beast”. Considering its source, this is the only symbol that makes sense, being a “blind-spot” of sorts for everyone. Add up what we know: it was used throughout all times and places by Pagans, and it was thrust upon the masses very early in Christianity’s development. The adversary has used Christianity as an implement of death, and it’s symbol is Pagan. 100 years ago, Alexander Hislop recorded more on this in his book, The Two Babylons. The fire worshippers raised a cross of candles in their temples, and this is done today by the Roman Catholics, in St. Peter’s Cathedral. The Ku Klux Klan also use a fire cross, and when indoors, they use a cross of candles. The emblem of our Rabbi, the Light of the world, is a lampstand, called a MENORAH. So, I would think you would not want to go near a place displaying a crux, or wear one of any kind. Pagan priests wore them as talismans! Maybe “Dracula” is only afraid of it in the movies because it reminds him of the sun. Think about it. It’s Shatan’s symbol, and it’s used in Black Masses! What agreement is there between light and darkness? When people are programmed with Pagan rituals and designs, and taught to ignore the Torah, Shatan effectively “disarms” them of the “sword of the Spirit”, the thing that makes him flee. “I have hidden Your WORD in my heart, that I might not sin against You.” Ps. 119:11. “Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather EXPOSE them.” Eph. 5:11. “Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes.” Eph. 6:10-17. The armor is the belt of Truth, breastplate of righteousness, shodding our feet in the message of peace, the shield of faith, helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, the Torah is the “seed” of the Kingdom.

THE MENORAH The actual word “menorah” was avoided by copyists, and we have inherited the word “lampstands”. At Revelation 1:12, אֱלֹהֵינוּ is clearly associated with the menorah, because He is standing in the center of “seven golden lampstands”. At Revelation 1:20, the text says the menorah is the seven congregations, His body. At Revelation 2:23 He threatens to remove the menorah (Himself, the Light) from the congregation at Ephesus. So, the sign of the Son of man is a menorah, not a crux.

A menorah is essentially a TREE, with seven branches holding sources of light. It is the symbol of Yisrael, more so than any other. The 7 branches signify the 7 days of the week, the 7 annual appointed times, the 7 congregations mentioned at Rev. 1:20, and the 7 millennia. The 7th millennium will be a “rest”, corresponding to the weekly “rest”. In Yahudaism, the worship of Yah, the menorah is a symbol of the TORAH, and the Torah is called a “Tree of Life”. At Proverbs 3:18, “Wisdom” (the Torah) is the “woman” we must embrace: “She is a Tree of Life to those who take hold of her, and happy are all who hold her fast. Treasure My Commandments within you, make your ear attentive to Wisdom . . ."

The "Tree of Life" is mentioned in Genesis, Proverbs, and Revelation. Its leaves are to be used to heal the nations, and its fruit enable one to live forever. This is the Torah, which OWYRZ gave answer to the rich young man when asked how he might acquire eternal life. The Torah will go forth from Yerushalayim, and it is also called Living Waters. When someone receives a LOVE for the Torah, they have received a precious gift, not a burden. Metaphorically, OWYRZ is the root, and we are the branches of the menorah, lighting the world with the Torah. The hatred of the Torah was put to death by OWYRZ's execution, so that both the sons of the Covenant and engrafted Gentiles could be reconciled in one body to OWYRZ. The Commandments weren't abolished, the commandment was. You will not be punished or lose the promise of eternal life by obeying the Torah. You WILL be unable to obey Torah without OWYRZ, and for this you will be cast into the Lake of Fire. Shatan is NEVER going to tell you to disobey the Torah, but he WILL tell you that you don't need it, and if you eat it, you will die? (When asked this question, only 17% of Stanford University seniors knew the answer right away.) To give you time to think, the answer will be given in the answer to the next question.

QUESTION: How long did Cain hate his brother? ANSWER: As long as he was Abel.

QUESTION: What is greater than OWYRZ, more evil than Shatan, the poor have it, the rich have it, not a burden but its commands are a liar, and the Truth is not in him. We know we have come to know Him if we obey His Commands. The man who says 'I know Him', but does not do what He commands is a liar, and the Truth is not in him. But if anyone obey His Word, Elohim's love Directed toward their MAKER, and this puts the insulter in a very serious position. "Set guard, O OWYRZ, over my mouth; keep watch over the door of my lips." ~ Ps. 141:3.

QUESTION: What is a cult? ANSWER: One definition in Webster's Dictionary says it's "a religion regarded as unorthodox or spurious [and] its body of adherents." People who are not totally in line with "mainstream" Christianity in every way are often labeled a "cult". But, the word has only recently taken on a negative meaning, and it is defined as a "sect" also. Webster's also calls a cult "a group of followers, sect." Just reviewing the evidence provided in this book, it should be very apparent that the gross errors that came to overwhelm Christianity over the centuries makes it the most extravagant and over-blown "cult" one could possibly imagine. As I said, if you shoe-horned just a little bit of Paganism into it, it would pop. A considerable amount of "brain-washing" is certainly employed. But, without being persecuted, I would fear that I was not on the "narrow way". We must not seek the praise of men. Standing up for the Truth will cause men to shun us. The Light of Torah drives away those who will not repent. "But everything exposed by the Light becomes visible, for it is Light that makes everything visible. This is why it is said; 'Wake up, O sleeper, rise from the dead, and Mashiach will shine on you.'" ~ Eph. 5:13,14.

"Everyone who does evil hates the Light because their deeds are evil. Everyone who does evil hates the Light, and will not come into the Light FOR FEAR THAT HIS DEEDS WILL BE EXPOSED. But whoever lives by the Truth comes into the Light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through Elohim." ~ Yahuchohan 3:19-21.

Simply calling yourself a "Christian" is a generic reference, and could be applied to any follower of any "Christ". The Nazarene Mashiach, OWYRZ, has followers who do not wish to sin, but they understand this is not what delivers them. "My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense ~ Yahushua haMashiach, the Righteous One. He is our atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world. We know we have come to know Him if we obey His Commands. The man who says 'I know Him', but does not do what He commands is a liar, and the Truth is not in him. But if anyone obey His Word, Elohim's love Mother, also called word nativity. “Mother Nature” refers to the Earth.

What does the word “nature” mean?

“Nature” is based on the Latin word, NATURA, and means birth. It is the root of the word nativity. “Mother Nature” refers to the Earth. This is the root of all Paganism, and she was known as the SKY to the Egyptians, who called her NUT. Nut means nurture in Latin. Really, the sky was the time-clock used to determine when the fertilization cycle of events occurred. The calendar is the “stage” on which the Babylonian Pagan Mysteries are played-out on.

Why do people say “GOD bless you” when someone sneezes?

Pagans believed that when someone sneezed, their heart stopped, or at least skipped a few beats. Being that the sun was called “GOTT”, the Celtic peoples would call on their highest deity for those who do not understand and obey, be- come they will not REPENT. Their sinfulness is truly made complete in him. Whoever claims to live in Him must walk as Yahushua did.” (Yoch. 2. 17:30,31.)

The message brought by Yahushua, and carried by His cousin Yahuchanon, Paul, and all the students, was simply: Repent, for the reign of YHWH draws near. This simple message was the core idea of what Paul spoke to the Greeks at Athens. At a meeting of the Areopagus, these Pagans wanted to know about what Paul was trying to say. (Read Acts 17:18-34.)

“In the past, Elohim overlooked such ignorance, but now He commands all people everywhere to REPENT. For He has set a day when He will judge the world with justice by the man He has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising Him from the dead.” - 17:30,31. Here, Paul said it in a more elaborate way. The “Good News” also contains “Bad News”, at least for those who do not understand and obey, because they will not REPENT. Their sinfulness must first be made apparent to them, then they must turn away from sinning, be immersed in the-saving Name of YHWH, walk in the Commandments of freedom, have OWYAH, “circumcise” their hearts, and causing them to love the Torah. This is the New Covenant (Jer. 31, Heb. 8). “But he is a Yahudi who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the Spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from YHWH.” - Romans 2:29.

How can I prove to myself that the Name of our Creator was removed from the translations commonly used?

The word “Gospel” is two Celtic words, “GOD” + “SPELL”. It came from the Greek word evangelion and means “acceptable report” or “message.” The Hebrew word is BASAR. The message brought by Yahushua, and carried by His cousin Yahuchanon, Paul, and all the students, was simply: Repent, for the reign of YHWH draws near. This simple message was the core idea of what Paul spoke to the Greeks at Athens. At a meeting of the Areopagus, these Pagans wanted to know about what Paul was trying to say. (Read Acts 17:18-34.)

“In the past, Elohim overlooked such ignorance, but now He commands all people everywhere to REPENT. For He has set a day when He will judge the world with justice by the man He has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising Him from the dead.” - 17:30,31. Here, Paul said it in a more elaborate way. The “Good News” also contains “Bad News”, at least for those who do not understand and obey, because they will not REPENT. Their sinfulness must first be made apparent to them, then they must turn away from sinning, be immersed in the-saving Name of YHWH, walk in the Commandments of freedom, have OWYAH, “circumcise” their hearts, and causing them to love the Torah. Check any encyclopedia under the Name “YAHWEH”, and especially the preface and dictionary of your translations. You will see the Latin letters “YHWH”. These stand for the Hebrew letters YOD, HAY, WAW, HAY. Also, the KJV slipped it in as the short form “JAH” at Psalm 68:4, but the letter “J” is less than 500 years old, being a YOD in Hebrew. “Everyone who calls on the Name of YHWH will be saved” – This text at Yah el (Joel) 2:32 is quoted at Acts 2:21 and Romans 10:13, and the Name is spoken of thousands of times as central to our salvation throughout Scripture. His people bear His Name, Daniel 9:19. He declares “This is My Name FOREVER, the Name by which I am to be remembered from generation to generation.” (Ex. 3:15). You hear it in the phrase hallelu YAH. The Content Name is contained in the Name of our Redeemer, Yahushua. Husha or hushua means save, and you will recall the crowds shouted “Husha nu” (meaning save us) at John (Yahuchanon) 12:13. They also shouted “baruch haba baShem YHWH,” meaning blessed is he who comes in the Name of Yahushua, Yahuchanon 12:13 and Luke 19:38. This caused the Pharisees to scold our Rabbi because they were saying the Name aloud, which was to them “blasphemy.” At Yahuchanon 17:6, He said: “I have revealed Your Name to those whom you gave Me out of the world.” At Rev. 2:3, He says “You have endured hardships for My Name, and have not grown weary.” We are “sealed” with the Father’s Name (Rev. 14:1): “Then I looked, and before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Tziyon, and with Him 144,000 who had His Father’s Name written on their foreheads.” (See also Rev. 7.) Malachi 3:16 says “Then those who feared YHWH talked with each other, and YHWH listened and heard. A scroll of remembrance was written in His presence concerning those who feared YHWH and honored His Name.” To enter into His Covenant with Yisra’el, and to have our sins removed and give ourselves to Him, we must be immersed in the Name above names, OWYAH.
Since ancient Babylon, the tongues (languages) of the nations have been babbling. The pure language, HEBREW, was undisturbed because Shem and his clan settled apart from his brothers' clans, the Babylonians. The babbling nations of today have in excess of 2,600 languages. They will be purged of their blasphemous terms, and one day call upon the Name of הוהי. Zeph. 3:8,9: "I have decided to assemble the nations, to gather the kingdoms, and to pour out my wrath on them— all my fierce anger. The whole world will be consumed by the fire of my jealous anger. Then I will purify the speech of the peoples, that all of them may call upon the Name of הוהי, and serve Him shoulder to shoulder." See? He knew the "wrong" wouldn't be using His Name.

ABBA Hebrew for male parent; this is what Rabbi also called His Father. ABINU is Hebrew-Aramaic for our father. The ending "u" is plural possessive.

ADORAI Hebrew, meaning my sovereign. The ending letter "i" (yod) makes it mean "my"—as expressed in Elo (my mighty one), rabbi (my teacher), and ani (myself, me, my). Adonai was used in place of the Name.

AGNOSTIC Greek for without knowledge; A = against; GNOSTIC = knowledge.

APIS A "sacred" bull worshipped as Aton by the ancient Egyptians, having horns with a sun-disc between them. The Yisraelites made a golden calf, or apis, to worship the Creator, יהוה Elohim. He’s on the record as being against images, and He was especially disturbed they used a previously Pagan image to represent Him. In fact, He hates to be worshipped in any Pagan way.

ARCHAEOLOGY From Greek, ARKHAILOGIA, archaeo- (ancient, beginning) + logy- (study, reason). It’s the study of antiquity, customs, structures, etc.,.

ASCETICISM A severe, self-denying, austere way of life, supposed to permit union with the divine—a practice condemned as useless by Paul at Col. 2:21,22. Pagan monks and hermits often lived this way, most often celibate, and they still practice it. This was used by Catholicism, accompanied by "vows", to control literate men who copied and translated the Scriptures. In these monk factories, sentences from Scripture were divided, so the men could not make sense from them as they were copied and translated; a "vow of silence" was imposed so they could not discuss what they had worked on with others, so the sentences would remain incomplete in their minds.

ATHIEIST Greek for one who subscribes to the belief there is no Creator, or spiritual being of any kind. A- (without), + THEOS- (deity, deus, elohim).

BAAL Hebrew for “LORD”. This word was used as a proper name for the sun deity by the Canaanites, Phoenicians, and even the Druids. The familiar word Beelzebub is more accurately the Hebrew BAAL-ZE'BUL, meaning LORD OF THE FLIES. The names containing BEL are references to the Pagan deity, as in Jezebel and Belshazzar. Another name for Shatan (Satan) is Belial. So, to say "the LORD is my shepherd" doesn’t relate to the Creator, but rather Shatan! Shatan "deleted" the true Name, and put in a generic term referring to himself. The main point is that the SUN was what the ancients related this term to, and we see it camouflaged in words like bell, ball, and Cybele.

BAPTISM From the Greek baptizein, to dip. Originally, it referred to dyeing fabric, but came to be used by Pagans for initiation ceremonies, using water or blood in sprinkling. The true Hebrew word is TEVI'LA, where a person is immersed in a body of water, called a MIKVAH. It also signifies repentance, and it is the most important event in one’s life in the conversion of a Gentile, to become engrafted into Yisrael. It is a covenant sign to obey יהוה, and identifies the convert with the death and burial of יהוה, and is the death and burial of one’s mind of the flesh. Rising up from the water of Tevia, a convert is identified with the resurrection, and walks in obedience, enabled to obey by the Spirit. יהוה gave us His example.

BELLS The world’s oldest bell was unearthed in Babylon. Bells are among the oldest items used in Pagan worship, and were one of several noise-makers used. They were employed to give worship to the sun, and were usually placed in or near the top of an obelisk or high-place. Orientals use gongs as well as the familiar bell shapes. They were brought into Christian worship along with “steeples” from Paganism. Augustus Caesar is on record as

BELIEF A mental act or habit of placing trust or confidence in an opinion, or the acceptance of something as true or real. To expect or suppose. When something believed-in is exposed as being false, a reaction is aroused. How an individual reacts depends on how well-equipped they are, and the degree to which they want to believe the falsehood. Dresden James wrote “A truth’s initial commotion is directly proportional to how deeply the lie was believed. It wasn’t the world being round that agitated people, but that the world wasn’t flat. When a well-packaged web of lies has been sold gradually to the masses over generations, the truth will seem utterly preposterous, and its speaker a raging kinaetic”. The Smith Ministry in Abilene, Texas has stated, “It isn’t the fact that the Savior’s Name is Yehshua (O W Y A L - Yah-hus, Yahshua) that agitates people, but that His Name is not Jesus (Jhesus, Hey-Zeus, Yeh-Zus, Jesus)”. This means that people may think they have the facts, but all they really have are beliefs. If we are imputed “righteousness” by our belief alone, then why did Ya’akov (James) write “show me your belief without deeds, and I will show you my belief by what I do. You believe that there is one Elohim—good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder... You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by belief alone.” We can believe “He knows my heart”—but without LOVE, shown by our obedience, we have profited nothing. We can believe otherwise, but when we call Him “Jesus” or Hay-zus, in Hebrew He hears “Yeh-horse”, because the Hebrew word SOOS means “horse”.

BIBLE This word was originally Phoenician, then passed into Greek, then Latin. It means books in Greek. It is no where to be found in the inspired text of Scripture – it’s just put on the cover. If your Scriptures have maps in the back, the ‘Bible’ now that you realize this. He calls His Words to mankind the “Bible” (Teachings), Ne-bri’im (prophets), and Kethubim (writings). This is abbreviated in the acronym “Tanakh”. The Hebrew word for “scroll” is megillah, and His Words are called debarim. Remember Ex. 23:13.

BINDING and LOOSING At Mt. 16:19, Rabbi O W Y A L told His students whatever they would “bind” or “loose” would be honored by the heavenly throne also. The idea of BIND means to forbid, and LOOSE means to permit. They had been fully trained in Torah by the Torah-Giver! He was going away, and his students would have to judge things as OK or not.

CEREAL Latin, Cereals, the grain of Ceres, a Pagan deity.

CHARIS From Greek, Khrasia, a Pagan deity’s name, Charis, wife of Hephaistos, the fire deity. “Charred” means burned. Other words produced from this are charity, charisma, and charismatic. The “Three Graces” or Three Charilies, were a Pagan trinity known as the Three Fates. Their names were Clotho (Ya-husha, Yahshua) and Lachesis, (carrying rods which she shook to determine the fate of mankind), and Atropos (who cuts the thread, determining the length of a person’s life).

CHURCH The Old English word was CIRICE, and you will see it spelled CHIRCHE written above many old “church” entrances throughout England. This is from the West Germanic KIRIKA, which is based on the Greek deity’s name, CERES. Circe was famous among Pagans for turning men into pigs, or other animals, using drugs. The original English translation from the Greek text by John Wycliffe (about CE 1380) used the word congregation for “ecclesia”, the called-out body of believers. The original set-apart ones who studied and “did” the Word (Commandments) were called qahal in Hebrew, from which we get our word “call”. The “saints” were the set-apart ones, known as godeshim.

COMMANDMENTS The original Hebrew word is MITZVAH, both singular and plural. The Old English meaning is “edict”. “Bar Mitzvah” means son of the Commandments (Torah), and “bat mitzvah” is the feminine. In the TaNaKh, there are 613 Commandments, but in the Brit Chadasha (NT) there are 1,089 technically specified. All of them are “summed up” in the 10 words, or Decalogue, called the 10 Commandments. These are further summarized into the “2 greatest Commandments”, which Rabbi O W Y A L quoted to a lawyer who was testing Him: “Love AYAL your Elohim with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind” (Dt. 6:5), and “Love your neighbor as warned us not to set aside any of the Commandments, "Whoever, then, breaks one of the least of the Commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Shamayim; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of Shamayim" – Mt. 5:19. "Shamayim" is skies, outer space, or "heaven", often used as a substitution for the Name of EL. Our Rabbi restored the Name, but monks subsequently removed it again from the texts. We know this, because at Acts 7:57, the Sanhedrin covered their ears, and again from the texts. We know this, because at Acts 7:57, the Sanhedrin covered their ears, and stoned Stephen to death – for saying the Name. If you think about it, what possible meaning could the words "Take up your CROSS and follow Me" have meant to a listener of Rabbi OWYañ BEFORE His execution? All He was saying was "Take up your STAFF (a walking stick) and follow Me." These words meant to walk (Hebrew, halaq, halacha) in His example, since He is the living model of Torah.

"In every part of the world, crosses were used both as religious symbols or as ornaments long before the Christian era . . . It did not become the symbol of Christianity until 400 years later, during the time of Constantine." IMAGE OF THE BEAST!

CROSS (See QUESTIONS & ANSWERS)

The word "cross" is derived from the Latin word, CRUX (stem, cruc-), perhaps originally Phoenician. The word "cross" came into the Latin translation when Jerome translated the Greek word stauros. His real name was Eusebius Hieronymus Sophronius, and he did this during the years CE 391-403, calling his translation The Latin Vulgate. Catholicism considers this to be "inspired". The Greek word stauros means staff, stake, pole, or beam, corresponding to the Hebrew word NAS, which the serpent Nehushtan was lifted up with in the desert (Yn. 3, Num. 21:9, 2 Kings 18:4). Many scholars strongly suspect this term and symbol were introduced from Paganism, because the use of the cross is so commonly found in Pagan religions world-wide. It usually symbolized the SUN (an eagle), which Constantine seemed to identify with "Christ". The 1994 Encyclopedia Britannica states:

"In every part of the world, crosses were used both as religious symbols or as ornaments long before the Christian era . . . It did not become the symbol of Christianity until 400 years later, during the time of Constantine."

Probably, Peter couldn't read and write; so he had to enlist the help of Sila (1 Pet. 5:12) to record his words (illiterate, or not clerics). The words cleric, clerk, and clergy all refer to a "man of letters". Literate men could read "literature", and those who could read were given status, and therefore became known as "clergy". The Church of Rome divided their clergy from the "laity", by the distinction of being literate or not. They burned books and libraries in part to control literacy, and therefore power. Another reason to destroy records was so their revision of history could remain uncontested. People who threatened their control were exterminated by the Inquisition, implemented by the Jesuits and Dominicans.

ELOHIM Hebrew, enlarged from EL, meaning mighty-one. The ending of many Hebrew names use the short form, as in Michael (who is like EL), RaphaEL (healing EL), YisraEL (prince of EL), GabriEL (warrior of EL), Yish-miEL (Name of EL), Im-manuEL (EL with us), YahEL (Joel, Yah is EL). We see that OWYañ referred to Psalm 22 as He continued to teach as He was dying on the stake, saying "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" Eloi means my mighty one. EL is a pronoun, not a name. In translating this pronoun into various vernacular terms in Gentile languages, commonly they substituted the Pagans' principal deity's name, as was done in the English word "GOD" (GOTT, the sun). The Hebrew term ELAH became "Allah", but it is not a name. Elohim can mean mighty one of oaths. It's the "oaths" that are plural, explaining the ending "im".

EMUNAH Hebrew for fidelity, faithfulness, steadfastness. It is usually translated to our word "faith". This is a rabbi's foremost concern: that his pupils will remain steady and unswerving to their teachings of Torah. "If you are (unswerving) in the small things, you will be (unswerving) in the greater things also." The meaning points to obedience. The flesh must be disciplined, and by this practice, the one trained and walking in the "light" will remain steadfast. "Your Word is a lamp to my feet, and a light for my path." Ps. 119:105. "The righteous (tzedek) will live by his EMUNAH." Hab. 2:4.

ERETZ Hebrew for Earth, soil, land. Eretz Yisrael means Land of Yisrael.

EUNUCH Greek, a castrated man, meaning bed-watcher. ("Woman" means womb-man).

EUROPA The Greek deity (mythology) who was abducted by Zeus disguised as a white bull, and taken to Crete. The continent of "Europe" is named for her.

GEMATRIA This is the use of letters as numbers, because Hebrew (and others) letters carried numerical values. The numerical values of each letter of a word are added up, so a word or name can be expressing a number. The Name of YHWH has a value of 26. If you would like to calculate the number of the beast, first find the Hebrew letters, then add it up.

GETHSEMANE Two words in Hebrew, gath + semane, meaning OIL PRESS.

GOLGOTHA Hebrew for place of the skull. The Latin word "Calvary" means cranium, skull, or bonehead. Let's leave it the name Golgotha. "Japan" means rising sun, but we call it Japan.

GRACE Based on the Latin word, graia, this word comes from the Hebrew word chasid, which means unmerited loving kindness. Preachers often give people false security by claiming we live in the "Age of Grace," but this is not supported by any Scriptural verse. Actually, the Creator has always been praised as the Elohim of forgiveness, and showed lovingkindness to all who would acknowledge sin and REPENT. We are of course under qadosh's chasid by the once-for-all atoning death of His Son, but this is not a license to sin. Catholicism set up a "dispensational" method of "dispensing" grace through 7 "sacraments". This gave the "clergy" complete control over the "laity". First of all, the sacraments are a sham, only a trick used to mislead people. Second, we are ALL priests, and there is not a division in Scripture called "clergy" and "laity".

HANUKKAH Amazing fact: if there had been no Hanukkah, there would never have been a Christianity. Prior to 186 BCE, a ruthless Greek ruler named Antiochus Epiphanes was forcing Greek customs and religion on the nation of Yisrael, and outlawed the Torah. People were slaughtered, children were tortured to death in front of their parents, forced to work on Shabbat, eat swine flesh, and wear the little "beanie", a Greek hat of Hermes (scholar cap). The Temple was polluted with images of Zeus, swine was offered on the altar, and new brides were deflowered first by the Greek ruler. Only in extreme secrecy could the young study Torah. During such study, children would hide the Torah scroll and pull out a little "top" called a dreidel when they heard soldiers coming -- thus they would appear to be playing an innocent game. A Hebrew family, the Maccabees, succeeded in overpowering the Greek forces, and Antiochus was stricken with a fatal intestinal malady. He suffered a lingering, torturous death -- his rotting body was such a foul stench that his own men could not bear to go near him.

The Dedication

The word "Hanukkah" or Chanukkah is Hebrew, meaning dedication. What was dedicated (or re-dedicated) was the Temple, after a thorough cleansing after the Pagans were ejected. It took 8 days to cleanse it. The Menorah, or 7-branched lampstand, burned its lights for the 8 days of clean up, even though only enough oil was found to last for ONE day. Every year since this dedication, we remember the deliverance from the Pagan oppression which almost wiped out the observances of the Commandments, which the Yahudim have preserved as priests of the nations.

At Yahuchanon (John) 10:22, our Rabbi Ouraly was walking in the Temple area during this festival called Hanukkah: "Then came Hanukkah in Yerushaliyim. It was winter, and Ouraly was walking around inside the Temple area, in Shlomo's Colonnade."

HEBREW This is what is called the Lashon Qodesh, or set-apart tongue, which will be restored during the 7th Millennium, Zeph. 3:9. The word comes from Abraham's great, great, great-grandfather, Eber. It was the language our Rabbi spoke to Shaul when he was thrown to the ground, and at Acts 26 Paul explains to Agrippa that he heard a voice speaking to him in Hebrew. Actually, that's the only language Yahudim spoke to each other, except for those who were living in foreign lands. Aramaic is a dialect of Hebrew. Paul spoke many tongues.

HOLY This word became used instead of the Hebrew term qodesh, which means "set-apart". To a Pagan, "holy" related to the sun's glow, and relates to the word "halo", a glowing nimbus seen on statues and pictures. The Pagans called shrines "hallowed". The holy "halo" was to associate the statue of the glowing deity with the yellow sun. At Ps. 51:11, Dawid wrote Ruach ha Qodesh in Hebrew, which we see translated “Holy Spirit”. Ruach means wind, or spirit. Even the gold ring used in marriage was inherited from Pagan priests who worshopped the unconquered sun. Ministers hold it up and say things about eternity and endless devotion. The Latin word sacrare means “dedicated”, and is very close in meaning to qodesh, or holy.

J The letter “J”, amazingly, didn’t exist in any language until the 15th century, at which time printing styles differentiated the letter “i” when it was used at the beginning of a sentence, or the first letter in a proper name. They gave the “i” a little tail, and now we have a new letter. Since there was no letter in Greek or Latin like the Hebrew “YOD”, these languages opted for the i called “iota”. The first letter in the Rabbi’s Name is best transliterated as a “Y” in English.

JEHOVAH this is the formulation of the Creator’s Name which was promoted by a man named Petrus Galatinus during the 15th century. Encyclopedias will explain this is a double error, since during the 15th century, Ency-

KOSHER This is from a 3-letter Hebrew word, kasher, and means approved, proper, or appropriate. The consumption of "approved" animal flesh is stressed at Gen. 9:3-4, Lev. 3:17, 7:25, 27, 11:1-14, 17:10-14, and Acts 15:20 & 15:29. Acts 10 and Mark 7 are often used to “annul” the distinction of the clean and unclean. Those who permit themselves to be misled this way should read “Isaiah” 66:17. On the Day of hwhy, those who “approve for themselves” to eat whatever they wish from the “garden” (farm), “who eat swine’s flesh, detestable things, and mice, shall come to an end altogether”. Your Writings, especially the KJV, will put the added words in parentheses from Mark 7:19. At Acts 10, Peter woke up and “was greatly perplexed in mind as to what the vision which he had seen might be; behold the men (3 Gentiles) who had been sent by Cornelius . . . Appeared at the gate.” Acts 10:17. The “3 sheets” of unclean animals related to the 3 Gentiles who were at his gate, whom Peter would otherwise never have gone with, or entered their residence without this vision. This is explained by Peter himself at Acts 11:18.

MARK OF THE BEAST Without the Torah to make one wise, this “mark” or sign cannot be determined. This calls for WISDOM. The Covenant, the Torah, which is the marriage Covenant with Yisrael, contains a “mark” or sign, called the sign of the Eternal Covenant. It is mutually exclusive with the beast’s mark. All covenants made by hwhy have such a sign. Babylon, the Mother of Harlots, has established a sign, and it has remained the same within Catholicism, and her daughters which follow after her. This system is called a “beast” because dumb animals, or beasts, have no regard for hwhy’s appointments, processes, or invitations. The “beasts” of hwhy which He proclaims at Leviticus 23 and Deut. 16 are described in the parables, like Luke 14:15-24. The wife of hwhy carries the “sign” of the Sabbath, and Shatan is waging WAR against this woman and her offspring, and the Covenant (Rev. 12:17). This outward sign or “mark” of hwhy is how we acknowledge Him as Creator (Gen. 2:3, Ex. 20:11, Heb. 4:4). Exodus 31:13 declares that Shabbat (the weekly and annual appointments) are a sign between hwhy and His people FOR-EVER. Shabbat is celebrated from evening (twilight) to evening. Yesha Yahu (Isaiah) 66:23 speaks of a future time when, after the burning of the Earth, the people of all nations who serve hwhy will bow down “from Shabbat to Shabbat”. Converts, like Cornelius, became engrafted to Yisrael, and rested on Shabbat. Gentiles in general are referred to as “dogs”, or figuratively as “beasts” - like the Canaanite woman was at Mt. 15:26. The Babylonian “Sun-day” was imposed as a MARK under the penalty of death by Constantine I, and unknowingly the mark of the beast has been placed on everyone who follows after the beast. In the days of the “7th Angel” (Rev. 10:7), the mystery of these things is to be revealed, exposing Shatan, “who leads the whole world astray” (Rev. 12:9). “Then I saw another angel flying in mid-air, and he had the eternal message to proclaim to those who live on the Earth—to every nation, tribe, language and people. He said in a loud voice, ‘Fear Elohim and give Him esteem, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship Him Who MADE the heavens, the Earth, the sea and the springs of water.” – Rev. 14:7. The “sign” of this “worship” is Shabbat, and is seen

THE MOABITE STONE This stone contains the Name of the Creator, and is written in palaeo-Hebrew!

The “monstrosity” (man-made from different parts) word “Jehovah” contains a terrible coincidental meaning in Hebrew. The word “hovah” in Hebrew is based on a word that means ruin, calamity, destruction, and wickedness according to Strong’s concordance dictionary. Has the adversary done this to make our Creator’s Name mean “I am ruin, wickedness”?
prominently in “those who obey Elohim’s Commandments, and hold to the Testimony of Eshmah.” — Rev. 12:17. No lie is found in the mouths of His redeemed, those who have been sealed with the Father’s Name. (Read all of Rev. 14).

MITRE  This is a Pagan religious hat, originating in the worship of Dagon, the chief deity of the Philistines, a sea people. Its name, mitre, comes from the name Mithras. Popes, bishops, and cardinals wear them in the Church of Rome, and the Anglican Church uses them also.

MITHRAS / DAGON  This is a Pagan religious hat, originating in the worship of Dagon, the chief deity of the Philistines, a sea people. Its name, mitre, comes from the name Mithras. Popes, bishops, and cardinals wear them in the Church of Rome, and the Anglican Church uses them also.

MOABITE STONE  This large stone over 3 feet high was discovered in 1868 CE, and was broken by Arabs in order to fetch more money for each piece. It contains the palæo-Hebrew script, and the Name of Elohim is written on it.

MOSHEH  This is the name distorted to “Moses”, and it means drew-out. He was born during a time when all male children of Yisrael were to be destroyed at birth in Egypt / Mitsrayim. Pharaoh’s daughter named him this Hebrew name because she drew him out of the water. He drew out the children of Yisrael from Egypt. (Hold it—is that a Christmas tree at left?)

RABI  Hebrew for my teacher. Elohim was called Rabbi by His pupils and others at Mt. 26:25, 26:49, Mk. 9:5, 10:51, 11:21, 14:45, Yn. 1:38, 3:2, 3:26, 4:31, 6:25, 9:2, 11:8, 20:16, and many other places where the word “teacher” or “master” were translated. He’s the ONLY one we call “rabbi”, as He directed us at Mt. 23:8.

ROME  The language of the Romans was called Roma. The Empire was called by the capital (head) of it, after an Etruscan myth of two orphaned boys name Romulus and Remus. This city is located in what is called Italy, where the pre-Roman civilization of Etruria used to be (5th century BCE).

TZITZIT  Hebrew for tassels. At Num. 15:38, 39 and Deut. 22:12, we are commanded to wear tassels at the 4 corners of our garments, attached with a blue cord. The Throne of Elohim is on a sea of blue sapphire, and the color blue is to remind us of the Torah each time we see our tassels. Elohim wore them, and continues to: at Mt. 9:20 and 14:36, the text states that His tassels were touched by many people, and they were healed by doing so. He criticized the Pharisees for lengthening their tassels to make a show of outward righteousness. This is not a “talisman” like a Pagan would use. Pagans relied on objects to confer protection or powers over evil with runes, amulets, stones, tags, scapulas, necklaces, rings, and wands. This is idolatry. Wearing crucifixes, medals, making magic signs, waving in the air, splashing water, or counting on a “rosary” is no different from VOODOO. They may as well twirl a chicken over their heads. Tzitzit are to remind us to obey the Torah always.

YARMULKE  This is a Yiddish word for the kipa, or skullcap seen worn by the pope, and most orthodox Yahudim on the street, in the classroom, and in the synagogues. Mosheh would not know what it is. Alfred J. Kolatch, an orthodox author and “Rabbi”, states: “The skullcap has no religious significance in Jewish law.” He goes on to say that it has no basis in Scriptural or Rabbinical law. To trace the use of the cap to its source, we find that it came into wider use only in the 17th century, where before that only a very few Yahudim used it. Did Rabbi Elohim wear a kipa? All researchers and historians say NO, and there is no evidence of its use in any data or archaeological finds at all. The pope of Rome and his cardinals wear them, but that is because it was originally a Greek hat of a scholar, called the “hat of Hermes” (Hermes is a Pagan idol, of course). You will recall the “cap and gown” of graduates from schools and universities employs this “hat of Hermes”, topped with a square mason’s board. A mason is a layer of bricks, and the mason’s board holds the cement mix. These were scholars who graduated to different levels in their guilds; from apprentice to journeyman, then journeyman to master.

Proudly wearing the hat of Dagon, popes and bishops also display the symbol of Tammuz, mixing light & darkness.

Over 500 years, Jews & Dominicans tortured and burned tens of millions of people - even whole families.

In ancient times, just prior to 186 BCE, the land of Yisrael was ruled by a Greek Seleucid, Antiochus Epiphanes IV. He was extremely cruel, and outlawed the Hebrew religion, forcing his Greek customs on them. In the record of 2 Maccabees, an apostate high priest (named “Jason” in translation, but really named Yeshua) helped this Greek ruler impose the Greek ways of living:

“And abrogating the lawful way of living, he introduced new customs contrary to the Torah; for he willingly established a gymnasium right under the citadel (the Temple), and he made the finest of the young men wear the Greek hat.”

Paul writes at 1Cor. 11:7 that a man is not to have his head covered in the assembly, but a woman is required to, to keep from dishonoring one another’s headship. OMYAL is the man’s ‘head’, while a woman’s ‘head’ is her husband. We are to follow the Torah, and not add to it in any way: “Do not add to nor take away from it”. Dt. 12:32.

Man-made customs, including all the camouflaged Paganism found in Christendom, are traditions that are forbidden in the worship of AYAL. They represent more than a “strange fire”, but are like the golden calf. It is forbidden to worship Him after the customs of the Pagans. “The one who says he abides in Him ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked.” ~ 1 Yoch. 2:6. Walk in Light – the Torah.

Human traditions run unchecked from generation to generation. The word “Bible” is not found anywhere in the text of the Writings, but they are called by this name of a Pagan deity, Biblia. They will tell you it’s a “translation” from the Greek word for “books”, but stop there. It’s been traced further back than the Greek.

BIBLOS, THE ORIGIN OF WORD “BIBLE”

Eagles symbolized the spirit of the sun to the Babylonians, Persians, Egyptians, Romans, Vikings, Aztecs, Mayans, Incas, Hopi, and many others. Look for eagles and crosses, and you’ve found a little piece of Babylon.
Now that you've come this far, you may realize almost everything about society is based on the Roman time system, and our lives are framed in a dragnet. Whether you're an atheist, agnostic, or believer, you live under the rule of a global system that originated in a Babylonian system of sun worship. Fish are not smart, but they travel in groups, and move in perfect order. But have you ever watched sheep? They wander off, and become prey. We are very much like them. An evangelist on TV can hypnotize many of us to send money to him, and all he has to do is tickle the right emotions in us. The mega-churches use music and lighting to well-up emotions in their audiences. They use tried-and-true methods to piller your purse, with a rigid order of sequenced liturgies. People are surrounded by smiles, kindness, and gain a feeling of belonging to their special group. But, they learn very little. A showman merchant throws out the meaning of a Greek word here and there, leading people to believe he is very competent. They will often use the conversation between Peter and ὄντας at Yahuchanon 21:15-19, and describe the Greek words for “love”, paying great attention to the difference between eros, philéo, and agape “love”. It never occurs to the listeners that the resurrected ὄνισσας and Peter weren’t speaking Greek, but the Hebrew dialect of Syraic Aramaic. It’s all done to make the preacher look very knowledgeable. Actually, the reason Peter was asked 3 times if he loved the Rabbi was because he had denied Him 3 times. Peter was instructed to feed His sheep, meaning teach them, not fleece them.

The serious offense against the man-made law of not speaking the Name of Χριστός aloud made the Nazarenes easy prey. Shaul traveled far and wide to cities, and arrested Nazarenes in synagogues, bringing them back to “blaspheme” before the Sanhedrin, the elders of Yisrael. The assembly at Philadelphia, spoken of by ὄντας at Rev. 3:7-13, remained steadfast in the Word, and His Name:

“I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept My Word, and have not denied My Name.”

People will go to many extremes to show they are sincere and dedicated, yet even when confronted with the “straight” truth, it’s more than they can bear to drop the nonsense they are programmed with. The praise and acceptance of men is more important to them than the changes required in abandoning Halloween, Christmas, Sun-day, and Easter. The largest group of Christians in the US is the Pentecostal sect, concentrated heavily in rural areas. Emotions and experiential “faith” seem to motivate them, and this makes it very simple for the showmen merchants to exploit them, cashing-in on their human nature. Yet Paul says “Tongues, then, are a sign, NOT FOR BELIEVERS, but for UNBELIEVERS; prophecy, however, is for believers, not for unbelievers. So, if the whole assembly comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and some who do not understand or some unbeliever comes in, will they not say that you are out of your mind?” 1Cor. 14:22,23. He goes on to say that prophecy will convict us in our hearts of our sinfulness. “Prophecy” here really means explaining what the Scriptures mean, teaching us how to live. “Edify” means educate.

Our ears must be “tuned” to discern a lie. If people are not taught, but just undergo emotional experiences, they are trapped and stagnant. “Tongues” are known languages, and require interpreters for those who don’t understand them. If everyone already speaks the same language, then foreign languages are unnecessary to use in an assembly. If you really want to sprinkle-in some “foreign” words, use the correct Name! Yet, I’ve heard Pentecostals say they use the name “Jesus” because “it’s His name in English”. With just a little research, you can find that Pagan deities were called ESUS, HESUS, and IEUSUS. Since DEMONS are behind the worship of false deities, then there is a demon named “JESUS”. They can manage to keep the word “Satan” relatively intact across the language barriers, and the word for the Yerushaliyim garbage pit unmolested, but the Name above all names they will not accept. This blindness is no doubt caused by programming to a large extent, but it is also possible they are not being sealed with the Name. Nazarene Messianics are coming out of the Paganized assemblies in large numbers today, beginning with their love for the Name.

is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved." — Acts 4:12.

PAGANISM IS VOMIT
You now have more than enough evidence that proves that the calendar, customs, objects, symbols, and words used by popular religion overwhelmingly originated from Babylonian sun worship. Religion has become socialized, Gentilized, and sterilized of all Scriptural recognition. Every excuse under the sun is used to avoid actually living according to the directives given in the Torah. The Apostasy, as prophesied, is all around us. People have been tricked into following after the beast, and don’t even know it. The religious merchants “promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves of depravity— for a man is a slave to whatever has mastered him. If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing Our Master and Savior OYRAh ha-Mashiach and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning. It would have been better for them not to have known THE WAY OF RIGHTEOUSNESS (Torah), than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them. Of them the proverbs are true: A DOG RETURNS TO ITS VOMIT, and a pig that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud.” — 2Pet. 2:19-22.

The religious merchants are experts in greed. Only a small handful of them can even recite the 10 Commandments, especially in order. The only thing we will carry beyond the grave will be the Torah. Without preparing by having this “oil”, our lamps will go out, and we will not be ready when the Bridegroom calls “Come out”. Without this light to lead our way, and knowing His Name, we will be shut out from the Wedding Supper of the Lamb. This is not the popular message, so that, in fact, the Truth is so bizarre-sounding to most, those who follow it are labeled a “cult”. The “familiar” and “popular” behavior of the majority provides a false security blanket. The odd thing is, Christendom is packed tight with so much Paganism, it would be difficult to imagine it containing more! This was done so slowly over time that the average person never questions anything. We need to question everything, and prove all things from Scripture. People who have pre-conceived notions of what the Scriptures are saying have to take sentences out of context, and “spin” them to mean what they are not saying. They say a man is separated from his Creator, but they still make excuses for not doing what He requires, written over and over in His Word. They are messengers of Shatan, not OYRAh, or they would warn you.

MYSTERY BABYLON
The Great Mother of Harlots
And of the Abominations
Of the Earth: IDENTIFIED.
BRIDE OF SHATAN: EXPOSED!
The goddess of the dawn, queen of heaven, abomination of desolation: Easter / Ishtar is her name. Astarte, Venus, were others.
The thought of the altar of Zeus being set up on the Temple Mount is unthinkable; but if the Olympic Games are ever held in Yerushalyim, this could happen as part of a big “peace ceremony”. Or, a “May Pole” could be utilized, which for all we know is an Asherah pole. Babylon is the origin of all false worship, and it is called a “harlot” because it draws us away from our Husband, and we pollute ourselves with its Paganism.

THE GREAT MOTHER
In ancient Babylon, the Pagans began to worship a trinity of father Sun, mother Earth, and the re-born “son”, who was interpreted to also be the father, come back to life each winter solstice, beginning a “new year”. The Sun was thought to be “dying” as it rose lower and lower on the horizon, until it “stopped” (sol-stice means “sun-stop”). By December 25th, it was evident that it had reached its stopping point, and in the ancient world this was the solstice. December 25th was celebrated by Pagans from all over the world, and has been the “birthday” of Nimrod, Baal, Moloch, Dagon, Hercules, Atlas, Mithras, Krishna, Zeus, Osiris, Tammuz, Horus, Apollo, Amon Ra, Bacchus, Ju-piter (Zeus-father), Hermes, Indra, and Buddha (Guatama Siddhartha was born on a different date, but as “Buddha”, his birth is celebrated on Dec. 25). “Buddha” means light-bringer, just as the Latin word “Lucifer” means. This evidence only shows who is really lurking behind “Christmas”, because there was a Nativity of the Sun already long established. But, since any “nativity” is a birth, the Pagans thought of it as the Nativity of the Son, followed by a “new year” in the dead of winter.

Nimrod established Babylon and Nineveh, in what is now Iraq. The making of bricks and building a tower in order to “make a name” for themselves became the Babylonians’ nationalistic obsession. It was believed that the objects in the skies could be reached if one could build high enough. So, they constructed a “high place" on the highest ground they could find. Other than fire, the lights in the heavens were the only luminous objects around. The descendants of Ham and Yapheth wanted to communicate with these heavenly bodies. The principle deity (shining one) was the sun, worshipped for its life-giving warmth. The Babylonians had left the truth behind, and produced their own system of religion based upon SEX. The changes in the seasons were "interpreted" by the ancient Pagan mind in a sexual way. They pictured the Earth Mother Ishtar / Easter being "impregnated" in the spring near the Vernal (Venus) equinox. Then, nine moons later, the Sun was said to be "re-born" at the winter solstice. Nimrod's mother, Semiramis, was probably the first "witch" – as a person who possessed secret knowledge and powers to manipulate the natural world (wikkere). The "Great Mother", or Magna Mater, was a title given to her.

DEATH OF NIMROD

According to traditional accounts, Noah's son Shem had settled with his clan apart from his 2 brother's clans in Babylon. Nimrod was a descendant of Ham, and the abominations that he committed caused Shem to destroy him. To shock the Babylonians even further, Shem delivered Nimrod's body parts to the far reaches of his Pagan kingdom. This indeed caused the Babylonians to mourn, and is the origin of what is called "weeping for Tammuz" ~ as recorded in Ezekiel 8:14. Nimrod's mother began to comfort the people by telling them that she was pregnant with Tammuz, who was also "Nimrod", because he was the father of her child. And, she explained, Nimrod had gone into the heavens, and was now the Sun itself. People were led to believe that after death they too would go into the heavens. This is still the belief of many Christians, even though there is not a scrap of evidence contained in Scripture to support this belief (it's Babylonian). Actually, the "saints" (Hebrew: "qodeshim") will inherit the Earth, not heaven (see Ezek. 37:12, Isaiah 65:17, Mt. 5:5). The universe will be ruled from this Earth, restored to its Edenic state.

MAGNA MATER

The Great Mother was translated as Magna Mater in Latin, and is this very same "sungoddess" or witch, Semiramis. To the Greeks, Zeus was the sun, and his mother was Lydia, shown riding a swan earlier in this book, with spikes on her head. The Egyptians depict Isis holding Horus, who is somehow also Osiris, in art that looks exactly like the "Madonna and Child" art seen in Christendom. Shatan has been a very busy character, keeping us all in his control over the many thousands of years.

The Phoenicians called Semiramis Ishtar. The Hebrews recorded her name as Asherah. She has been known throughout the world by many other names: Oster, Easter, Eastre, Eostre, Austron, Eostra, Astara, Artemis, Aphrodite, Tanit, Diana, Nana, Maia, Gaia, Devaki, Ceres, Cybele, Circe, In- drani, Venus, Isis, Frigga, Frey, Biblia, Usha, Eos, Aurora, Ausra, Ushastara, Stella, Aster, Nut (the sky), and others. Astarte, or Venus, was said to have fallen to Earth in a huge EGG ~ Ster; from the word aster, (eAster), Latin Stella, for STAR. By diverting people from worshipping the true Creator, Shatan has designed traps to lure people to worship him through stealth. Most don't do it consciously. He removed the Name from our worship, so we won't know specifically who it is we honor: "They think the dreams they tell one another will make My people FORGET MY NAME, just as their fathers forgot My Name through Baal worship." This text from Yerme Yahu (Jer.) 23:27 is from a time that lying prophets were misleading the people by avoiding YHY's great Name. They had begun to just call him "LORD" (Baal). Read Yerme Yahu 11.

The Magna Mater or "mother & child" worship doesn't mean Shatan is a "he" or "she", because he wasn't created as a male or female. But, he will accept any worship we can spare, as long as we don't do what rwhy asks of us. As the "Queen of Heaven" (Yerme Yahu 44:17) the Magna Mater is represented in sculpture with radiant sun-rays around her head. Carved images of her associated with "sacred pillars" rallied multitudes of Pagans to the seasonal observances, because these were the times their Pagan religion ordered grand sexual "services" to be conducted. Many of these people were "shrine prostitutes", both male and female, as can be determined from Gen. 38:21 (where Yahudah thought Tamar was a shrine prostitute). The "sacred pillars" were obelisks, like seen in Babylon, Egypt, Rome, London, and the “Washington Monument” in Washington, D.C. They are also the very same Pagan pillars seen on most Christian meeting places today—now they’re called “steeples”. The ancient mind interpreted these religious pillars as a male reproductive organ.

Mystery Babylon: “Queen of Heaven”

The Great Earth Mother, and the religious customs inherited from Babylon, are richly entangled within our world-wide observances, though veiled to the average person on the street. Revelation 17 explains how this great prostitute will be brought down, and how she has deceived the nations—or caused them to be “intoxicated”. Her title remains the same:

Mystery Babylon
The Great Mother of Harlots
And of abominations of the Earth

This religious “system” sits on seven hills, called the Great City. Almost all scholars understand this is Rome, which is in fact built on seven hills from the early Etruscan period. The scholars confuse the issue by claiming this is only ancient PAGAN Rome, and draw a distinction there. This is done so as not to “offend” of course, and keep blinders on everyone. Let’s consider if there is anything Pagan still there, shall we? Let me think.

The “Great Mother” is what she was called? Well, the Church of Rome calls itself “Mother Church”, which is literally “Mother Circe”. Do they perform anything remotely Pagan? Yes, the name Ishtar became Astoreth, then Eastre, Oster, Astarte, and Easter. Easter was a Pagan spring observance brought into Christianity by Constantine I at Nicea in 325 CE. A Webster’s Dictionary will tell you quite a lot about the word itself. If this is in fact the personal name of Mystery Babylon, the Great Mother, why is it the most celebrated observance of Christianity? The answer of course is, Constantine re-invented the meaning behind Easter in order to desolate Passover. He also established the practice of Sun-day, superseding the Scriptural day of rest, Shabbat, which is the “sign” that we worship the true Creator, as Creator. He claimed the resurrection as the reason for both Easter and Sun-day, and he got away with it!

Earth Mother in Rome

The statue of the Great Mother is in the Vatican Museum, and was called Artemis to the Greeks, and Diana to the Romans. “Di” means to shine. Diana means bright one. That’s why she faces the rising sun; she’s the dawn deity. The Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor even has seven sun-rays, or horns, extending from her TOWER head-piece. Many statues of the Earth Mother throughout history have this tower emblem on her head, thus harkening back to Babylon. The torch is an old emblem of fire worship, and even the Greeks’ lighting the altar of Zeus at Olympic Games owe this Pagan eccentricity to the ancient Babylonians. Child sacrifice was their real purpose for the torch and altar, and the Sun started the “sacred” flame for the offering.

Come Out of Her

Who is “She”?
What is the “Golden Cup” Filled with Abominations? (Note “Abominations”)

Well, what do we know already, and what is employed to lead or guide everyone astray?

Mainly, It’s the Babylonian Calendar

The whole Pagan system is based on SEX. “She” is fertilized in the spring, and gives birth at the winter solstice, and the years are based on when the SUN is re-born. Take the calendar away, and the whole system falls apart! The Roman calendar is based on the same processes established in Babylon. If people live their lives by it, they will not recognize the “seasons” or appointed times that the lights in the sky were put there for us to know them (Gen. 1:14). The calendar of Babylon holds all the “abominations” together! This dragnet, or “gold cup” intoxicates the people of Earth, and they can’t see clearly. The Pagan observances are “abominations”, and they “desolate” the Scriptural observances, as Constantine intended.

The Abomination of Desolation Has Been Set Up

I’ve been telling people for years that the Roman calendar is a “dragnet” that guides everyone into indirectly worshipping the sun, ordering their lives according to the old Babylonian mysteries. It really fits when you consider the title “Mystery Babylon, the Mother of Harlots, and of the Abominations of the Earth”. Since the calendar “regulates” when everyone does what, it has to be the dragnet that intoxicates us with the filth of the harlotries in the golden cup in the woman’s hands. The woman in this case is Satan’s bride, riding the beast. "Coming out" of her will indeed keep us from participating in her sins, as Rev. 18 describes.
This "Queen of Heaven" and her daughters deceive the nations even today. Christianity assimilated her ways very early, and abandoned the true straight path of obedience to the Creator, Whose Name is hwhy. As Peter put it, "a dog returns to its vomit..." - 2Pet. 2:22. Being called away from Paganism and idolatry, early Gentiles fell back into their old ways by mixing them together with the Messiah message. O W Y Y A L commands us saying "Come out of her, My people..." at Rev. 18:4. (Get ready for "Y6K.")

"Formerly, when you did not know hwhy, you were slaves to those who by nature are not elohim. But now that you know hwhy - or rather are known by hwhy - how is it that you are turning back to those weak and miserable principles? Do you wish to be enslaved by them all over again? You are observing special days and months and seasons and years! I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you." Gal. 4:8-11. Being that the name of the Great Mother is in fact EASTER, you need to come out of the mother and her daughters, since they practice Easter, Sunday, Christmas, and many other intoxicating filth from the golden cup in the Harlot's hand. Alexander Hislop, in his work The Two Babylons, has written about this same topic over 100 years ago, explaining how this fusion occurred with Christianity long ago:

"To conclude the Pagans to nominal Christianity, Rome, pursuing its usual policy, took measures to get Christian and Pagan festivals amalgamated, and by a complicated but skillful adjustment of the calendar, it was found no difficult matter, in general, to get Paganism and Christianity - now far sunk in idolatry - in this as in so many other things, to shake hands."

Ezekiel 8:12-17 discusses how 25 men (the 24 courses of priests + 1 high priest) "bowed down to the rising sun and put a branch to their nose." The Pagans used branches, wreaths, trees, and became really excited when a sprig of new growth sprang from a tree stump. To them this symbolized their slain Nimrod, and the new life of a branch growing from this stump symbolized Tammuz. In truth, this is how we came to be bringing trees into our homes at Christmas, carried over to the US by the Irish.

BRIDE OF SHATAN

The Great Mother, Easter, has been the main deception for mankind as recorded throughout Scripture. She was called the "Queen of Heaven". Even the words "east" and "estrogen" refer to this abomination. "eAstrology", and "eAstronomy" contain her name as well. At Sinai, what happened was a wedding betrothal and Yisrael became hwhy's WIFE, as He claims repeatedly. The Covenant was in two stone copies, one for each partner. The wife agreed to obey, and hwhy promised to provide. Yisrael was to show her love for hwhy by her obedience. Gentiles who convert and begin with the decision reached at Acts 15 engraft into Yisrael. Through belief, and obedience to O W Y Y A L, they become part of the natural olive tree, Yisrael. Shatan’s bride is deceived. They have not taken the name of the husband, but adhere to several Pagan titles such as GOD, LORD, and yes, even "CHRIST" (Kristos, Kris, Krishna, are only a few deities). They blindly follow the traditions, forsaking the teaching (Torah) given for Yisrael as her marriage Covenant.

"You are servants to the one whom you obey — whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness...” Romans 6:16.

If you are obeying Shatan by keeping the traditions he’s using to deceive the whole world, then you are embedded in Mystery Babylon, and are his bride, not Our Lord’s. The abominations set up look and feel good, but they are the way of death, because they were not commanded by Our Lord. Their origins in Paganism should expose their Shatanic design. These counterfeit works and wonders were discussed by Paul:

And then the lawless one will be revealed... The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with the work of Shatan, displayed in all kinds of counterfeit...
miracles (great works), signs, and wonders, and in every sort of evil that deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the Truth and so be saved. For this reason Elohim sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie, and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the Truth, but have delighted in lawlessness.” – 2 Thess. 2:5-12. Is “Sun-day” a delusion? Paul means these people will not obey the Commandments, and condemn “legalism”, which the true bride obeys gladly. Those perishing delight in not obeying the law (Torah), “Come out of her, My people.” Do just a little research on The Inquisition, and find out what an “iron maiden” is – you will be very enlightened to see these things go completely against the “love your enemies” philosophy we were commanded to live by. You will recognize a tree by its fruit. In everyday life, you will find that if you pray for someone who is giving you a difficult time, there will be a change in their treatment of you. It actually works!

When we are not humble, we can walk around with a “chip” on our shoulder, and not even be aware of it. When we gossip or ridicule others who are poor, physically impaired, different from us in any way (they’re white, black, yellow, red, or some “ethnicity” (ethnos means “foreign”), we insult their Maker. I’ve always tried to make it clear that when I teach or write about Pagan customs, I am not judging people at all, but rather the philosophies themselves. Invariably, some receive the information as an “unloving” criticism of people. In a popular magazine called BAR (Biblical Archaeological Review), a reader wrote in saying, “I understand your position on reporting the facts, but I do not have to read such drivel.”

The reader may as well have said, “My mind’s made up, DON’T CONFUSE ME WITH THE FACTS!”

It’s easy to steer children down the path of error with Pagan programming. Growing older, many lose their belief because they see through a few things, and realize the shallowness of what they were taught. Others never have the opportunity to comprehend the basis of why the “world” does the things it does. They’re “set in their ways”. I’m not right about everything, and as I stated earlier, you may differ with me on some details. But, there is a “restoration” taking place, as prophesied at Acts 3:21. A French philosopher, Jean Paul Sartre, said, “The more sand that has escaped from the hourglass of our life, the clearer we should see through it.”

It’s scary to think about, but the Scriptures we place our trust in are only translations made by fallible men. In many places they put into the text words and phrases that reflected their doctrinal understanding, and “monked” with it. This is why there are so many different versions. Even the Greek underlying the English has many versions, and no two sentences agree perfectly. This is evidence that the “New Testament” in Greek is only a translation itself!

Christianity today is so fully-packed with Paganism, that if you TRIED, you couldn’t get any more in! But, if you took a shoe-horn and forced in a little more, it would POP. When we confront Christian ministers, evangelists, apologists, and so-called “men of GOD” with just a few of the issues brought up in this book, they become cold, and even hateful of us for being critical in our thinking. The bottom line is, their livelihoods are being threatened, because they are profiting from the ignorance of those who remain unaware of the truth.

Too bad, but the Truth will be shouted from the rooftops! In the Resources section in the back, you can contact elder Jacob O. Meyer at the Assemblies of Yahweh for a book he has written on the topic of the Name. I know of no other work done on the subject that compares with it. If we can’t learn the unadulterated Truth from institutionalized Christianity, then we have to turn to others. A Messianic Nazarene from Australia (who recently moved to Tasmania) named John Steed is another elder who I list in the back. He has a wonderful web site with links to others in the Truth. The following is an article he published, re-printed as written:

NEPHILIM

WHEN GIANTS STALKED THE EARTH!

We are all well aware of the story of David and Golyath, how David as a young man killed Golyath who was a giant, around three metres tall. But rarely do we stop to consider how this giant came to be. Giants belong in stories for children like “Jack and the Beanstalk” don’t they? Or do they? The idea that a race (or races) of giant semi-human beings once lived on Earth certainly sounds preposterous to most people. Certainly the scientists. When they uncover the skeletons of what appear to be 3-4m tall humans (as they do) they prefer to remain silent, instead speculating over a few bones of some deceased person! But the story of the giants, the Nephilim and the Repha’im, is clearly found in the Scriptures. It is also attested to by Josephus and other ancient Jewish literature. But surprisingly few people are aware of this.

You may, of course, question the spiritual value of knowing the story of the Nephilim – it lies in the fact that this forgotten facet of our history holds the answers to many questions that have been asked about the Scriptures. Just a few of the points it enlightens us on are:

1. Why the flood came.
2. Why Noach was chosen.
3. Why Israel was told to slaughter certain Kena'anite peoples – men, women and children.

Also it gives greater understanding of the following texts: 1Cor. 6:3, 11:10, & 2Kepha 2:4 – to name just a few. But, if nothing else, it is the story of sin’s destructiveness which should be known by all. The story begins in 1 Mosh. (Gen.) 6:1,2:

"And it came to be, when the Adam began to increase on the face of the ground, and daughters were born to them, that the sons of the Elohim saw the daughters of the Adam, that they were good. And they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose." (This is a very literal translation from Hebrew). Who were the "sons of the Elohim"? This expression is used only a few times in Scripture and always refers to a being which came into existence by the direct act of Yahueh. Adam himself is called such in Luke 3:38. Yahushua is such, and indeed He opens the way for us to become "sons of Elohim" by being "born again" (born from above) – Yoch. 1:12. But generally it is used in reference to heavenly beings – messengers or "angels" – as we see in Iyob (Job) 1:6 and 2:1. This usage is evident here in 1 Mosh. 6:1,2 as the "sons of the Elohim (Yahueh)" are shown in contrast to "the Adam" (mankind).

Some have objected to this concept – heavenly beings mating with human women – because of what Yahushua said in regard to those who are married in the resurrection being "as messengers (angels) and not marrying" (Mark 12:25 and Luke 20:34-36). However it is not the meaning of this text in 1 Mosh. – That the heavenly beings marry, rather it shows that they departed from their proper role. Indeed other literature that we’ll examine shortly supports Yahushua, and says that Yahueh did not intend for the messengers to take wives, but that this action on their part was rebellion against Yahueh. We may wonder how it is possible for heavenly beings to cross-breed with humans. We are not told how this was done, but in an age of in-vitro fertilization and genetic engineering, when human genes have been put into pigs, it should not be difficult for us to imagine how this could be done – as indeed it was!

We read further in 1 Mosh. 6:4 the following:

"The Nephilim were on the Earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of the Elohim came in to the daughters of the Adam and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, the men of name." Nephilim (Strong’s #5303 from #5307 “to fall”) probably means “fallen ones” in reference to these heavenly beings who fell – physically and spiritually. Or alternatively it means “fallers” or "slayers" due to the fact that these beings brought slaughter to the Earth. This first occurrence is prior to the flood, and indeed as is mentioned in the chapter (v. 6) is the reason why the flood occurred. Mankind became so genetically mixed with the Nephilim that few of the pure race of Adam remained, and it probably would have become extinct if Yahueh had not intervened. We read in verse 9 of this chapter that Yahueh chose Noach because he was a “righteous man, perfect in his generations (descent, family history)”. In other words, Noach and his family were of the pure race of Adam, able to carry the line into a new beginning.

Notice how in 1 Mosh. 6:4 it says that not only were the Nephilim on the Earth “in those days” but also “afterward”, that is after the flood. In 4 Mosh. (Numbers) 13:33 we strike the Nephilim for the second time in the report of the spies regarding the land of Kena’an – And we saw there the Nephilim, sons of Anak, of the Nephilim. And we were like grasshoppers in our own eyes, and so we were in their eyes.” This is the first direct reference to them being of large size (see previous verse also). Back in 1 Mosh. 6:4 we were only told that they were “mighty men . . . . Men of name.” Undoubtedly the actions and exploits of these Nephilim were the basis for the Pagan deities and mythology. These giants were also called Repha’im; we find this name used not only for the Anakim, but also the Emmim (5 Mosh. / Deut. 2:10,11, and Zamzumim (v. 20). Og, who you will remember was the giant of Bashan, was of the Repha’im (5 Mosh. 3:11). His bed was over 4m long! Indeed Bashan had formerly been a land of the Repha’im, the remnants of their giant-sized cities can still be found there today. They were there in the time of Abraham as we read in 1 Mosh. 14:5.

We are not told how this second outbreak of Nephilim came about. Those sons of Elohim who were responsible for the pre-flood outbreak had been imprisoned in the Earth to await the day of judgment as we read in 2 Kepha 2:4: "For if Elohim did not spare the messengers who sinned, but sent them to Tartaros, and delivered them in chains of darkness, to be kept for judgment.”

However, the Adversary undoubtedly had other heavenly beings at his service to corrupt the “seed” of the women – for this seems to have been the aim – to prevent the coming of the Messiah, the promised “seed” (1 Mosh. 3:15) by corrupting the genetic line. Yahueh Himself intervened by means of the flood in the first instance, and in the second He used the children of Abraham and Lot to destroy them (see 5 Mosh. 2:21-23). And He instructed Yisrael to completely destroy those peoples who had mixed with them (5 Mosh. 20:16,17). Of course it was David and his men who finally finished the job, killing the last of the giants – Golyath and his family (2 Shemu’el 21:15-22).

As mentioned earlier, ancient Jewish literature upholds these facts. Josephus the Jewish historian mentions in his works he had his works at hand to quote them – check this for yourselves. The book of Jubilees 5:1-6 says the following:

“And it came to pass when the sons of men began to increase on the Earth, and daughters were born to them that in the first year of the jubilee the angels of Elohim looked on them and saw that they were beautiful; and they took wives from as many of them as they chose. And they bore them sons: and they became giants . . . And against the angels He sent on Earth His anger was so great that He uprooted them from their dominion and commanded us to imprison them in the depths of the Earth; and behold they are in prison there and separate”.

The book of Enoch, which comes to us from the Ethiopian version of the Scriptures, and from which comes the quote in Yahudah / Jude 1:14,15, contains extensive material on this subject. Enoch, or more properly Chanok, was given a special mission to bear witness against these rebels and to record their actions to the end of time. Chanok records that these messengers were of the order called “Watchers” (see Dan. 4:13 & 23), so-called because their task was to watch over mankind – guardian angels. Chanok writes: “And it came to pass when the sons of men had increased, that in those days there were born to them fair and beautiful daughters. And the angels, the sons of heaven, saw them and desired them. And they said to one another, ‘Come, let us choose for ourselves wives from the children of men, and let us beget for ourselves children.’ And Semyaza who was their leader, said to them, ‘I hear that you may not wish this deed to be done, and that I may alone pay for this great sin.’ And they all answered him and said, ‘Let us swear an oath, and bind one another with curses not to alter this plan, but to carry out this plan effectively.’ Then they all swore together and all bound one another with curses to it. And they were in all two hundred, and they came down on Ardis which is the summit of Mount Hermon.” He then records a list of the names of the leaders of these two hundred, followed by:

“And they took wives for themselves, and every one chose for himself one each. They began to go into them and were promiscuous with them . . . And they became pregnant and bore large giants . . . These devoured all the toil of men, until men were unable to sustain them. And the giants turned against them in order to devour men. And they began to sin against birds, and against animals, and against reptiles, and against fish, and they devoured one another’s flesh and drank blood from it. Then the Earth complained about the lawless ones.” Further on he tells of Yahueh’s judgment against them, this being first the sending of the flood – in the future – which Noah is informed of; then:

“Further Yahueh said to Raphael, ‘Bind Azazel who had taught mankind the making of weapons of war’ by his hands and feet . . . And split open the desert which is in Deudael, and throw him there. And cover him with darkness; and let him stay there forever . . . That on the day of judgment he may be hurled into the fire.’ And Yahueh said to Michael, ‘Go inform Semyaza and the others with him . . . When all their sons kill each other, and when they see the destruction of their beloved ones, bind them for seventy generations under the hills of the Earth until the day of judgment . . . And in those days they will lead them to the abyss of fire.’”

As mentioned previously, Yahueh also speaks of how the Watchers were not intended to have wives. He says to Chanok:

“And go, say to the Watchers of heaven who sent you to petition on their behalf, ‘You ought to petition on behalf of men, not men on behalf of you. Why have you left the high and set-apart and eternal heaven, and lain with women . . ., and taken wives for yourselves, and done as the sons of the Earth and begotten giant sons . . . And for this reason I gave them (mankind) wives, namely that . . . Children might be born by them, that thus deeds might be done on the Earth. But you formerly were spiritual, and I gave you immortality for all the generations of the world. For this reason I did not arrange wives for you because the dwelling of the spiritual ones is in heaven."
There is much more recorded in the book of Enoch on the subject of the sin of the Watchers, and Nephilim, including some interesting things regarding the source of evil spirits - but we will leave that for another time!

I took the piece of living clay, And gently pressed it day-by-day -

THE SEEDS OF THE KINGDOM

The Latin word "doctrine" means teaching, and the "teachings" are seeds. They are either sown by the Father, הָעֵד, or an enemy. The evidence of what was sown is revealed by what grows. The true seed sown by the Father is His Commandments. This is illustrated by the parable of the Sower, at Mt. 13. Veiled hearts cannot understand the parables, as you will notice the footnotes in your Scriptures struggle to deal with the true meanings of texts that require spiritual discernment. (As most of them do).

"The knowledge of the secrets of the Kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them." Mt. 13:11.

Rabbi כְּתַבָּא explained the meaning of the Sower, but even so, His explanation is not understandable to those whose hearts are veiled.

"Listen then, to what the parable of the Sower means: When anyone hears the message about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart." The "birds" came and ate it up. This is Shatan saying, "this Commandment was done away with", or "that Commandment is only for Jews to obey". Thus, by trickery, the evil one explains we don't need a particular "seed".

"The one who received the seed that fell on rocky places is the man who hears the Word, and at once receives it with joy. But since he has no root, he lasts only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the Word, he quickly falls away."
This is like one of us who understands, but then his family, peers or preacher criticize him saying things like "you've come in contact with some kind of cult" or "how can the whole world be wrong?". Then, they turn away from Truth.

"The one who received the seed that fell among the thorns is the man who hears the Word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke it, making it unfruitful." This is like one who works on the 7th day, and is intimidated by bosses or coworkers when he wishes to rest. They say, "All it means is that we should take off one day in every 7" or "I can't afford to eat kosher, the meat is too expensive". But, you'll find that taking it day-by-day, week-by-week, it's easy to obey. The "Decalogue" (deca, ten - logue, words) will be around forever. They will cry "legalism!" - and that's the persecution. We must listen to the guiding principles for Gentile beginners from the letter from the Yerushaliyim Council at Acts 15. Leviticus 11, 19, and 23 are still binding upon all believers, and easy to obey; but the enemy has stolen the true seed from most, and replaced it with the tares, or teachings of error. The teachings we live in are either our Father's Words, or they are the "tares" of the enemy, the one who changes the laws. The wife of Adam was deceived in this same way.

When you sincerely pray for Truth, you will receive it. When you cry for help, the eyes of Him who seeks to-and-fro for any who understand will immediately send you the Truth.

"How gracious He will be when you cry for help! As soon as He hears, He will answer you . . . Your teachers will be hidden no more; with your own eyes you will see them. Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying 'This is the way, walk in it.' Then you will defile your idols overlaid with silver and your images covered with gold; you will throw them away like a menstrual cloth and say to them 'Away with you!'". - Yeshu Yahu 30:19-22. No matter how "precious" the Pagan observances were to you, you will become sickened by the whole calendar that spews out their Babylonian vomit. The cakes baked for the Queen of Heaven (birthday cakes), Christmas trees, Easter baskets, jack-o-lanterns, and the broad road of “Sun-day” will be like a menstrual cloth to you. People will ask you, “Are you a ‘Jew’?” “Jew” means Yahudi, a worshipper of YAH. You are engrafted into Israel, in Mashiach. You are an “Israelite”, of the sect of Messianic Natsarim. We are ALL priests, of the order of Melchizedek (King of Righteousness). You need not Earthly man’s approval, or acceptance; rather, seek the approval of why, through His Son, Y’shwah.

“Do not learn the ways of the nations, and do not be alarmed by the signs (Zodiac, ZOO, beasts, constellations, Pagan calendar observances) of shamen - (the heavens), although the nations are alarmed by them. For the CUSTOMS of these peoples are worthless; for one cuts a TREE from the forest . . . They adorn it with silver and gold, they fasten it with nails and hammers so that it does not topple.” - Yerme Yahu 10:2-4.

Again, remember there is no covenant with “Christians”, but only with Yisrael. Psalm 147:19,20 says: “He has revealed His Word to Ya’aqob, His Laws and Decrees to YISRAEL. He has done this for no other nation; They do not know His Laws.”

The Torah is for all men to submit to. Wisdom cries out from the Scriptures. Our duty is to obey: “Of the making of many scrolls there is no end, and much study wearies the body. Now, ALL has been heard; HERE IS THE CONCLUSION OF THE MATTER: Fear Elohim, and keep His Commandments, for THIS is the DUTY of ALL MEN. For Elohim will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil.” - Ecclesiastes 12:12-14.

BEWARE THE DOCTRINES OF DEMONS

Following the Pagan calendar’s prescribed events, people are unknowingly worshiping demons. Read all of 1 Timothy the first chance you get!

“The Spirit clearly says that in later times some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons.” 4:1.

In this section, Paul explains men will forbid marriage, as was done by Catholicism. The food we eat that has been “consecrated” (meaning approved) by the Word (at Lev. 11) is all good to eat. This text is used to teach that lobsters, shrimp, crab, oysters, clams, swine, rabbit, etc., is now “clean” – but this is not what Paul is saying.

“All Scripture is Elohim-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness, so that the man of Elohim may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.” 2 Tim. 3:16,17.

“Do not merely listen to the Word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the Word but does not do what it says is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But the man who looks intently into the PERFECT LAW that gives freedom (from sin), and continues to do this, not forgetting what he has heard, but doing it – he will be blessed in what he does.” Ya’aqob (James) 1:22-25.

DING !!!
Oh-oh……
There’s that “eagle” again.
And LOOK! He seems to have a dragon along for a friend.
Does any of this “ring a bell”? The adversary leaves his signature, if you have the eyes to see it.

When Galileo had refined his optics to the extent that he could see spots on the sun, orbiting moons circling the 5th planet, and had irrefutable proof of the Copernican Theory (sun-centered system), the RCC rewarded his efforts by arresting him. The Inquisitor Cardinal Bellarmine, who arrested Galileo, has a university named after him in Louisville, KY, USA. They almost burned Galileo at the stake, but he agreed to recant, and died under permanent house arrest. In CE 1989 they "re-instated" Galileo back into the Roman Mother Church. The search for truth is often met with violent opposition, and the Inquisition used violence to stamp out truth. They were not interested in truth, otherwise they would have pursued it, and used it to prove whatever it was they were promoting. Inquisitor Bellarmine might not have granted this book a "Nihil Obstat/Imprimatur" either. I’d be killed, and so would anyone else who had ever been in contact with this book.

SUMMARY

Way back on page 11, you’ll notice this tower image, with the “all-seeing-eye” of Nimrod. This same shining “Eye-in-the-Sky” held the people of Egypt in its spell as Horus. Because of Nimrod’s idolatry, his uncle Shem killed him. Some have hypothesized that Melchizedek was Shem. Nimrod’s wife/mother, Semiramis, was perhaps the first noteworthy woman to be possessed by the adversary. She “defied” her dead husband Nimrod, and led the Babylonians to worship him as Baal, the Sun. She became the Earth Mother, and was also known as the “goddess of the dawn”. Towers or turrets were part of her crown all through the ages, based on the Babylonian “ziggurat”, the tower of Babel. Diana of Ephesus had a tower headpiece. The Statue of Liberty has both a tower headpiece, and rays. The more one studies history and Paganism, it becomes increasingly apparent that “Satan” has concealed himself as female just as often as male. The rising popularity of the “Mother Goddess” is simply another masquerade by which ha shatan diverts worship toward “himself” — a sexless fallen cherub without a name.

The power behind powerful men all through history has been this nameless being we refer to as ha shatan, or Lucifer. Most all the popular customs over the Earth point back to ancient Babylon, and it’s founder, Nimrod, the builder of towers. Masons celebrate Nimrod as their founder. Shem, the preserver of the Torah, points the way for the “children of light”. Nimrod, the tyrant who rebelled against שָׁמַר, has established a pattern of folly, and leads the world to continue the production of ignorant “children of darkness”. The “sign” of this Nimrod / Sun God is “Sun-day”, and this action is set against the recognition of the true Creator, Who set-apart the seventh day to commemorate His work (not Sun-day).

The “position” or “office” of the deceiver of men has moved across the Earth over time*. It began in Babylon, eventually found the throne of the king of Tyre (Ezek. 28:12-16), Pergamum (Rev. 2:13), Rome, Germany, and now resides in Washington D.C. He has always used the emblem of the eagle as his principal image. His rulership is not only over nations, but all religious government as well. The Papacy has been one of his most deadly instruments. The “anti-Messiah” is one who stands “in place of” the Faithful and True Anointed One, and the title “vicar of Christ” bestowed on the Pope has the meaning “in-place-of” Messiah. Daniel 11:37 describes this “office”, which will endure until the time of the end, and this man of “celibacy” “will show no regard for the elohim of his fathers or for the DESIRE OF WOMEN”. Looking at the towers and turrets around the Earth, it is apparent they are of some ancient significance. Could it be that the “elohim of fortresses” referred to in Daniel 11:38,39 is Nimrod, and these fortresses are the steeples, towers, turrets, and high places which our Father מָלֹאכָם calls pillars of jealousy? Is Nimrod truly “the Great Architect” the Masons worship in their Masonic Temples? Behind Nimrod is ha Shatan, who is also Semiramis, Tammuz, Astarte, Ashereth, Ge, Gaia, Molech, Baal, Venus, Woden, Aphrodite, Cupid, Pluto, Jupiter, Mars, Mercury, Orion, Ninus, Zeus, Apollo, and Beelzebub. The names he/she goes by are without end. His/her image is on our currency, so no man may buy or sell without his image, seal, and value given in his name. “In GOD We Trust” is not exactly specific, is it? The GOD of this world exacts worship, honor, and obedience — and he is opposed to the Covenant, and hates those who live by it.

The United Nations’ banner displays the whole Earth encircled by the ancient wreath/crown of Caesar. The General Assembly is eventually to be the legislative branch of the New World Order; the Security Council will act as the Judicial branch; NATO will be the executive branch. This beast’s false prophet will be the papacy, who will use smooth words to convince the world to follow the leader of NATO, which will be a great peacemaker, but also the end-time anti-Messiah. He will anoint himself the leader and sovereign ruler of the Earth. From this position, he will move against those who do not conform to his proclaimed moons and “holy days”. This is why we must be as “wise as serpents, but harmless as doves.” The “peacemakers” are already fighting under the banner of the UN, and will ultimately move against the wife of אֵלֹהִים — Tsiyon (Zion). Israel has a different calendar than Babylon. She is the bearer of the Covenant (marriage vows / Commandments), and is the wife of the Maker of the universe. The two witnesses will prophesy the end-time message of repentance to the whole Earth, and soon after that planet-wide destruction will threaten all life on Earth.

Nationalism began in ancient Babylon — the people sought to “make a name for themselves”, so others would fear them. Control mechanisms began, national “laws” were instituted, and land was placed under dominion and ownership of powerful rulers. The nations themselves became more than just their populations; they took on a type of incorporeal persona, or life of their own. While individual men would live and die, the nation would go on. The men who were most corrupt, driven by greed, power, and lust, were usually the ones who rose to the top. So, today, and next year, where do our leaders come from? They are all struggling and fighting their way to the top of a pyramid of power, established by Nimrod back in Babylon. Babylon is the “head” of the kingdoms of the Earth. Men’s kingdoms are really ruled by Shatan, who was once “the anointed cherub who covers” (Ezek. 28:14), the “star of the morning, son of the dawn” (Yehsha Yahu 14:12).

So, mankind’s horrific history is not all his own doing, but rather his choices. Mankind has been led by a powerful entity that is filled with intense hatred. Fallen from the highest place of all, our nameless adversary once enjoyed being in the presence of the Throne of עורב. He was the most beautiful and powerful creature — above all the Watchers; and was loved dearly by עורב. When pride swelled inside him, it corrupted his judgment; he sought equality with עורב. This grew into a murderous rage, and there was WAR between the Sons of עורב who followed him, and those who did not. This cherub set up a system of control on this planet, and each person born here unwittingly comes under his sovereignty.

Throughout time, a few of us have been chosen, and trained by the Spirit of Truth (יהוה) to leave a witness to the facts preserved in the writings of the prophets. We do not enter the pages of history, except in the instances that we become a threat, are discovered, and expunged. Of the increase of Yahushua’s government there will be no end. This is not to say it will grow larger and larger visibly on the Earth, but that there will always be people awakened as others die — thus it still grows larger. As the time of the Gentiles grows shorter, so does the time for the fallen cherub.

THE SPIRIT WAS MOVING ON THE FACE OF THE WATERS

The “Spirit” is עорב (יהוה). YHWH is Spirit, and cannot be seen. He put His “Spirit” on Mosheh, El Yahu (Eljah), El Yesha (Elisha); and Dawid pleaded “Do not take your Ruach ha Qodesh from me”. Some perceive this “Spirit” is the personality of YHWH; others claim it is his “power”. Being Spirit, what does YHWH want? He wants to look out through our eyes, completely possessing us. This involves a union that is analogous to a marriage. This is the purpose of all Creation, that YHWH may be “all in all”, and the Body of Yahushua is the pre-eminent focus of all Creation, with Yahushua as the Head. The Spirit of YHWH made “covenants” with Abraham, Yitshaq, and Ya’akob, and the descendants of the 12 tribes / families of Yisrael, at Sinai -- the marriage of YHWH to His Bride, Yisrael. YHWH is ONE, He is not schizophrenic, nor multiple persons. He becomes the fulfillment of our needs, and takes on specific roles, as I can be a managing boss to my employees, a husband to my wife, a father to my sons, a friend to a neighbor, a brother to my brothers -- yet I’m just one man. YHWH can manifest (show) Himself in diverse ways. Mosheh certainly didn’t think He was a bush. The Shekinah Kabod was YHWH, and He goes wherever His Name is honored. His “eyes” search back and forth across the Earth to find any who understand. The plural “Elfichim” means “mighty-one-of-oaths”. YHWH is the El who swore oaths to Abraham, Yitshaq, and Ya’akob. “The oaths are plural, not YHWH. The titles YHWH Rapha, YHWH Yireh, YHWH Nissi, etc., are “roles”, they are not different names. Churchianity has come to accept the name “Jesus Christ” as if “Christ” were a last name. The Hebrew original was not “Christ”, but Mashiach. This is a title also, meaning He is our “anointed” RULER. In Hebrew, it would be “Yahushua ha Mashiach”. In this role, YHWH is our salvation, and “Yahushua” means “YHWH is our salvation”.

The New Covenant (Brit Chadasha) sealed in Yahushua’s blood is the culmination of YHWH’s objective to redeem His chosen bride, the remnant. This New Covenant is: Yahushua writing His Torah on our hearts and minds, circumcising our hearts with His Commandments. This is referred to at Hebrews 8:8-12, Yerme Yahu 31:31-34, and Ezekiel 36:26,27. You will note that this Covenant is to be with the “House of Israel” and the “House of Yahudah” -- these are the two houses of the Northern and Southern Kingdoms. The 10 tribes of the House of Israel was scattered by the Assyrians into the nations.

Yahushua’s mission, both 2000 years ago, and NOW, is to regather the “lost sheep of the tribes of Israel”. He is doing this through His Natsarim, because many who thought they were “goyim” and following Nimrod’s fossilized customs are returning to their Husband, and turning their backs on tradition. We announce the same “message” of the Kingdom, “Repent, for the Reign of YHWH draws near.” Repenting means to return, turn around. Yahushua came to restore the Torah to its fullness so that truth and justice could be restored. He told us to not even think He had come to destroy the Torah. This verifies that the “APOSTASY” (falling away) spoken of in 2 Thess. 2 has happened.

CAN YOU SAY, “BEASTER SUNDAY?”
involved some define "religious lawlessness" -- a delusion -- because those in the apostasy believe the LIE, and delight themselves with lawlessness. This "lawlessness" means they have not received the Spirit of Yahushua, Who circumcises our hearts with His Torah (Commandments) -- and they are not in the "New Covenant", but rather are deluded. Human customs ensnare millions of people, benefiting swindlers who "peddle" the Word of YHWH for profit -- the rich merchants of Revelation 18.

Most perceive that the Scriptures teach we will "see" (GOD) and "Jesus" seated at His "right hand". Two seats? The first problem here is understanding the Hebraism "right hand". It means simply "authority", not literally on the right side of someone. These kinds of issues really don't matter salvationally. Remember, the thief on the stake who died next to Yahushua didn't have all his "doings" worked out in every detail -- but he had enough LOVE, kindness, and sought justice; and accepted his penalty -- while the other thief was making a joke, and inviting Yahushua to do something to rescue them all. In fact, Yahushua WAS DOING something to rescue ALL OF MANKIND. So, in all our struggles attempting to understand these things, we must keep focused on love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self control. We must have love for each other, and the Truth; even love our enemies.

Scripture also states that the Father is greater than the Son. Well, when we see Yahushua, we are seeing the Father; this is what Yahushua told brother Philip. Actually, Yahushua is all of the Father we will ever see, and He will be seated on the Throne Himself. YHWH became a man. He took the form of sinful flesh, and died to atone once-and-for-all His bride. The Husband had to die, ending the Old Covenant / Marriage, so the Bride could re-marry; a bride is bound to her husband until he dies, and so, HE DID. The Old Covenant was imperfect, because it was written in stone, not the heart; it was also sealed in animal blood, and atonement required yearly offerings. Obedience was rewarded with blessing, disobedience with curses and death. The New Covenant involves the Torah circumcised on our hearts, so we walk in the Spirit, not the mind of the flesh -- which cannot and will not obey. Our immersion pictures this circumcision, the death of the mind of the flesh, and the resurrection to life of the mind of the Spirit. The Torah thus becomes our way of life, and wells up into unending rivers of LIVING WATER (the eternal Commandments of Life). If we have this seed (the Commandments) within us, we have the Truth, Life, and are children of YHWH, children of LIGHT.

Constantine I decreed that the Venerable "Day of the Sun" was to be the empire's day of complete rest in 321 CE, thus fulfilling Dan. 7:25. This Universal (Catholic) Edict was imposed under penalty of death; and Shabbat (the 7th day, commemorating CREATION, Gen. 2:2, Ex. 20:8-11, Ex. 31:13-17, Ezek. 20:12, 44:24, Yesha Yahu 66:23, Hebrews 4:1-12) and it's observance were abandoned for the ways of Balaam, Nimrod, Shatan, etc... The ONE Who covenanted with Abrahahm, Yitshaq, Ya'akov and spoke with Mosheh in the burning shrub, was the same ONE Who became "the Son": YHWH.

The Father is "greater" because He is infinite in size, time, and power; looking at the majesty of Yahushua is but a small glimpse, and for this reason Yahushua said "Abba is greater than I". Every knee will bow, and every tongue will confess that Yahushua is YHWH, to the esteem of Elohim the Father*. Didymus / Thomas fell down and confessed "my Adonai and my Elohim" to Yahushua. The "Captain of the Armies of Yisrael" allowed the man Yahushua / called Joshua to KNEEL before Him.

"And I will pour out on the House of Dawid and on the inhabitants of Yerushaliyim the Spirit of unmerited lovingkindness and supplication, so that they will LOOK ON ME -- WHOM THEY HAVE PIERCED; and they will mourn for Him, as one mourns for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him, like the bitter weeping over a first-born." -- Zech. 12:10

This will reflect back to the execution of Yahushua, the Passover Lamb's purpose, and the covering of Adam and Chuwah in the bloody sheepskins put on them. It will also bring to mind the moment Yosef revealed himself to his brothers who sold him into slavery and he became the ruler of all Egypt. Those who looked on Yosef saw the authority of the Pharaoh, but yet it wasn't Pharaoh. Many things will become clearer through study, and this is why it is good that we are being forced to go to the Words of YHWH. We must try hard to not go in with the intention of finding the passages that agree with our traditional mindset, but rather let the Truth come through to replace the errors we've been taught. There are not many who know Yahushua is YHWH, but the overcomers are finding out. AT THE EASTERN GATE, WHEN YAHUSHUA RETURNS, Scripture states: "And behold, the esteem of the Elohim of Israel was coming from the way of the east; and His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with His esteem." -- Ezek. 43:2.

JUST BEFORE YAHUCHANON (John)
"Behold, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth will mourn over Him. Even so, Amein. 'I AM THE ALEF AND THE TAU' says Adonai Elohim, 'WHO IS AND WHO WAS AND WHO IS TO COME, THE ALMIGHTY'". – Rev. 1:7,8.

Then Yahushua turned, to see Yahushua speaking, amid a menorah (seven lampstands), His sign. The menorah represents the Torah, the Tree of Life, the oil of which gives LIGHT to the world (by metaphor, the Commandments). He is the Living Word, the Torah made flesh. The Hebrew word for the personal NAME of YHWH literally means "I was, I am, I will be" ("I will be there" as translated by some). Look closely at the phrase in Rev. 1:8 above "Who is and Who was and Who is to come". Yahushua is describing the meaning of His Name. Those "sealed" with the Name of the Father (see Rev. 7, and 14:1) will know His Name; these living saints will number 144,000, and no lie will be found in their mouths.

"You will not see Me again, until you say: 'Baruch haba baShem YHWH'" (Blessed is the One Who comes in the Name of YHWH)

Note that Yahushua is not saying we will not see Him again until we say "GOD", or Theos, or Lord. Alexander Hislop's work The Two Babylons mentions that Nimrod was widely known by many different names and titles. He traces all fire-worship back to him, and the custom of "purifying" oneself by offering one's children in fire. One of Nimrod's titles was "ADON", meaning LORD. This eventually became Aden, and "ODIN" (Woden) in Norse mythology. So, we can see this is but one example of dozens that can show that Nimrod is very much still with us — he's hidden in the name for the 4th day of every week (Woden's Day). People who rationalize that the true Creator "knows our hearts," so we can continue in our Nimrod customs, are playing not only their own welfare, but any others who may find comfort in large numbers. Remember, Yahushua told us that many would be taken by surprise, and His return would be just like the days of Noah. The majority were swept away, and only eight souls were preserved — because they had the courage to stand apart from the crowd.

A WINNOWING FORK IS SEPARATING US

Here in the US, as well as the UK, witchcraft and the occult have become the counter-culture of the young. The Pagan movements are seeking equal use of public facilities, especially those used by popular Christian sects. The gap between the worldly and spiritual is becoming well defined!

The pyramid was sacred to many Pagan civilizations of history, being the top of an obelisk — called a “pillar of jealousy” in Scripture, which the Israelites would not bow to. It was interpreted as a sun ray, but also as a male fertility symbol. It evolved into various religious towers, or “high places”, such as steeples or turrets. They all trace back to the ziggurat of Babel. Poles and high structures were always a part of any Pagan temple, which Scripture refers to as an “image” in places. At Nimrod’s death, the Babylonians worshipped him as the Sun -- which later was represented by the eagle, seen carrying the golden orb of the sun across the sky (hence our flag-pole ornaments). The eagle seen on the right side of the back of our dollar bill was first adopted by the Babylonians, and this very same pose can be seen by investigating “Ahura Mazda” (Persian/Assyrian for “wise lord”). This was only a title, but it was still Nimrod — they adopted the name “Mithras” for the Sun, and used the eagle as his symbol. The Zoroastrians (also fire-worshippers) had priests called “Magi” (magicians) which bore the emblem of their deity on their chests. They wore black garments, because they were constantly working with the ashes of the “sacred fire”. Hence, religious garments of Pagans are black (Israel was told to wear only white linen by YHWH). These Pagan priests made “holy water” by putting a lit torch of “sacred fire” into water. So, it will be found that every detail seen in Catholicism can be traced back to Chaldaen Paganism -- and much came into the daughters of this Mother of Harlots, most especially her CALENDAR.

So, on the US Dollar Bill, the eagle and the “eye” atop the pyramid are both really Nimrod, who was worshipped as the Sun. The Latin words ANNUIT COEPTIS NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM mean “announcing the birth of a new world order”. The goal of the Babylonians was also to “make a name for themselves” (become feared as a nation, identified by their unity and power together to conquer). Nationalism was made with bricks, and the pyramid of power has had men in its grip ever since. They scramble to get to the top of it. The reason for all these cryptic symbols used by Franklin, Jefferson, and the other founding fathers is because these men were mostly Masons. The Masons revere Nimrod as their FOUNDER.

The number 13 is “unlucky” because of a Medieval superstition; the Catholics had interpreted that the “last supper” (a Passover Seder) was on an evening just before a “Fri-Day”, and there were 13 men at this seder; actually the “preparation day” for the “Sabbath” was not for the “weekly” Sabbath, but rather the preparation day for the annual Sabbath of the 1st day of Matsah, called “Unleavened Bread”. Six of the seven annual Sabbaths may fall on any day of the week, thus the “3 days AND 3 nights” works out as long as one doesn’t try to interpret it the Catholic way, Fri-Day to Sun-Day. (The seventh-day Sabbath, now called “Satyr-Day”, is a commemoration of CREATION, see Hebrews 4).

We’ve investigated why “Sun-Day” (the “Day of the Sun” to the sun / fire-worshippers) became the Christian Sabbath in the year 321 CE. Today, a Nazarene (sect of the Natsarim), or what might be called a “Messianic” movement has begun across planet Earth, restoring all things. The Inquisition murdered all of us they could find over the ages, but now we’re on the internet. Nimrod, the “lawless one”, is the antithesis of the Mashiach. Without the name, or the number of the name of the beast, no man can buy or sell. The real power given to this beast comes from a fallen cherub, called ha shatan; also known by the Latin word, “Lucifer”, meaning “light bearer”. He is nameless, yet goes by many names. Whose image and inscription is on our currency of exchange? Well, “IN GOD WE TRUST” takes on a strange meaning when you look up the origin of the word “GOD”:

“GOD (god) Common Teutonic word for personal object of religious worship, FORMERLY APPLICABLE TO SUPER-HUMAN BEINGS OF HEATHEN MYTH; on conversion of Teutonic races to Christianity, TERM WAS APPLIED TO SUPREME BEING.” (Encyclopedia Americana, 1945).

All of this points to the desperate struggle of a creature who is deceiving the whole world, and has successfully hood-winked the nations to conform to a pattern he instituted long ago in Babylon under Nimrod. Alexander Hislop put it into words over 100 years ago, that the papacy was disguised Nimrod worship. His book, The Two Babylons, you can order from Loizeaux Brothers, POB 277 Neptune, New Jersey 07754 (ISBN unknown). Phone: 1-800-526-2796

The “New Covenant” promised at Yerme 31 has nothing to do with “sacraments” or dispensational “grace” — but rather is the Spirit of the Living Yahushua writing His Commandments on our hearts. Instead of beginning by debating whether or not we must obey a given Commandment, we must first ask "why" we are separated from our Creator. The answer is, our sin separates us from Him. We can only define what "sin" is by knowing the Commandments. In fact, sin is defined as the transgression of the Commandments. Without the Commandments to identify sin, there would be no sin. Having established the basic fact that the Commandments define sin, and that our ignoring these same teachings separated us from our Maker, and continue to do so, the next step is to accept the fact that we are, in fact, all sinners — we must be "convicted" of our sinfulness. Instead of just "believing" that all we must do is accept Yahushua's death as our justification for all past and FUTURE transgressions, we must REPENT, or turn away from sin. We cannot obey in our "mind of the flesh", but we need help; this is how the New Covenant brings us its most powerful promise: Mashiach IN US. Yahushua literally comes into us, and ENABLES us to actually LOVE His Torah, and SAVES us from sin. We can repent of the Paganism, the Popery, the Babylonian fireworship customs of Nimrod, but without repenting of all the things the Commandments call sin, we will not receive the Spirit of Yahushua (Acts 5:32). Like I've always told my sons, "You've got to really WANT it". (This applies to achieving something they want to accomplish; from getting a higher grade, to playing a sport and scoring — Paul spoke of it using the example of a race — by running in such a way so as to WIN). Without the motivation, a person will just sit back and be an observer. Time is long passed for that, it's now time for the harvest workers to appear. Arise! Shine! For your LIGHT has come! The ideas we've summed up in this book can be further condensed into the following words of any unknown author (please take it as humor, yet truth): "The Crispians have the "can opener" (the Mashiah), and the Frozen Chosen have the can of beans (the Torah) -- all we need to do as Natsarim is show these 2 groups the New Covenant -- the Torah written on our hearts?" (Heb. 10, Yerme Yahu 31).

DEATH ROW Each one of us — no matter how healthy, free, or young — is on death row. None of us know the day or hour of our death, yet it hangs invisibly right before us all. Those who searched the occult for answers only met failure. Walt Disney had an obsession with the occult, and at the moment of his death, he arranged to be cryogenically frozen at that point — in the hope that one day medical science could revive him and extend his life. We live in bodies of DEATH. Man's natural lifespan. Humans, when compared with the rest of the respirating animals, live longer than expected. We've learned how to extend our lives just a bit. If humans were to live life-spans predicted from the pattern of weight, heart and breath cycles for the rest of the animals, they would only live from 30 to 35 years. But, each of us only has so many breaths and heartbeats, then it's over. We must use our time here wisely.

Christianity, as we know it, is what Paul prophesied would happen after he was gone. Men would rise up and plunder the flock, and lead the Body into apostasy, and follow after myths. Worse still, they have become lawless, replacing the Commandments of YHWH with traditions of men. Having said this, it may sound like I am condemning Christians — but nothing could be further from the truth. Out of them, YHWH is calling forth a remnant, that will lead the world as Israel was intended to originally, because they are finding out they ARE Israel. YHWH has stated there is to be one "law" for the native born, and foreigner. His Torah is the wedding covenant, and the New Covenant in Yahushua's blood is written on our hearts, not like the old one in stone. Pagans did not know they were only worshipping "idols", the names they used meant just as much to them as they do to most Christians. So, if a Christian learns the true non-Pagan words, and certainly the personal Name of the One they claim to worship, how could it be they would still cling to the uncleanness and errors more so than the Truth? The answer is just as I stated: it's programming. Repenting is certainly difficult unless it has been given as a free gift (faithfulness). Being "faithful" to the programming is not repenting -- being faithful to the Truth requires real sacrifice. Friends, family, and other brothers and sisters in the old way can be powerful glue to keep change from occurring. This is what the parable of the Sower is all about. Rather than excusing and defending the long history of an apostate religion, we must plow ahead without looking back. It would be far more comfortable to remain within the structure of Christmas, Easter, and Sunday, but we must decide whom we will serve — witchcraft and Satan, or the Creator YHWH. That's why Satan is called a "deceiver"; he has people thinking they are serving YHWH, but they are really obeying him. Looking at what YHWH says He likes, then turning away and following the Pagan format is truly a strange way of showing it. Satan is masquerading. You can't peel away YHWH's ways and find dirty Paganism underneath them, because He is not wearing a costume like Satan is.
YOUR FIRST STRUGGLE: OBEDIENCE

OBED — Hebrew for “servant”. Who is a servant of יהוה? The one who obeys. Like the rainbow He has set in the clouds as a “sign” of His Covenant with all living creatures to never destroy the Earth by water again, He has established a “sign” between Him and His bride, those who have chosen to obey His Voice, His Word.

Starting in Genesis, the 7th day was established as a sign which shows to יהוה who we worship as צreator, since this 4th Commandment was given to commemorate creation. The Great Prostitute hates the “mark” of יהוה, which is the “sign” of His Covenant. The Sabbath has nothing to do with the Resurrection, but people have been hypnotized to believe otherwise. The texts we usually hear used to “prove” the disciples changed the Sabbath to “Sun-day” to celebrate the Resurrection of Yahushua are examined. There is great resistance to obeying the true Shabbat. Concerning the “Day of יהוה” (translated “day of the LORD”) at Rev. 1:10, many have been taught that this was “Sun-day”, yet it is really the future time of testing which Yahuchanon was writing about, as he said he was “in the spirit”, a vision of the time of wrath which was being shown to him. If he wanted us to know what day of the week it was, he would have said so, by saying “on the first day of the week” like other passages did.

Let’s look at the texts about “SUN-DAY”, which people seem to “see” in Acts 20, and 1 Corinthians. I can understand how strong the pressure is to not rock the boat, but it is only Tradition that has “interpreted” selected texts in order to attempt some Scriptural basis for a “Sun-day” observance. You will notice that the “Sabbath” is referred to in Hebrews 4, and it remains for the people of יהוה. Paul never stated that it was any other day, nor did Luke in his mentioning it in Acts. Acts 1:12 even mentions the “Sabbath’s distance” of about 3/4 mile, and the NIV footnotes verify this. This was not a “Sun-day”. The best way to prove to yourself that Shabbat is the same day as it has always been is to just go through the entire book of Acts, and circle the word “Sabbath” every time it appears. Acts was written many years after the Resurrection. It was Constantine who instituted the “Sun-day Sabbath” change.

At Acts 20:7, Paul was preparing to leave the next morning, and the Sabbath had ended at sunset, and he and Luke (the writer) came together with a small group in a house, “on the first day of the week”. Luke records “there were many lamps” in this upstairs room, because it was after dark, the beginning of the 1st day of the week -- and Paul went on speaking until midnight. Little Eutychus fell asleep and dropped out the window!

It says they “broke bread”, meaning they had a meal, like the meal Yahushua had with the two men on the road to Emmaus. (Yahushua was invited in, and “When He was at the table with them, He took bread, gave thanks, BROKE it, and began to give it to them” - Luke 24:30). “Breaking bread” is just eating.

At 1 Cor. 16:2, Paul was writing to the Corinthians to prepare for their gift to יהוה’s PEOPLE (the poor in ירושלים), since he would be soon passing through on his way to Jerusalem. This was not a collection for יהוה’s work, but rather it was for the poor, and it was only for that specific occasion! The “first day of the week” was (and still is) the first work day of every week, and so the people were to make this collection then, so everyone would do it in an orderly way - there is no “Scriptural” law of any kind to have this done at all times everywhere. The Corinthians may have been shown to him. If he wanted us to know what way, and the Sabbath had ended at 1:10, many have been taught that this was “Sun-day”, yet it is really the future time of testing which Yahuchanon was writing about, as he said he was “in the spirit”, a vision of the time of wrath which was being shown to him. If he wanted us to know what day of the week it was, he would have said so, by saying “on the first day of the week” like other passages did.

“SHABBATH” IS THE MORE ORIGINAL SOUND
tion, re-inventing previously Pagan observances (mixing the clean with the unclean, and darkness with light). If the blind lead the blind, BOTH will fall into a pit. If you are asking men who are blind to show you the way, what will be the end of it? Please just start by circling every occurrence in Acts where the word “Sabbath” occurs, and you will begin to see the Truth, and it will set you free.

How “evil” would it have been if we had simply inherited the “tradition” of obeying the 4th Commandment as it is written? Even “Pentecost”, called “Shabuoth”, is one of the commanded festivals in Lev. 23, and commemorates the giving of the Torah at Sinai. The Nazarenes had the Torah written on their hearts, fulfilling the prophesied “New Covenant” described in Jer. 31:33, Ez. 36:26-27, Heb. 10:16. Satan has led away and deceived the whole world, and we have inherited the echoes of his sun-worship pattern, and not our Father’s pattern. We are labeled “Judaizers” for obeying the Commandments, and rejecting human traditions.

Some of us are even now feeling the “chiseling” and refining of our hearts as we are being “hewn” by the Spirit of Yahushua. We are being ripped away from the common bedrock of tradition, and are encountering persecution. The “darkness” will not approach the “Light” for fear of exposure, and the enemies of the Torah flee from those who are likely to follow the example of Yahushua, by saying “IT IS WRITTEN . . . ” If I may, I’d like to point out that it is really not the remnant which you have been seeking; you are the called-out remnant! We are the “Living Stones”, and the “Temple of YAYHEL. Where ever two or more of us are gathered, He is in our midst—no building can ever be as set-apart as ourselves.

When I stopped searching for the “place”, the “people”, and the “organization”, I turned to Him ~ they really WANT to be shown the Truth! Be patient and loving, and ask them if they love the Commandments . . . this will give them a perspective, and all the Scripture stored in their hearts will convict them of sin. This is the beginning! They must be convicted of their sinfulness - but all their lives they have been “programmed” to believe their sins are “covered”, and never started in the right place. They started off out-of-step. Their sins are only “covered” when they “repent”, and turn from sin! Yahushua enables them in their spirit to agree with the Torah, and they will pass from their mind-of-the-flesh into our realm, the mind-of-the-Spirit. They will never be able to go back, thinking that the Commandments are “done away”. The Torah is Spiritual, and the mind-of-the-flesh cannot obey. Be patient with everyone who wants to learn the evidence and foundation of your faith. They are where we all were once; and as it happened for us, they can be used to carry the true message to many others.

No one is hopeless, if they are praying for the Truth. When it is shown that human traditions have become “religion”, and partial truths have been mixed with lies and doctrines of demons, a rebellion will occur like no other has before, all over the Earth – and then Yahushua will return to rule over us. We are part of the restoration, the re-building of the Temple of YHWH made without hands. This is the “Temple” that will come from the skies – it will be us. You have found the true Nazarenes. We are hated without a cause, like Yahushua; and we are in a war of Truth against lies, Light against Darkness.

THE STAR OF DAVID

Many will indicate that this symbol was used by Pagans, but there is an origin to it that is overlooked. It isn't a "religious" symbol, yet is a Scriptural fulfillment. (The symbol of the Torah, Yahushua, is the menorah — a representation of the Tree of Life).

Yeshah Yahu (Isaiah) 11:10-13 describes a "banner", which is a flag. "Ephraim", one of the 10 "lost" families of Israel, is mentioned, along with Yehudah, and Adonai YHWH is said to reach out His hand a SECOND TIME to reclaim the remnant of His people who were "lost", dispersed over the Earth. On this "banner" is the "root of Yesse", and this word "root" means descendant, and this is none other than Dawid! It's a king's SEAL, the literal name of Dawid.

The "star" is really Dawid's NAME, written in two palaeo-Hebrew letters, as a dalet and another dalet -- the beginning and ending of Dawid's name. It stands as a banner, the flag of Israel, and is the symbol for ALL Israel, including the lost 10 families. Over time, Satanists began to use it, but only with a circle around it. since in conjuring up demons they believe they must stand in a circle of protection when doing so. (it's really nonsense, since candles and circles with symbols in them cannot protect anyone from demons). Many Christian teachers are actively promoting the notion that this "star" is demonic, and even elude to Acts 7:43, but they are mistaken. The "shrine of Molech and the star of your god Rephan" is the symbol used by Islam today, which is a moon and star, symbolizing child sacrifice to Molech. The moon symbol represents Semiramis / Diana / Artemis / Asherah / Ishtar / Easter; and the star is Tammuz, her child.

Some will try to convince you that it is an evil talisman, able to be inhabited by demons. Try to educate them, but at all costs avoid being offensive. 1 Pet. 3:8-12 is a text that should guide us in love, and applies to many areas. But, if you have made up your mind already, try to accept those who don't agree with you on every point. There are so many things addressed in this book, it's most likely there will be differences of opinion — we don't all have the same knowledge, but we should be all of the same MIND.

PAUL AND CIRCUMCISION

One of Paul's biggest challenges came from those Nazarenes who insisted on circumcising Gentiles. Those who reject or misunderstand Paul sometimes force ritual circumcision on new converts. When Nazarenes discuss these kinds of issues, I like before he was circumcised. When Nazarenes discuss these kinds of issues, I like to bear in mind that while there is an ideal and goal in all of YHWH's wonderful teachings, our LOVE has to remain the foremost goal. Achieving absolute perfection halachically speaking, and not having love, we are doomed. Our love is the real test, and by the measure we judge, we will be judged — if I am even 25% correct, it will be a miracle! The thief who died next to Yahushua certainly didn't have every detail of understanding we all strive for. But, specifically, circumcision is an eternal covenant. It is a covenant of land inheritance, but not eternal life. Our immersion (in the Name of Yahushua Who we covenant with) has become our circumcision, as Paul states it very clearly: "In Him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature, not with a circumcision done by the hands of men, but with the circumcision done by Mashiach, having been buried with Him in (baptism) and raised with Him through your faith in the power of YHWH Who raised Him from the dead." Col. 2:11,12. Immersion represents our "circumcision" by the Sword of the Spirit, the Torah. The whole issue of the "council" recorded at Acts 15 regarding "Gentiles" turning to YHWH involved the controversy of fleshly circumcision, and the decision reached remains unclear even to many Nazarenes today. Those who believe and are immersed will be saved -- Yahushua didn't include fleshly circumcision here, but can a Gentile become a "Yahudi" without a fleshly circumcision? Is the "sign" (oth) of the Eternal Covenant circumcision, or the Sabbath? The "sword" of the Spirit actually circumcises our hearts, so we can walk in the Spirit, obeying the Torah willingly, as an obedient bride. Eph. 2:11 onward discusses how a Gentile's citizenship in Israel is accomplished by Yahushua's blood, and the dividing wall is abolished between believing Gentiles and the "circumcised". Romans 3:28,29 states: "A man is NOT a Yahudi (Jew) if he is only one OUTWARDLY (circumcision), but is circumcision merely outward and physical. No, a man isn't Yahudi if he is one INWARDLY; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a man's praise is not from men, but from Elohim." Romans 3:30 states that YHWH "will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith." But, Romans 4 goes into answering your question better than I or anyone ever could. I know this is and always has been an issue of controversy among Nazarenes, but I am not contentious over it -- but accept all who love Yahushua, and seek to follow Him, trusting in His salvation. This faith makes us children of Abraham, who was justified even before he was circumcised. All believers who have been circumcised by the sword of the Spirit in their hearts are children of...
YHWH. I don't wish to be rebuked like Peter was, who would not sit with "Gentile" Nazarenes.

MANIFESTATION OF YHWH: YAHUSHUA

"They will look upon ME, the one they have pierced, and they will mourn for Him as one mourns for an ONLY CHILD, and GRIEVE BITTERLY for Him as one grieves for a first-born Son." -- Zech. 12:10.

"The Son is the radiance of Elohim's esteem and the exact representation of His Being, sustaining all things by His powerful Word." -- Heb. 1:3.

Many words can be written to counter the above, but they will never change their meaning. The SECRET is withheld, being veiled to those who cannot accept that the HUSBAND had to die to end the Covenant. (Rom. 7:2, Heb. 9:15-17). If Yahushua were not Who He is, He could not possibly alter or amend any former covenant made by YHWH.

"Even to this day when Mosheh is read, a veil covers their hearts. But whenever anyone turns to YHWH, the veil is taken away. Now YHWH is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of YHWH is, there is freedom." -- 2Cor. 3:15-17.

"Who, being in very nature Elohim, did not consider equality with Elohim something to be grasped, but made Himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to death -- even death on ha'etz (the tree). Phil. 2:6-8. (Nas is "pole" or stake in Hebrew).

"He is the image of the invisible Elohim, the firstborn over all creation." -- Col. 1:15.

- Now, which creature would be able to take this attribute upon itself? Michael the Archangel perhaps? The veil has been removed for some of us, but remember that the thief who died next to Yahushua didn't have every single detail worked out, but Rabbi Ya-hushua assured him "I tell you TODAY, you will be with Me in paradise". See the comma? Many understand it this way, how Yahushua was simply emphasizing His decision when He said, "I tell you today, . . ." We have to be careful, and not snatch one sentence out of Scripture and build a case on ambiguity. Wisdom is to be found where there are many counselors, and two or more witnesses are necessary to provide evidence of truth.

Now that you have come near to the end of this little book, you might ask yourself if there were enough "witnesses" brought forth to prove that human traditions have intentionally masked and altered the Truth. Many will not be convinced no matter how much evidence is presented, and to a large degree it is simply because they don't wish to repent — sin is fun for a season, but it will reap only death. The same amount of energy can be expended for doing what is right. We're all gambling with our own lives, and we must also realize that we are responsible for our children, and others who make contact with us. Your mission is to GO, make disciples, and immerse them in Yahushua's Name — this is not just for "leaders", but all of us. He will ask to see what you did with the 'talents' He left you with. When you have studied Scripture thoroughly, you will find that the CONGREGATION participates in every facet of getting people converted; we are ALL involved in teaching, immersing, correcting, and so on.

"... you are slaves (servants) of the one whom you OBEY...." Romans 6:16

"... a foolish people has spurned your Name." Psalm 74:18
Dealing With Those Who Don't Understand

Please don't get discouraged by the enormous lack of love in many people's responses. Whether they are brash, new believers who have not yet "mellowed" and come into fuller knowledge, or they are deceived deceivers like anti-missionaries or Jesuits, it's hard to keep pace, or have peace in your heart, when all you get are arguments and debates constantly. Here I will briefly touch on the fact that there are 10 "lost tribes", and the anti-missionaries may be under the impression that there are only 2 or 3 tribes, now visibly called "Jews". Reading Ezekiel 36:17-38, and 37:1-28 (noting especially 36:27), they will find that the TWO HOUSES of ISRAEL (Yahudah, the southern kingdom, and Ephraim / Israel, the northern kingdom) will be UNITED as "one stick" in YHWH's hand. We are about to witness the return of the 10 lost tribes, now embedded in the Gentiles; and see the return of Yahshua of Natsarit. When He reveals Himself to His brothers, it will be a day of great mourning, as it is described in Zech. 12, and one will be reminded of how it was when Yosef revealed himself to his brothers in Egypt, after being sold into slavery, imprisoned innocently by Potiphar, and rising to the highest position of the kingdom.

Not long ago, someone wrote to me from prison saying he was about to be released, but didn't think he could return to his wife and child because they were "Christian". Since learning the Truth, this individual was only interested in being with others like himself. So, I realized that to some degree, many others have these same tendencies -- so I've put a few paragraphs together to help straighten this confusion out.

Accepting Those Who Are Different

1 Cor. 9:19-23, (pilot text): Paul can be easily misunderstood, can't he? In this whole area of his letter, my "take" is that Paul is on a tangent, or line of thought, which relates generally to his "right" to be called an emissary. He was under great stress, because other Nazarenes were questioning him constantly -- they didn't trust him completely. He seemed to be associating with people others turned their noses up at. Some even thought he 'believed' differently. He wanted only to say that he was under compulsion to spread the message of the Reign of YHWH to all mankind, not for any boasting or reward. He tries to explain why it is that he speaks to anyone who will listen. He doesn't seem to see anyone as a lost cause, but all have the potential to win. He calls his journey a race -- and he encounters all types of people along the way. Some are beginning. Others are farther along in knowledge.

Even though Paul understood many things more deeply than other Nazarenes, like the meaning of the New Covenant (the Torah written on our hearts and minds), he knew we needed other basic advice; like how to get along with each other, and others who were not yet "all there".

Many nations are the seed of the Abrahamic Promise -- and the Spirit of Yahshua within us has a goal which many of us push into the background. He wants to use us to reach the lost sheep of the tribes of Israel -- the 10 lost tribes -- with the message of the Kingdom of YHWH. How committed to this are we? Many place their highest goal on finding and meeting with others who believe like they do. Seeking others who use the same words, observe the same appointments, and a similar knowledge-level make the Kingdom of YHWH more like an "us versus them" meeting. We can "see" the Kingdom of YHWH, because we are of it; but ALL of us are sent to gather more to the wedding supper. We must have more workers for the harvest!

In 1 Cor. 9, Paul is telling us we must become "like" the people around us -- that is, "infiltrate" them. This prisoner was dedicated to the Name, the appointed times, and so on; but he could not accept others who were different, even his own wife and child. I wrote to him about this. Even if it takes a lifetime, our place on this Earth is to help those who need us the most. It is NOT our mission to group together only with others who already follow and understand; we are SENT to help those being called-out.

I am sometimes criticized for the type of people I attract as my clientele -- the customers who come into my store are often adulterers, drug-addicts, alcoholics, thieves, liars, -- you know; REGULAR PEOPLE. But, I have been sent to them. From this number of sinful people, Yahshua is calling forth Children of YHWH. I understand Paul, because I am sent to the same kind of people -- all kinds. I talk to observant Yahudim who don't know that Mashiach has come. They are "under the law", which according to Deut. 28-30 only promises blessings for obedience, and curses for disobedience. Paul sees this as very narrow with his eternal perspectives, given to him by the New Covenant. Paul has much to teach us all, but sadly few seem to understand him -- that's why Peter warned us in his letter about misinterpreting Paul "lawlessly". While we put forth our greatest efforts to meet with the saved, perhaps we should put forth as much effort to reach the lost. As seen today, the "2-tiered system" of pastor/flock is a remnant of centuries of human control. Often only one or two are ever heard speaking in assemblies. We must not remain stagnant, frozen pew-sitters. Most of us must become teachers ourselves, and become like our teacher. We need pastors, but this is not to say a pastor will rule over us for all our lives. Some of us must become pastors, evangelists, teachers, healers, givers, etc., these are “gifts” for the Body, and to the Body, which is served by all of us. This “Body” is Yahushua’s Bride -- and many of them are waiting to hear from us. (The “givers” should carefully read 2 Cor. 8:3-4: “For I testify that according to their ability, and beyond their ability they gave of their own accord, begging us with much entreaty for the favor OF PAR-This idea continues in v. 14, “At this present time your abundance being a SUPPLY FOR THEIR WANT, that their abundance (one day) also may become a supply for your want, that there may be equality.” This “support” was for those saints in dire NEED.)

At our meetings, we should let the Spirit of Yahushua speak to the group through whoever can give a teaching. You can plan a lecture topic, then the BODY of believers should ALL have the opportunity to speak, as Paul directed us. Note: 1 Cor. 14:26 states, “When you assemble, EACH ONE has a psalm, HAS A TEACHING, HAS A REVELATION, has a TONGUE, has an INTERPRETATION.” This does not sound like one man dominating the group — the Spirit of Yahushua uses each one to speak to the Body!

I’ve found that the smaller the study group is, the better. Some things may come up that everyone needs to hear, but no one saw coming. The Spirit uses His Body to speak to us, so we should not imitate the Nicolaitans by just having one person’s voice still everyone else’s. It seems that many Natsarin focus on finding others to meet with, which is of course great; however our MAIN objective is to carry the message to the lost. Our meetings should encourage us, and we should gain instruction in how to accomplish our real goal -- reaching others, and immersing them. Remember, this is for ALL of us to do, not just a “leader”.

The students of Yahushua took 3 1/2 years to get the basics. He left us so that He could live in all of us -- and we should listen to Him, and let Him use us to reach those who would otherwise never hear the Truth. We are sent to the lost -- so let’s not turn our backs on those we were sent to. Let him use you to perfect and call-out His Bride. Take Paul’s advice, and become “as” an unbeliever, in order to save some of them. As you get nearer to the “finish-line”, you should be less critical of those you see just starting out across from you on the path.

“Be wise as serpents, but harmless as doves”. “If you abide in My Word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free.” -- Yahuchanon 8:31,32.

The reason I did this research was to find out why there were so many hidden, mysterious things about religion, and to learn why Christian "faith" and Paganism were so closely aligned. It all seemed like such a paradox! My hope is you won’t do as so many have, but stay where you were planted. Most who learn the Truth flee their surrounding friends, loved ones, and congregants; because they can’t "relate" anymore. Some even wish to leave their spouse. But it is to these very people we are sent. The Truth will drive away the darkness, but if you shine it so as to blind them, they will have no part of you. You must just let an illuminating glow emanate, and then only when someone is interested in learning more. They only learn when they want to. It may take a lifetime for some, while others soak up the Truth like a sponge. Some will base what they choose to believe on a previous paradox they couldn’t find any way of resolving, like where Cain could find a wife, or how the Great Deluge could have been global in scope. Within my own family, one of the dearest people to me was told that Constantine wrote the Scriptures, and this has caused a great barrier for any Truth to get through. I wonder how Constantine managed to stash those old scrolls in the hills of the Dead Sea, don’t you? It was probably not an easy trick to get them into synagogues all over the world either. The point is, we all have to face people who need us, but we must be discerning, patient, and not judgmental. Believe it or not, you can live in the same house with someone who celebrates Halloween, Easter, and Christmas. It’s your endurance that is put to the test, not theirs. Benjamin Franklin wrote, “you can catch more flies with honey than with vinegar.”

Leaving Babylon is a spiritual journey, not a physical one. Behind Nimrod is Shatan, and all his lying wonders are deceiving the whole world. You may have a bath towel with a sun on it. If it has a face, it’s Nimrod. The Orientals who honor the Dalai Lama or the “child of the sun” are also trapped in worshipping Nimrod. Nimrod is represented in many ways — eagles, gold balls, obelisks, steeples, cruxes, the Christmas Tree, Santa, the eye on the pyramid; and together with his mother, Semiramis, the whole world is caught up in witchcraft.
Resources and Materials

The Truth is the Torah, the Word of Yahweh. Torah means “teaching”. Everything needed is there. To show yourself approved, study it. It’s your sword, and your dedication to it will shield you. “To the Torah and the Testimony! If they do not speak according to this Word, they have no light of dawn.” – Yesha Yahu (Isaiah) 8:20. “If you continue in My Word, then are you My disciples indeed; and you shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free.” Yn.8:32. Truth has stumbled in the street (Commandments).

CBD carries Philo (#75931) and Josephus (#73868), as well as the Jewish New Testament, Greek Interlines, and the “Pseudepigrapha”, containing the books of Enoch, Jubilees, etc… In my research, I also used Hendrickson’s Interlinear Hebrew-Aramaic-Greek-English Bible, as well as all these resources mentioned.

You can order the books of Enoch (mentioned at Gen. 4:17, 5:18, Heb. 11:5, Jude 14) as well as the books of Jubilees and Yasher from American Archives, POB 21, Dept. G-3, Keene, TX 75059.

PLEASE PRAY ALWAYS FOR THE TRUTH, THE ELDRS, AND THE PEACE OF YERUSHALIYIM. MAY RABBI YAHUSHUA BLESS YOU AND YOURS. SHALOM!

“Future generations will be told about hwhy — they will proclaim His righteousness (Torah) to a PEOPLE YET UNBORN — for He has done it.” Ps. 22:30,31.
Wreaths, branches, boughs, and trees were originally used to worship the sun at the winter solstice, known as the "re-birth" of the unconquered sun. Nimrod of Babylon, slain by Shem, began to be worshipped as the sun, and branches of trees represented him as the reborn Tammuz — that’s why wreaths are round. They were absorbed or "inculturated" by Christendom. Tammuz’ mother (Semiramis) was later worshipped as Mother Nature, under various names like Ishtar, Easter, Ashtar, Astoreth, Asherah, Astarte, Artemis, Eastre, Nana, Nut, Frigga, Gaia, Maia, and many others. The hearth was the Pagan Roman family’s place of worship, because fire was associated with the Sun, and thought to be sacred. In this book, you will find out who Santa Claus is too.

Most people don’t think for themselves. They don’t ask for evidence, look too closely, or ask questions. They just “believe” everything. “The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.” ~ Prov. 14:18. 14:15 says, A simple man believes anything; but a prudent man gives thought to his steps.”

DANGER!

READING THIS BOOK COULD ALTER YOUR BELIEFS ABOUT THE CREATOR AND HIS PLAN FOR YOUR LIFE.

The fake name of the Mashiach, “JESUS”, is a Greco-Romanism, and means absolutely nothing in Hebrew. If it were a “translation”, then it could be “re-translated” back to Hebrew. When taken back to the Greek, it means “hey-Zeus”, or “hail Zeus”. Since the closest word to “sus” in Hebrew is “soos”, it means “horse”. Zeus is depicted as a Centaur, and this half-man, half-horse is found in Babylonian Astrology in the constellation Sagittarius. Sus in Latin means PIG. In this book, you will discover the true Name by which we must be saved, which is:

Yahushua, meaning “YAH is our salvation”. Many things have been concealed from us. In order to control people, those in authority tortured and executed millions of innocent people over many centuries. Now, in the fullness of time, all that was concealed and done in secret is laid bare in a logical framework. The motive: TO MISDIRECT WORSHIP TO THE ADVERSARY, by way of Fossilized Customs!
CARRYING MONEY ON SHABBAT?

Let's put on our thinking caps. Many of us have been taught conflicting things over the years, and steered into outcomes that benefited those who were doing the teaching. We know that the average Torah-observant person over the centuries would not carry something on Shabbat that required both hands, and walk around the town with it. Neither would they have a money bag hanging from their cloak-belt, jangling all over the place on Shabbat -- this would give the "appearance" of having just sold something, or the intention of going out to buy something. Even the giving of alms would cease on Shabbat. The beggars would have to take the day off from begging, no one would be carrying money anyway.

So, how is it that there are "collections" taken in to support the teachers (and calling them "tithes") on Shabbat? Going into an orthodox synagogue on a Shabbat might underscore my point here. If you asked the people there, "When's the collection to be taken?", you'd get some funny looks. It is not a custom, nor has it ever been, for observant Yahudim to carry even one coin with them on Shabbat. This illuminates the passage of 1 Cor. 16:1-5, where Paul writes concerning the "collections" for the set-apart ones (the poor Yahudim in Yerushaliyim like widows, and fatherless children):

(1 Cor. 16:1-5): "On the first day of the week, let each one of you set aside, storing up whatever he is prospered, SO THAT THERE ARE NO COLLECTIONS WHEN I COME."

Contrary to popular interpretation, this "first day of the week" collection was not a permanent policy, but was just to be done up until Paul passed through on his way to Yerushaliyim. Nor was it because "Sun-day" was a "meeting day", or the "new Sabbath" of believers. It was an organized way to prepare for Paul's arrival, that's all, and was for THE POOR. It was done on the "first day of the week" because Paul knew they wouldn't be carrying money with them on Shabbat. Christians (led in the ways of the Chaldeans) have had the basket-passing method conducted in their assemblies for centuries, done on the man-made "Sabbath" called Sun-day, and everyone who drops something into the basket is basically shamed into it -- everyone is watching around them. Many "Messianic" groups do this also, or provide a box for it. This is not intended to judge individuals who have been doing this to the flock, but rather to point it out, de-program our habits, and restore a more scriptural method. It should be apparent that our "assembling together" shouldn't cost us anything. Teaching the Torah for pay is also not to be done. Teach harp, harmonica, architecture, geometry, or square-dancing if you want to support your family; not Torah.

You may have heard the excuses about the "Sabbath distance" (Acts 1:12), insisting that we MUST assemble even if the distance is greater than 1000 cubits. The saying is, "it is more important that we assemble, so we over-rule the Sabbath-distance to keep the Command to assemble." What Command? Lev. 23 declares convocations "in all our dwellings", not "drive hundreds of miles", or "go find an elder setting up a meeting". We should assemble whenever and wherever we can, sure; especially the 3 appointed times in a year (but a convocation can be just 2 people). Is it possible that the over-ruling of the Sabbath distance principle is taught so that those who have been gathering wealth from the flock can continue to do so? I'm not criticizing, I'm just asking.

If Exodus 35:3 says "You shall not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day", do we just go outside and do it? Of course not. We just obey the Commandment -- and this is decried as "Pharisaical". If we feel "others" are not observing the annual feast correctly, do we run to Yerushaliyim and cut the wave sheaf ourselves, wave it, and do what only the High Priest is to do? Of course not. If Exodus 16:29 says, "Let each one stay in his place, do not let anyone go out of his place on the seventh day", do we ignore this teaching and travel 60 miles? Of course "place" means immediate area, or village. But, if your "village" grows to the size of Los Angeles, can we rely on common sense?

The Body of Yahushua must endorse the decisions reached by the elders, and search out and prove all things. If we cease from carrying money on Shabbat, do you imagine this may be disagreeable to any of the pastors? A pastor who serves without pay is a true pastor, one who cannot be bought. Remember Balaam, the prophet for hire! Reading Acts 20:28-35 carefully may shed a great light on this plundering that has gone on unchecked for centuries.

Speaking to the ELDERS of Ephesus (Acts 20:17), Paul says:

(v.20:28-35): "Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Set-apart Spirit has made you overseers (elders), to shepherd the assembly of Elohim which He has purchased with His own blood. For I know this, that after my departure SAVAGE WOLVES shall come in among you, not sparing the flock. Also from among yourselves men shall arise, speaking distorted teachings, to draw away the taught ones after themselves.

"Therefore watch, remembering that for three years, night and day, I did not cease to warn each one with tears. And now, brothers, I commit you to Elohim and to the Word of His favor, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all those having been set apart. I HAVE COVETED NO ONE'S SILVER OR GOLD OR GARMENTS. And you yourselves know that these hands supplied my needs, and for those who were with me. All this I did show you, by laboring like this, that YOU OUGHT TO HELP THE WEAK. And remember the words of the Master Yahushua, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

Have we ever heard these words used to make you feel we should give more to your pastor? It may not be a very popular message with those making a bundle of easy money from the Body, but the Body needs to know they can now help support the poor in their own families, and it will be a true "tithe". (For further study, see Acts 4:32-35, Romans 15:27, 1 Tim. 5:3-16, James 1:27, 2 Peter 2:3.)

We do many things because it became customary to do them, never knowing about the "law of first discovery". If something is done a certain way, and amended or changed later because there is a better way, fine. But, the original way shouldn't be hidden or covered up. The origin of the word "cop" is an innocent example of doing something, yet very few knowing why. In Chicago, Illinois during the early part of the 20th century, policemen wore uniforms with very large, prominent COPPER buttons. The slang term "coppers" developed from this uniform, and the word was shortened to "cops". When we go back to Scripture and explain the TRUE reasons for things, and not the "invented" interpretations, the messenger of the Truth is often labeled "heretic". Study on your own, and expose the insidious lies to every one around you, but do it with LOVE. All knowledge without love is worthless. A pastor who works "full-time" traveling and teaching the poor wanted to know how he is to receive support. Well, we all aren't called to travel full-time, but brother Paul did it extensively for a while. He claimed he supported himself and those with him at Acts chapter 20, and was not a burden in the least on anyone else -- and speaking to these elders, he told them to imitate his example. So, how do we manage it?

The tithe, or ma'aser, was for the support of the Lewite priests. If we were to continue in that pattern, we'd be amiss in our duty if we couldn't prove we were descendants of the tribe of Levi, and even more so if we didn't continue in all the duties they were obliged to perform. But, in the Brit Chadasha, we are all priests, under our Kohen Gadol, Yahushua. It is not the PERSONAL responsibility of just one individual to go, teach, and immerse others into the Name Yahushua, but each one of us. Our "assembling" is for one reason: "let all things (done in the assembly) be for edification." 1 Cor. 14:26. This means we are to have the ultimate goal of getting "built up" in knowledge, meaning educated. This costs nothing. If we choose to create circumstances that require a huge crowd of us to congregate into a hall and listen to ONE PERSON PREACH, this is man-made situation. Mortgages, rents, utilities, and insurance costs are the result of circumstances we have control over, and we can make them disappear. 1 Cor. 14:26 also says that when we assemble, EACH ONE has a teaching, a prophesy, a message, a tongue, etc., -- and this is evidence that Yahushua has been GAGGED, because traditionally only one man gets to address His assembled Body. Try standing up in one of the Christian meetings, and telling everyone it's your turn to speak, and watch what happens to you. We've been led by the pattern of the Nicolaitans, which goes all the way back to the Chaldean priests.

How each of us gets out there and spreads the message of the Reign of YHWH, immersing others into the Name of Yahushua, should be facilitated by the specific GIFT we have been given by Yahushua's Spirit, not molded after a man-made technique, or one we've just cooked up by ourselves. The poor who receive sustenance through the social security and welfare programs in place will hear the message, because it will be carried to them for free as we learn to get out of Yahushua's way and let Him do His wonderful work. He is working in many others besides ourselves.

It isn't my personal responsibility to abandon earning a living so I can specialize in going into poor neighborhoods and little rural pockets of the world. I have to rely on the ability of the Message reaching them through the power of Yahushua’s Spirit, by teaching the pure truth of the message, so it will be able to be CONVEYED THROUGH MANY OTHERS. Just because I know the message does not entitle me to a permanent "donation" from all the other believers who also know the message. We share a common responsibility, and the "pastors" who from time-to-time travel and visit distant places should be housed and fed by the brothers at their destination, but they must not be an undue burden, or over-stay their welcome. I know well the costs involved in printing, and I also buy gasoline. But, I also know I must work to earn the money to pay for these things, and not be a burden on those who would otherwise be led to give me 10% of their hard-earned incomes, for the rest of their natural lives.

My advice is, get a paying job; and discern how to teach and immerse others with the special gift you have received from the Spirit, and serve the Body of Yahushua properly. In the final outcome, much more can be accomplished. If we don’t know what the "New Covenant" is, then we should learn what it is, and then go forth to teach it to those around us. It will spread on its own, like fire in dry grass, if we only teach it. People will believe it much more readily when its free, as it should be. We labor in the harvest not with our money, but with our personal efforts to reach those lost around us. We don’t have to travel to find them, but the message itself will. Stand still, and watch YHWH win the battle. "Not by power -- not by might -- but by My Spirit" - declares YHWH. We don’t know where the wind comes from, nor where it will go, and the Spirit is like that -- and the Message will go wherever the Spirit goes.

From: Sunday Law Countdown: South Dakota Latest State To Endorse Ten Commandments Version Change (quoted text follows):
[ * ]  During the legislative process the South Dakota Senate has followed the state house’s lead and approved a bill that would permit the commandments to be posted in public schools...The bill says the words of the Ten Commandments may be displayed along with other objects and documents of natural, legal or historical significance...No word on whether South Dakota Governor Bill Janklow intends to sign it. * Now, a very interesting thing happened with this bill during the legislative process. In the South Dakota bill HB 1261 introduced to the House 01.21.2000, "the version of the Ten Commandments to be displayed was recorded in the Old Testament of the Bible" (cited from the bill) - which would be the correct version, having both the Second Commandment intact and the Fourth Commandment about the Seventh-Day Sabbath with full text. BUT THEN SOMETHING HAPPENED. When the bill came to the State Affairs Committee, the bill text was totally changed and the reference to the Old Testament was deleted! Now why would such a thing happen? To permit display of the changed version of the Ten Commandment law of (God)? To avoid using the correct version which mentions the Seventh-Day Sabbath, thus giving honor to the Sabbath? (Added 02.25.2000) [CBN Now HB 1261 bill status HB 1261 bill text introduced HB 1261 bill text] enrolled Changed Ten Commandments now considered by Colorado legislature: From the bill SB114: "Each school district shall post in every public school classroom and in the main entryway in every public school a durable and permanent copy of the Ten Commandments as specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection...The text here used is a compromise version developed by interfaith scholars..." - and then follows a version of the Ten Commandments where the Second Commandment about the worshipping of images is left out, and the Fourth Commandment about the Sabbath day (now third) is heavily changed - the portion of the Sabbath day being the seventh day is totally left out. Thus the change made to this sacred Law of (God) by the Catholic Church is honored and support is given to the false Sabbath day, the heathen day of worship and feasting and celebration, SUNDAY - and the posting of this CATHOLIC INSPIRED DOCUMENT is now even in the process of becoming LAW, backed by RAW STATE POWER, in several states nationwide. Its time to Wake Up America! This has been prophesied! (Added 02.16.2000) ] [ (quoted as sent by e-mail.) If you read the full text of the 4th Commandment from Exodus 20, it becomes apparent that this “Sabbath” of rest doesn’t honor the day, but rather the Creator, YHWH. By entering into His rest, we show Him that we honor Him as our Creator, and so this weekly commemoration of the Creation sets us apart from all other people. We are Israel, and all those who join to us by engrafting will inherit great reward - but we will suffer incredible hardships from the attacks of the evil one who hates us, and leads the whole world astray. A big clue is given to us:

"And the woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the Earth." – Rev. 17:18. Can you figure it out?

The very CENTER of the Scriptures is the verse at Psalm 118:8: “It is better to take refuge in YHWH than to trust in man.” And yet trusting in man's religious designs is what is most commonly done. Psalm 118 contains this phrase 3 times: "In the Name of יהוה יהושע you will surely cut them off." And, it contains the phrase Yahushua told us we would say before we would see Him again: "Baruch haba baShem יהוה" The "LIE" has become the thing that is believed by most in today's Christian denominations. It is taught that a person will still enter the Kingdom, and have a close relationship with יהוה, without having to obey His Covenant marriage vows, because "they believe" that Yahushua's death paid for all their sins; past, present, and future! We're talking about DELIBERATE sins. Their consciences have become "seared", because even though they may be confronted with a specific marriage vow / Commandment, they will tell you it was "nailed to the cross". Once in the re-newed Covenant, a believing follower has no interest in sin, because they now walk in the mind of the Spirit. They have received a love for the Torah. A repentant person turns away from what is offensive to their Maker, which includes Pagan customs; they don't return to their sin as a washed pig returns to a mud puddle. "Do we then nullify the Law through faith? May it never be! The contrary, we establish the Law." — Romans 3:31.

What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace might increase? May it never be! How shall we who died to sin still live in it? — Romans 6:1-2.

So, you stop celebrating birthdays, Christmas, Easter, and stay home and rest on Shabbat, teaching your children the WAY (Torah). Then, a close relative wants to bring a cake to your house for one of your children's birthdays, and celebrate with them (gross idolatry). This is where the rubber meets the road: do you love יהוה more than your parents, brothers, and sisters? They may remain unconverted in their hearts, and don't even begin to understand why you've changed so. They may blame this book; or claim you have become involved in a cult. Don't expect them to understand, because the unconverted human is hostile toward יהוה — "For those who are according to the flesh set their mind on the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. (The Commandments are spiritual). For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace, BECAUSE THE MIND SET ON THE FLESH IS HOSTILE TOWARD ELOHIM; for it does not SUBJECT ITSELF TO THE LAW OF ELOHIM, for it is not even able to do so. And those who are in the flesh cannot please Elohim."

"However, you are NOT IN THE FLESH, but IN THE SPIRIT, if indeed the Spirit of יהוה dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Mashia'h, he does not belong to Him." (Note here, that the "Spirit of Elohim" is synonymous with the "Spirit of Mashia'h" — so Yahushua IS ELOHIM, and He is the "Spirit"— and יהוה IS ONE יהוה. There is no other elohim with Him).

And if Mashia'h is IN YOU, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the spirit (of the individual) is alive because of righteousness. But if the Spirit of Him who raised Yahushua from the dead DWELLS IN YOU, He who raised Mashia'h Yahushua from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who indwells you." Romans 8:5-11 (read context, because Paul is explaining how the New Covenant actually works in chapters 6, 7, and 8 of Romans)

Look at it like this; if I am trying to trick you, and I am really doing the bidding of the adversary, would I be trying to point you in the direction of obedience so that you will be condemned? Or, maybe it can be said that now obeying the Commandments will get us into trouble with He who gave these Commandments! I will tell you this: even if a servant obeys out of fear, not love, his master will not punish him. But, we have received love, not fear! Now, we can obey in the renewed Covenant, having Yahushua's Spirit within us, having His Torah written on our HEARTS. The same vows (Commandments) will stand forever and ever, because they reflect the personality of יהוה. It is WE who have changed.

It is not widely known, but only Yahushua's BRIDE will be raised and live during the 1000 years after His return to rule Earth: "The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection." (read Rev. 20:4-6). This will possibly occur at "midnight", due to the passages of the parables referring to "watching", a thief in the night, the returning master, two lying in a bed, and the Bridegroom coming at the midnight cry. Some believe it will be on the first day of Sukkot, or Yom Kippur (the Fast, Acts 27:9); making it obvious who those are who are "watching" (or observing) His appointments carefully. When He has finished sealing His 144,000 Natsarim with His Name, watch out — and this sealing is going on right now. Repent, or perish. Inventing new reasons for Pagan customs and observances may conceal their character to most of mankind, but this is a wake-up call to those lost sheep who hear their...
Shepherd’s voice beckoning them to return to His flock. His Voice sounds different than human tradition’s teachings. If you are being called, your heart recognizes His voice, and you will follow it, and obey it. Hosea 2:16, 17. . . . That you will call Me Ishi (my Husband) and will no longer call Me Baali (my LORD), for I will remove the names of the Baalis from her mouth, so that they will be mentioned by their names NO MORE.” Many will someday know His Name, take His Name, and realize we’re His WIFE, and stop the “my LORD” nonsense. How did He know? He dwells in infinity, and the future and the past are all before His eyes. The knowledge of the Truth has been kept from us, because the adversary has kept us from learning anything from his masquerading messengers of light. “My people are destroyed for LACK OF KNOWLEDGE. Because you have rejected knowledge (of His Torah, Word, Will), I also will reject you from being My priest. Since you have forgotten the Torah of your Elohim, I also will forget your children.” Hos.4:6.

Ephraim, tribes of Israiel, RETURN!! You are the prodigal son. You have left your Father’s House (the Torah), and gone to distant lands, and worshipped false gods according to the Gentiles / Goyim. Now you are aware that you are sitting in a pig pen, eating (worshipping) with pigs; you yearn for the food (Torah) of your Father’s House, don’t you? RETURN!! Rise up, start on your journey home, to your Father. He will see you coming from afar off, and run to you. He will tell your older brother (Yahudah, the “Jews”) who never left Him why He drew you home, and why He celebrated because of your return:

“But he answered and said to his Father, ‘Look! For so many years I have been serving you, and I have never neglected a Command of yours; and yet you have never given me a kid, that I might be merry with my friends; but when this son of yours came (Ephraim, the lost tribes who return), who has devoured Your wealth with HARLOTS (false idols, Pagan customs), You killed the fattened calf for him.’

“And He said to him, ‘My child, you have always been with Me, and all that is Mine is yours. But we had to be merry and rejoice, for this brother of yours was DEAD, and is now ALIVE; and was LOST, and has been FOUND.’” — Luke 15:29-32. And you didn’t suspect you’d ever see yourself written about in Scripture, did you?

Paul was overwhelmed with grief after his conversion, and lived with a pain he called a “thorn.” Most likely this thorn was the daily knowledge that he had hunted down Natsarim and caused them to be put to death because they pronounced the Name. What else could be worse, bad eyesight? He then spent the rest of his life in the flesh spreading the Name and the message of the Reign of YHVH.

SABBATH’S DISTANCE — how many are there one?

First, let me say that meeting together with other saints is very important, for edification; this little study brings up points on how we have been used in a power-play by ravenous wolves who have enslaved our minds with deceptions.

There is not a specific Shabbat “distance” in Torah as a Commandment to keep, however we are specifically told to “stay in our place” on Shabbat (Ex. 16:29). This means your “vicinity”. Consider that we’re not to ride on our animal, because the Commandment says not to make our animals work in any way. The providing of the manna in the wilderness was used to teach Israel how to observe Shabbat, which they had not done during their 430-year captivity in Egypt / Mitzraim. Manna is Hebrew, meaning “what is it?”

Concerning the gathering of manna, the camps of Israel had to walk some distance away to find enough to eat for the day; it wasn’t just lying around a few feet from their tents / sukkot. Look closely at this passage:

“See, YHVH has given you the Sabbath; therefore He gives you bread for two days on the sixth day, REMAIN EVERY MAN IN HIS PLACE; LET NO MAN GO OUT OF HIS PLACE ON THE SEVENTH DAY.” Ex. 16:29.

This text spells out the fact that there is no reason for us to have to GO anywhere on Shabbat. Neither is there any Command for everyone “gathering to hear the Torah” every week. Although the English word “convocation” is used in reference to weekly and certain annual Sabbaths, the Hebrew word is “MIQRA” (#4744, from #7121) and comes from the root word “QARA” (#7121), to call, ANNOUNCE, or proclaim. This root word has no use or meaning of “gathering together” whatsoever. It can mean cry, shout, dictate, or call. (I’m sorry if this sounds like “pontificating”). A “gathering” or “council” is the Hebrew word “SOD” (#5475). To assemble is the Hebrew word QABATS (#6906). The Hebrew word “YAAD” (#3259) is used at Numbers 10:3, and is specifically a summoned gathering -- a meeting together -- and this was for the leaders of the congregation to come together to prepare to set out. None of these words meaning “to meet together” are used in association with how to observe Shabbat. I thought this was odd, considering how we’re programmed, but it started to make sense.

Of course Shabbat is a day to read Torah, WAST TILL YOU GET A LOAD OF THIS . . . .
but even this is not a commanded activity. However, common sense should prevail so that if we find ourselves needing to go on a long journey to be "with others", we've missed the point — the command is to have a MIQRA QODESH, a set-apartment proclaiming (to "rest" is what is to be proclaimed). It was Rabbi Yahushua's custom to go to the synagogue on Shabbat, or even go to the Temple on a daily basis. Within the walls of Yerushaliyim, the largest community in the land, one could easily go from one end of it to the other in hardly any time; certainly within a distance not considered to be a journey. His hometown was considerably smaller. YHWH's Temple is to be a "house of prayer" — and we are told to "pray without ceasing"; this is because WE ARE THE TEMPLE OF YHWH, Yahushua's Body. The physical Temple was symbolic for Yahushua, which makes His "play-on-words" even more interesting: "Destroy this Temple, and in 3 days I will raise it up." — Yn. 2:19. We really don't have to go very far to be in His presence at all. Pastors call the buildings they have "services" in our vicinity. Since we cannot find a solid SECOND witness from Scripture that would restrict our general movements on our day of rest, there is the possibility that one would not be in error for exceeding 1000 cubits, except that Luke did mention a "Sabbath's distance". But, consider that 3 TIMES in Lev. 23 the phrase "in all your dwellings" is used in reference to how to observe various Sabbaths. It doesn't say "in all your gatherings". I've walked 1000 cubits on certain Sabbaths to attend baseball games my younger son played one summer. Getting there and back was a chore, especially in the hot sun! I know people today who drive 60 miles one-way each Shabbat to get to the assembly of their choice. This is almost like driving from Nazareth to Jerusalem in Israel. (OK, that may be 83 miles). Not to judge anyone, we're just discussing all this. Conservatively, I would rather teach someone to focus on RESTING primarily each Shabbat; and if I am wrong, I will be corrected in the resurrection of the saints. If, on the other hand, I teach everyone to travel to get to an assembly each Shabbat, I feel I will receive greater correction if I am wrong about that. I would rather see a person sleep all day on Shabbat, and get some serious rest! After all, the reason there was a double-portion of manna provided on the sixth day was to eliminate the gathering, and the need to go anywhere -- "Let no man go out of his place on the seventh day." If you have a small group that can get together each Shabbat where each of the people reside within a reasonably close proximity, that's marvelous! Like Yahushua said, two or more gathered together in His Name is all it takes to listen to Him speak through us; and each one should be able to speak (1 Cor. 14:26). Then there are the 3 annual "pilgrimage" festivals. Yahushua told the woman of Shomeron at the well, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you shall neither on this mountain, nor in Yerushaliyim, worship the Father." Yn. 4:21. We are commanded to come up to only Yerushaliyim for the place of worship in Scripture; but the day has come that all we can do is observe the TIME where we are; and these times are shadows of things coming. Today, believers pass each other on interstates going in opposite directions, to get to the assembly "sites" of their choice, and sincerely believe this is obeying the Commandment. Then they pour out their cash as an offering to those throwing the bash. Please don't read into this any condemnation; but if I report this in a neutral way, it just comes out sounding like a set-up every time. We all desire to get to the root of things, and want the Truth — even if it hurts.

The bottom line is, we have been led to believe that we must "assemble" each and every Shabbat, simply based on the word MIQRA -- and then we have been taught to "tithe" to the men who have taught us to come to these assemblies. It feels like a set-up to me, since there is no example in Scripture of an assembly on a Shabbat where money was poured into baskets that were raked over the crowds. I think the thrust of the Commandment is to rest, and to stay in our immediate vicinity. One could just as easily say that Hebrews 10:26 is only "one witness" in Scripture speaking of the "assembling together" of ourselves; and I'm certainly not encouraging such disunity, although I'm simply pointing out that it is not commanded to do so as we have inherited the pattern.

I'd love to hear anyone's ideas on this topic, because I can't imagine anything in the Commandment that supercedes the Command to rest. Failing short of the Command would have more to do with NOT RESTING, than NOT ASSEMBLING, it would seem. Oops — I think my eyes rolled a little there. Hebrews 4:11 tells us to be diligent to enter His REST, not diligent to scurry down the road to meet anyone. (Now, smile sideways like this: :-}) The Command to "assemble" may be only an interpretation, but even if it is accurate, it's hard to picture the effort to assemble could negate the importance of resting. This will not be very popular with those engaged in looting the flock, will it? When Yahushua stood up to read in the synagogue, there were no collections made. People today who sell books and videos on Shabbat in Scripture, and they certainly aren't buying and selling. No donations were ever made on Shabbat in Scripture, and they certainly aren't today in orthodox synagogues. If what I am teaching on this is true, and I believe it is, then the plundered should feel that the Truth has set them free; but the plunderers will be greatly disturbed. All the "good works" like "tithing" on Sun-day will be stubble, burned-up like hay; it will do no good to pay a pastor to do what you were supposed to be doing, at no cost. Why waste your money on what is not bread? (See Yesha Yahu 55, Micah 3:11; also, read Acts 20:17-38 carefully, where Paul met with the elders at Ephesus).

Think of how Yahushua drove out the men who had turned His Temple into a house of merchandise, and then picture in your mind the baskets of cash passing around in the assemblies. LORD owns quasars, galaxies, and can create universes out of nothing — does He really need our cash? The offering to Him was to be received by the poor, Levite, widow, and fatherless; and this should not be intercepted by anyone posturing themselves to receive it instead. If you give your money to me, an elder called to serve and teach, are you giving it to LORD? "He who shows favour to the poor lends to LORD." — Pr. 19:17. So, if I am poor, unable to work, then YES you can give to Him by giving to me. Objectively, it would seem we have reconstructed some new form of artificially created house of merchandise all over again. This situation is the sustaining economic power-plant that gives life to the beast system in place. The great prostitute lives luxuriously, while spewing poisonous lies across the whole Earth. Come out of her, My people; the great prostitute must pay for her sins — drinking from her poisoned cup (false teachings) has made most of the world drunk (numb to Truth). Please wake up. Wormwood represents "poisoned water", which you will soon see. The Living Water, the Torah (and by association, the Spirit of Mashiach), has been tainted with deadly teachings mixed into it by human traditions and interpretations for centuries. By all means MEET TOGETHER when you can do so -- but watch out for the ravenous wolves who try to control the gatherings. They are the source of the poisoned waters, the wormwood, the lies.

Take away the money, and the pastors who remain are not masquerading — they seek a reward that thieves cannot steal. Think about it — have you helped your pastor build bigger barns to store up his wealth? Are you such a pastor? Micah 3:11 is clear. When Rabbi Ya-hushua exposed the corruption of His day, the corrupt men plotted to kill Him. Today, it is a printing press they will have to stop, or they must somehow manage to outlaw Truth.

ONLY A PROPHET?

"Take courage, My son, your sins are forgiven." — Mt. 9:2. Yahushua spoke these words to a paralyzed young man. What prophet was given the authority to forgive sins? Can Michael or Gabriel do this? Azazel?

To cover sins, the blood of animals was used as atonement (kaphar). This blood is life, given on the altar, and it was offered in place of the life of the person who sinned. Who was it that decided when sins were covered? Only YHWH can forgive sins, and He gave this authority to His Son. Who came and spoke to us in the authority of YHWH, not the authority of a prophet. Many don't yet know Who Yahushua really is. All the Scriptures are about Him. He is the Living Waters. The following is a very special article written by a sister in Arizona, named Mary Lou Frommert, and she points out many Scriptures that show that Yahushua is the Living Waters that came down to us. She also explains “wormwood” using Scripture:

LIVING WATERS

Our Messiah Yahushua said He is the Living Waters springing up into everlasting life at Yn. 4:10-14. Yirme Yahu 17:13 states: “Those who depart from Me shall be written in the Earth, because they have forsaken Yahusha, the fountain of living waters.”

Yirme Yahu 21:3: “For My people have done two evils; they have forsaken Me, the fountain of living waters, to hew out for themselves cisterns; cracked cisterns, which do not hold water.”

Yn. 3:5: “Yahushua said, ‘Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he is unable to enter into the reign of Elohim.’”

We must be born of the Spirit and of His Water, His Living Waters — look at Ps. / Tehillim 1, and 36:8,9. It speaks of being filled with His Word, His Word is His Water, and we are washed clean by His Word. 1Cor. 10:4: “All drank the same spiritual drink, For they all drank of that spiritual Rock that followed, and the Rock was Messiah.” Ibrim / Hebrews 10:22: “Let us draw near with a true heart in completeness of belief, having our hearts sprinkled from a wicked conscience and our bodies washed with clean water.” We must let Him wash us with the water of His Word. Ephesians 5:26: “Husbands love your wives, as Messiah also did love the assembly and gave Himself for it, in order to set it apart and cleanse it with the washing of water by the Word.” There it is; this is what our Messiah does for us His bride — Yn. 1:12: “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with Elohim, and the Word was Elohim. He was in the beginning with Elohim.”

Now I will show you what Yahusha has given me about His Word becoming Wormwood. Wormwood is already here, and it has been here poisoning our spiritual waters from Yahushua.

Yirme Yahu 9:12b-15: “Why has the land perished, has it been burned up like a wilderness, with none passing through? And Yahusha says, ‘Because they have forsaken My Torah which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice, nor walked according to it, but they have walked according to the stubbornness of their own heart and after the Ba’ais, which their fathers had taught them.’ Therefore thus says Yahusha of hosts, the Elohim of Yisrael, ‘See, I am making this people eat wormwood, and I shall make them drink poisoned water.’”

Yirme Yahu 23:11: “For both prophet and priest have become defiled. Even in My House I have found their evil,’ declares Yahushua. Therefore thus said Yahusha of hosts concerning the prophets, ‘See, I am making them eat wormwood, and shall make them drink poisoned water.”’

Amos 5:7: “O you who are turning right — ruling to wormwood, and have cast down righteousness to the Earth!”

Rev. 8:10,11: “And the third messenger sounded, and a great star fell from the heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on third of the rivers and on the fountains of water, and the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third of the waters became wormwood, and many died from the waters, because they were made bitter.”

Daniel 8:9-12: “And from one of them came a little horn which became exceedingly great toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the Splendid Land. And it became great up to the host of the heavens. And it caused some of the host and some of the stars to fall to the Earth, and trampled them down. It even exalted itself as high as the Prince of the host. And it took that which is continual away from Him, and threw down the foundation of His set-apart place. And because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose that which is continual. And it threw the Truth down to the ground, and it acted and prospered.”

Now please look with your eyes open and see that Wormwood has been with us since the Truth of Yahusha’s (and Yahushua’s) true Name was cast down. When the Law — the Torah — was cast down, these were some of the stars that fell and were trampled down; and we have drank the poisoned waters of lies of Wormwood. Many men have died drinking from the wrong spiritual waters. Everyone is waiting for our natural water to turn poisoned, and I’m sure they will soon; but let us also see that Wormwood is already here, and has been here for many, many years. Let each of us turn, repent, and seek Yahushua to show us His pure Waters; His Word, His Truth. Let us drink only pure Truth in these days of darkness all around us.

Yesha Yahu 7:14: “Therefore Yahushua Himself gives you a sign; Look, a virgin shall conceive and bear a Son and shall call His Name Immanuel.”

Luke 1:30-35: “The messenger said to her, ‘Do not be afraid Miryam, for you have found favour with Elohim.’ And see, you shall conceive in your womb, and shall give birth to a Son, and call His Name Yahushua. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Most High. And Yahushua Elohim shall give Him the throne of His father Dawid. And He shall reign over the house of Ya'aqob forever and there shall be no end to His reign. And Miryam said to the messenger, ‘How shall this be, since I do not know a man?’ And the messenger answering, said to her ‘The Set-apart Spirit shall come upon you and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you. And for that reason, the Set-Apart One Born, of you shall be called: Son of Elohim.’”

Matt 1:25: “Yoseph knew Miryam not until she gave birth to her Son, the first born.”

1 Yohanan 5:6-8: “This is the one that came by water, and blood. Yahushua Messiah, not only by water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness because the Spirit is the Truth. Because there are three who bear witness: the Spirit and the water, and the blood. And the three are in agreement.”

Gen. 4:10: “The voice of your brother’s blood cries out to Me from the ground.”

Gen. 2:24: “Husband and wife became one flesh.”

1 Cor. 6:15-20 talks about our bodies belonging to our Messiah and to flee fornication because it defiles our bodies. Remember in marriage a pure wife will bleed when they become one flesh, and this is why Miryam had to stay pure for the birth of her Son. This beautiful Messiah of ours had to come down out of His mother’s pure womb through a pure passage untouched by a man. The first thing that happened was her water broke, and that had a voice; and then her blood flowed, which was pure and that had a voice; the Spirit bears witness of this in Luke 1:30-35 and Yohanan 5:6-8.

Yohanan 19:30: “So when Yahushua took the sour wine, He said, ‘It has been accomplished!’ And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.”

V. 34: “But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and instantly blood and water came out.”

Our precious Messiah came into this world with the Spirit making Him in a pure womb, and with water and blood; the last thing He did was to leave this world giving us His Spirit, His Water, and His Blood. Let us walk in His Word; the pure water of His Word. Hungry and thirsty for His righteousness and truth, keeping our bodies and minds clean for Him, as we are His Dwelling Place. I encourage you to walk pure and clean for your first love, Yahuaah. Let us not be cracked cisterns that we have made, let us hold His sweet waters. Remember Yaaqob 3:11, “Does the fountain send forth the sweet and the bitter from the same opening?” Let us speak the truth, and live the truth Yahushua has called us to. His Spirit lives in us; His Blood washes away our sins. His Water is His Word we wash ourselves with each and every day. Let us not forsake our Living Waters — אֱלֹהִים. The Spirit, the Water, and the Blood bear witness, and we hear the Truth, and we are free. I leave you with these Scriptures to wash with:

Yeshua Yahu 30: 20, 21; 1 Yn. 2:12-17; Rev. 21:27. We are not written in the Earth as in Yirme Yahu 17:13, but we are written in the Lamb’s Scroll of Life! Praise you, Father אֱלֹהִים, we hear Your Voice! May the favour of our Master Yahushua Messiah be with you.

Shalom — Mary Lou Frommert

Stunning prophetic Truth, I say. She mentioned that “stars” in Revelation represent certain Commandments, caused to fall by a “great horn” (power). Well, Rev. 8:10,11 quoted in her essay mentions a “great star” falling. This is indeed most likely the “Key of Knowledge”, His personal Name! His Name was used in Scripture at least 7,000 times, but taken out completely for some reason. Which Commandment in the “big ten” has the most words? Which Commandment is mentioned throughout Scripture with the most fervor? Which Commandment is mentioned the most times? Overwhelmingly, it is the Sabbath. This single observance will announce to anyone in this world Who you serve. It will “mark” you in their eyes. Most will even say, “are you Jewish?” This “star” is indeed also great, and the “great horn” must be the BEAST. Yes, the beast is here, and will remain until the return of Yahushua.

Often, we can’t see what we’re involved in because we are so close to it all. You’d admit that there is a great deal in human customs that a person could simply not ever be involved in, and still be included in the assembly of the saints, or even the Bride itself, which is a much smaller number.

We have to start at the foundation. We believe in a Creator Being, Who is eternal, and exists outside of time; in infinity. He made all we see and perceive. He told us He is the LIVING WATERS, which metaphorically is His Spirit, but it is also what the Spirit brings to us: His Personality, or teachings, called Torah. All through time, sages have known that the Torah is the Living Waters, the Word of YHWH. Yahushua is called the Living Waters, and the Word, made flesh.

Why don’t we all see things the same?
THAT’S GOING TO LEAVE A MARK

Because something polluted these Living Waters: WORMWOOD. Wormwood is “poisoned waters”, and this is what has been taught, causing men to die (spiritually). The falling star called “Wormwood” took away the Name from us. This is the PRIMARY NUMBER in Babylon, and is a symbol of the “Mark" (see Revelation 13:16). It is idolatry, as Scripture defines as the “Mark of the Beast". The highest sin, the grossest offense to YHWH, is idolatry. Those who practice idolatry are called “heretics”. Those who do not obey the commandments of the Father, by teaching the “circumcising” of humans, and not the circumcision of the heart, are called “heretics". We have to begin by teaching the message (gospel) of the coming kingdom, “Repent, for the reign of YHWH draws near.” (See Mt. 4:17, Mk. 1:14, and other references).

This involves the fundamental process that involves the Kingdom, which CONVICTS EVERY MAN TO BE A SINNER. This will cause wise men to repent. The next step is to teach them how to have a covenant with their Maker, which is their circumcision, called “baptism”. The NEW COVENANT cut in Yeshua’s blood involves His “circumcision” (see Eph. 2:15). There is no other New Covenant, but this one. Romans chapters 6 through 8 explain this. YHWH is much more than a Trinity. Trinitaries are the pattern or paradigm embraced by every Pagan religion on Earth, from Babylonian times forward. YHWH has manifested as a ROCK, a burning BUSH, a MESSENGER (to Joshua and Abram). He wrestled with Ya’aqob. He was in the Shekinah above the Ark of the Covenant (the box which held the marriage covenant with Israel). He spoke as a friend to both Abram and Mosheh at various times, and walked in the garden with Adam and his wife — and yet each of these manifestations were about Yahuah. There is only one Elohim, and His last manifestation was the Son, Yeshua ha Mashia'h of Natsareh (being the product of YHWH’s Spirit and the virginal human woman He chose).

The celebration of birthdays is strictly Pagan, and is only a custom that is preserved carefully because our flesh enjoys it so. Find the birthday celebrations in Scripture, and you will notice calamity surrounds each one. Yyjob (Job) lost all his children while they celebrated “each one on his day”. Surely you can see that the candles, the making of a wish, and the cake (baked for the queen of heaven) is idolatry — the Spirit will reveal this to you. The mark of the beast is very insidious. It is a mark, name, or number. It can be received by being led astray by the “first beast”, which Scripture defines as Babylon. Revelation 13 through 18 will back this up, and as you know, Daniel prophesied FOUR beasts, each one based on the idolatry of the first. The last one will endure until the end (ROME). The highest sin, the grossest offense to YHWH, is idolatry. Whose “mark” we bear identifies us as to whose servant we are. The MARK is not shown to those who lack wisdom — (“My people are destroyed for a lack of knowledge”). The sign of the Everlasting Covenant (remember the marriage vows, the Ten Commandments) is the sign of the 7th day Sabbath of rest. This goes back to Creation, and shows YHWH we are His people. It is our “mark”, showing YHWH we honor Him alone as Creator, by commemorating His work of creating, each 7th day. If we are His, Yahuah’s Spirit is in us, and we show our love for our Husband by our obedience. And this is love: “THAT WE OBEY HIS COMMANDS”. Israel is more than just the “Jews” — they are but one tribe of 12. 10 of the tribes are in the nations, and Yahuah was, and IS being sent to the “lost sheep of the TRIBES of Israel” — through us, today. The manna for 6 days was to RE-TRAIN Israel in the observance of Shabbat. Those being called from the nations are called “Ephraim” at Ez. 37, but are really 10 tribes. The parable of the “prodigal son” is about Ephraim, who is today mostly the Christians. The younger son (the lost 10 tribes) left the Father’s House (His Torah). Upon drifting through the world of darkness, he came to his senses and realized he was living and eating (worshipping) among PIGS (Gentiles). He returned to his Father, and the OLDER brother (the tribe of Yahudah, the Jews) told the Father he had never left, and that he had always obeyed each Command of the Father. The Father explained that “this son of Mine” (the lost 10 tribes) was DEAD, and is now ALIVE”. He was LOST, but is now FOUND.

Israelite, if you return to YHWH, embrace the New Covenant as it is written (not as it is poisoned - the wormwood), you too will see the mark of the beast. It is the mark of the dogs, sorcerers, and all who practice a lie: the SOLAR mark of Babylon: SUN-DAY, established under the penalty of death by Constantine, and enforced by the Inquisition for centuries. They proclaimed Death to back-sliding “Judaizers” — this is the martyring of the saints, which reaches all the way back to Babylon, the great prostitute who has made the whole world drink from the cup of her fornication (false teachings, wormwood, poisoned waters). It’s Sun-day Israelite. I’m so glad you’re interested in the Truth; I hope Yahuah writes His Torah on your heart, and you become a worker. We are labeled a cult because the world is so dark, and getting darker; but we are not. In the past, it was the term “heretic” that enabled Christians to justify burning most of us. The harvest is ripe, but you must first stop fighting against the Torah, and admit you love it. I love it, and so can you if you will ask for a love for it. Show Him you love Him.
“Do not learn the customs of the Gentiles, and do not be awed by the signs of the heavens, for the Gentiles are awed by them. For the prescribed customs of these peoples are worthless, for one cuts a tree from the forest, work for the hands of a craftsman with a cutting tool. They adorn it with silver and gold, they fasten it with hammers so that it does not topple.” — Yerme Yahu 10:2-4.

The customs of the decorated tree in the home originated with Tammuz, led into the groves by his mother Semiramis, to place a gift on or beneath a tree of the forest. This custom was at the time of the sun’s “birth” — the winter solstice, which in the ancient world was our December 25th. The tree was decorated with gifts by the rest of the Pagans, and it represented Nimrod. The custom echoed through the cultures, until at last it found its way to the Celtic Druids, who also worshipped the sun as Baal, among other names. Boniface influenced them to change from the oak tree to the evergreen tree during the 8th century. (See tree, page 3).

We need much more oxygen. Air bubbles preserved in amber (ancient tree sap) contain a 38% oxygen content, indicating that oxygen levels in the ancient world were much, much higher. 50 years ago, our air contained 21% oxygen. In many urban areas now, it is as low as 12%. If it gets near 7%, we all die. No wonder we can’t think — and our school children can’t read. Our gas furnaces use the oxygen from inside our homes to combust the gas, drastically reducing the precious-little oxygen inside. We’re literally causing our own cancers. Get a furnace that uses outside air for combustion, quickly; and take vitamins each day. We have to wise-up to what’s going on. The way we live is harmful to life in many ways, but the decision to change is within the grasp of each of us. Read Yerme Yahu chap. 11, and you will see that we are all the victims of a conspiracy. The conspiracy involves not obeying the Creator, and instead obeying the Pagan customs. I sincerely hope this book has been enriching to your knowledge, and lifted you up to a higher level so that you can see history with more clarity and truth. I’ll see you in the world-to-come!

CANCER EPIDEMIC — Nobel Prize-winning German biochemist Dr. Otto Warburg, in researching into the cause of our world-wide cancer epidemic, has proof that it is largely caused by our increasingly oxygen deficient atmosphere. Evergreens produce oxygen and consume carbon dioxide all-year-round. High CO2 levels cause the green-house effect. If you wanted to cause the most damage possible, you couldn’t improve on the course of action chosen: destroying evergreens by the 100’s of millions each year. And, we are doing it religiously (pun intended). There is no doubt that the adversary is using his scheme to destroy trees in order to cause the maximum damage, and human suffering as well. Imagine how he laughs at our stupidity as he watches the anguish he’s caused; the loss of mothers, fathers, and children to the slow agonizing death of cancer. We’re helping him to destroy the world, and ourselves along with it. With all our pompous sophistication and higher learning, we’re fabulously stupid socially.

IT HAD TO BE DARKENING AS HE DIED

Many of you have wondered why it was required that the Passover Lamb be slain at twilight, “between the evenings”. And, if Yahshua is our Lamb, His death at 3 p.m. seems to be at a strange time of day (only to some), because it was not twilight. But it was. Even though it was a full moon and an eclipse would be impossible, darkness hung over the land for 3 hours — much longer than any eclipse could ever be. YHWH made it happen correctly. It’s wonderful to watch how He works.
CAN WE HEAR THE VOICE OF YAHUSHUA?

In the New Covenant, we have both men and women. Those who belong to Yahushua have His Spirit dwelling in them, and these individuals have experienced having the Covenant (Ten Words) “circumcised” on their hearts. They LOVE the Torah now, having been sealed in their foreheads with the Name of the Father (YHWH), and immersed into the Name of Yahushua, for the forgiveness of their sins. They no longer want to sin. The “Sinai experience” of the giving of the Torah for us is in our hearts, and we obey willingly. We are the Temple, the living containers of the Covenant, as the Ark used to be. It was only a model, or form; we are the reality. It was a throne, or Mercy Seat; Yahushua is now enthroned in our hearts. Any Spirit-filled individual who meets with another one, or several together (2 or more), is in the presence of: Yahushua in their midst.

1 Cor. 14:26 states that when we assemble together, EACH ONE has a teaching, prophecy, tongue, etc... It isn’t to be just one man or woman “ruling” over the people (nicolaistanism).

The “Spirit of prophecy” is the testimony of Yahushua. This phrase from Revelation 19:10 tells us that Yahushua speaks to us THROUGH one another. His voice is uttering prophetic messages to the assemblies all the time, but most of these prophetic utterances are ignored and those speaking them are sometimes disfellowshipped when this happens. An “evangelist” is a bearer of the message of the Kingdom, and they should be aware of what it is: “Repent, for the Reign of YHWH draws near.” It matters not whether the person is a man or woman, and all the esteem and honor goes to the Spirit of Yahushua dwelling in us --

The Law Beside the Ark

You must test everything you hear, to make certain you are not just listening to “winds” -- and you know how they can blow all sorts of doctrines (teachings). Christians have been taught for centuries that the “law” has been done away with, and that we now live under “grace”. This has satisfied theologians and the laity (people) they have lorded-over very well, while none seem to have ever comprehended exactly WHAT the “New Covenant” actually is. The ceremonial laws, which were daily sacrifices pointing to Yahushua’s one-time atoning death, were brought to a crashing halt, since they served as our temporary covering for sin. Daily, weekly, and annually ceremonial laws had to be performed, because they were impermanent. Yahushua’s death ended the need for this ceremonial law. Even the Temple was removed in order to make it all come to an end. There was a change in priesthood also. We became the Temple; and the Torah (The Covenant Law, or Ten Words) was a mundane object by the giving of the Spirit of Truth. Yahushua fulfilled even the “drink offerings” by taking sour wine from a sponge as He hung dying, nailed to wood. Each ceremonial law was hostile to us, while the Commandments could never be hostile to us.

There was a “law” OUTSIDE the Ark, while INSIDE the Ark was the Covenant itself. What was outside the Ark was impermanent, and passing away. Inside the Ark was the Covenant which is a lamp for our feet, and a light for our path. The ceremonial law was placed beside the Ark, not inside it.

Dt. 31:26 states: “Take this book of the law and place it BESIDE the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH your Elohim, that it may remain there as a WITNESS AGAINST you.”

Comparing the above text with Col. 2:14, we can better comprehend which “law” was taken out of the way: “Having cancelled-out the certificate of debt consisting of decrees AGAINST us which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the stake.”

So, we can see there really is a case for a “ceremonial law” that was cancelled-out. This is part of the central misunderstanding of Christianity, keeping people in bondage to sin, since they reject any idea of obedience to Torah. The true New Covenant, having the Torah written on our hearts, can be easily seen when the truth of this misunderstanding is dispelled. The “ceremonial law” was never referred to as “THE COVENANT”, the “Ten Words” which are INSIDE the Ark are the Covenant. These were never “against” us, but are our wedding vows. It is a MARRIAGE COVENANT, between YHWH and the 12 tribes of Israel. Now, in the Brit Chadasha, this Covenant is written (circumcised) on our hearts, so that we LOVE them, and obey willingly: We are now the “Ark” of the Covenant, and represent living stones -- together we are built up as the Temple of YHWH. We are the “New Yerushalayim”, which will come from the skies “adorned as a bride”. The third Temple is built, without hands, and will not be destroyed -- it is us. The Spirit of prophecy is the “testimony of Yahushua”. He speaks to us through one another today. Where every two or more are gathered in His Name, He is there; each individual has a prophecy or teaching. We can hear Yahushua speak.

“Indeed, He will speak to this people through stammering lips and a foreign tongue, He who said to them, ‘here is rest, give rest to the weary’, and ‘here is repose’ - but they would not listen.” Is. 28 (see whole chapter).
The Mystery of Iniquity

RECEIVING A "LOVE FOR THE TRUTH" VS. RECEIVING A "STRONG DELUSION TO BELIEVE THE LIE"

Are the Commandments for Christians? If so, which ones? When ha shatan joined and corrupted “the Church” from within long ago, things became so twisted and confusing that even educated men couldn’t make heads or tails of anything. The article below may help show the opposing perspectives as they exist today between the traditional viewpoints of “the law” and what YHWH really expects. One perspective was sown by an enemy, the other was planted by YHWH. Remember always that the only “law” we are no longer “under” is the ceremonial law of atonements, which was added due to transgressions. It was to come to an end, with Yahushua’s perfect offering of Himself.

MYSTERY OF LAWLESSNESS

We are saved by “grace”, the unmerited loving kindness of YHWH, through (by means of) His gift, our FAITH. The classic argument in favor of lawlessness is that we only have to believe, not obey. Ephesians 2:8-10 is one of Paul’s most misunderstood passages, since it can be interpreted to mean that we not only don’t have to obey, but if we do obey, we are somehow belittling Yahushua’s blood covering our past sinful / law-breaking life, and trying to save ourselves by obedience.

That interpretation results from the way we LOOK at the Scriptures with an “eye filled with darkness”. Looking for excuses to disobey and using Scripture to “prove” such excuses is what Yahushua called having a “dark eye”. In other words, the outcome is resting on how you “see” or interpret the texts. The result? Your whole body is filled with darkness, because you live in disobedience, and your conscience is “seared” -- incapable of convicting you of your sin, because you “believe the lie”.

Our faith is YHWH’s gift to us. We are being saved by the unmerited kindness (grace) of YHWH, THROUGH our faith, which is His gift to us, resulting in our future obedience. Our obedience isn’t what saves us, but it is evidence of our faith, and evidence that we are being saved. Our wills are controlled by the TORAH, or “living Word” -- which is the mind of the Spirit of Yahushua. At 1 John, this Torah is referred to as the “Word” which you heard in the beginning. The “Word” of YHWH is simply His Torah, the Covenant. And, it is an everlasting Covenant, because it defines how His wife is to behave. Acts 5:32 says that the Spirit (of Yahushua) is only given to those who obey Him. This is “receiving a love for the TRUTH”, and since His "WORD", the TORAH, is what TRUTH is, receiving a love for it changes our wills, and the result is we walk in a mind of the Spirit. TORAH is the Hebrew word which specifically refers to the Covenant, or 10 Commandments at Exodus 20. It is also used to generally refer to the 5 books/scrolls of Mosheh (Moses). The Torah’s effect on the world is LOVE for YHWH and others. Rejecting it is hatred, and results in DEATH. Proverbs 1 through 4 calls Torah “her”, and we see she is called “Wisdom”. Proverbs 8 goes into how “Wisdom” is crying out at the doorposts and gates, where we are to WRITE the Commandments (see Deut. 6:4-9). The lie will sound very good: “OBSEDIENCE IS UNNECESSARY” (This is the opposite of the New Covenant).

If we refuse to receive a love for the Truth, His Torah, then He sends us a strong delusion to believe the “LIE” -- that obedience is unnecessary. This is the secret of lawlessness, called the mystery of iniquity. It’s the same trick satan pulled on the woman in the garden of Eden. Simply believing Yahushua died for our sins so that we can continue to disobey and keep on sinning willfully is the very thing Hebrews 10:26-28 directly refutes, as well as the often quoted 10:16,17. First, the message of the Kingdom is: REPENT (stop sinning, and return, turn back to Torah) -- it is a mystery, veiled to those YHWH does not call. This message is the one our Rabbi Yahushua said over and over, and it is what is called “the gospel”. He enables us to love the Commandments by His supernatural power. This is a light yoke, but it comes with worldly costs attached -- persecution for righteousness’ sake. His criticism of those of His religion in that time was only concerning the things that were ADDED by human tradition, He did not found or invent any NEW religion at all. Second, the New Covenant is having the Torah written on our HEARTS, as you will see if you read Jeremiah 31, Hebrews chapters 8 & 10. The same laws (or more accurately "teachings") are written on our hearts by Yahuah's Spirit, enabling us to LOVE them. This is what happened for the first time at "Pentecost". He said, "If you love Me, keep My Commandments". When we are convicted of our sinfulness, we are to repent of our sins, and obey. The Torah (10 Commandments) DEFINE what is a sin, 1 John 3:4. Please read 1 John 3:22-24, and see if anything harmonizes with what we're discussing here.

Try to find in Scripture where "legalism" (according to Torah, not human traditions) is ever a problem for anyone's salvation. Human "legalism" is rampant -- look at "Sun-day". Easter, Christmas, and so on. These things are invented by men, and are not found anywhere in Scripture. If you don't observe them, you're considered strange. They are men's laws, or legalism. It's lawlessness, the ignoring of the Torah, that will condemn us, and this is what satan has been so successful in promoting. My words here are not enough to convince, you must look up the Scriptures I've quoted -- look also at James 1:23, and the entire chapter 2, where "faith" is perfected by "works". We show our faith by our obedience. This is not in conflict with Ephesians 2, because the "gift" is our faith, which enables us to do good works, such as observe the Torah. The unconverted human who is still in the "mind of the flesh" interprets the Scriptures seeking out lawlessness from the dark point of view, and will not submit to the Torah of YHWH, nor can it do so. But, the mind of the Spirit enables us to obey, because we AGREE with the Torah, and love it. I love the Commandments of YHWH, and teach them. Yahushua told us that whosoever keeps and teaches them will be called great in the Kingdom, but whosoever annuls the least of them will be the least. Romans chapters 6 through 8 will explain the New Covenant to you.

The denominations each have their "seminaries" where they train young ministers according to their denomination's LIST OF EXCUSES for NOT OBEYING. Each denomination has their own peculiar list of excuses, and when these excuses are learned well enough by the seminary student, then they are granted their "ordination" to speak for the denomination. When you enter into the New Covenant fully, you will hear ANTI-MESSIAH each time you listen to such men. Seeing with eyes filled with LIGHT (Torah), you will be enabled to LOVE the Torah, and LOVE obeying. Your ears will be opened. Yahushua is near, ask Him to reveal the Truth to you -- and write His perfect Torah on your heart. Then, you will begin an incredible task He has prepared just for you to go and teach others all He has commanded, and immerse them into His Name, Yahushua. You will see your teachers (the Commandments), and hear a voice behind you, saying "This is the way, walk in it".

You will love obeying. Your obedience is your way of showing YHWH that you love Him. It is evidence of your salvation. The serpent is still lying to us from the tree! This time, let's not listen to the wrong voice. We can obey.

NOTICE THE REMNANT OBEYS AND BELIEVES

Those who don't understand very deeply are often those we are sent to, but few usually show any signs of real brain activity related to the spiritual things we have to describe. The Words of life we carry are eternal, but they don't always drink from them, being not "thirsty". Hebrews 4:2 helps explain it:

"For indeed we have had good news preached to us, just as they also; but the WORD they heard did not profit them, BECAUSE IT WAS NOT UNITED BY FAITH IN THOSE WHO HEARD. For we who have believed enter that rest . . ." (This text specifically discusses the 7th day as a commemoration of Creation, honoring YHWH). WORD = TORAH, COMMANDMENTS

Also, Ephesians 2:8-10 explains how our own faith is YHWH's gift, opening our minds to Truth. 2 Timothy 3.5 tells us that people in the last days will be "holding to a FORM of Elohimliness, although they have denied its power (DYNAMIN, dunamis, dynamic -- intensity, force, mechanism, process, capability, ableness); and avoid such men as these."

This would mean that we should not "give up" until we see they deny the relevance, ability, and authority of the Torah, and they attempt to repel it. This condition of their heart will bring upon them the "strong delusion" because they did not receive a love for the Truth (Torah).
THE YEAST OF THE PHARISEES

We are going to see many Christians of every description coming out of their congregations in the coming years, as they move toward the Torah, learn the Name, and realize who they are in Yahushua. They will engrave into Israel, and know they are branches in the olive tree, and one of the “sticks” of Ezekiel 37*

As you know, there is simultaneously a growing interest in the Talmud (oral law, Mishnah/Gemara) among Messianic Natsarim. The Talmud costs several thousand dollars for a complete set of its volumes. Many defend its validity for study, since it does provide a great deal of insight into what certain things meant to those living long ago. I, for one, understand that it was over the “oral laws” that Rabbi Yahushua had many disputes with the Pharisees, although they were close in so many other ways. These “customs of the elders” which added to the Torah conflicted with the Torah, replaced it, and added burdens to the “light yoke”.

So, we need to also be careful to note the “yeast” and puffing-up which we may observe in others as they grow in knowledge. The Talmud seems to be the best candidate among us for being this “yeast of the Pharisees”, since from these early Pharisees (Prushim) all of Rabbinical Judaism sprang forth. The love of the “older brother”, the nation of Yahudah, must be ever present with us, because anyone who does not love his brother does not have the love of YHWH; but that doesn’t mean we have to love the yeast / teachings of the Talmud also. The reason this is so much of an issue to me is because I visited 3 brothers whom I assisted in immersion over 15 years ago; they were studying the Talmud when I walked in, and the Torah was nowhere to be seen. I couldn’t persuade them to see what was happening. If this goes on with others, then the Talmud will be spreading among us so fast it will cause division among us.

I feel Rabbi Yahushua gave us the warning to beware of this yeast. His students thought He was talking about bread, and at first didn’t understand what He meant. We all need to stay vigilant and not be deceived or misled by teachings from the Talmud. The prohibition of uttering the Name comes from the Talmud. It adds to the words of Torah. It’s human error disguised as Truth. Oddly, most try to justify using the spelling “Yahweh” by citing the Jewish Encyclopedia, but it is obvious this is just a shade away from the actual sound because the TALMUD prohibits the utterance of the Name, and the Jewish scholars revere Talmud. (I don’t mean to be critical of those who believe “Yahweh” is the most correct sound! It’s just that there should be 3 syllables, and the “litmus test” is another Hebrew word, YAHU-DAH -- the same letters in the same order, with an added “dalet”. The word YAHUDAH is the doorway to the actual sound.)

In my humble opinion, anything that adds to the Torah is leaven, and is dangerous. The oral law became the “Babylonian Talmud” and the “Jerusalem Talmud”, made up of the Mishnah, and the Gemara. These Pharisaical sources were the seeds of Rabbinical Judaism.

When Yahushua told us, “Beware of the LEAVEN of the Pharisees” (Luke 12:1, Mk. 8:15, Mt. 16:6), He was describing the ADDED human traditions called the “traditions of the elders”, as well as the many hidden mysticisms of the Zohar, Kabbala, and the Sefer Yetzirah (oral laws). The Torah specifically prohibits ADDING to YHWH’s Words, which the Talmud in fact does — “puffing-up” the Torah. All of YHWH’s Words were “READ ALOUD” in the hearing of the people, so that rules-out any “oral words” transmitted down to us. Those in certain “Messianic” circles have traditionally shunned pronouncing the Name aloud, to keep from “offending” their fellow, who adhered to the Talmudic prohibition against the Name, and who used the traditional titles instead. Essentially, they are “no-namers”.

*SEE AMOS 9:5 ALSO; THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL (NORTHERN TRIBES). THE HOUSE OF YAHUDAH WAS THE SOUTH.
They forsake the feelings of our Father YHWH, in deference to pleasing their fellow man. This is the root of why there is some division between us -- we are not ONE because we have not kept away from the leaven of the Pharisees, the Talmud -- some of us have shunned the Name, which is to keep us in unity. We are divided over the Name, and those who use it are sometimes dubbed "cultists" and heretics. Rabbinical Judaism stemmed directly from the Pharisees, and is just as filled with the errors of the Oral Law as ever. The customs of the "fathers" (man-made human traditions from the oral law) were the hypocrisy which Yahuah kept throwing up to the Pharisees and Saddu- cees. Torah has outlawed it, but it persists. I will be attacked for having said this about the "oral law", but I must take a stand for Truth -- and let every man be proven a liar, and YHWH's Word True.

The Talmud (Oral Law) has no bearing on Natsarim. Quoting from it should be done with words of warning. Among other things, it states that Miryam was a prostitute, and that Yahuah was the bastard son of a Roman soldier. We can read anything, but we must be discerning. Yahuah's words as recorded in the Brit Chadasha only make sense to those His Spirit indwells, and He will guide us into all that is True. When He told His pupils "beware of the leaven of the Pharisees", it was the "leaven" (puffing-up, adding) that was their main stumbling block -- and it's the oral traditions. Sure, there are many historical explanations found buried in Talmudic sources, but there are also dark mixtures of Kabbalistic influences as well. It speaks of when to stone "blasphemers". Pronouncing the Name is blasphemy to this work of hypocrisy, this idol to men's wisdom. Yahudim "mysticism" and other Babylonian / Chaldean syncre- tisms are blending into the Talmud, coming from the Zohar (Splendor), Bahir (Brilliance), and Sefer Yetzirah (Book of Creation). These influences gave rise to the customs like washing the fingertips before eating (to wash away evil spirits). The bottom line is, the Torah forbids studying other sources and mixing them into the worship of Him (see Duet. 12:28-32), which is also why we cannot observe Christmas, Easter, and other things like "Sun-Day".

Torah (YHWH's Word, Teaching) instructs us not to "ADD" or take away from Torah, and the "leaven" of Talmud is exactly this, whether or not a pastor, rabbi, teacher, or leader sees it this way. All the Words of YHWH were READ aloud in the hearing of the people - there were no words that were "oral" -- this is only the TRADITIONAL mindset of flawed and misguided men. Torah knows nothing of the Talmud, and it makes no references to the other books I cited above. The Talmud is OK to own and read; but we have no time to use it as study material when Yahuah told us to beware of it. The only thing it is good for: understanding what went wrong with Yahudism; and mainly, the Talmud (oral law) is what went wrong. This is the source that people get many ideas foreign to Scripture. The religion of Yahudism (Judaism) followed along the lines of Pharisa- cal teachings, and the Talmud became the record book of their decisions over the centuries. There is the Yerushaliyim Talmud, and the Babylonian Talmud. If any group leader is insisting on spending any time on it as 'serious study' and not exposing the problems with it in spite of the dangers, this letter should be taken to the group (body), to make sure it is well understood what is happening among every- one. You don't mix clean water and poison together and drink it. Even Pagan religions had some truth in them! The Babylonians simply mixed truth and error together, as we see religi- ons have continued to do down through the ages.

As we hear Yahuashua's words ringing in our ears telling us to "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees!", we should apply this to any human traditions that have become adopted by the leaders of our faith. We should contend for the TRUE and PURE faith, purging out the fossilized customs of our fore-fathers. Not adhering to the "traditions of the fathers" will bring us under severe persecution, and we will not be understood by the majority of those living in the flesh.

THE TEST?

Always remember each Shabbat that the first week of Creation was a real week; otherwise it makes no sense that we rest for the last day (24 hours) of each one. A week foreshadows the "big picture", the millennia of 7000 years, within which we are now nearing the end of "day six". The MANNA (one of the items in the ARK) serves as a witness for us:

> "I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, THAT I MAY TEST THEM, WHETHER OR NOT THEY WILL WALK IN MY INSTRUCTION."
> Ex/ Shemoth 16:4

(See Duet. 8:2-3 also)

> "... beware that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed before you, AND THAT YOU DO NOT REQUIRE AFTER THEIR ELO- HIM, SAYING 'HOW DO THESE NATIONS SERVE THEIR ELOHIM, THAT I MAY DO LIKEWISE?' YOU SHALL NOT BEHAVE TOWARD YHWH YOUR ELOHIM, FOR EVERY ABOMINABLE ACT WHICH YHWH HATES THEY HAVE DONE FOR THEIR ELOHIM; ... WHATEVER I COMMAND YOU, YOU SHALL NOT ADD TO NOR TAKE AWAY FROM IT."
> Duet. 12:20-32.
CIRCUMCISION = IMMERSION

Question from Australia: I have a question for you, and hope you can help. Some of the new believers here are wondering about circumcision. I know that you say that it is of the heart and I agree with you. Norman Willis in his book that you recommend is teaching that it is for today. So, there is a little bit of confusion in my mind about this subject. If it is for today how does a man go about it, as surely it cannot be done just surgically; there would have to be some sort of ceremony. I know this is a difficult subject; sorry to dump this one on you.

Response: On physical circumcision, most understand the “perpetual” aspect of this covenant-sign as being the physical, man-made activity in the flesh. Norman is indeed one of those at the moment, as well as several others who come to mind. These men differ in their understanding of circumcision than I do, and both sides of this debate probably hope the other will come over to them. The large volume of Mosheh (Shaul) seem to solidify us both into our fixed opinions, just as the same sun which melts wax hardens clay. As you know, it is my view that the council of believers and elders at Acts 15 reviewed this issue concerning the Gentiles turning to Elohim. The ones who want to boast in one’s flesh see the 4 “beginning” elements for Gentiles to observe at Acts 15, and assume they will hear Mosheh read in the synagogues and then have themselves circumcised eventually - in their flesh.

The condition of one’s flesh is not going to count for anything, and it is not through human effort that we are called, chosen, and delivered. Our immersion into water is the “outward sign” of our circumcision of our heart. Romans 2:25-29 are verses so important to notice, since we can see that it is really the heart where our real decision must come from:

“For circumcision indeed profits if you practice the Torah, but if you are a transgressor of the Torah, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. So, if an uncircumcised one watches over the righteousness of the Torah, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned as circumcision? And the uncircumcised by nature (physically), who perfects the Torah, shall judge you, who notwithstanding letter and circumcision, are a transgressor of the Torah! For he is not a Yahudi who is so outwardly, neither is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh (see Phlt). But a Yahudi is he who is so inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in Spirit, not literally, whose praise is not from men, but from Elohim.” (Explanation continues into Romans 3).

1 Cor. 7:19 and Col. 2:11 should give anyone pause who seeks to have their flesh circumcised, thinking YHWH will count our flesh as anything. The whole book of Galatians is about this “law”, addressed to the Gentiles there who put their hope in the wrong understanding of the New Covenant. Romans 4:11,12 show clearly that our faith is our justification, and even this is not of ourselves. Notice these words:

Col. 2:11-13: “In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision NOT MADE WITH HANDS, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, by THE CIRCUMCISION OF MESSIAH, having been buried with Him in IMMERSION, in which you also were raised with Him through the belief in the working of Elohim, who raised Him from the dead. And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses.”

This act of immersion is clearly what represents our circumcision as the outward sign or act of our faith now, indicating the circumcision of Messiah. Men boasting in one another’s flesh are missing the whole spiritual point. If we have received Yahushua’s Spirit, we are His, and He has circumcised our hearts with our love for the Truth, a love for His Torah. I was circumcised as a baby, and my boys were also. It is a health decision too, but I feel it is right to obey the physical command for our new-born children as we are believers. But, if an uncircumcised adult repents and turns to Torah, I would never recommend them to be physically obliged to do this, when the writings clearly express it is nothing. Our immersion acts as the outward covenant-sign of the circumcision of our heart. Shaul declared that those who disturbed the new Gentile believers with circumcision of the flesh should emasculate themselves (completely cut off everything) (Gal. 5:12). Biting and devouring one another over these things is very wrong, so I don’t involve myself in these disputes, knowing the end will be controversy and division (which YHWH hates). Those of the other opinion are working through these matters, and still have much to learn – as do we all. As Ya’aqob says, we all stumble in many matters.

Col. 2:16 needs to be looked at in various translations; the easiest one to read the “added” words is the KJV, since they italicize the words they have added. The “Body of Mashiach” is all it should say, not “the Body (is) of Christ”. Shaul (Paul) is referring to the food, drink, festivals (appointed High Sabbaths for instance), new moons, and Sabbaths as things which are “a shadow of of things to come”. He is not saying they are annulled as the NIV footnotes will claim they are. For example, if you consider the book Luke wrote we call “Acts”, the word “Sabbath” is used often; and this record to Theophilus was written in 28 chapters, 31 years after the resurrection and ascension of Yahushua. You’ll notice situations describing "Gentiles" in the synagogues "on the Sabbath day", hearing the Torah and prophets read aloud, because the vast majority of attendees were in fact Gentile converts — much different from today. The use of the word "shadow" implies that these things will become clearer realities in our understanding of them one day. The reality or substance determined from the "shadow" they are casting must be of extremely great importance, so it would be very unwise to dismiss them as "mere shadows" -- and Shaul said they represented shadows of "what is to come". They are here to teach us something; they are not here for us to cast them aside.

Galatians -- a book often referred to as "proof" that we are not obliged to obey the Commandments! Simply put, this book is speaking about one thing: circumcision of the flesh. Shaul opens and closes with it (2:3, 2:7, 2:8, 2:9, 2:12, 5:3, 5:6, 5:11, 6:12, 6:13, 6:15). This is so misunderstood -- "the law" of circumcision (of the flesh) is what Shaul is talking about; he is not in any way referring to the Covenant, the moral laws which define sin. We are circumcised by the Spirit of Yahushua in our hearts, and you should read more on this to explain it thoroughly by examining Romans 2:28, 29, 1 Cor. 7:19, Col. 2:11-13. Our "circumcision" is done to us by Yahushua, in our heart, when He writes His Commandments on our heart. This is the Re-newed Covenant. Our obedience to His Commandments is an outward sign that we love Him, but it also proves that we are being saved by Him -- it's evidence of our salvation, and His work in us. When we realize He is IN us, we can love His Commandments and obey them out of love. When we love Him enough to obey Him, He will write them on our hearts. Those who will not obey Him will not receive His Spirit (Acts 5:32). "He who turns away his ear from hearing the Torah, even his prayer is an abomination." Proverbs 28:9. "Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, a people in whom heart is My Torah; do not fear the reproach of men, nor be afraid of their revilings." Is. 51:7.

The following issue is something that has arisen since the 4th edition of Fossilized Customs that is of great importance to everyone being seduced by it. This new wind of doctrine is extremely divisive, and is rapidly becoming a new custom within our generation. We must watch, and stand fast and hold the traditions which we were taught, and be without wrath and disputing.

New Moons: Lunar Sabbaths?
The new moons are signals for us to tell time, and that is all they are. Sundials and clocks are round because the sun and moon are round. A very good question was asked of me about the pattern of 7 days we call a week:

"Can you find any Scripture that says there is an unending seven-day cycle from Creation? Is it safe to assume such without evidence?" (name withheld)

Answer: We already know about the 1st and 2nd chapter of Genesis (Bereshith), so we’ll assume that isn’t good enough proof, and look at a couple of other Scriptural situations where the cycle of 7 days are involved (a week of days). There are also cases where a "week of years" are mentioned. We’ll even get the thrill of multiplying 7 x 7 to get the answer of 49 -- so pay close attention kids. We need to consider the Hebraic concept of the week as a unit, made up of seven days; and in some cases units of 7 years.

First, look in a concordance for the word "week" (Hebrew, SHABUA, #7620). This word also means "7". The word Sabbath is used 58 times in the Messianic writings, or Brit Chadasha, and translated as the 7th day of the week, or weekly Sabbath day. But, in 9 other cases, it is translated as "week", referring to the cycle or period of 7 days we are familiar with. Further, at Lev. 23:15,16 the weekly Sabbaths are used to count off 7 Sabbaths. It tells us to count 7 "completed Sabbaths", up until the "morrow after the seventh Sabbath", you count 50 days. This instruction clearly numbers the total elapsed days involved, so we know that "Shabuoth" falls on the 1st day of the week each year. Shabuoth (plural for shabua, week), is now called "Pentecost" (Greek, "count fifty"), and is our (Israel’s) Wedding Anniversary.

IS THE MOON THE REAL MASTER OF THE SABBATH?

Are these Sabbaths?
As Brian Allen recently pointed out, if the weekly Sabbath were governed by the moon, you'd run into trouble reconciling the "7 Sabbaths" within this 50 days, because you'd have 2 new moons falling within this period. The way I figure it, you'd have more than 7 Sabbaths within 50 days' time (in just 30 days, the lunar Sabbath folks calculate 6 Sabbaths, and so they reach their count to the day after their 7th Sabbath in only 37 days). A Shabua represents a complete week of seven days, from day 1 through Shabbath, the seventh day.

Sabbatical years are explained (7 cycles of 7 years each, sheba shabbathot shanah, seven Sabbaths of years—seven times seven years, Lev. 25:8), and from them we can determine when the year of Jubilee arrives. Father YHWH did not have to explain what a week (shabua) of 7 days was, until Israel had forgotten it; He used the manna to re-train them how to count the week again in the wilderness. If the week, and specifically the 7th day Sabbath (the completion of a week), could be ascertained at all from something in the skies, the manna would not have been necessary to train Israel.

A day without food tends to get your attention. One important thing to remember is that the moon phases in no way affects or rules over the day/night pattern, or the count of the 7 days of creation. The moon rules over the night, and the mo'edim, or annual High Sabbaths, the "appointed times". It can never effect the 7-day cycle of creation. In Daniel, we see the "7 sevens", or 7 weeks of years. Again, at Lev. 25 we can apply this 7-year cycle for us to know when to let the land rest in the "Sabbatical years", and there is smooth rhythm of 7 x 7 years, making up 49 years, in the count to the "Jubilee year" following this "seven weeks of years", sheba shabua shanah. If the 7 years (a week of years) establishes the model for the land to rest, we can be sure that our interpretation of the week of days is also sound. So, yes, it is safe to say there are Scriptures to back up the understanding of "an unending seven-day cycle from Creation"; the SHABUA.

The Pagan Babylonians did not establish the 7-day week (shabua), nor did the Romans; it was YHWH alone. Sabbath, the word, is not even a stone's throw from the Hebrew word for seven, sheba, or the word shabua. The "7 pillars" referred to at Ps. 75:3 and Prov. 9:1 in their context refer to the unmovable and unshakable foundation which Father YHWH established for the 7 days of each week. The moon is brought in to determine the 7 annual High Sabbaths. The 7 millennia, or pattern of 7 periods of 1000-years each, is unaffected by the moon. The first 7 days (creation week) established a repeating cycle of 7 in order that we recall creation, and honor the Creator each 7th day.

Besides all this, if the Yahudim (Jews) and the 12 tribes of Israel dispersed all over the Earth think that the Sabbath Day each week is the same one the Pagans have been calling "Satyrn Day" (or day of Satyrn), and it isn't REALLY the Sabbath, then why would Satan arrange to change the day of rest from the true 7th day of the week to Sun-Day (the 1st day of the week) for his deceived followers? (Under penalty of death, Constantine ordained the change of the Sabbath to his "Sun-Day" in the year 321 CE, in his "Edict of Milan"). Satan changed the day of rest for Mohammad's pupils in the 7th century to the six day of the week. Why would Satan do that, if the 7th day was already wrong? The real answer is, the 7th day of each week really is the true Sabbath, the commemoration of creation; and this honors the true Maker of Heaven and Earth, YHWH - the ELOHIM of ISRAEL. Even if the cycle of seven days had been changed at any point from some "lunar pattern", how could the whole Earth have adopted the flaw all at once, without any echo of the previous "correct" pattern lurking about in some culture?

Also, remember that many remote cultures all over the Earth have retained in their indigenous languages the meaning, and often a close sounding word for the Hebrew word, "Sabbath" -- for their 7th day of each week (Shabath, Sabbath, Sabo, Sabado, Subbata, Shubuta, etc.). The Sabbath is really the only day of the week that has a name -- the other days were only numbered, until the Pagans decided to give homage to various deities by calling the days by the proper names of their false elohim (i.e., Sun Day, Moon Day, Tyr's Day, Woden's Day, Thor's Day, Frigg's Day, Satyrn Day).

The sun rules over the day. A week of 7 days cycles over and over, and the moon is in no way able to interfere with it. The manna, not the moon, was used to emphasize this "shabua" cycle to remind Israel. Days and months are not connected or geared together, but flow separately through time. The period of 7 days, which we call the week (Hebrew, SHABUA, #7620), has been assaulted in recent years by the new teachings concerning new moons. This mostly is the result of deciding to believe something, then hunting down the texts that support that belief (eisegesia). Once a person falls for the re-setting of the weekly pattern which they believe is caused by the moon, the moon becomes an all-consuming topic for them from that point on. They feel that they must convince everyone else to see the hidden secret they've discovered.

By deduction, or the taking away
(discounting) of what is not discussed, we know there is only one new moon day which is a day of rest from work; the first day of the 7th moon. By simple deductive reasoning, we know that the other 11 new moon days are not rest days. The fact that men of YHWH worked and travelled on new moon days is but one indication of this. The best method for study is by exegesis, not eisegesis.

We do not worship or serve the men who promote a floating weekly Sabbath involving the moon cycles, so we don’t have to fear them or their teachings; but we should not be hateful to them in their deception either. There is not a single text from Scripture which suggests or implies that the 7th day Sabbath is regulated or connected to the moon or its phases; the only associations that can be made between new moon days and Sabbaths are imagined assumptions, and the mishandling of the Word of Father YHWH. Bending, wresting, and twisting the Scriptures is a grievous thing to do, and falling from our steadfastness can easily be the end result. We are not to judge the person, however as the Body of Mashiach we are to judge the teachings regarding food, drink, new moons, Sabbaths, and moedim.

It’s natural to have differences of understanding, but we must not allow these to become roots of bitterness between one another. There are many points of contention today: the “new moon” re-setting the weekly Sabbath is one example. The controversy over who is to be the recipient of the tenth part of our increase is another point of difference, mostly argued by those who have been used to taking the tithe as teachers. Then there is the issue of whether the crescent moon sighting is the beginning, or the end, of the actual first day of the new moon. Like the Bereans, we need to test and examine if what we hear is really true.

TWO APPROACHES IN UNDERSTANDING SCRIPTURE

FIRST: We go to the Writings with an open, unbiased attitude, free of denominational slants or teachings, or previous impressions. This is called Exegesis (direct analysis or interpretation of Scripture). Allowing the Word to directly speak to us, we can form a solid foundation through personal study, guided by our Teacher, the Spirit of Yahushua. Listening to other men teach us what Scripture says is fine also, as long as we test everything we hear, being careful how we listen, as the assembly at Berea did (Acts 17:10,11).

SECOND: (the wrong approach) – We go to the Writings to prove something we already believe, finding sentences which hint at the idea. This is called Eisegesis (analyzing from one’s own ideas). In these cases the text is not directly describing or teaching the concept we are trying to prove, but rather the words are extracted and hunted-down, to “prove” what we believe. This is how men “twist” or “spin” the Words of Scripture, especially the letters of Shaul (Paul):

“... as also our beloved brother Shaul wrote to you, according to the wisdom given to him, as also in all his letters, speaking in them concerning these matters, in which some are hard to understand, which those who are untaught and unstable TWIST (spin) to their own destruction, as they do also the other Scriptures. You, then, beloved ones, being forewarned, watch; lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the delusion of the lawless.” - 2 Kepha 3:15-17

Ha shatan, the adversary, hates the marriage Covenant, and Israel. This means the enemy of our beings hates the “sign” of our Covenant, the Sabbath. This being attacks Israel at every turn, and attempts to alter the Covenant, or make it seem unimportant. The “sign” of this Eternal (Everlasting) Covenant is the sign of the Sabbath, which is the 7th day of each week. Today some have begun to believe that the Yahudim (tribe called “Jews” today) altered the original pattern for keeping track of the correct WEEKLY Sabbaths. They feel that the MOON was originally used to determine not only the ANNUAL High Sabbaths, but also the WEEKLY day of rest.

The 7-day pattern is found in every corner of our world, and the 7th day, which most English-speaking people call “Saturday”, is widely known to be the Sabbath day which is found throughout Scripture. As I mentioned, many languages exist on our planet; and if you study the various names these languages have for this 7th day, you will find they closely relate cognitively to the Hebrew word for Sabbath, SHABBATH (cease). So, even if the Yahudim attempted to change the pattern, it would become evident to everyone that they did so when the patterns are compared to one another. The pattern (shabua) of 7 weekdays is found across the entire planet without any conflict in its rhythm -- none of the cultures on Earth use a lunar-phase to determine or re-set their week each month. Their languages even identify within themselves the day of rest being the one called “Shabbath” in Hebrew. Their word for this day still bears a strong resemblance to the Hebrew original:

“My Sabbaths you are to guard, by all means, for it is a SIGN (guarding His Sabbaths) between Me and you throughout your generations, to know that I, YHWH, am setting you apart. (sign = mark, signal)

And you shall guard the Sabbath it is set apart to you. Everyone who profanes it shall certainly be put to death, for anyone who does work on it, that being shall be cut off from among his people. Six days work is done, and on the seventh is a Sabbath of...”
rest, set-apart to YHWH. (Sabbath, or Shabbath, means “seven”). Everyone doing work on the Sabbath day shall certainly be put to death.

“...And the children of Yisra’el shall guard the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as an everlasting covenant. (Gentiles must engraft into Israel to partake of the Covenants, and the Sabbath is the sign of the Everlasting Covenant, the marriage between YHWH and His wife, Israel).

“...Between Me and the children of Yisra’el it is a sign forever. For in six days YHWH made the heavens and the Earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.” Exodus (Shemoth) 31:13-17 (see also Ezek. 20:12-20)

Look at what Hebrews 4:4-16 says, referring to the above text:

“For somewhere (Ex. 31) He has said thus about the seventh day, ‘And Elohim rested on the seventh day from all His works’, and again, ‘if they shall enter into My rest ...’

“...Since then it remains for some to enter into it, and those who formerly entered the Covenant were not able to enter because of disobedience, He again defines a certain day, “Today”. . . . So, there remains a Sabbath-keeping for the people of Elohim. For the one having entered into His rest, has himself also rested from his works, as Elohim rested from His own. Let us therefore do our utmost to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience.” (Heb. 4:4-11)

The outward “sign” that we actually give worship (obedience=worship) to the REAL Creator, “Who made heaven and the Earth, and sea, and fountains of water” (Rev. 14:4), is this “sign” of resting as He rested, every seventh day - since creation. This message of the messenger sent forth “to announce to those dwelling on the Earth, even to every nation and tribe and tongue and people” is going forth from the Natsarim today:

“...Fear Elohim and give esteem to him, because the hour of His judgment has come. And worship Him who made the heaven and the Earth, and sea, and fountains of water.”

Again, it is important to discern how we have been deceived into believing we are giving worship (worship, obedience) to the Creator of heaven and Earth, while having the “sign” of our worship to Him removed by revisionism.

THE TEST OF THE MANNA

“...And YHWH said to Mosheh, “See, I am raining bread (manna) from the heavens for you. And the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, in order to try (test) them, whether they walk in My Torah or not. And it shall be on the sixth day that they shall prepare what they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.” (Ex. 16:4-5)

CRAFTY SCHEMES TO DIVIDE US

The elect can be deceived, and fall away from the Covenant, by crafty schemes and trickery.

“... We should no longer be children, tossed and borne about by every wind of teaching, by the trickery of men, in cleverness, unto the craftiness of leading astray ...” (Eph. 4:14).

Ephesians 4 reminds that while we grow toward a “unity” (oneness of belief and pattern for living), we have to be patient, humble, meek, and bearing with one another in LOVE. We will have to tolerate differences with patience, and not grow apart in bitterness. Yahushua said we would be known by the LOVE between us, not that we would all be exactly alike. The blind faith of those captured by the Mother of Harlots, Catholicism, may never be able to overcome the deceptions until they personally study and struggle to get at the Truth. We all must study.

The new teachings which are entangling the Natsarim today, come from interpretations of Scripture, which alter the patterns of the days, nights, and appointed times ruled by the new moons. Some interpret “day” (yom) and “night” (layelah) somewhat differently than others. Reading Genesis, some have come to believe that “creation” began with “light”, therefore the 24-hour period begins at sunrise. In contrast, the end of the “day” which arrives at the moment the sun sets, beginning a new cycle of 24 hours, actually reflects the six creation days. At creation, it was first “dark”, and YHWH created water, Earth, and the rules of physics. Kepha (Peter) tells us that the Earth was formed out of water. Darkness was on the face of the deep. The first sentence of Genesis states:

“In the beginning Elohim created the heavens and the Earth. And the Earth came to be formless and empty, and darkness was on the face of the deep.”

The evolutionist will say, “First, there was nothing. Then, it exploded. The elements were not yet existent, since all the energy (from nothing) was purely kinetic (active, non-material, radiation). After the cooling... effect from the expansion of space, and the propagation of the energy from this cosmic “big bang”, the first material elements coagulated together as hydrogen, oxygen, and traces of H2O2.” (I am not a proponent of the “big bang”; not string theory).

So, even the blind theories and imaginations of non-believers are establishing the truth of the first several verses of Genesis to some extent. But many Natsarim believe creation began with LIGHT, therefore the periodic 24-hour night/day scheme is interpreted to be “day, then night” (light, then darkness), as opposed to “night, then day” (darkness, then light).

“And there came to be evening (darkening, Ere) and there came to be morning (lightening, basker), the first day.” (This suggests a 24-hour period).

By interpreting the order of occurrence differently, differences in patterns of behavior can be seen today among the Natsarim. This has the effect of making a Sabbath “day” only descriptive to when the sun is up, and so “night” has no ptentience to the “Sabbath day”. No man can “work” at night they will explain, from Yahushua’s words at John/Yoh. 9:4. To these brothers, Sabbath begins at sunrise. Do we have the capacity to be different, yet have love? (Please don’t do it because I do it, but study; I rest every week, beginning at sunset at the end of the sixth day (sunset), and there follows a twilight of nearly 30 minutes before night arrives (complete darkness). One of my favorite Scriptures to quote that establishes the fact that the span of time concerning His worship will have no break in it. Should we not worship every moment? Now, most do not; but those in the world-to-come will do so. “From new moon TO new moon” — and “from Sabbath TO Sabbath”, can you see the interesting way this is expressed? Trying to force texts to say what they aren’t actually saying is what Peter warns us of, and he called it “twisting” the Scriptures. The text does not say “ON new moons” or “ON Sabbaths”, but FROM one TO the other.

Our Father has not put me on this Earth to dudge my brother, because if I do this I also judge the Torah. The “manna” which YHWH ted Israel for 40 years is very much related to the week, in that it made the arrival of each Shabbath very easily recognized. If the “hidden manna” really is about the moon, or the week and its relationship to Shabbath, then more are going to be lost than even I had realized. To me, it seems someone has brought in a corrupted “virus” of sorts among Yahushua’s elect, confusing them. ( I realize this can be taken either way, depending on which perspective
one takes on the “lunar-setting Sabbath” isue ). YHWH used manna, not the moon, to teach us when the Sabbath day arrived each 7 days. (7=Shabua, week).

The use of the connective “and”:

When a statement is made in Scripture which involves a list of several things, and these are thought to not only connect the words together in the sentence, but that the “and”
unites them — matures them in likeness and oneness — we are treading into very murky waters of interpretation. The “sun and the moon” are used with an “and” between them, but these two are not the same things. Good and evil, Qayin and Hebel, Adam and Cha-
wah; These are distinctions between things
and people, the “and” in no way makes them
the same or equivalent. “Sarah his wife and Lot his brother’s son” were not the same entities, but completely separate individuals in their

SABBATHS, NEW MOONS: ANY RELATIONSHIP?

Most Messianics who enter into the Lunar-Sabbath system are reading texts like Isaiah 66:23 and believe there is an equivalence between a weekly Sabbath and a New Moon day. Let’s analyze that here a bit:

“And it shall be that from New Moon to New Moon, and from Sabbath to Sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before Me,
declares YHWH.”

They explain that the connective word, “and”, makes both things the same (marrying them in likeness and oneness), not distinct. Is this really so? What this verse seems to be saying is that the SPAN “from” new moon TO new moon, and the SPAN “from” Sabbath to Sabbath, is when all flesh will worship -- it will be every day. YHWH used these terms to gather all time into a kind of net to describe the world-to-come. To judge the Torah. The “manna” which YHWH fed Israel for 40 years is very much related to the week, in that it made the arrival of each Shabbath very easily recognized. If the “hidden manna” really is about the moon, or the week and its relationship to Shabbath, then more are going to be lost than even I had realized. To me, it seems someone has brought in a corrupted “virus” of sorts among Yahushua’s elect, confusing them. ( I realize this can be taken either way, depending on which perspective
one takes on the “lunar-setting Sabbath” isue ). YHWH used manna, not the moon, to teach us when the Sabbath day arrived each 7
days. (7=Shabua, week).

The use of the connective “and”:

When a statement is made in Scripture
which involves a list of several things, and these are thought to not only connect the words together in the sentence, but that the “and”
unites them — matures them in likeness and oneness — we are treading into very murky waters of interpretation. The “sun and the

but these two are not the same things. Good and evil, Qayin and Hebel, Adam and Cha-
wah; These are distinctions between things
and people, the “and” in no way makes them
the same or equivalent. “Sarah his wife and Lot his brother’s son” were not the same entities, but completely separate individuals in their persons. David and Golyath were both people, but very different people. In the same way, New Moons and Sabbaths are distinct. If we are told the first day of the seventh moon is a Sabbath, this means by deductive reasoning that the other 11 new moons are not Sabbaths, unless they happen to coincide with the weekly pattern established during Creation Week. To reason from a general principle, using logic, we can arrive at what is factual truth by deduction. Deduction literally means that we arrive at our conclusion by deducting, or taking away what is known to not apply; and this principle is how we arrive at a conclusion by reasoning. “My enemy’s enemy is my friend”. This statement contains deductive reasoning.

This is also an example of deductive reasoning. Sabbaths are days of rest from work which we should all agree. No one is in rebellion on that issue except those who deny they apply to us, or those who have changed the law. Shabbath is in fact the only day of the week which has its own name. Shabbath means “cease” or stop; and at the same time, it also means “seventh”, as we see in several Hebrew words which derive from the root, such as Shabuoth (weeks). The Hebrew word for “seven” is SHEBA, #7651. I want to let the Word of YHWH speak to us mostly on this, so I want to let you read the following text slowly, and go ahead and strain to make the moon stand us up and save you from what is coming upon you.” Isaiah / Yesha Yahu 47:13

In the above text, these moon-worshippers are equated with astrologers, stargazers, and witches. Both sun worshippers and moon worshippers will be devoured by fire, which they so fervently honor. The “take of fire” will destroy the enemies of YHWH, and His wrath at the end of days will consume them with fire. The moon was a deity among the Pagans, and it ruled their lives as we see it echoed in the horoscopes of Astrology today. Crystal gazing, Tarot card reading, and spellbinding (chants, enchantments to bewitch) are exploding in popularity all over the Earth today, reflected in the success of the adventures of Harry Potter. Moon dances and rain dances are performed at pow-wows, where incantations and dancing are used to invoke divine aid in hunting, battle, or against disease.

The elect can be drawn away from the sign of the Everlasting Covenant, and deceived into believing they have not been. Certain texts of Scripture seem to be telling us that each new moon is a Sabbath, but it doesn’t actually state this in a resolute way - it’s only arrived at by extrapolating (to broadly infer, or estimate from known information). We read about directives to open gates and curtains, or to blow a shofar on a new moon; however there is only ONE new moon spoken of on which no work is to be done. So, yes, there is one new moon out of the year that is, in fact, a Sabbath of rest prescribed by Torah. Can we bear with one another with love, enduring such a difference between ourselves? We have to. Colossians 2:16 tells us:

“Let no one therefore judge you in eating or in drinking, or in respect of a festival or a new moon or Sabbaths - which are a SHADOW of what is to come - but the body of Messiah.” Even here, there is a distinction between new moons and Sabbaths. And, they are shadows of what is to come. A shadow is understood to mean a metaphor, or example of something else. It points to a coming reality, like a rough outline, and it is a semblance, and is insubstantial. If we condemn one another over an unreal, indistinct pattern we are wrong even if we’re right. If we get it all perfect, and have all wisdom, and yet lack love, we have failed the big test.

“If I speak with the tongues of men and of messengers, but do not have love, I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.

“And if I prophesy, and know all secrets and all knowledge, and if I have all belief, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am none at all.

“And if I give out all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but do not have love, I am not profited at all.

“Love is patient, is kind, love does not envy, love does not boast, is not puffed up, does not behave indecently, does not seek it own, is not provoked, reckons not the evil, “does not rejoice over the unrighteousness, but rejoices in the Truth. It covers all, expects all, endures all.

“Love never fails. And whether there be tongues, they shall cease; or knowledge, it shall be inactive.

“For we know in part and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be inactive.

“When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I thought as a child, I reasoned as a child. But when I became a man, I did away with childish matters.

“For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know, as I also have been known.

“And now belief, expectation, and love remain - these three. But the greatest of these is love.” 1 Cor. 13:1-13

Many articles have been written debunking the idea that the first day of each new moon is a Sabbath. Not only have many sincere Natsarim begun to believe each new moon is a Sabbath, but they also “re-set” the pattern of the 7-day week each new moon. This reshuffles the 7-day week into a new beginning each month for these folks, and each new moon begins with the seventh day rest, counting from nothing.

The final few days of this pattern chop the last week of their month off with the abrupt arrival of a sudden “7th day Sabbath”. It is not harmonious at all. The pulse of the first week of creation is lost to those who follow this pattern, and so they have become observers of some lunar-based Sabbath system. If the weekly Sabbath is set by the new moon, the arrangement of the week is under constant change. During the week of creation, the moon was brought forth on the 4th day, and is simply called the “lesser light” to rule over the night. It is also used to calculate the appointed times, or annual Sabbaths, referred to as “High Sabbaths”. The greater light, the sun, is used to calculate day and night.

Ex. 16:1 tells us the Israelites were traveling on the 15th day of the 2nd moon.

How this will be weighed by Yahushua, the Righteous Judge of us all, is unknowable. He told us that stumbling blocks would come, but woe to those through whom they come. Those who ignore the Sabbath each week (the real one) are cut-off from Israel, and death is proclaimed as their judgment. If the moon were involved in such a vitally important operation as calculating the weekly Sabbath, it seems He would have mentioned it somewhere in His Torah. Even though the 29.5 days in each month don’t divide evenly by 7, this doesn’t matter to them; the new moon comes and they re-set their week, and it BEGINS the new moon day as a Sabbath.

Even though the true Sabbath is supposed to be the 7th day of each week, they let the MOON tell them when that 7th day is — the previous week which the same moon “set” for them is interrupted with a sudden arrival of a new 7th day, the 1st day of the moon (the first day of the moon is the seventh day of their week). Careful, you could get cross-eyed thinking about this too long. The week is simply not in the sky, but set by the counting of days! The “greater light” determines these days, and all we have to do is count to 7, the number of completion. How could anyone possibly go for such a system? They read Scriptures which make them get panicky, and so hunt for other clues. A very strong urge comes from the following:

Amos 8:5 brings out a question,

When does the new moon pass so that we sell grain, and the Sabbath so that we trade our wheat, to make the ephah small and the sheqel large, and to falsify the scales by deceit, to buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and sell the chaff of the wheat??

The context of this verse in Amos shows that these are a list of things YHWH finds displeasing to Him. The moon worship of that period had led many to observe strange customs, blending it together with His Torah. If we add to the Torah by reading something into the meanings of sentences like Amos 8:5, we can trouble ourselves. According to the Torah, resting on the new moon from work only applies to ONE of the new moons, and it is possible that this particular new moon spoken of in Amos 8:5 was the 7th new moon, the harvest time of some grain they wished to sell. I can abide the people who believe these things about the other new moons being Sabbaths, but I cannot abide this new wind of doctrine for these reasons:

The Shabbaths of YHWH are listed at:

Leviticus / Wayyyiqra 23:1-44
Deuteronomy / Debarim 16:1-18

These are listed carefully, and only ONE new moon is designated as being distinguished from the other common new moons as a day of resting from labor. No indication is given that any other new moon is qodesh, or set-apart as a day of rest in any way. Further, there is no hint that the weekly Shabbath is related in any way to the moon phases. This is entirely a misreading of the text at Yesha Yahu (Is.) 66:23. If Father YHWH wanted us to know that every new moon was a Sabbath, all He had to do was say so. By the act of telling us that the 7th new moon was a Sabbath, He told us by deduction that the other new moons were not days of rest, and therefore He distinguished the 7th new moon for us.

Reason #2. There are examples of work done on the first day of the moons:

At Genesis 8:13, Noah removed the covering of the ark he spent 100 years building. It was the 1st day of the moon.

At Num. 1:1, on the 1st day of the 2nd moon, a census was taken of all Yisra’el. How odd is that?

At Ezra 7:9, this prophet was journeying on two new moons.

Reason #3. The Sabbath is supposed to be the seventh day of each week, after 6 days’ work; but if you re-start each new moon with this Sabbath, then it becomes the seventh day of a new week, without having a previous six work days for that week. The seventh day begins each of their months somehow, and makes the second day of each moon the first day of their week. With an operation like this going on, you would think that our Father would have given at least a couple of sentences explaining the relationship of the moon to the week. But, He’s totally silent about this relationship. Again, these ideas don’t come directly from Torah, but are inferred from phrases embedded in sentences. He knows how easily confused we can be, so by not mentioning something this important, it would have to mean He is hoping to trick us. I don’t think He would do such a thing.

Reason #4. The moon circles the Earth in a period of approximately 29.5 days. For thousands of years, the same side of the moon has faced the Earth, perfectly synchronized with its orbital period and rate of rotation. Scientists cannot explain this circumstance, and mathematicians will tell you that it is almost infinitely improbable to ever develop this way on any planetary system in the universe. And yet, the planet we all happen to live on has this bizarre, unlikely situation. If our Creator can do this, then He could have just as easily made the week fit into the moon’s orbit by division, and made the moon orbit in exactly 28 days. Then He could have also told us to watch for the new moons, and rest on each one. He could have also told us that each one of the new moons was also a 7th day of the week.

Reason #5. The manna was used to re-teach the Israelites when the seventh day was, not when the new moon arrived. During the captivity of the Israelites in Egypt, it is possible that no one on Earth had kept the record of days for the 7-day week. Israel had succumbed to the Pagan system, and lost it also. They had to be re-taught. This is why the 4th Commandment begins with the word “remember” - it had been forgotten. The manna was provided for 6 consecutive days without fail. There was no interruption in this cycle mentioned, nor did the new moon come into any references that pertained to the manna. A double-portion of manna coming before each new moon would surely have been a signal, and yet there is no record of this occurring. The new moons have no connection to the 7-day week.

Reason #6. The Yahudim (called Jews today) have kept the heartbeat of the 7-day week.
since they were among the Israelites being retrained by the manna cycle in the wilderness. There is no record or any hint that a change in this pattern ever occurred. These are among the elect of YHWH, and have preserved the Words of the Torah, prophets, and writings for us. They are also the direct recipients of the promises (Romans 9:4), and are of the lineage of Yahushua Himself. If I am going to trust any group to preserve this set-apart weekly cycle, I would lean heavily toward entrusting it to a group of orthodox Jews than a group / denomination that may shift on the sand of human counsel. Ephraim is the Scriptural term used for Gentile-dispersed descendants of Yosef, and the other lost tribes. A major problem with Ephraim is his arrogance, so the orthodox Yahudim will tell you.

“You are exhausted by your many counsels; let the astrologers, the stargazers, and those who prognosticate by the new moons stand up and save you from what is coming upon you.” Isaiah / Yeshua Yahu 47:13

We certainly are seeing many new winds of doctrine these days. There are even those who feel that the FULL MOON is the new moon, which would mean that when the Israelites came out of Egypt, they had to travel in utter darkness. There is no end to the development of new winds of teaching. What is most important is that we listen to the advice of Ephesians 4, and not lose sight of our foundation.

Many now realize that the nicolaitans designed a crafty plot of control over civilization. From ancient cultures to the present, the authority over mankind has been a fusion or blend of religious and political purpose. One example is the obelisk described in the book of Daniel (3:18). Often the rulers were worshipped as the principle deity by the people, such as Pharaoh of Egypt or Caesars of Rome. It had begun that way under Nimrod, but after he was slain the Paganism became “occult” (hidden), and became shrouded in mystery. The true spiritual nature of what was being done was made to look innocent on the surface for the uninitiated.

After Yahushua, people who had his Spirit in them spread out in the Roman Empire. The old idolatry was being questioned and exposed, and began to falter. The Pagan religious cults began to feel the effects of the Truth. Something had to be done to save the order and control which those who ruled civilization had, and their religious Paganism was failing. Along came Constantine, a compromiser who could find the "middle ground". Keeping the previous Pagan priesthood and their framework intact, he brought together elders of the Natsarim from all over the Roman Empire to Nicaea in 325 CE (the first council of the Catholic Church). Upon hearing some of the matters being discussed, many elders fled for their lives. The elders who remained helped formulate what later became known as Catholicism, and they adopted the creed or constitution of the Roman Church, The Nicene Creed. This was to fight against what was called the Arian doctrine, thought to be a heresy at that time (research Ariantism). The Pagan "leaven" would eventually leave the whole lump. Shaul told the former Pagan Corin-thians to purge-out the old leaven (errors, patterns), and be a new un-leavened lump (1 Cor. 5:6-13). Yahushua also described this at Luke 13:21.

The former line of Caesars were of a family line, but Constantine was a break in that line; but he became the "father" of the Empire, assuming both political and religious control. The former Caesars (Czar, Kaisar) took titles such as "Pontifex Maximus" and Pope (father), and ruled over a body of Pagan priests called the Curia (Latin, council). The members of this body were called Cardinals, from the Latin word CARDO, meaning hinge. The idea that they were a "hinge" (of a door) suggested that they assisting the high priest of Janus, who was "the door" to the Elysian fields, the Pagans' heaven.

These Pagan priests assisted the Caesar, who was this Pagan high priest of JANUS. So the Pagan title of "Pope" was retained by the man who held the office of Pontifex Maximus (Latin, highest priest). This title literally translates "bridge-builder", a reference to this man being the bridge to the after-life with the deities in the heavens.

With the framework remaining in place, the central control of the Pagan administration could go on, simply blending-in with the elements of the Messianic belief, but leaving out the elements essential to the obedience of YHWH. The Pagan organization in place retained the office / title of Pope, the body of priests called Cardinals, and even the word Curia for council. The "Pope" was no longer thought of as the high priest of Janus, but literally the authority of "Christ" on Earth. The former Pagan pattern was brought through perfectly intact. Idolatry mixed with Truth became clothed in the former framework of sun-worship. The main objective was to anger our Creator by mixing the patterns of idolatry together with the Truth, so that it would become poisoned (wormwood). Darkness and Light would mix together, and be taught for centuries through a Pagan framework of priests, and a calendar based on idolatry. They didn’t even have to put in a change of address, Rome remained the office of the 4th beast of Daniel, which will remain until the time of wrath.

MOON WORSHIPPERS ORIGINALLY:
“Allah” was the moon-deity of the Arabs before Muhammad brought his brand of religion to them. This term was adopted because of its “name recognition” among the population. You will often notice that the primary islamic symbol is the crescent moon, placed above their places of worship in a similar way Christians use the cross. This term “Allah” (Arabs’ former term for their moon deity) reflects the pattern of adopting familiar terms and symbols of former Pagans; the Celtic/Druidic sun-deity was worshipped under the proper name “GOTT”, which was adopted into our English as “GOD”. The Hebrew term is Elohim, but translators chose to use a more popular term with “name recognition.” “English” is the language of the Angles, and the word England is derived from “Angle Land”.

Author’s Response to a Critic of Fossilized Customs
The following are the complete comments of a congregational leader in Texas who wrote to Rick Chamberlin, who publishes Petah Tikvah -- a wonderful quarterly magazine I recommend to everyone. I address both Rick and our unhappy brother, point-by-point. I present this for you to read, since there are certain congregational leaders who seem to take opposition with many of the same topics discussed in Fossilized Customs. Even leaders can have trouble understanding that we are not all serving in the same capacity.

Dear brother Rick, (and congregational leader in Texas):

Lew: If a member of the Body is found to be practicing or teaching error, he is to be confronted by the offended person privately first, and if this fails it is to be brought before the elders. If this fails to correct the man’s error, it is brought before the whole assembly of saints, so that his shame is before all (Mt. 18:15-17). If I am a false witness to some, then I am in good company; Shaul was thought to be one because he witnessed that Elohim raised up Messiah (1 Cor. 15:15) -- a very unpopular idea before YHWH, regardless of which way one leans in belief. It would be my privilege to respond briefly to our brother’s sincere concerns regarding what he finds offensive in my book Fossilized Customs, but I do not hope to win a debate at the expense of offending or shaming my brother: congregational leader: In the Oct-Dec 2003 issue of Petah Tikvah, on page 4, you have footnote 2, which makes mention of “Fossilized Customs” by Lew White. Let me make you aware of the dangerous material contained within this book: congregational leader: 1. Lew White does not believe in the Tri-unity of the Godhead. He believes it’s pagan in origin and based on pagan sexual practices (p. 91-93).

Lew: If a person were to only have contact with the Scriptures, without any outside teachings or influences, it would be highly unlikely for them to develop a belief in a “Trinity” on their own. Too many texts reveal that YHWH is one, not three. Exegesis (direct analysis or interpretation of Scripture) will often conflict with what a person has been taught or already believes as he brings them with him to the study – prior beliefs must not be allowed to influence such analysis. When we approach Scripture with ideas we already believe and then hunt down the texts which support our belief, we find ourselves “proof-texting”. In this case, if we read a text, the teaching we already believe is not directly being taught, but we can snatch or extract the necessary phrases in order to support our belief. This is not exegesis, but rather eisegesis. Eisegesis (analyzing from one’s own ideas) is what we mostly see being done, where an explanation or analysis is based upon one’s own ideas, which is often based on popular opinion. The “Trinity” entered the belief through what is called The Apostles’ Creed, formulated as an integral part of the rite of baptism. A clearly divided and separate confession of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, corresponding to the Divine Persons invoked in the formula of baptism was imposed by Catholicism, and this dogma has persisted strongly to the present. This Creed developed from a primitive teaching (c. 390), and is referred to in a letter addressed to Sincerus by the Council of Milan (Migne, P.L., XVI, 1213), which supplies the earliest known instance of the combination whether in pretense, envy, strife, or selfish ambition -- so in the spirit of this concept I will not speak against anyone who is working in the harvest and giving of themselves in Yahushua’s service. In the criticisms below I find no circumstances which effect one’s salvation before YHWH, regardless of which way one leans in belief. It would be my privilege to respond briefly to our brother’s sincere concerns regarding what he finds offensive in my book Fossilized Customs, but I do not hope to win a debate at the expense of offending or shaming my brother.
Symbolum Apostolorum ("Creed of the Apostles"). Certainly any idea that it actually originated with the 12 Apostles is a myth. The actual inception of the doctrine of the Trinity seems to be best explained as coming from the Nicene Creed, formulated under the Emperor Constantine in 325 AD. All we need to do is find a text in the Scriptures which teaches anything about YHWH being three distinct persons, and that belief in such a model is so paramount that our salvation hangs on it. He is neither trinity or "hrih-ly"; but if we would condemn one another over whether He is or isn’t, we are operating outside the bounds of what Scripture teaches us -- especially about judging one another. What I am guilty of (hopefully) is not judging people, but rather beliefs which entered the faith from outside. Constantine was marvelously talented at modifying and formulating things that appealed to what everyone already believed. He did not emphasize Scripture as our model and guide for doctrine. Fossilized Customs is not the only book which has been written which teaches that YHWH is one. Sir Isaac Newton and Alexander Hislop were non-trinitarians. “In the unity of that one Only God of the Babylonians, there were three persons, and to symbolize that doctrine of the Trinity, they employed, as the discoveries of Layard prove, the equilateral triangle, just as it is well known the Romish Church does at this day. In both cases such a comparison is most degrading to the King Eternal, and is fitted utterly to pervert the minds of those who contemn it, as if there was or could be any similitude between such a figure and Him Who hath said, ‘To whom will you liken (Elohim), and what likeness will you compare unto Him?’” - The Two Babylonss, pgs. 16:17.

Congregational Leader: 2. He does not believe in the tithe and states it is a social decision and not a biblical commandment (p. 89).

Lew: Anyone who has read Fossilized Customs can see that it is Scriptural to tithe; the only controversy is who is to be the recipient of it. Yahushua was not supported by the tithe, but rather by those who were in the office of elders or apostles when he needed to impose on them. He surely didn’t confuse this support with the tithe; he carried offerings of food to the saints in Yerushaliyim when there was a famine (1 Cor. 16:3, Romans 15:26,27). The poor were foremost on the minds of these men (Galatians 2:10). We are to be supported as elders in the Body, and this is to do the work of the workman; we must not become a burden on every person to the extent of taking 10% from everyone’s wages. Those with the means will have it put on their heart to invest in our work, and by doing so share in the rewards. The Gentiles who reaped spiritually from the people of Elohim were encouraged to share materially with them (Romans 15:26,27). Our brother’s word “offerings” above was never a topic I taught against in the book. I still feel that we who serve the Body should work in an auxiliary capacity to earn a living, since we are not Levites and exempt from having a livelihood. Each one of the Body is of the priesthood of Melchizedek, and we are the living stones of the Temple of YHWH.

Congregational Leader: 4. He does not believe Scriptures which expose how the sheep will be fleeced for gain (2 Cor. 2:17, 2 Kepha 2:3, Acts 20:32-35). We who labor in teaching are worthy of support, but only from those in the office of "helps" (1 Cor. 12:28). No where do we see any leader in Scripture teaching his students to give him 10% of their income. Certainly no Apostle ever took such plunder for personal use from any assembly they started. Performing a study of the phrase “ravenous wolves” might shed light on this subject better. If you have the means to support a leader who is working in the service of Yahushua’s Body, PLEASE do so; but to call it the tithe is inappropriate. For this teaching, I am willing to be shamed for; but let Yahushua judge me. He is so much more forgiving than men are. Those who oppose this teaching may have much to lose financially, but it is so much more blessed to give than to receive. I know, because I must receive to do the work I do also. Without support, I would not be enabled to do the work I do. Another good word to study in this context is "nicolaitan" (no offense to my critic intended).

Congregational Leader: 3. He believes ministers should not receive of tithes and offerings for their support. He believes ministers should get a job like everyone else and stop "bilking" the people out of their money.

Lew: Did Kepha have a job? Andrew, Kepha, and Yohanan did quite a bit of fishing, and not for sport. Paul was a maker of tents, and he mourned for the occasions he was supported by assemblies when he needed to impose on them. He surely didn’t confuse this support with the tithe; he carried offerings of food to the saints in Yerushaliyim when there was a famine (1 Cor. 16:3, Romans 15:26,27). The poor were foremost on the minds of these men (Galatians 2:10). We are to be supported as elders in the Body, and this is to do the work of the workman; we must not become a burden on every person to the extent of taking 10% from everyone’s wages. Those with the means will have it put on their heart to invest in our work, and by doing so share in the rewards. The Gentiles who reaped spiritually from the people of Elohim were encouraged to share materially with them (Romans 15:26,27). Our brother’s word “offerings” above was never a topic I taught against in the book. I still feel that we who serve the Body should work in an auxiliary capacity to earn a living, since we are not Levites and exempt from having a livelihood. Each one of the Body is of the priesthood of Melchizedek, and we are the living stones of the Temple of YHWH.
in gathering on the Sabbath, or in fact, ever needing to gather as Believers.

Lew: We worship YHWH by our obedience every day. Gathering on Shabbat (or after Shabbat, as we see done at Acts 20:7-12) is encouraged if possible in Fossilized Customs. But, we must study to see if it is required to assemble or not. Reading Exodus/Shemoth 16:29,30, we know we must not leave our "vicinity" on a Shabbat. Wherever 2 or more are gathered in Yahushua's Name, He is present. In the Sabbath assemblies 2000 years ago, a large amount of the attendees were Gentiles, so they could learn Torah. This has changed radically — there are no Gentiles attending synagogues, nor are the Christians reading the Torah in their assemblies. We are attending synagogues, nor are the Christians Gentiles, so they could learn Torah. This has changed radically — there are no Gentiles attending synagogues, nor are the Christians reading the Torah in their assemblies. We are told to "observe" the Sabbath "in all your dwellings" (Lev. 23:3). This observance is primarily focused on resting, not "work". Sabbath was made for man's rest.

We are commanded to assemble 3 times in a year (males over 20). On a typical weekly Shabbat, those who study may do so in their homes today with their families, where the basic focus or center of our life and walk begins. The family dwelling is the center, and the family structure is the model for teaching our offspring. We do not live to assemble; but we are to live to teach our children the Torah of YHWH; it's no one else's responsibility. When we assemble as adults, it is for edification, and each one is to have a turn at teaching, prophesying, interpreting, revelations, singing, according to their gifts (1 Cor. 14:26). If we never gather together, the Voice of Yahushua cannot speak to the Body -- the Spirit of prophecy is the testimony of Yahushua. He is in us, and teaches us through another -- even the least of us. If we come together and only one speaks, then we have "gagged" Yahushua. Perhaps our brother misunderstood what I meant in the book; we are not "obliged" or commanded to assemble each and every Shabbat (as Catholicism has taught for centuries about their Sunday worship services called the mass). If we choose to, we can sleep all day on Shabbat, and no wrong is done. Leaders who insist otherwise may have an agenda to push -- and their congregation should investigate what that may be. If a leader takes up a collection of money on the Sabbath, then they need to find where this behavior is seen in Scripture -- we should not be carrying money around at all on a Shabbat; even the beggars have to take this day off. What does this text mean: 'Six days work is done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, a set-apart miqra. You do no work, it is a Sabbath to YHWH in all your dwellings.' Please look up the Hebrew meaning of MIQRA, as it pertains to its root, QARA.

congregational leader: 5. He believes in the "Two House / Covenant" theory, whereas, all Gentiles Believers are descended from the lost 10 tribes of Israel. This is the "Ephraimite Error."

Lew: My error comes from Scriptural references which clearly contrast the terms "house of Israel" and "house of Yahudah", a division which developed after Dawid's conflict with Abshalom. The Yahudim are indeed among the Elect of YHWH, but there are "other sheep who are not of this fold". Please don't put me into a box by thinking I believe that England and America are the primary remnants of the 10 lost tribes. Amos 9:9 tells us "For look, I am commanding, and I shall gather the house of Israel among the Gentiles, as one sifts with a sieve, yet not a grain falls to the ground." Ya'aqob 1:1 is addressed "to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion, Greetings!" YirmeYahu 31 speaks of this "Ephraimite Error": "For there shall be a day when the watchmen (Natsarim) cry on mount Ephraim, 'Arise, and let us go to Tsiyon, to YHWH our Elohim.'

The "House of Yahudah" (southern kingdom), and the "House of Israel" (northern 10 tribes), are called "two sticks", and even "sisters". We need to understand the end-time prophecies of the "two sticks" being made into one again, declared at Ezekiel 37, but if a person chooses to think these are Jews being re-gathered to Jews, then they are missing out on the understanding of the secret of Elohim which is being revealed just prior to the sounding of the 7th messenger (Rev. 10:7, Eph. 3:6). No harm done, but is this really an issue over which we have to become adversarial with one another? Shaul warned us to shun foolish controversies and genealogies - see 1 Tim. 1:4, and Titus 3:9. Something tells me this is not "foolish" at all, but prophetic fulfillment. But, I like knowing that the 12 gates into the New Yerushalayim will be named for each of the 12 tribes, because Yahushua is finding each one of us -- and others also who are engrafting. The 12 tribes (Israel) are the priests to the nations.

congregational leader: 6. He believes God has divorced Israel (p. 59) for her idolatry. Physical Israel no longer has a covenant with God unless they accept the New Covenant.

Lew: Odd that you would bring this up! If you turn to YirmeYahu 3, you will read about the treachery which the northern "house" (Israel) did after Dawid and Abshalom’s conflict caused the division of the north and south. YHWH even says that the house of Yahudah did not return to Him from her backsliding even after witnessing what He had brought on the north (Israel was carried away!). He pleads with the house of Yahudah, telling her that her sister (Israel of the north) would not return to Him, “But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Yahudah saw it. And I saw that for all the causes for which backsliding Yisrael had committed adultery (idolatry), I had put her away and given her a certificate of DI-VORCE; yet her treacherous sister Yahudah did not fear; but went and committed whor- ing too.” YimeYahu 3:7,8.

congregational leader: 7. His use of “Paleo Hebrew” is outlandish and ridiculous, as there are many uncertainties about original character mooshing and pronunciation. He believes that using “Paleo Hebrew” for God and Yeshua is the “only” correct way of representing them. He says the use of God is pagan and the use of Jesus/Yeshua is incorrect.

Lew: YHWH Elohim used palaeo-Hebrew to write the Torah in the stone tablets, so I stand on my choice of characters with Him. In fact, most of the prophets wrote in the archaic, primary Hebrew; it was only during the Babyloni- nian Captivity that the Yahudim took the “Babylonian Hebrew” characters on -- Bel-shatstsar needed Daniel to read this “outlandish and ridiculous” script, because the Babylonians knew nothing of it. Mosheh, Abra- ham, Enoch, Dawid, Shlomoh -- these men could not read modern Hebrew; they used that “outlandish and ridiculous” palaeo-Hebrew script. The Great Scroll of Isaiah (YeshaYahu) is a copy of the original, and it is on display in the Shrine of the Book Museum in Yerushali- yim -- the Name is preserved in its original “outlandish and ridiculous” palaeo-Hebrew script, while the rest of the text is in modern Hebrew. The original is the Qodesh script, and must never be referred to in a profane or disre- spectful manner. The letters (22) of both scripts have the same meanings and sounds (with some exceptions). The words mean the same things too. Alef is “ox”, Beth is “house”, and so on. Being a “living language”, changes have occurred in the Hebrew tongue. But the script we call the palaeo-Hebrew was taught to Enoch by a messenger of YHWH (Book of Jubilees, source info). I have no axe to grind with the Aramaic whatsoever, but if we have to choose between them, I vote for the way my Father writes. We are babbling today, no doubt. Change is a form of corruption too. I can read both forms, both modern Babylonian/Aramaic as well as palaeo-Hebrew. I encourage everyone to draw closer to the original script, and for this I take a little heat once in a while.

congregational leader: 8. His use of “Yahushua” is completely incorrect for representing Messiah.

Lew: Y’shua is fine with me, since it was written on Ya’aqob’s ossuary in this way. But, it should not be dangerous to know that Y’shua is short for something, just as “Larry” is short for Lawrence. Yahshua is another fine rendering. Yeshua might be alright, as long as it isn’t attempting to modify the vowel for the sound of the Name, YAH. We mustn’t argue over words, but grow in understanding why we are using them. If a person wants to dig into it a little, the Greek texts at Acts 7 and Hebrews 4 will reveal the fact that “Joshua” and “Jesus” have the same underlying Greek letters, and so scholars have deduced that the two men actually have identical spellings in Hebrew. Greek is an inter- mediate language, and we know our Rabbi did not have a Greek name, nor did He ever hear “Jesus” on His eardrums. “Joshua” is spelled yod-hay-waw-shin-ayin. If you notice the spell- ing of “Yahudah”, the first three letters also match this Name as well as the first three let- ters in YHWH, yod-hay-waw-hay. If the proper way to say yod-hay-waw-shin-ayin is not Ya- hushua, then I’m all ears to learn a better way.

congregational leader: 9. His use of Ha-Shatan is an incorrect use of the Hebrew lan- guage.

Lew: Shatan is word #7853, spelled shin-tet- nyn, and means adversary or opponent. The prefix “ha” is simply an article equivalent to our word, “the”. Is this something to gain our hackles up over? Used as a pronoun, it is some- times mistaken to be the same thing as a name; but in these cases it is merely a designa- tion for a being who has, in fact, had his original name blotted out. The name this being had prior to its rebellion is easily researched; it is Azazel, meaning power of Elohim. Like us, this being has to go through time, so he doesn’t exist in all time like YHWH does. If the word was spelled shin-tau-nyn, it would mean “to urinate”. They sound the same -- so that may be poetic justice. Now we’re having fun!

congregational leader: 10. Throughout his book he has nothing good to say about anyone or anything, as he believes he is the only one who has the correct understanding.

Lew: I didn’t realize that the book was not only depressing, but also taken to a deep desire to conceal as well. Please accept my apology if it was taken that way. But, I recall stating that...
SERPENT WISDOM

I merely gathered facts from many sources, and put them together -- not to judge people, but rather customs which had unsavory origins. Sure, most of the investigation is a major bummer, but trashing nonsense and doctrines against the Truth are difficult to present with a gleeful outcome. The wonderful news is, lots of people can investigate on their own to find out if what I've uncovered is true or not. Then they can gain the understanding and see how it feels to have eaten the "red pill" (analogy to Matrix). “With much wisdom comes much sorrow; and knowledge of the holy, the more grief.” Eccl. 1:18. I will pray for you, brother, to be granted wisdom in greater measure, and I hold no bitterness against you for your position. In the future, you will find that using Scripture to correct and rebuke error will work much better than personal feelings and popular opinions (just a friendly tip). “Preach the Word . . .” 2 Tim. 4:2.

congregational leader: 11. The entire book is incoherent and rambles endlessly back and forth between subjects and concepts. The book has no set order, theme, or consistent message.

Rev.: The tapestry I chose to unravel is connected to many disciplines of knowledge, and what you said about the “rambling” back and forth is quite true -- but it is also true of the writings of brother Shaul. Reading FC is not for entertainment. Many who have read it tell me they begin to see more and more with their 2nd and 3rd reading. If it doesn’t make sense to you, then read it again, and again, until the consistent message appears to you. Below, our brother rightly describes the contents of FC, calling them “abhorrent”. I could not agree more. The deceptions that have been perpetrated upon all mankind are described more concisely by the messenger’s words recorded by brother Yohanan:

“Babel the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit, and a haunt for every unclean and hated bird, because all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her whoring, and the sovereigns of the earth have committed whoring with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the power of her riotous living.” Rev. 18:2,3. If my worst sin is writing the book Fossilized Customs, exposing the deceptions and showing the Truth, then I am indeed relieved. The trouble is, I think I’m guilty of much worse -- I was doomed at one time without knowledge of Yahushua, and His love for me, and all His chosen ones.

As I reflect back to when I could not understand Scripture, I could have been guilty of having the same opinion of it, as you said of FC: “The entire book is incoherent and rambles endlessly back and forth between subjects and concepts. The book has no set order, theme, or consistent message”.

congregational leader: Rick, as a result of these things, I feel it is inappropriate to be promoting a man with such deviate and un-scriptural ideas. I think it would be in proper order to print a retraction in your next issue and warn people against this man and his book. I have had to deal with this book numerous times, as a number of people have been led astray by it's abhorrent contents.

I've based the following on an article by Robert Bowie Johnson Jr., titled:

Chuwah (Eve), and her Greek counterfeit, Athena

When people get carried away with ideas that there are “bloodlines” of the adversary among our human population, or the “seed of Kain/Cain”, they are getting way off-base with what reality actually is. First of all, the descendants of Kain all died in the Noahic Flood. The “way of Kain” re-surfaced after the Great Flood, but the “way of Kain” is not about genetics, and is rebellious Satanism in various forms. The “way of Kain” has the goal of re-gaining the “serpent wisdom”. In the Greek mythology, Satanism mimicked the Scriptural account of the first man and woman in the garden of Eden.
In the Greek mythology, real people were “deified”, or transformed into mighty-ones. The adversary designed counterfeits for real people, and designed a counterfeit system of teaching, masquerading as righteousness (light). In the Greek mythology, Adam equates with Ze-us, and Adam’s wife, Chuwah, is identified with Ze-us’ wife, Hera. Abel had no off-spring; so Seth became the line of the “good”; and Kain the line of the “bad”, or rebellious. But, in the Greek Satanistic counterfeit mythology, Seth is the “bad guy” (called Ares), and his brother Kain is the “good guy” (called Hephaistos). Ze-us loves Hephaistos, and hates Ares. Ares is the YHWH-believing son! The Greek religion is “Anthropomorphic”, in that actual men are considered to be mighty-ones.

The Wisdom of the Serpent

In the Greek mythology, the real man, Nimrod, is named “Herakles” (Hercules), who desired the “wisdom of the serpent”. The Greek mythology called Eden by the term “Garden of the Hesperides”, in which was a tree with a serpent. The serpent’s wisdom could only be obtained by eating from the fruit of this tree, which were “golden apples”. This is where Christians get the “apple” idea -- really we don’t know exactly what fruit Chuwah and Adam ate (it may have been a fig).

After the Great Flood, the “serpent wisdom” arose again within the Pagan religions around the Earth. The serpent had originally promised Chuwah that she would not die. To make good on this promise, a “new Chuwah” (Hera, the wife of Ze-us) took a new name later on which meant “deathlessness”. The ancient Greek word for death is THANATOS. To put an “A” in front of this word changes it, and makes it mean the opposite. “A-thanatos” means “deathlessness” -- and was shortened to “Athena”. Athena is the counterfeit Chuwah, and Ze-us is the counterfeit Adam. Nimrod is counterfeited in “Hercules”, who sought to find the “golden apples”, in order to eat them and share them with his mother, A-thena, gaining the “serpent wisdom”. This “mystery religion” actually turns the true facts on their head, and other Pagan formats do the same.

YHWH does not hold one person accountable for another’s transgressions. A child is not guilty of the transgressions of the parent. Each person stands or falls on their own before YHWH. No matter how many books are written, or how many websites claim it, there is not an evil bloodline on Earth. This leads to racism, and “ethnic cleansing”. YHWH created the people, no one else. A child is innocent and pure until they become aware of right and wrong. The Torah teaches us love for YHWH and our fellow human, and bloodlines are not involved in this education. All have sinned and fallen short of the esteem of YHWH, but those who put their hope in Yahushua are our brothers and sisters -- even if their mom and dad were Pagans. All judgment is Yahushua’s. All the Pagan models follow a thread of fact, yet they conceal, confuse, and corrupt the original. Mimicking and masquerading, the Pagan religions have mixed things together over time.
referring to one of the 10 lost tribes whom Yahushua was sent to, among these, some are “Natsarim” (like me); and He is finishing that mission through His Natsarim today. The word "watchmen" is from the same root, Natsar, from which we derive the words Natsareth, Gennetsaret, and Natsarim. Technically, we should not use a letter “z” in “Nazarene”, because the letter is a tsadee, or “ts” sound -- and it confuses the word with nazir, which uses a zayin (z).

HOW CAN WE CALL OURSELVES “NATSARIM”? (see Acts 24:5)

Our “physical” (fleshly) origins count for nothing: we become children of YHWH by our decision to obey Him, and this shows not only our love for Him, but also it is evidence to all around us Who we serve, and Whose children we are. If we are immersed into the Name of Yahushua, and pronounce our belief in His resurrection while trusting in His blood atonement, we are Natsarim. Very early, the term “Natsarin” became replaced with the gentile term “Christians”. There is more to learn about this transition, and a matter for another study. “Jesus Christ” is a man-made fabrication; “Yahushua Mashiah” is simply the order the phrase takes, because “Mashiah” is Yahushua’s title, not His “last name”. Mashiah refers to His being anointed, the Sovereign of Israel (all 12 tribes). Shaul and Dawid were also “Mashiah” YHWH’s “anointed”.

THE WORD “NAZIR”

By contrast, the “vow” of the “Nazirite”, is just based on an ancient tradition which became an institution at Num 6:1-21. The root of the word is “nazir”, having distinctly different Hebrew letters: nazir = nun, zayin, yod, resh; natsar = nun, tsadee, resh. The word nazir means “consecrated”, similar to the word “qodesh”. The oath or vow of the Nazirite is for a specific period of time, and can be taken by anyone provided they offer the prescribed offerings at Num. 6:1-21 -- but this is going to be very difficult without the Lewitical priesthood, Temple, Altar, and so on! It would also seem that Nazir (Nazirite) vows can be just annunciated by our lips, hence Yahushua’s strong advice to be careful what we say, or vow! He recommends NOT to do it (for the average person). The person who takes a Nazirite vow is set-apart to YHWH for the period specified. So, the words are completely dissimilar.

I hope this clears up some of the haze at least. Don’t worry, it is quite normal to make this association between the two words, Natsarin and Nazirite. I didn't even open the “Greek” can-of-worms here, it only makes things more confusing. We can become a “Natsarene” because we follow Yahshua, the founder of our sect. Paul was a member of the sect of the Pharisees, but became a Natsarene also – he still considered himself a Pharisee as well. Except for the “adding” (leavening) of the rules of the Pharisees, and their outward showing of hypocritical righteousness, Yahshua was very much in agreement with the general pattern of the Pharisees, apart from their “oral law”.

WHO WERE THE “NAZARENES”?

They were the original Hebrew and Gentile converts who followed Yahshua, and so were called NATSARIM. You’ll find that Shaul (Paul) was called a “ringleader” of the sect of the Natsarin at Acts 24:5. The true religion of the Messiah, His real Name, His mission, and what His followers’ sect was called are facts being re-discovered today by thousands of diligent seekers. Born a Yahudi (Jew), He is of a different tribe than Shaul (Paul), who was a Benjaminite. But, neither of them are Catholic, Baptist, Anabaptist, Amish, or lived as any sort of Christian today. Yahshua is the High Priest of the religion of Abraham, Yitshaq, and Ya’aqob. He obeys the 10 Commandments of the Elohim of Israel, hwhy, and so do those who follow Him. Would He really tell you that the Sabbath was made for man, then change what day is the Sabbath? Is it possible His Name isn’t “Jesus”, and He’s more like a Jewish Rabbi? Scholars know He never heard anyone call Him “Jesus”, it’s just tradition that allows this to continue, and it is the result of several intermediate languages’ corruptions of His true Name.

Why does your translation of Scripture mention the Name “YHWH” in the preface, but substitute the English word “LORD” for it in the text? If the letter “J” is less than 500 years old, why use it in the Name “Jesus”? Isn’t His real Name more like Y’shua, Yeshua, Yahshua, or Yahushua? To call Him “Yeh-soos” or “Yeh-zeus” may not be very good, considering “soos” is Hebrew for “horse”, and of course you know who “zeus” is . . . . this Pagan name was used in many name-endings like Tarsus, Pegassus, Dionysus, Parnassus, etc., to honor Zeus phonetically. The Greek name endings like sus, sous, and seus were employed to give honor to “Zeus”. “Sus” in Latin means “pig”. The Latin Deus and Greek Zeus sounded the same, because D and Z were both joined in a “DZ” sound.

When the “anti-messiah” appears on the scene, don’t you imagine most people will be expecting someone named “Jesus”, because they were programmed this way? Our Creator is now sealing His people with His TRUE NAME in their foreheads. You will discover facts about the beast system, and that there is a correlation between Nimrod, Pharaoh, Cae-sar, Dalai Lama, and the Pope. Is the Pope the “false prophet”? Is Washington D.C. the new “Babylon”? Prove to yourself what name the anti-messiah will come in, so you can identify him when he appears.

Overcome the deception the whole world is in, but remember to stay balanced. YHWH doesn’t wish us to be ignorant, but if we use our knowledge for unloving outcomes and goals, we have failed. We are not to judge people, only Yahshua may do so; judging another’s servant is not a wise thing to do. We are all learning at different rates, growing in wisdom and understanding, but at different places in the race.

THAT’S INTERESTING . . . .

I have several encyclopedic dictionaries, and each has over 1900 pages; there’s not one footnote in them. Can they be trusted? I hope so, but like you reading this book, I’ll be looking at other sources to check up on things. Sometimes people change and move closer to the Truth; other times, they move farther away from it. Check this:

Anabaptist A member of one of the radical movements of the Reformation that insisted that only adult baptism was valid and held that the Christians should not bear arms, use force, or hold government office. Name means “one who is re-baptized”. Greek, ana = again + baptein = to dip.

Mennonite A member of a Protestant Christian sect opposed to baptism, taking oaths, holding public office, or performing military service. German Mennoit, after Menno Simons (1492-1559), religious reformer.

Amish An orthodox US Anabaptist sect that separated from the Mennonites in the late 17th century. German, amisch, after Jacob Amman, 17th century Swiss Mennonite bishop.

OTHER FOUNDATIONS

“I fed you with milk and not with solid food, for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able, for you are still fleshly. For since there is envy, and strife, and divisions among you, are you not fleshly and walking according to man? For when one says, “I am of Sha’ul,” and another “I am of Apollos,” are you not fleshly? What then is Apollos, and what is Sha’ul, but servants through whom you believed, as the Master assigned to each? I planted, Apollos watered, but Elohim was giving growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is any at all, but Elohim who gives the increase. And he who plants and he who waters are one, and each one shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. For we are fellow workers of Elohim, you are the field of Elohim, the building of Elohim.

According to the favor of Elohim which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But each one should look how he builds on it.

For no one is able to lay any other foundation except that which is laid, which is Yahushua Mashiach.

And if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, each one’s work shall be revealed, for the day shall show it up, because it is revealed by fire. And the fire shall prove the work of each one, what sort it is. And if anyone’s work remains, which he has built on, he shall receive a reward.

If anyone’s work is burned, he shall suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved, but so as through fire.” 1 Cor. 3:2-15

Let’s grow up and not put each other into boxes. Denominations are not the work of Yahushua — they bear the fleshly work of men because they take the NOMEN (name) of men, and define divisions within the Body, based on men’s rules. We should not be divided into classifications, but be built upon Yahushua, not the whims of men before us.

Some declare, “We don’t have to obey those laws / teachings, because we’re not Jewish. We’re under the New Covenant, as believers in Messiah, who obeyed the Law for us.” Wow. It sure sounds logical, and seems to be great rationalization. But, can we find a Scripture on it, telling us that because a Gentile believer wasn’t raised correctly, they can ignore things like the Sabbath Day, or that they can eat blood, fat, bats, pigs, skunks, squirrels, rabbits, clams, oysters, turtles, and octopus? Why would a Gentile want to live against the Torah after coming to faith in Yahushua, then claim his birthright as a Gentile who can go on living as if he’s dumber than a box of hammers?

There’s an answer to this question: the lying teachers, masquerading as messengers of righteousness. Always err on the side of Torah when you can, and never promote ignoring YHWH’s teachings. He’s the One Who said they were not difficult; Messiah’s yoke is very light to bear. Try taking on the mark/sign of the eternal Covenant, and rest on the Sabbath Day. Then, come tell me how hard it was to obey.

Leviticus 23 (and Deut. 16) list the Sabbaths of Father YHWH, which certainly those who worship the Elohim of Israel would be interested in. The annual High Sabbaths, or moedim (appointed times), are “shadows” of things to come. They model the redemption of Israel:

THE SEVEN SABBATHS OF THE YEAR: IT’S ABOUT LOVE

Deut. 16, Lev. 23: REDEMPTION is pictured (shadowed) in the seven annual Sabbaths, and collectively they are an “agricultural metaphor”:

The agricultural cycle is used to “shadow” the redemption of YHWH’s BRIDE, which He calls “ISRAEL OF YHWH.” Each of the 7 annual Sabbaths conceal meanings which remain hidden from those who don’t practice them, and even those who do practice them from a “fleshly” approach don’t see the spiritual side of them. They are so important that the elements they portray play a part in whether or not we will enter into the world-to-come! The Mashiach is the Redeemer and active Character in them all.

PASSOVER The year opens with PESACH. We remember the protection and deliverance of all Israel as they were rescued from the “bondage” of sin (Egypt) at this time of year, by the power of our Redeemer/Deliverer, YHWH. The “door” (Yahushua, the Redeemer) is marked in a special way, indicating how our Redeemer/Deliverer covers/atones for us by marking us as protected and selected — and our decision to obey is shown by our being “observant” of this shadow of things to come. He has knocked, and we invite Him inside our dwelling. We provide evidence of our conviction that we need Him as we acknowledge His protection and deliverance from sin — the blood-marks on the lintel and 2 doorposts... signify the wounds He bore for us at this time of year, and He told us to remember Him (and His death) by the emblems of bread and wine as we observe each Passover. It is His death — not merely the observance — that we are to remember by observing Passover, until He comes. The First-born of YHWH died to cover sin, while the former animal sacrifices could only remind the sinner of his sinfulness. CONVICTION OF SIN is our first step. Without the shedding of BLOOD, there is no remission (elimination) of sin.

UNLEAVENED BREAD Next, we prepare our "soil" — our lives are cleared as a farmland for planting, by getting out the stones, boulders, and weeds — clearing our lives of the "sin" by our decision to repent. When we remove the "leavened" bread, we are seeing the "shadow" of the spiritual action taking place. Avoiding leaven for seven days, we are now prepared to receive what is to be sown as we observe each Passover. It is His death (by the emblems of bread and wine) in Him that we are to remember until He comes.

The TORAH at Shabuoth. Mt. Sinai was an event: the marriage between YHWH & ISRAEL. This is the time when we remember the giving of the Ten Commandments, the wife's wedding vows. They are written of the Ten Commandments at Sinai in Midian, but now (in the New Covenant) they are written in the HEARTS and MINDS of YHWH's Bride by the indwelling Spirit of Yahushua. Who circumcises His Commandments into us so we LOVE the Covenant. The same 10 Commands given in stone are now written on our tablets of flesh, fulfilling the "NEW" (or re-newed) Covenant promised at Yerme Yahu 31:31-34, Ezek. 36:26,27; Yerme Yahu 31 is quoted at Heb. Chapters 8 & 10. Our immersion pictures our circumcision, as a Bride washes after her period of uncleanness, when we make our personal COVENANT with Yahushua to obey Him as a Bride obeys a Husband. The first Natsarim received the Spirit of Yahushua at this time — We are His Temple now. The "Ark" of the Covenant was just a box made of gold — but we are so much more than it was. We contain the living Elohim, Maker of Heavens and Earth, and His Personality (the Torah) grows into our being as we practice obeying His Commandments — this is evidence that we are His (1 John 2:3-6). The third step is obedience, and begins with our immersion, accepting the Covenant (10 Commandments), and going to the water as our outward sign of becoming Yahushua's Bride, joining Israel, escaping the spirit of the world (mind of the flesh). Accepting the Covenant by immersion, we become Israel and His wife; we agree to obey our Husband, and He CIRCUMCISES our hearts with the Covenant, allowing us to LOVE the Torah, the Ten Commandments. Sinai happens to us personally, and our immersion is our circumcision by the Spirit of Yahushua in our hearts, the objective being love, evidenced by our obedience.

The SEVENTH MONTH A final warning (Yom Teruah, day of the blowing of a shofar, shadowing the "last trump") comes at the beginning of the seventh moon. On the 10th day of this moon we are JUDGED at Yom Kaphar (the 10th day of the seventh month, called "the Fast" at Acts 27:9). The Judge of all flesh will one day look at each person, and decide whether or not they are of the wheat or the weeds, and separate them as with a winnowing fork. Some day, we will be HARVESTED (the feast of the harvest, called Tabernacles, or SUKKOT). What should you see in your sukkah? We are told to build a temporary dwelling and place branches freshly cut from trees of the brook upon it. This very clearly "shadows" our own bodies, our "tent". The seventy years of our life are pictured by the seven days, and we notice the branches slowly wither and die over the seven days of this feast.

These "shadows" of things-to-come will... be understood better by practicing them. For now, we should observe the “times” appointed for us, and be mindful that it is not in the details of how “perfectly” we perform them, or of being critical of others as they observe them. Rather, we must understand what these “shadows” represent spiritually, and grow in our appreciation and love for YHWH — and love for those He has redeemed. As imperfect as we all are in our various levels of development, we are all very special to Him. We not only are commanded to love one another, but also our enemies. We are the living TEMPLE of YHWH, and living waters (the TORAH) should flow from each of us. Remember to forgive, because no one is perfect except One: Yahushua ha Mashiah L’Natsareh. Those of the synagogue of Satan must leave it and begin to restore what has been lost, and return to their First Love. The Word (Torah, Yahushua) is living and active; it is a double-edged Sword, and able to discern between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and to judge the thoughts and INTENTIONS OF THE HEART.

The Jesuit’s Oath

The Jesuits Oath:

“I, A.B., now in the presence of Almighty God, the blessed Virgin Mary, the blessed Michael the archangel, the blessed St. John Baptist, the holy apostles St. Peter and St. Paul, and the saints and sacred hosts of heaven, and to you my ghostly father, do declare from my heart, without mental reservation, that his holiness Pope Urban is Christ’s vicar general, and is the true and only head of the Catholic or universal church throughout the earth; and that by the virtue of the keys of binding and loosing given to his holiness by my Saviour Jesus Christ, he hath power to depose heretical kings, princes, states, commonwealths, and governments, all being illegal, without his sacred confirmation, and that they may safely be destroyed; therefore, to the utmost of my power I shall and will defend this doctrine, and his holiness’s rights and customs against all usurpers of the heretical (or Protestant) authority whatsoever; especially against the now pretended authority and Church of England, and all adherents, in regard that they and she be usurpal and heretical, opposing the sacred mother Church of Rome. I do renounce and disown any allegiance as due to any heretical king, prince, or state, named Protestants, or obedience to any of their inferior magistrates or officers.

I do further declare, that the doctrine of the Church of England, of the Calvinists, Huguenots, and of other of the name Protestants, to be damnable, and they themselves are damned, and to be damned, that will not forsake the same. I do further declare, that I will help, assist, and advise all, or any of his holiness’s agents in any place, wherever I shall be, in England, Scotland, and Ireland, or in any other territory or kingdom I shall come to; to do my utmost to extirpate the heretical Protestants’ doctrine, and to destroy all their pretended powers, regal or otherwise.

I do further promise and declare, that notwithstanding I am dispensed with to assume any heretical religion for the propagating of the mother church’s interest, to keep secret and private all her agents’ counsels from time to time, as they intrust me, and not to divulge, directly or indirectly, by word, writing, or circumstances whatsoever; but to execute all that shall be proposed, given in charge, or discovered into me, by you my ghostly father, or by any of this sacred convent. All which I, A. B., do swear by the blessed Trinity, and blessed sacrament, which I now am to receive, to perform, and on my part to keep inviolably; And do call all the heavenly and glorious host of heaven to witness these my real intentions to keep this my oath. In testimony hereof, I take this most holy and blessed sacrament of
The Jesuit Extreme Oath of Induction

The Jesuit Extreme Oath of Induction as recorded in the Congressional Record of the U.S.A. (House Bill 1523, Contested election case of Eugene C. Bonniwell, against Thos. S. Butler, Feb. 15, 1913, pp. 3215-3216):

“I ______, now in the presence of Almighty God, the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Blessed Michael the Archangel, the Blessed St. John the Baptist, the Holy Apostles, Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, sacred hosts of Heaven, and to you, my ghostly Father, the Superior General of the Society of Jesus, founded by St. Ignatius Loyola, in the Pontification of Paul the Third, and continued to the present, do by the womb of the virgin, the matrix of God, and the rod of Jesus Christ, declare and swear that his holiness, the Pope, is Christ's Vice-regent, and is the true and only head of the Catholic or Universal Church throughout the earth; and that by the virtue of the keys of binding and loosing, given to his Holiness by my Savior, Jesus Christ, he hath power to depose heretical kings, princes, states, commonwealths and governments, all being illegal without his sacred confirmation, and that they may be safely destroyed.

I do further declare, that I will help and assist and advise all or any of his Holiness' agents in any place wherever I shall be, and do my utmost to extirpate the heretical Protestant or Liberal doctrines and to destroy all their pretended powers, legal or otherwise.

I do further promise and declare, that notwithstanding I am dispensed with to assume any religious heretical, for the propagating of the Mother Church's interest, to keep secret and private all her agents' counsels, from time to time as they may instruct me, and not to divulge directly or indirectly, by word, writing, or circumstances whatever; but to execute all that shall be proposed given in charge or discovered unto me, by you, my ghostly father. ...

I do further promise and declare, that I will have no opinion or will of my own, or any mental reservation whatever, even as a corpse or cadaver but unhesitatingly obey each and every command that I may receive from my superiors in the Militia of the Pope and Jesus Christ.

That I will go to any part of the world, whatsoever, without murmuring and will be submissive in all things whatsoever communicated to me. ... I do further promise and declare, that I will, when opportunity presents, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth, and that I will spare neither sex, age nor condition, and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics; rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants heads against the wall, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race.

That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poison cup, the strangulation cord, the steel of the poniard, or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity or authority of the person or persons whatsoever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do.
by any agent of the Pope or superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith of the Society of Jesus.”

Now think. Do the words of these oaths reveal the love and heart of Yahshua ha Mashiach? In contrast, He told us to love our enemies, and pray for those who persecute us, not “rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants heads against the wall, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race.”

It is obvious that an evil spirit has conspired to usurp control over the whole Earth, by deceiving mankind over many centuries.

“Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things,” Philippians 4:8.

What’s true? The Torah, or Word of YHWH. What’s the lie? That we only have to believe in “J-sus”, and not obey Torah.

The “7 sacraments” are the primary tools used to deceive the nations. There are no sacraments, and therefore no need for the “priesthood” of Catholicism. The ultimate objective of the 4th beast is to rule the Earth from Yerushaliyim. Designs and plans for this are at least 1600 years in the making, if not much longer.

In the photo below, the Jesuit General, or “Black Pope”, stands to the left of Kennedy. The army of the Jesuits have infiltrated every modern government, and slowly bring about the objectives of this modern-day Jezebel, “Mother Church.”
Whose point of view should we consider as we learn the origins of our customs?

This discussion could take place between you and your parents, your brother or sister, or a close friend you love dearly. You tell them what you’ve learned about the origins of Christmas, that it’s really Satan’s “birthday”, because this being was worshipped (obeyed) by diverting obedience away from the true Creator of the Universe. Observing Messiah’s birthday is not a commanded activity, and in no way can our worship be man-made, or originate from a formerly Pagan custom. So, you’ve stopped observing Christmas, Easter, and Sun-Day worship services, but they want to remain a pig-eating Sun-Day worshipper regardless of what Scripture says. They haven’t studied personally, and they think you’ve come in contact with some form of “cult”. You might say something like,

“If I understand your viewpoint about Christmas, it’s OK for us to observe this formerly Pagan ritual birthday of the sun idol, because it’s now revised in meaning, and applies itself to the worship of Yahshua, the Mashiach of Israel, and is no longer associated with its origins.”

Researching the origins of birthdays, they come from Babylonian Astrology, not the guidelines of Scripture. (Research the word horoscope, and find that it means hour watcher. This was one of the duties of the Chaldean priests of Babylon. They watched the skies at the hour of a birth). The person led by “tradition” is in the majority, and believes by simply re-naming Saturnalia “Christ’s Mass”, and reinterpreting the symbolic ideas surrounding this solstice festival, we can consider the Paganism purged and rejected, and the formerly Pagan-founded ritual is applied to the observance of the birth of Mashiach, which cleanses the idolatry completely. Amazingly, it was just that simple to do this for every detail of Paganism — this is why Scripture refers to this kind of devious, scheming, misleading behavior as: “masquerading”, inheriting lies, strong delusion, washing a pig, returning to vomit, etc.,.

Father YHWH has a point of view concerning all the celebrations his children observe - do we take His feelings into consideration when we decide to follow men’s traditions? If we only take the viewpoint of human tradition, and never question what we have inherited through human designs, we will never see things of the world from the viewpoint of YHWH. Concerning the lies and falsehood we have inherited, Jer. 16:19 tells us:

“In the day of distress the Gentiles shall come to You from the ends of the Earth and say, ‘Our fathers have inherited only falsehood, futility, and there is no value in them.’”

The verses continue, and tell us that the folks that realize Who He really is, by His hand and might, they shall know that His NAME is YHWH. Not knowing the personal Name of the Creator, people today worship what they know not what, with great enthusiasm, fervor, and zeal; and are in great ignorance as they do so. The prophet quoted above is telling us that the things the Gentiles have inherited (customs) are “only falsehood, futility, and there is no value in them.” Surely this would not be speaking of technology, but rather the Pagan framework of world-wide celebrations held to be most dear to everyone, but abhorrent to Father YHWH.

Most importantly, I would like to point out that we can interpret history differently, but Scripture is what we must use to correct, rebuke, and train. If we find a letter written in the 9th century by a mere man... souls of men are saved through doing so, then we can all return to our “Mother”, the Roman Catholic Curia and Pope rulership. The end would justify the means. The Roman—Eastern Orthodox schism can be healed again, and all the protestants can once again be re-united with the teachings and authority of Rome.

It is important to emphasize that I am not judging people, but the doctrines of demons which have replaced our Scriptural guidelines. As sheep, we can be deceived very easily without the leadership of our Shepherd. We need to ignore the voices calling to us, and listen only to His Voice. As Sheep, all we require to be deceived is to hear a good excuse, rationalization. If we are living in the mind of the flesh, our hearts are open to following after whatever the world wants to shovel, because we may be living with a mind set on the flesh, not the Spirit. We are the servants of the one whom we obey (Rom. 6:16); if we have been deceived by human traditions, and not searched-out the origins of what we do, and why we do them, we are like blind men. We must test all things. We are doubly deceived if we encounter the Truth, and reject a love for it when we hear it, because then YHWH sends forth the strong delusion that we believe the lie (2 Thess. 2:5-12).

If Christmas, Sunday, and Easter are not delusions, but rather are found in Scripture, then bring the evidence forth. Worshipping what we do not know can be zealous and sincere, but sincerely wrong and riddled with error. The deceived people don’t know they are deceived, or they would not continue in error. Adopting Pagan methods to worship YHWH is another golden calf (apis). Propping up a device or behavior rooted in a Pagan origin and diverted to the worship of YHWH is an abomination — but only in His eyes, not ours (if we can’t see it from His point-of-view). Even adding to His Word and performing something He never asked us to do who wrote about someone like “Nicholas” who lived hundreds of years before and thousands of miles away, how does that relate to our obedience to YHWH? The Catholics teach that Nicholas was a “saint”, died on December 6th, and was an “elder” (bishop). Yet, the same traditions tell us this lad died at the ripe old age of 17. Who cares if its all true, or entirely false? It is not related to anything remotely pertinent to our faith, or spiritual work while in our flesh. Revelation tells us that the dragon has deceived the whole world — how? Eph. 5:11-13 clearly explains how we are to “expose” the darkness; Jer. 10:2-5 shows the use of the tree in worship (it was a Pagan altar); Ezek. 8:17 exposes the sunrise services conducted at “Easter”; Deut. 12:30,31 warns us to not learn the ways of the Pagans, nor worship YHWH in those patterns; and 2 Pet. 2:22 clearly warns us to avoid returning to the former Paganism we are delivered from, which Peter likens to a “dog returning to its vomit”. If we clean up a pig (a Pagan festival), it’s still what it is in YHWH’s eyes. Patronizing or condoning traditions which clearly originated in Satanic patterns go against the Spirit we have been given, and the words of life we live by.

Idolatry is likened to adultery/harlotry in YHWH’s eyes, and Gentiles engrafting into Israel are to refrain from idolatry (Acts 15). What I would hope to see accomplished by this debate is that YHWH be True, even if all of us turn out to be liars, or deceived in our thinking. We all have to learn, then teach the Torah of YHWH. YHWH’s children speak His Words. I am not offended if you believe Constantine had nothing to do with changing the Sabbath to Sunday, but I am convinced he did. That is simply a difference of opinion of what is fact. If possible, try to defend Christmas, Sunday, Easter, Holy Water, steeples, bells, wreaths, or the tree using Scripture - and you will be correcting with the highest of all authorities. If there are Scriptures which condone the adoption of formerly Pagan rituals as long as their purpose is revised, and in the end...
YHWH removed His Name from the lips of people because they were headed "back to Egypt" by being drawn into Pagan practices. Literally, "making an alliance with Pharaoh" by adopting a Pagan element is the same as Satanism, so YHWH would obviously remove His Name from those lips. As we draw closer to Him, YHWH reveals Himself in ever-increasing measure. He has revealed Himself to us through His Son, Yahushua ha'Mashiach of Natsarith.

We all stumble in many matters; but we serve the same Mashiach. Our need to rush to point out perceived errors must be tempered with sincere love for one another, not motivated by selfish ambition. We have to accept correction with humility, but this correction needs to come from "the Word", as we are told at 2 Tim 4. Arguing over how we are to conduct ourselves with human reasoning is probably a dangerous and pointless endeavor. May we all serve Yahushua in ever-increasing unity of faith, resulting in obedience He finds acceptable. May His will (Torah) be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven.

"The Word" is the Torah of YHWH. Our receiving a love for it, and having it written on our hearts and minds, is the New Covenant - Hebrews 10:16, 2 Cor. 3:3. That explains why we love the Commandments — Yahushua wrote them on our hearts.

Our immersion into His Name is the outward sign that He has circumcised our hearts. (Col. 2:11-13)
Shouted from the rooftops

There are many things kept secret from men. Men also keep many secrets from each other. They even deceive themselves by ignoring what they know to be true. One of the best-kept secrets in the world doesn't involve crashed alien craft at Area 51, or any Top Secret plan of any government. What I am about to reveal to you is not even known by the men "at the top", because as you know, they aren't tuned-in to YHWH's Word in a big way — and that goes for all rulers, whether political, ecclesiastical, or mercantile. The secret is simply this: those who are set up to rule over us are the lowest of men.

Daniel 4:17 does not lie:

"This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the command by the word of the set-apart ones, so that the living know that the Most High is Ruler in the reign of men, and gives it to whomever He wishes, and sets over it the lowest of men."

Consider what this means the next time your conversation turns to the conditions in the world. It's sobering to realize that we have been duped into believing that we elect the men who rule over us. It helps us to understand why the Amish, Anabaptists, and Mennonites have little, if any, participation in political affairs.

We have no king, but YHWH

Strong Delusion:
You could be programmed to believe error!

For many centuries, Christians have "believed" specific things to be facts, yet their belief in some of them is unfounded by Scripture. Reality can be masked, or "misdirected", by the skilled suggestion of magicians, hypnotists, and other deceivers. The "power of suggestion" and the "placebo effect" were both popularized by the research of Dr. Franz Anton Mesmer (1734-1815). Dr. Mesmer studied the power of suggestion; he didn't discover it - it's been around since the Fall of mankind. Hypnosis was developed from his research on psychological suggestion. When people are exposed to errors mixed together with the truth, they can become "mesmerized", moving the line between what is real and what is not real in their belief system based upon opinions - subtly suggested/taught by trusted "teachers" they have made themselves subordinate to. To misdirect is to delude. Certain beliefs are the direct result of the power of suggestion. We can be naturally fascinated by a teacher, and develop the response of aligning our beliefs to his repeated suggestions. The deceived deceivers bring up specific passages of Scripture, then "misdirect" (divert) your thought process to make you think of something other than what the text is actually saying. This is one example of "mesmerization".

"They" want you to notice one thing: the phrase "first day of the week". Then hope you go numb to following the rest of the chapter. Acts 20:7-38 begins by describing a "gathering" of believers (Natsarim) in a home, an upper room, where they listened to Paul (Shaul) until midnight, since Paul was departing the following morning. This was at Troas, where they had arrived after "the days of unleavened bread" (7 days following Passover). Have you been taught about "unleavened bread" or Passover as being a part of your annual activities? Also, Notice "there were many lamps in the upper room". At the start of this gathering in the lamp-filled upper room, Sabbath had just ended, and a few of the Natsarim had come together in this home, and had a bite together (breaking bread). It was after sunset, the resting was over. It was officially the "first day of the week" when Sabbath ended at sunset. There was nothing going on here like a "Mass", or a "communion service". In fact, no one was "worshipping". The believers simply wanted to hear Paul (Shaul) before he left town. Next, they sailed on to Mileitos, and called the ELDERS of Ephesos there, to hear an important matter. This whole section needs to be carefully studied, because WHAT SHAUL TAUGHT them is over-looked because of the distraction to make you think about how it was "the first day of the week", stated earlier in the chapter. Get past that, study this chapter closely, and READ THE WARNING Shaul gave to the elders he had called for. It will shake you to your roots, and probably wake-up many of you from a life-long slumber. You should be able to see the "diversion tactic" that has been used to block many people from seeing what Shaul wanted to warn us of. Another diversion tactic is used at 2 Pet. 3:14-18. They try to make you think about Shaul's letters being "Scriptures", to distract you from what is being said -- it's another warning to us. Our main job is to overcome the errors, so we can be effective in our service and reach the LOST with the Truth, the Word, the Torah of the Maker of Heaven and Earth. Our message to them is "Repent, for the reign of YHWH draws near." Repentance means return to the Torah (Ten Words, the Covenant) -- but it has been turned into a misunderstanding, where "grace" and "being under law" are considered to be in conflict with each other. To partake of the New Covenant (Jer. 31, Heb. 8), we must receive a love for the Torah, allowing Yahushua to circumcise our hearts with a love for it.

"Therefore, go and make taught ones of all the nations, immersing them into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Set-apart Spirit, teaching them to guard all that I have commanded you." Mt. 28:19.
How much of what He had commanded were they to teach "all the nations"?
"... all that I have commanded you."
This is the work we all do, not just the "leaders" of our assemblies. Really, Yahushua is the only "leader" we have, and "pastors" are simply organizers. And we do things in the same way, nor is all pastoring the same. There are a variety of functions and members in Yahushua's Body, His living Temple. Our ministry (work) is different from most others, but no more or less vital to the health of the overall Body.
The answer is in Genesis, or what is called "Bereshith" in the original Hebrew; that we are to rest from all our work as YHWH did on the seventh day of every week. It's given again as a directive in the book of Exodus, the 4th of the Ten Commandments. The Sabbath is spoken of 9 times in the book of Acts. It is called "a sign" (oth) between YHWH and Israel, the only sign of the everlasting Covenant (Ex. 31:13-17, Ez. 20:12-20, directly referred to at Heb. 4). At Hebrews 4, we are told specifically that the "rest" involves the 7th day of the week, and that for the "people of Elohim" there remains a Sabbath-keeping. How could they get around that? Simple; by misdirecting the meaning, and deluding the listeners. They have even "suggested" picking a day out of every 7 to rest -- but when you pick the correct one, you're "illegalistic". Well, that's better than being "illegalistic" I'd say.
If the Covenant is everlasting, its sign is also: the weekly Sabbath. Our Messiah, Rabbi Yahushua, made the heavens and the Earth, and called them as witnesses to this Covenant, and as long as they endure, the Ten Commandments will stand, not just 9 of them. Not one letter can be altered. The Sabbath He kept is not the one Christianity recognizes, simply because Christianity is a religion ABOUT Him, and is not the same religion He teaches and adheres to Himself. Constantine changed the day of rest to his "SUN-day". Setting aside the Commandments of YHWH in order to adhere to human traditions is very dangerous, as is worship in a way that is humanly invented. You must think outside of the box to get past some strong deceptions.
Many deceptive ideas and customs have been "hidden" in plain sight, openly practiced for all to see. Yet all the while those who promote these ideas have to constantly provide an explanation for them, like a "booster shot"; to keep the masses under their "vaccination" against the real truth. Being under the spell of their excuses makes the listener "drunk", and numb to the truth when it does come along. The fact is, those who are "deluded" don't know they are. If they knew, they would not allow the delusion to continue. The truth comes with a price tag: giving up the comfort of feeling secure in one's beliefs about reality at any cost in order to attain the truth. It means we have to be prepared to "wake up" and become aware of our previous and/or existing delusions. The movie Matrix comes to mind immediately, since it portrays these circumstances clearly. Some of us are completely "awake", but walking around in a world with the majority of people "dreaming" a reality that's not really there at all. We want to share the truth with you, but you don't even realize that you're "dreaming" or living in a constructed matrix someone designed for you to remain deluded in.
2 Thess 2:7-12 is critical to understand that there is delusion, the working of error:
"For the mystery of lawlessness (the secret of "Torahlessness", living without law) is already at work; only he who now restrains (controls) will do so until he is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Master will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this reason (Elohim) will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.”

The word “delusion” used here is translated from the Greek word, PLANOS, #4106 — and means a wrong opinion, errors in morals, a leading astray, a working of error.

How can we tell if we are under a spell or hypnotic trance? Is it possible to test for such a condition in ourselves? The only sure test to find out if we are deluded is to do a personal topical study of Scripture, and compare what we learn from this study with our “reality” as we have perceived it to be. We must be careful to let Scripture speak alone, without our bringing any former beliefs to the study we are undertaking. This will be very sobering to everyone who takes time to test themselves in this way.

If you are like 99% of sincere Christians, you honestly believe that “Sun-Day” is the “Christian Sabbath”. At the same time, you may have been told that “Jewish” believers in the same Messiah may observe the usual “7th day” of the week Sabbath, because they were “BORN” as Jewish-folk. So, we immediately have re-built a dividing wall that had been removed by Messiah’s death and resurrection (Eph. 2:14). Instead of ONE body, we have TWO bodies of Messiah, based on the distinction of being BORN as a Jewish person, or as a Gentile person. This surely cannot be — it turns out to only be one of many “human traditions”, brought about by working of error (a delusion!)

As you slowly read the book of Acts, you will discover the truth of the matter - never has the 4th Commandment (the Sabbath) been “changed” by any doctrine originating in Scripture. The first chapter of Acts will reveal this to you. A delusion (working of error) has hypnotically entranced most of the world in a deception practiced openly. Oh, but there’s much, much more to be revealed. Are you prepared to fully awaken? The next level will cause you great pain, yet you will be so grateful for reaching it. You will meet with your pastor after you awaken, and he will show you a side of himself you never knew to exist.

He will seem to be “asleep” to you. Topics that you should personally study to test yourself for being deluded:

The Sabbath - has anyone changed which day is the Sabbath mentioned in the 10 Commandments? Sure they have - it was imposed by Roman emperor Constantine I. But can the change be found in Scripture? Well, yes; but it’s a bad thing -- read Daniel 7:25. It may be that this is the “mark of the beast” (Rev. 13) since “buying and selling” is NOT allowed to be done on the Sabbath Day. Those having the beast’s mark (Sun-Day?) are allowed to buy and sell, but those having YHWH’s mark (the Sabbath) are not permitted to buy and sell -- but this is self imposed on these obedient folks, only pertaining to the day of rest. Scripture refers to those who disobey the Covenant (Torah) as dogs and beasts. The Commandments -- and those obedient to them out of love -- reveal who is of YHWH and who is a servant of the deceiver of this world. (And this article is about delusion, deception, and error).

The Personal Name of our Creator - has it been intentionally concealed and removed from the common translations, according to their own admission in the preface? Have you ever looked up the word “GOD” in a good encyclopedia to learn the origins of the word?

Messiah’s real Name - Is there only one (Acts 4:12), and is it Yahushua or Jesus?

The re-newed, or “New Covenant” - What is it? Can we find it in the Scriptures? (see Jer. 31, Ez. 36, Hab. 8). Bible - is this word found in the Scriptures, or ever used by Scripture to refer to itself? Or, is it a Pagan deity’s name? (investigate Biblia, Biblos).

To wet your appetite for more, here’s a glimpse at some TRUTH:

This is what the Encyclopedia Americana (1945 Edition) says under the topic “GOD”:

“GOD (god): Common Teutonic word for personal object of religious worship, formerly applicable to super-human beings of heathen myth; on conversion of Teutonic races to Christianity, term was applied to Supreme Being.”

Rabbi Yahushua haMashiach informed us that the Scriptures bear witness of Him (Jn. 5:39). He also told us He is the Master of the Sabbath (Mk. 2:28), and to pray that our flight not be in winter or on a Sabbath (Mt. 24:20 - an END TIME warning). It is the sign of the everlasting Covenant (Ex. 31, Ez. 20), yet following human misdirection, we are easily deluded to believe it has been changed to Sun-Day. Human reasoning hypnotically explains our reality for us, while Scripture is completely silent about any change in Sabbath observance. Paul (or Shaul), the same fellow that most people quote to explain how they don't have to obey the Covenant (Torah), told us to “TEST” ourselves to see if we are in the true faith (2Cor. 13:5). I would ask no more of any of you. If YHWH is going to severely punish the nations that fail to observe the feast of Booths (Sukkoth) during the Millennial Reign (Zech. 14), how much will He punish those who completely ignore ALL His Sabbaths? Another question to ask yourself is, would He punish anyone who stepped out of the line of “lemmings” and actually obeyed Him by resting on the 7th day of every week?

Only the other lemmings will likely get upset over it.

When sent to “basic training”, young men are re-programmed to suppress their moral character, and to obey orders to KILL on demand. This “brain-washing” doesn't work on each individual, however the goal is to have enough affected that the objective is still achieved. When the principles of psychological suggestion are applied to religious control, the same effect is achieved -- repeated suggestions to suppress moral character (the conscience that warns us of being out-of-bounds) will brain-wash most of those exposed to it.

This article needs to be read by every seminary student, teacher, theologian, truck driver, architect, electrician, accountant, salesperson, - - - every person alive. People's thoughts have been programmed to ignore YHWH's Torah through mind-control techniques. Please do all you can to get it circulated so the Truth can set them free.

There has also been a long-term conscious effort in the fields of education and media to “steer” our culture toward Humanism. The “New World Order” ultimately seeks to eliminate all religion, the family, and private property. They promote atheism, socialism, and evolution. When lies are repeated over and over, they are eventually accepted as truth.

Do all you can to counter the lies with the Truth.

The Torah & Shaul:

Paul believed in keeping the Law of איהו:

Acts 24:14:
“But this I confess to you, that according to the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the Elohim of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and in the Prophets.”

Acts 25:8:
“While he answered for himself, ‘Neither against the Law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended in anything at all.’

Acts 18:21:
“but took leave of them, saying, ‘I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem; but I will return again to you, Yahweh willing.’ And he sailed from Ephesus.”

Romans 7:25:
“I thank איהו—through Yahushua the Messiah our Master! So then, with the mind I myself serve the Law of איהו, but with the flesh the Law of sin.”

Should we proclaim the Name?

YIRMEYAHU 20:9:
“Whenever I said, ‘Let me not mention Him, nor speak in His Name again,’ it was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones. And I became weary of holding it back, and was helpless.”

Ps. 118:
“Blessed is He Who comes in the Name of איהו.”

MIND EXPANDING, eh?

Try to think of the way you live and Who you serve as more of a “government” than a “religion” - it will put a better perspective on things. There’s authority, jurisdiction, behavior policy/process, and a governed Body. At some point, a judgment will fall on each person who rejects being ruled by Yahushua. May you escape the boxes built by men, freed by the Truth - the Covenant between the Creator of all things and human kind. The Covenant is the Truth; it’s the Word of איהו.
The Beast
& The Anti-Messiah

Scripture gives us 4 beasts to track. The first beast (Babylon, kingdom of Nimrod) gives “life” to the other beasts which follow. The “beast” (animals, dogs) is the entire Pagan system in rebellion against the Torah, the Covenant of Love between YHWH and Israel.

There are 3 ways to get involved with the beast:
1. Receiving the NUMBER
2. Receiving the NAME
3. Giving homage to the IMAGE

The “NUMBER” may indicate the way we are programmed to measure TIME. The word “measure” in Hebrew is MENE, and is equivalent to “number”. So, the calendar may relate to this “numbering” in some way. The first beast is Nimrod’s kingdom, Babylon, as we learn from the book of Daniel.

The image in the dream which he interpreted for Nebuchadnezzar put Babylon in the position of “head” (Hebrew, ROSH, RESH). The Hebrew word ROSH means head, but also means beginning, as we see in the first word of Scripture, BA-RESH-ITH (“In the beginnings . . .”). This head, the first beast, actually received a “fatal wound” because Noach’s son SHEM (Name) slew Nimrod (Rev. 13:12-14). This is perhaps a type or partial fulfillment of the prophecy given to the serpent in the garden, setting the precedent for the final outcome of all rebels against the Covenant (“Nimrod” means rebel). Perhaps this is a lesson to not rebel against the Name & the Covenant!

The adversary has deceived, and is deceiving, the whole world. This being has programmed every facet of religious practice into everyone’s lives, based on the pattern of worshipping Nimrod, his wife, and child. This has carried itself through cultures and other “beasts” which are men’s kingdoms which ignore YHWH’s existence and Covenant. This is why in so many places now, and throughout history, the land which people attempt to inhabit literally vomits them out. YHWH’s Covenant is the only workable foundation for civilization to prosper. Compare the African continent with North America. Even if you ignore the famines, droughts, and wars, the mosquito-borne pestilences kill millions each year. AIDS is cutting down lives like a blender on its highest setting. But, as we see Humanism growing in North America (the secularists’ religion promoting evolution, socialism, and the destruction of the family), chaos and tyrannical government are bringing us closer toward the brink of our land vomiting us out of it also.

Judges making it illegal to post the Covenant of YHWH, allowing men to enter into marriage with other men, and tinkering with YHWH’s genetic material (like putting human genes in tomatoes, or pig DNA into human embryos) may bring swift judgment on us. Last year (2004) over 700 deaths occurred in the USA from mosquito-borne encephalitis, and thousands who survived have had their lives radically changed forever. This is very new for this continent.

The pinnacle of power in men’s kingdoms (behind which has always been ha shatan) has passed through the Sargon rulers, Persia’s Shahs, the Pharaohs, Caesars/Khazars/Czars, Popes, and numerous tyrants of the recent past. The framework this beast system uses to impose itself on the world is the common calendar with its “measurements” inherited from the Pagan Romans. If this is taken away, the whole beast system falls in one day. Daniel’s vision, given to him by YHWH, illustrates the 4 beasts. The 4th one is obviously Rome, which will remain until the time of the end.

We are watching the fulfillment of the parable of the Prodigal Son occurring right now. The older son represents the house of Yahudah, now called “Jews”; and the younger son represents all those who left the Covenant many generations ago and became “LOST” due to assimilation into the Gentiles (mostly the house of Israel). The lost tribes are all over the Earth; but this lost “son” comes to his senses and realizes (remembers) who he really is. If you look at Ezek. 37, Jer. 3, Jer. 31, Acts 15, and Eph. 3, you will see that there are 2 “houses” of Israel. These represent the 2 sons in the parable. One remained with the Father, held to the Covenant, and no longer remembers his younger brother. The lost brother has multiplied exceedingly among the Gentiles, but awakens to the fact that he is worshipping (eating) with PIGS (Pagans, unclean dogs who rebel against the Covenant). Reading the parable, you’ll see that the Father has to explain to the older brother who the younger brother is. The lost younger brother “repents” and begins to obey the Father again, making the older brother jealous of the attention given to the younger brother over this. We are witnessing the events sealed in Scripture unfold before our eyes.

Shatan has programmed (molded) the entire world to be waiting for someone named “JESUS”. Christian, Islam, Hindu, and New Age Humanists are all waiting for the coming of this special deliverer. “Maitreya” means “Lord of Love”, and to the Hierarchy/New World Order crowd this “messiah” will be the great teacher they have been waiting for. He is represented as the “laughing Buddha” in Eastern philosophy. Non-Christians and Christians alike will “see what they want to see” when he appears on the world stage. The diverse points of view among mankind will converge on this anti-messiah, and each observer will be blinded by their own bias:

“I wouldn’t have seen it, if I hadn’t believed it.”

Our expectations can overwhelm us. Beliefs have to be tested to make sure they are facts that can be trusted in - like checking the rivets in the steel girders I referred to at the beginning of this little book. But let’s take a closer look at how relevant “believing” is in itself.

Even SATAN is a believer (Ya’aqob/James 2:19); . . . but this rebellious being will not serve and obey!

Our “worship” is really obedience, the doing of what YHWH expects of us. If we neglect doing what He expects of us, but assume our intentions will serve the same results, then we didn’t understand the Fall, the golden calf incident, nor why Qayin’s (Cain’s) offering was not pleasing to YHWH.

Qayin made up his own mind how he was going to worship YHWH, and what would be the offering. How is Christianity any different? All the Sunday assemblies, Christmas trees, and Easter baskets in the world will not be acceptable to YHWH, unless He prescribed them as a form of worshipping Him. So, our simple task is to find out what YHWH expects, then “do well” so that He will accept our worship of Him. Then, we can expect to hear the words, “Well done, good and faithful servant!” (Mt. 25:21). Doing “the Word” is obeying Him, not adding to it, or taking away from it, or adopting the Pagan cultural background as tradition has done.

Now, back to this name, “JESUS” that the world is expecting -

If the True Person - the REAL Messiah of Israel comes in the name “Yahushua”, most of the population of this planet will have a serious conflict to resolve in their “programming”. We’re here to announce Him before He arrives, so that the “wise virgins” will have the oil they need. The unwise will not hear us on this topic. They are unprepared, and will remain so. The false Messiah (anti-messiah) may appear in the programmed name, “JESUS”, and perform what Mt. 24:24 & Rev. 13:14 describe as “signs” — used to deceive even the ELECT (Israel). We will not fall for it, because he has sealed us with His True Name, Yahushua. To be sure, if the anti-messiah came in the Name “Yahushua”, hardly any of the world would follow after him. So, it’s obvious which name the anti-messiah will likely be using.

If we are alive to live through the days of this anti-messiah, we will witness him beguiling the world with anti-Torah instructions. Not being wise in the Word (Torah, instructions), most will be deceived by him. We who have entered into the re-newed Covenant will continue to obey the Commandments of YHWH, and hold to the Testimony of Yahushua. This is because He has written (circumcised) a love for His Torah on our hearts. Being observers of Shabbat, we will stand out like a sore thumb; and in fact do already to the world. The NWO beast (revived/restored Rome/UN) may attack and kill many of us. Christian Rome persecuted both unbelievers and believers for a millennium, killing some 83 million over a 600-year period. The Inquisition was very real. We may again be labeled “Judaizers” (a term not found in Scripture).

The trap is set for most to willingly accept this Maitreya “JESUS” anti-messiah. I feel the IMAGE of the beast may possibly be the old Nimrod symbol of the sun, the EAGLE, in caricature. It’s a cross emblem, honored by Pagans from around the world since the dawn of recorded history. This may even be the “star of Rompha” (Acts 7:43). Yet many think the seal of Da’ud (David, the double dalet seal of his name) is the “star” referred to in this text. What does the “star of Bethlehem” look like in many illustrations? A cross! Often, a point of light will “nazz” when you look at it through a screen, and it becomes a crux. The truth is arrived at by simple deduction;

"Once you have eliminated everything that is impossible, whatever is left, no matter how improbable, must be the truth." — Arthur C. Doyle

So, the NAME of this beast, received willingly by the unsuspecting world is likely: JESUS.

The MARK is likely some behavioral trait that is practiced, and is actually a teaching of error “hidden” right out in the open for all to see (and hear):

Sun-day

There is a “mystery of lawlessness”, and we’ve been warned; but it’s necessary to overcome the programming so that the Truth can set us free (from the programming of error). So, the beast “system” is here now, set like a trap, and has been spun like a spider’s web, growing stronger and stronger over the last 1700 years through religious tyranny. The father of lies is behind this conspiracy. Traditions laced with poisonous errors are the norm.
"Be broken, O peoples, and be shattered;
‘Gird yourselves, yet be shattered;
gird yourselves, yet be shattered.
Devise a plan, but it will be thwarted;
state a proposal, but it will not stand, for (Elohim) is with us.’
For thus YHWH spoke to me with mighty power and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,
‘You are not to say, It is a conspiracy! - in regard to all that this people call a conspiracy; and you are not to fear what they fear or be in dread of it.
It is YHWH Shabuoth whom you should regard as qodesh.
And He shall be your fear, And He shall be your dread.
Then He (YHWH Shabuoth) shall become a miqdash (set-apart place);
but to both the houses of Israel, a stone to strike and a rock to stumble over, and a snare and a trap for the inhabitants of Yerushalyim.
Many will stumble over them (both the houses of Israel), then they will fall and be broken;
they will even be snared and caught.
Bind up the testimony, seal the Torah among my disciples.’"

We Natsarim (watchmen), all over the Earth, have been awakened by Yahushua. He is working through our efforts to awaken many more of the sleeping millions to the deceptions before they fall for the imposter that is to come. Yahushua warned us not to sleep, and this “sleep” is trusting in human traditions, interpretations, and expectations instead of YHWH’s Word. Obedience is love, and love is manifested by obedience. The Israelites were trained with the manna for 40 years in order to show them the pattern of the SHABUAT (Hebrew, week), so that they would walk in YHWH’s SHABBAT. He even states that the Sabbath was the “TEST” (Ex. 16:4). The manna was all about the 7th day of every week; and we have the True Manna from Shamayim (Yahushua in us) - and He is still the Master of the Shabbat. He is leading us into the promised land (His kingdom, government) - governed by Him, with His Life, the Torah (Living Water, Living Word), by having received the gift of love for His Commandments, which He has circumcised on our hearts. His discerning wisdom placed within us will not allow us to become joined to the beast.

A man without YHWH’s Torah (instructions) is a brute beast. These ideas summarize how Scripture and the reality around us can be reconciled, and explain how the deception of the world came about. At this moment somewhere in the world, a six-foot statue with rows of candles in front of it has a deceived person KNEELING in front of it. Can you be of any help in rescuing this person from their idolatry? The work is everywhere around each of us - it’s not just the responsibility of our “pastor”. The Spirit of Yahushua in you will prepare and enable you to go and teach, and assist others to enter into His Covenant of Love through immersion into His Name, Yahushua. Men’s “ordinations” mean nothing - you must be ordained by Yahushua or you can do nothing.

The harvest is great. Pray to the Master of the harvest, and He will send workers.
Q: Where did we get the form “JESUS” from? (The true name, Yahushua, means Yah-is our-salvation)
A: The Jesuits (They defend the form using the Greek and Latin, hoping you’ll never discover what you are about to read): The form “YESHUA” is from the acronym “YESHU”, a mutilation of Yahushua’s Name used by unbelieving Yahudim during the late 1st and 2nd century CE. The letters in “YESHU” stood for the sentence, “may his name be blotted out” (from the scroll of life). This “YESHU” acronym is the real root of the form “JESUS”, after going through Greek, then Latin:

YESHU (remember, this is an acronym, meaning “may his name be blotted out”, referring to the scroll of life). Acronyms are abbreviated messages, like “SCUBA” stands for “self contained underwater breathing apparatus”.

YESU IESOU - Going into Greek, the letter “Y” became an IOTA because Greek has no “Y”; also, the sound of “SH” was lost, because Greek has no letters to make this sound. The letter combination “OU” is a diphthong, arising from the Greek attempt to transliterate the sound “OO” as in “woof”. Our letter “U” and the Hebrew letter “WAW” does this easily.

YESOUS IESOU took on an ending “S” to form IESOUS, since the Greek wanted to render the word masculine with the ending “S”.

Going to Latin, the diphthong “OU” became “U”.

JESUS In the early 1530’s, the letter “J” developed, causing a tail on proper names beginning with the letter “i”, and words used at the beginning of sentences. This “J” is really the letter “IOTA”. Many European languages pronounce “J” as the letter “i”, or a “Y” sound. They even spell Yugoslavia this way: “Jugoslavia”.

Now you know. Tell everyone you know, and don’t allow the Jesuits to succeed at this horrifying deception. “Yeh-Zeus” is not our Messiah.
